INTERVIEW POLICIES

Interviews with UCF student-athletes and coaches must be arranged through Jenna VanHoose in the UCF Strategic Communications office.

Please do not attempt to contact players, coaches or other team personnel directly by any means of communication, including personal phone numbers, email addresses and social media accounts.

PRACTICES

UCF women's basketball practices during the regular season are closed.

WEEKLY AVAILABILITY

UCF head coach Sytia Messer and select student-athletes will be available upon request after practice during the week.

POSTGAME AVAILABILITY

Postgame press conferences with UCF head coach Sytia Messer and selected student-athletes will take place in the postgame interview room following each game.

UCF's locker room is closed to the media.

CREDENTIAL POLICY

All basketball credentials are revocable licenses for admission. UCF Athletics reserves the right to refuse, revoke or terminate this license at any time.

UCF Athletics specifically reserves the right to alter, amend, revise or in any way change the terms of the license without advance notice to the holder, and such changes may not be reflected on the credential.

GAME CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Credentials and access at all UCF home basketball games during the 2023-24 season will be granted on a game-by-game basis and will need to be requested 48 hour prior to each game. All requests for women's basketball games can be made by emailing Jenna VanHoose (jvanhoose@athletics.ucf.edu).

Credentials can be revoked at any time if there is evidence of noncompliance before, during or after each game.

GAMEDAY PARKING

Media members covering UCF basketball park in Garage F, located directly north of Addition Financial Arena, between the arena and John Euliano Park. Upon approval of credential requests, a parking pass will be emailed.

GAMEDAY LIVE STATS

Live in-game statistics will be provided for the media at ucf.statbroadcast.com.

TICKET INFORMATION

Tickets for all UCF home games may be purchased through the UCF ticket sales office by calling (407) UCF-1000.

UCF ON THE AIR

Each of the UCF women's basketball home games will air on the ESPN family of networks. All of UCF's non-conference home games, and a majority of the Knights' conference matchups will stream on Big 12 Now on ESPN+.

UCF's ESPN+ broadcast will feature a familiar voice for Knights fans. Now entering his 22nd season, Scott Adams has been a part of the UCF Athletics broadcast family since 2002. Having served as both studio and scoreboard host for UCF football, Adams has also been behind the mic and camera for UCF men's basketball, UCF men's and women's soccer, as well as Knights baseball and softball.

Aside from his UCF broadcasting duties, Adams is also a freelance commercial actor, host, spokesperson and model in the Central Florida Area. A longtime Orlando resident and proud UCF alum, Adams is a regular contributor for "The Beat of Sports" radio show on the flagship station of the Knights FM 96.9 "The Game."

CREDITS

The 2023-24 UCF Women's Basketball Media Guide was designed and edited by UCF Athletics. Editorial assistance was provided by Jenna VanHoose and Justin Wilson. ## BIG 12 CONFERENCE

- The University of Central Florida accepted an invitation to join the Big 12 Conference, as announced by Big 12 commissioner Bob Bowlsby, UCF director of athletics Terry Mohajir, and UCF President Alex Cartwright on Friday, Sept. 10, 2021.
- The Knights athletics program has now moved from Division III, Division II, the FCS level, the FBS level that included time in the Mid Atlantic Conference, Conference USA, the American Athletic Conference, and now to the Big 12 Conference.
- Mohajir: "This is a landmark day for anyone ever associated with UCF or UCF Athletics. As we anticipate a future move to the Big 12 Conference, we first owe a vote of thanks to all those at UCF who have gone before us. There's a long list of student-athletes, coaches, athletics directors, university presidents and support staff, fans and donors and, of course, our student body, plus so many others whose hard work and successes have helped pave the way for today's announcement. The bases were already loaded, and I feel very blessed and honored to get to step up to the plate on behalf of UCF."

UCF,
Not Central Florida

Please refer to the University of Central Florida as UCF in all references. Derivatives such as Central Florida, C. Florida, Cent. Florida and C. Fla., should not be used.

Also, please note that UCF's teams stopped being referred to as the Golden Knights in 2007. Instead, they are simply called the Knights.

