<hr/> STATE OF COLORADO, ex rel PHILIP J. WEISER, ATTORNEY GENERAL, Plaintiff v. 4AHEALTHIERU, CORP., d/b/a LOVELAND MEDICAL CLINIC, IV HYDRATION SOLUTION, AND IV THERAPY PROS, a Colorado corporation, and SIEGFRIED EMME, an individual. Defendants
FINAL CONSENT JUDGMENT

This matter is before the Court on the Parties’ Stipulation for Entry of a Final Consent Judgment. The Court has reviewed the Stipulation and the Complaint filed in this action (“Complaint”) and is otherwise advised on the grounds therefore. The Court concludes that good cause has been shown for entering this Final Consent Judgment.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that:

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Release of Claims. The State of Colorado, ex. rel. Philip J. Weiser, Attorney General (hereinafter the “STATE”), acknowledges by its execution hereof that (a) this Final Consent Judgment constitutes a complete settlement and release of all civil claims, causes of action, or proceedings under the Colorado Consumer Protection Act (“CCPA”) or the common law on behalf of the STATE against Defendants 4AHealthierU, Corp., d/b/a Loveland Medical Clinic, IV Hydration Solution, and IV Therapy Pros; and Siegfried Emme (“Released Parties”), including but not limited to claims, causes of action or proceedings seeking restitution, injunctive relief, damages, fines, penalties, attorneys’ fees, or costs, based on conduct, practices, facts or events that occurred prior to the entry of this Final Consent Judgment and were asserted or could have been asserted under the CCPA or the common law in the Complaint, relating to or based upon the acts or practices that are the subject of the Complaint (the “Released Claims”); and (b) the STATE shall not proceed with or institute any civil action or proceeding against the Released Parties based on the Released Claims.

2. Preservation of Certain Law Enforcement Actions. Nothing herein precludes the STATE from enforcing the provisions of this Final Consent Judgment, from pursuing any non-CCPA or non-common law enforcement action, or from pursuing any law enforcement action under the CCPA or the common law with respect to the acts or practices of Defendants not covered or released by this Final Consent Judgment or any acts or practices of Defendants conducted after the entry of this Final Consent Judgment.

3. Compliance with and Application of State Law. Nothing herein relieves Defendants of their duty to comply with applicable laws of the State of Colorado or constitutes authorization by the STATE for Defendants to engage in acts and practices prohibited by such laws. This Final Consent Judgment shall be governed by the laws of the State of Colorado.

4. Non-Approval of Conduct. Nothing herein constitutes approval by the STATE of Defendants' past or future business practices. Defendants shall not make any representation contrary to this paragraph.

5. No Admission. The parties enter into this Final Consent Judgment as a compromise and settlement of all disputed claims. This Final Consent Judgment is entered into without adjudication of any issue of fact or law or finding of liability of any kind, and nothing contained in this Final Consent Judgment shall be construed or deemed an admission by Defendants of any wrongdoing or any violation of state or federal law or regulation.

6. No Creation or Waiver of Private Claims. Unless otherwise noted, nothing herein shall be construed as a waiver of any private rights, causes of action, or remedies of any person against Defendants with respect to the acts and practices covered by this Final Consent Judgment. This Assurance also does not create any private right, cause of action or remedy for any third party with respect to the acts and practices covered herein.

7. No Third-Party Beneficiaries Intended. This Assurance is for the benefit of the parties only and does not create or confer rights or remedies upon any other person, including rights as a third-party beneficiary. This Assurance does not create a private right of action on the part of any person or entity, whether to enforce this Assurance or otherwise, other than the parties hereto and their successors in interest.

8. Use of Settlement as Defense. Defendants acknowledge that it is the STATE's customary position that an agreement restraining certain conduct on the part of a defendant does not prevent the STATE from addressing later conduct that could have been prohibited, but was not, in the earlier agreement, unless the earlier agreement expressly limited the STATE's enforcement options in that manner. Therefore, nothing herein shall be interpreted to prevent the STATE from taking enforcement action to address conduct occurring after the entry of this Final Consent Judgment that the STATE believes to be in violation of the law. The fact that such conduct was not expressly prohibited by the terms of this Final Consent Judgment shall not be a defense to any such enforcement action.

9. Use of Settlement in Business Activity. Under no circumstances shall this Final Consent Judgment or the name of the Attorney General or any of the STATE's employees or representatives be used by Defendants or any of their employees, representatives, or agents as an endorsement of any conduct, past or present, by Defendants.

10. Retention of Jurisdiction. This Court shall retain jurisdiction over this matter for the purpose of enabling any party to this Final Consent Judgment to apply to the Court at any time for any further orders which may be necessary or appropriate for the construction, modification or execution of this Final Consent Judgment, and for the enforcement of compliance herewith and the punishment of violations hereof.

11. Violations of Consent Judgment. The parties understand and agree that a finding of any violation of any term or provision of this Final Consent Judgment may give rise to all contempt remedies available to the Court and all remedies provided under C.R.S. § 6-1-112(1)(b).

12. Execution in Counterparts. This Final Consent Judgment may be executed in counterparts.

13. Severability. If any provision(s) of this Final Consent Judgment is held to be invalid, illegal, unenforceable or in conflict with the law of any jurisdiction, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

14. Successors in Interest. The terms and provisions of this Final Consent Judgment may be enforced by the current Colorado Attorney General and by any of his duly authorized agents or representatives, as well as by any of his successors in interest, and by any of his successors in interest's agents or representatives.

15. Amendment. This Final Consent Judgment may be amended solely by written agreement signed by the STATE and Defendants.

16. Complete Agreement. This Final Consent Judgment represents the entire agreement between the parties hereto and a complete merger of prior negotiations and agreements. No other written or oral terms or agreements exist between the parties except for those contained in this Assurance.

17. Attorneys' Fees and Costs. Except as otherwise provided herein, each party shall bear its own attorneys' fees and costs in connection with this matter.

18. Voluntary Agreement. Defendants acknowledge that they have had an adequate opportunity to review this Final Consent Judgment and consult with legal counsel in connection with the negotiation, drafting, and execution of this Assurance. Each party and signatory to this Final Consent Judgment represents that he, she, or it freely and voluntarily enters into this Final Consent Judgment without any degree of duress or compulsion.

19. Final Consent Judgment Jointly Drafted. For purposes of construing this Final Consent Judgment, this Final Consent Judgment shall be deemed to have been drafted jointly by both parties and, in the event of any dispute arising out of this Final Consent Judgment, shall not be construed against or in favor of any party.

20. Notice. Any notices sent to Defendants pursuant to this Final Consent Judgment shall be sent to Siegfried Emme, 4105 Plum Creek Dr., Loveland, CO 80538 and Nicholas H.