SYTIA MESSER

Head Coach
Second Season at UCF

UCF women's basketball coach Sytia (sit-TEE-uh) Messer enters her second season as head coach for the Knights. In her first season at the helm, Messer led UCF to its second-best start, 6-0, since the record 7-0 start during the 1984-85 season.

Messer a 22-year coaching veteran who won a national title and made five other NCAA Elite Eight and 11 overall NCAA Championship appearances as an assistant coach, was named the 13th head women's basketball coach in UCF history on April 3, 2022.

Messer came to UCF after serving as associate head coach at LSU for the 2021-22 season under 2022 Associated Press National Coach of the Year and Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer Kim Mulkey. The Tigers that year finished 26-6 overall and 13-3 in SEC along with ranked ninth in the final AP poll.

As an assistant coach on Mulkey's staff at Baylor from 2013-14 through 2020-21, Messer helped lead the Bears to a combined record of 260-23 (.918) in eight seasons, winning eight Big 12 Conference regular-season championships, six conference tournament titles, an NCAA title in 2019 and making six NCAA Elite Eight appearances.

With Messer's help, Baylor won 32 or more games in each of her first six seasons with the Bears—the last of those a 37-1 record in the 2019 NCAA title campaign. In those six years Baylor finished sixth or higher in the final AP poll every season—including first in 2019 and second in 2018. Messer's eight seasons at Baylor included 23 NCAA Championship victories and at least a tie for the Big 12 regular-season title every year.

During her time at Baylor, Messer oversaw scouting and recruiting, helping the Lady Bears sign the nation's top recruiting class in both 2016 and 2018 as well as the second-ranked class in 2015. She helped recruit 15 top 50 players and 14 McDonald's All-Americans. The Lady Bears had nine players selected in the WNBA Draft during that span, including Odyssey Sims, the second overall pick in 2014, and Alexis Jones, the 12th overall selection in 2017.

In addition, Messer recruited Kalani Brown, a first-round (seventh overall) draft pick of the Los Angeles Sparks in 2019, and Lauren Cox, the nation's top-rated recruit out of Flower Mound High School in Texas and the third overall draft pick by the Indiana Fever in the 2020 WNBA Draft. She also helped develop Didi Richards, the 2020 Naismith Defensive Player of the Year at Baylor, as well as 2022 first-team All-SEC honoree Khayla Pointer at LSU.

In eight years at Baylor, Messer coached Sims (the 2014 Big 12 Player of the Year) and had seven guards named first-team All-Big 12 Conference. She also recruited and signed 2021 Wade Trophy winner and Big 12 Player of the Year NaLyssa Smith. Baylor in Messer's tenure there produced eight selections on one of the three Associated Press All-America teams—including first-team picks Sims (2014), Nina Davis (2014), Cox (2020) and Smith (2021). Smith claimed first-team honors again in 2022.

After joining the Baylor staff in 2013, Messer's teams over the next nine years produced 73 All-Big 12 selections, 20 All-America honorees, five Big 12 Players of the Year, 26 Academic All-Big 12 selections and two All-SEC performers.

A head coach for three seasons at Tennessee Tech from 2009-10 to 2011-12, Messer led the Golden Eagles to the 2011 Ohio Valley Conference regular-season championship, two postseason appearances (WNIT in 2011, WBI in 2012), back-to-back appearances in the OVC tournament title game—and she was named the 2011 OVC Coach of the Year. Her three-year mark of 54-41 (.568) featured a 23-8 record in 2010-11, a three-year 34-18 OVC mark and 30-12 home record.

Messer got her start in coaching as an assistant coach for two years at Arkansas State in 2000-01 and 2001-02. Other coaching stops for Messer include assistant coaching positions at Memphis (2002-03 and 2003-04) and Georgia Tech twice (2004-05 through 2008-09; 2012-13).

In her second season at Memphis, Messer helped the Tigers to a 21-10 mark and a second-round WNIT appearance. She played a key role on Georgia Tech teams that three straight years won at least 21 games and advanced to NCAA Championships in 2007-08-09.

The Waldo, Arkansas, native was a standout women's basketball student-athlete at Arkansas, where she helped the Razorbacks reach the NCAA Final Four for the first time in school history in 1998.

Messer finished her 1995-99 career with the Razorbacks ranked in the school's top 10 for points (1,379) and rebounds (603). She was a two-time captain for Arkansas as a junior and senior and was named to the SEC All-Freshman team in 1996. Messer's top individual season came when she averaged 12.6 points per game in 1997-98.

She was named the 1998 NCAA Championship West Regional MVP after helping Arkansas to a berth in the Final Four—thanks to regional wins over Kansas (led by Messer's 24 points) and Duke. Arkansas, seeded ninth in the NCAA bracket that year, became the first unranked team in the modern era to advance to the Final Four.

Messer also helped Arkansas to the 1999 WNIT championship. She's a member of the Razorbacks Hall of Honor (inducted in 2018) and was part of the 2012 Class of SEC greats.

Messer played in the summer prior to graduation for the collegiate squad of Athletēs in Action. She also played for the post-collegian Athletēs in Action touring team.

She is a 2000 graduate of Arkansas, with a Bachelor of Science degree in kinesiology.

She has been an honorary chair of Habitat for Humanity—and she also was a 2012 graduate of the Center for Coaching Excellence.

MIKE CAREY

Mike Carey, a 34-year collegiate coaching veteran with Big 12 Conference experience, enters his first season with the Knights in 2023-24.

Carey makes the move to Orlando after spending the past 22 years in West Virginia. He joins UCF following a 21-year stint as head women's basketball coach at West Virginia, ending with a record of 447-239 (.652).

As head coach of the Mountaineers, Carey led the team to 11 NCAA Championship appearances, five WNIT appearances, a Big 12 regular-season title (2014) and a Big 12 Tournament Championship (2017).

Throughout his tenure at West Virginia, the three-time conference coach of the year held the highest winning percentage in program history and reached 200 wins the fastest, doing so in his 10th season. For his career, Carey boasts a 735-341 (.683) record in 34 years of coaching.

Along with sending 10 players to the WNBA, Carey has coached 74 all-conference honorees and his teams have been ranked among the top 25, 131 weeks during his tenure. Additionally, his teams have defeated 45 ranked opponents, seven of those ranked in the top 10.

During the 2020-21 season, Carey was named a semifinalist for the Naismith Women's College Coach of the Year and was named a member of the 2021 Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Victory Club.

Prior to West Virginia, Carey served as the head men's basketball coach at Salem College (Div. II) in Salem, West Virginia. Before he took the reins of the program, the Tigers posted an 8-19 mark in the 1987-88 season. The program suffered just one losing campaign during his regime.

In 13 seasons, Carey's Salem teams made seven postseason appearances (two NAIA and five NCAA Division II) and won five West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WVIAC) championships (1993, 1994, 1997, 1998, 1999).

Three times the WVIAC tournament champion, the Tigers were twice participants in the Division II Elite Eight, ranked No. 1 in the country during two seasons and played in the Division II Final Four in 1997. A four-time WVIAC Coach of the Year (1994, 1997-99), Carey twice was named NCAA Division II East Region Coach of the Year (1997, 1999). In his last season before arriving in Morgantown, Carey's Tigers were 26-7, ranked as high as No. 4 nationally and advanced to the NCAA East Region finals. Carey's career record at Salem was 288-102 and his record during the last five years of his tenure was 138-20. He also served as director of athletics at Salem from 1989 to 2000.

Before going to Salem as an assistant coach in 1987, Carey coached for seven years in the West Virginia high school ranks, serving as girls' basketball coach at Flemington and Clarksburg Liberty High Schools. In 1986, he was Harrison County and Big 10 Coach of the Year, as Liberty advanced to the regional finals. As boys' coach in 1987, he led Liberty to conference, county and sectional titles.

Carey was a four-year basketball letterman at Salem, earning WVIAC Freshman of the Year (1977), WVIAC scoring champion (1978) and Salem MVP and WVIAC all-tournament team (1979) honors while scoring more than 2,000 career points. He was a 1993 inductee into the Salem Athletic Hall of Fame. Carey's No. 32 jersey was retired at Liberty High School in Clarksburg, West Virginia, on February 19, 2016.

A native of Clarksburg, West Virginia, Carey is a 1980 Salem graduate with a bachelor's degree in physics.

CHANDLER MCCABE

Chandler McCabe enters her first year as an assistant coach with UCF in the 2023-24 season.

The Orlando native returned home after spending the two previous seasons as the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at George Mason under head coach Vanessa Blair-Lewis, turning around a program that had little recent success prior to the staff's arrival. In 2022-23, McCabe helped lead the program to its first winning season (16-15) in 17 years and first .500 Atlantic 10 Conference record (8-8) in program history. She also assisted George Mason to wins in the Atlantic 10 Conference Tournament in consecutive seasons for the first time at George Mason.

Prior to arriving at George Mason, McCabe spent seven seasons under Blair-Lewis as the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at Bethune-Cookman in Daytona Beach, Florida. Over her last five seasons with the program (2015 to 2020 - all Bethune-Cookman athletics were suspended for the 2020-21 academic year), she helped lead Bethune-Cookman to a 120-65 (.649) overall and 77-19 (.802) Mid-Eastern Atlantic Conference record, including the most single-season (24) and MEAC (15) wins in program history in 2017-18. McCabe also assisted the program to historical success, with four MEAC regular season championships (first in program history) and the 2019-20 MEAC Tournament Championship, which resulted in the first NCAA Championship appearance in program history.

During the 2017-18 campaign, McCabe also gained both national exposure and a unique opportunity to earn her first Division I head coaching experience. For four games, she handled head coaching duties with Blair-Lewis on maternity leave. The Wildcats won three of those four games, including an overtime win at Morgan State and a quarterfinal victory over Maryland-Eastern Shore at the MEAC Tournament.

As an assistant coach at Bethune-Cookman and George Mason, McCabe has recruited and coached 15 all-conference team selections, as well as one player of the year and three defensive players of the year.

In 2018, McCabe was recognized by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association as one of its Thirty Under 30 honorees, a program created to recognize 30 up-and-coming women's basketball coaches age 30 and younger at all levels of the game. Each honoree has exemplified their involvement in community service, mentorship, professional manner and professional association involvement.

McCabe came to Bethune-Cookman after two seasons as a graduate assistant coach at Henderson State, while also earning her master's degree in sports administration in 2014 with a perfect 4.0 grade-point average.

A 2012 graduate of Providence with a bachelor's degree in social work with a minor in business management, McCabe appeared in 110 games for the Friars and served as a team captain in her senior season (2011-12). In 2009-10, she helped lead the program to its first winning season (19-15) and post-season berth (WNIT) in 18 years.

A dean's list student, McCabe was honored as a member of the Providence College Chi Alpha Sigma Athletic Honors Society and was named a member of the Big East All-Academic Team during the 2010-11 and 2011-12 seasons.

McCabe is a graduate of Bishop Moore Catholic High School in Orlando, Florida and won a state championship in 2008 in basketball. She is the daughter of Carl Koechlin and the late Wendy McCabe, who worked in Orlando at the local PBS station, WMFE.

TASHA TAYLOR

Tasha Taylor joins the UCF women's basketball coaching staff as an assistant coach as the Knights head into the Big 12 in 2023-24.

Taylor comes to UCF from Marquette, where she spent the past two years, helping lead one of the league's top defensive units. The Golden Eagles led the Big East in field-goal percentage defense in 2022-23, holding opponents to just 58.2 points per game while shooting just 38.9 percent from the field.

Taylor helped the Golden Eagles to consecutive postseason appearances, including the 2023 NCAA Championship as a No. 9 seed in 2023. Taylor was instrumental in helping Mackenzie Hare and Emily La Chapell earn Big East All-Freshman Team honors in 2022-23. Marquette ranked as one of the most efficient offenses in the Big East, averaging 16.5 assists per game with a 1.22 assist-to-turnover ratio.

In her first season with the Golden Eagles in 2021-22, she helped the squad to a 23-11 record, advancing to the third round of the WNIT. Marquette ranked among the nation's elite in ball movement and passing efficiency. The Golden Eagles averaged 18.0 assists per game to rank eighth in the NCAA while holding a 1.21 assist/turnover ratio. Additionally, Marquette ranked near the top of the league in both field goal percentage (.435) and three-point field-goal percentage (.345).

Before Marquette, Taylor spent eight seasons as an assistant coach at Elon after joining the staff in October 2014. At Elon, she helped recruit and develop four Coastal Athletic Conference All-Conference selections, the CAA Defensive Player of the Year, CAA Rookie of the Year and CAA Women's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Elon earned its first bid to the NCAA Tournament during the 2016-17 season.

Prior to her time at Elon, she was an assistant coach at Limestone College in Gaffney, South Carolina, helping the team to back-to-back Conference Carolinas regular-season championships. Limestone claimed the 2014 Conference Carolinas Tournament Championship and two NCAA Sweet 16 appearances along with an Elite Eight appearance in 2014.

Preceding Limestone, Taylor served as the assistant women's basketball coach at Lees-McRae College in Banner Elk, North Carolina. She played a leading role in the scouting and recruitment of student-athletes and was also responsible for the preparation of scouting reports and the skill development of guards and post players. While with the Bobcats, the team's overall record improved in each successive season.

A four-year starter for the Clemson women's basketball program, Taylor played under former Elon assistant coach Cristy McKinney from 2005-2009. She ranks fourth all-time in Clemson history with 433 career assists and fifth all-time with 3.70 assists per game.

Taylor led the Tigers in assists during her sophomore and senior campaigns and was named the team's defensive player of the year in 2006 while also earning the Playmaker Award following the 2005-06 and 2008-09 seasons. Off the court, she represented the team for three years on the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

A native of Columbus, Georgia, Taylor graduated from Clemson in 2008 with a bachelor of science in parks, recreation and tourism management with an emphasis in sports management and a minor in athletic leadership.

WALTER PITTS

Walter Pitts, a 15-year coaching veteran, joins the UCF women's basketball program as assistant coach and director of player development, entering his first season with the Knights in 2023-24.

Pitts comes to Orlando after spending last season as a women's basketball assistant coach at Georgetown. During the 2022-23 season, Pitts helped the Hoyas improve their win total from the previous season and the squad made it to the second round of the Big East Tournament. During the summer, he helped lead the Hong Kong Bulls to the National Basketball League playoffs for the first year in franchise history.

Preceding Georgetown, Pitts spent three seasons at Virginia where he helped develop Jocelyn Willoughby, who was the No. 10 overall pick in the 2020 WNBA Draft.

Prior to Virginia, Pitts spent the previous season as a women's basketball assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Jackson State. During his tenure with the Tigers, he helped develop two All-Southwestern Athletic Conference players and the SWAC Newcomer of the Year, as well as recruiting the first player in 20 years from an HBCU to be selected in the WNBA Draft in Ameshya Williams-Holliday.

Pitts spent the 2015-16 season as the lead assistant coach for the Texas Legends in the NBA Development League, the minor league affiliate of the Dallas Mavericks, working with a roster of NBA prospects that included D-League All-Star game selections Brandon Ashley and Michael Eric.

Before going to the Legends, Pitts spent four years on the men's basketball coaching staff at Texas Southern. In 2014, he helped guide the Tigers to the Southwestern Athletic Conference championship, earning a bid to the NCAA Championship for the fifth time in program history.

Pitts' coaching career also includes a stint with UNC Greensboro women's basketball, working with both the men's and women's programs at Wiley College and working with two teams in the China Basketball Association.

The Alabama native played professional basketball in South America. He competed for four years and secured a title in the South American League.

Pitts played basketball at Alabama and built his athletic resume by receiving the Guy Lee Turner Defensive Award twice. He helped the Crimson Tide basketball team to a selection in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) in 1992, and an NCAA Championship appearance in 1993. Prior to his time at Alabama, he attended Tyler Junior College in Texas. During his tenure at Tyler, he was named to the all-conference team for two consecutive years.

While attending Loachapoka High School in Loachapoka, Alabama, Pitts received the State of Alabama Most Valuable Player Award for three consecutive years (1988-1990) and led his team to back-to-back state titles.

Pitts earned a bachelor of arts degree in human environmental science from Alabama in 2008. He is the father of two children and a grandfather of four.

ERIN HORNE

Erin Horne enters her first season with the Knights in the 2023-24 season. Horne was added to the UCF women's basketball staff as director of operations in June 2023.

Horne comes to UCF after serving four seasons at Lipscomb with the women's basketball program from 2019-23, including three seasons as the director of basketball operations and one season as an assistant coach. During her time at Lipscomb, the Lady Bisons tied the program single-season record for most wins in their Division I era (20) and achieved its most regular season wins in program history in 2022-23. In three seasons, she helped guide the Lady Bisons to the WBCA Academic Top 25 Honor Roll, including the program's highest grade-point average ranking as the No. 4 team in the nation for the 2021-22 season.

As the director of basketball operations and player development, Horne led the team's professional development in preparing student-athletes for life beyond basketball for the 2022-23 season. She served as an assistant coach and helped guide the Lady Bisons to key victories against Eastern Illinois, Kennesaw State, and Central Arkansas for the 2021-22 season.

During her tenure at Lipscomb, she was responsible for a plethora of duties within the program, including team operations, team travel, oversight of support staff and managers, and community service and engagement. Additionally, she served as the program's primary liaison within the athletic department, including academics, compliance, facilities and athletic communications.

Prior to Lipscomb, she served from 2017-19 as a graduate assistant coach for the Mercer University women's basketball program. During her time with the Bears, the program went 55-11 and recorded its second straight undefeated Southern Conference Regular season and Conference Championships, which led to the program's second straight NCAA Championship berth.

While with the Bears, Horne was responsible for a variety of tasks within the program, including game film, social media, recruiting mailouts/graphics, student manager oversight and assisting the coaching staff with the preparation of scouting reports, recruiting activities, and skill development.

A native of Orlando, Florida, Horne spent the summer of 2016 completing an internship with the WNBA Atlanta Dream, where she performed basketball operations and game operations.

Collegiately, Horne played at Converse College (SC.), where she was a four-year letter-winner and became the all-time steals record holder for the Valkyrie women's basketball program. She also completed an Internship with the Athletic Department at Converse and was selected to take part in the WBCA 15th Annual "So You Want To Be A Coach" program which took place in conjunction with the WBCA Convention in Dallas during the Final Four in 2017.

Horne graduated from Converse College (SC.) in 2017 with a bachelor's degree in business sports management and earned a master of education in higher education leadership from Mercer's Tift School of Education in 2019.

JOSH SHEN

Josh Shen enters his second season as the director of video and assistant director of operations with the UCF women's basketball program in the 2023-24 season.

Shen, who worked with head coach Sytia Messer as a student manager when the two were at Baylor, came to UCF in 2022 after finishing a summer with Northwest Florida State women's basketball. Before making his way to Florida, Shen spent one year as the assistant coach at reigning Division III American Southwest Conference regular season champion Mary Hardin-Baylor in Belton, Texas. In his lone year, the Crusaders improved their victory column by 11 wins, going from 13-8 the previous year to 24-5 and 18-1 in conference play. Along with that, the Crusaders went on a school record 20-game win streak, making it to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the third straight year. During his time there, Shen was involved mainly in video breakdown, scouting, recruiting and post player development.

Before arriving at Mary Hardin-Baylor, Shen started his coaching career as the assistant coach at Panola College, a NJCAA D1 program in Carthage, Texas. During the COVID-19 year, the Fillies finished 13-8, beating the NJCAA runner-up Trinity Valley and top-10 foe Tyler Junior College. In his time at Panola, Shen played a part in recruiting seven Division I transfers in his first year and five the following year before heading to Mary Hardin-Baylor. Shen was instrumental in developing NJCAA All-American Odeth Betancourt who signed with South Florida, as she finished eighth nationally in rebounds and 14th in blocks. In addition, he developed Region XIV all-conference and region players Alana Swift and Ginger Reece. After his first year, he helped send four players to DI programs and one other to DII. Shen was involved in many roles, such as, player development, strength and conditioning, scouting, film, basketball/equipment operations, social media, statistics and recruiting.

Shen spent four years as an undergraduate student team manager with the Baylor women's basketball program from 2016-2020. In his four years, the Baylor Lady Bears had incredible feats: 2019 NCAA champion, competing in three Elite Eights, four Sweet 16s, winning four Big 12 regular season titles and two Big 12 Conference Tournaments.

As a manager, his duties included basketball/equipment operations, bookkeeping in-game stats, video breakdown, assisting in scouting reports and player development.

After the 2019 season, Shen was a basketball operations Intern with the Atlanta Dream under current Baylor head coach Nicki Collen. He helped coordinate in-game and practice operations. Additionally, Shen was an operations intern and practice player for the Los Angeles Sparks for the 2018 season.

Prior to his stints with the Dream and Sparks, Shen interned as a gym and womens' sports and olympics Intern with Wasserman Media Group from 2017-2018. He worked alongside sports agents Lindsey Kagawa-Colas, George David, Joe Smith, Darren Matsubara and others. Shen also has assisted Noah LaRoche, founder of Integrity Hoops, and NBA personal trainer Olin Simplis. He has worked with athletes such as Russell Westbrook, A'ja Wilson, Spencer Dinwiddie, Delon Wright, Norman Powell and others.

Shen has experience working various summer basketball camps for UC Santa Barbara, Louisville, Georgia Tech, Georgia and College Coaches Skills Camp. He is an alumnus of Uncommon Sports Group, formerly known as Managers on a Mission, after finishing a 2019 mission trip in Minnesota.

Shen, a 2016 Walnut High School graduate in Walnut, California, earned his bachelor's degree in sports sponsorship and sales and in management from Baylor in 2020.

SUPPORT STAFF

Mackenzie Kennedy
Assistant Athletic Trainer

Mackenzie Kennedy joined the UCF Athletics sports medicine staff in June 2021. After providing autonomous healthcare for two years for the rowing team and assisting the UCF football team, she took over healthcare for the women's basketball in the summer of 2023.

Prior to arriving at UCF, Kennedy interned with the men's basketball and football teams at Boston College before spending a year at St. Johns Preparatory School as the associate head athletic trainer.

Kennedy earned a bachelor's degree in athletic training from Endicott College in Massachusetts before earning a master's degree from UCF in kinesiology in 2022. She is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association.

Joe Howard
Assistant Director of Sports Performance

Joe Howard is heading into his 10th year overall and second tenure at UCF. Howard works directly with men's soccer, women's basketball and men's golf programs in the strength and conditioning area.

Prior to returning to UCF, Howard was at Eastern Washington where he worked directly with the football program as well as women's volleyball, women's soccer and throwers for track and field.

Before going to Eastern, Howard spent four years at UCF working with volleyball, men's golf, men's and women's tennis and assisted with football. Howard started as an intern and part-time coach for the strength department.

Howard earned his bachelor's degree in sport and fitness from UCF in 2011, and his master's in sports exercise science from UCF in 2013.

Howard is a strength and conditioning coach, certified through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association, certified strength and conditioning specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association and USA Weightlifting Level 1 Sports Performance Coach. Howard is also CPR/AED certified and has a Titleist Performance Institute Golf Fitness certification.

ADDITION FINANCIAL ARENA

Thanks to Addition Financial Arena, the Knights play in one of the finest facilities in the nation. The 10,000-seat venue opened in the fall of 2007 and is located on the north side of campus. The facility has dozens of top amenities, including a state-of-the-art video board, luxury suites and wide concourses. The arena was given an updated look in the fall of 2017 with its new Orlando's Hometown Team design, and was rebranded to Addition Financial Arena prior to the fall of 2019.

Step inside Addition Financial Arena and enjoy the best of both worlds - a first-class facility which also highlights the essence of college basketball. The building is one of only a few in the nation that offers unparalleled luxury to student-athletes and fans, and also has a great gameday atmosphere. Similar to National Basketball Association venues, the arena features 16 spacious luxury suites and two party suites. The suites include kitchenettes and bar-style seating and can accommodate up to 20 guests. Additionally, the facility has two loges and the unique Black and Gold Club, which provides exclusive access to the club seating area. The arena helps provide UCF fans with a great entertainment experience during games. The Daktronics scoreboard above center court has four video screens that show replays and provide player information.

Not only do the Knights utilize one of the nation's finest home venues in Addition Financial Arena, members of the team also have access to the UCF basketball practice facility. The venue opened in spring 2008 and includes a practice court for the Knights.

UCF student-athletes have access to the facility 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Connecting to Addition Arena, the practice court contains six baskets, two shot clocks and a scoreboard. The Knights use the court for individual development.

The facility is equipped with a video system that allows the UCF coaching staff to tape every practice and workout. The coaches then visit with each student-athlete to analyze their performance. Offices and conference rooms for the UCF coaching staff are located on the second floor of the practice facility. A film room is adjacent to the offices. The practice facility was constructed during the 2007-08 campaign inside the former home of the Knights - the old UCF Arena. UCF played at the facility from 1991-07.

A 2,000-square foot weight room is located on the first floor of the facility. The weight room provides the Knights with access to free weight and machine equipment, cardio and treadmills. The Knights utilize a large sports medicine center located inside the practice facility. The sports medicine center connects to the team's locker room. Additionally, the center is adjacent to Addition Financial Arena for the Knights to use before and after games.

Inside the UCF practice facility, the Knights utilize a new locker room, which also connects to Addition Financial Arena, and a spacious player lounge. Both rooms are used exclusively by the women's basketball program. The room features tables and chairs, televisions and couches for the players.

Wayne Densch Center for Student Athlete Leadership

The Wayne Densch Center for Student Athlete Leadership opened in March 2016 and is the on-campus home to the personal, professional and academic development of Knight student-athletes. The building houses the Academic Services for Student-Athletes, Student-Athlete Welfare and Development and Athletics Compliance units. The three-story, 22,000-square-foot structure also features computer labs, tutoring and mentoring rooms, numerous study spaces and conference rooms.

Garry Center for Student-Athlete Nutrition

The Garry Center for Student-Athlete Nutrition opened in the fall of 2018. Located on the south side of the FBC Mortgage Stadium, UCF transformed a former recruiting lounge into its Athletics training table. UCF student-athletes are provided healthy meals to help improve their athletic and academic performance.

UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL FLORIDA

The University of Central Florida is a metropolitan research university located in metropolitan Orlando. Founded in 1963, UCF enrolls about 70,000 students and offers more than 220 degrees through its main campus, 11 regional connect centers, a downtown campus, a health sciences campus at Lake Nona, the Rosen College of Hospitality Management in the heart of Orlando's tourism corridor, and online.

Ensuring Access and Affordability

- The fall 2020 freshman class set a school record with an average high school GPA of 4.18.
- One in five students is the first in his or her family to attend college, and students of color make up 48 percent of the student body.
- Tuition and fees at UCF are among the nation's lowest, and UCF is ranked among the nation's best values by Kiplinger.
- This fall, UCF launched more than two dozen new graduate programs, many offering candidates helpful tools related to COVID-19 challenges. Certificates, tracks and new degree programs cover a variety of fields from business and engineering to optics and health.

Producing Top Talent

- With more than 17,000 degrees conferred each year, UCF serves as a vital pipeline to companies throughout the region, state and nation.
- For the last six years, UCF has been the No. 1 supplier of graduates to U.S. aerospace and defense industries, according to Aviation Week. UCF ranks second in the nation (only to Georgia Tech) for teaching the critical skills needed by employers.
- UCF student teams finished second in the National Cyber Defense Competition and earned bronze in the North American finals of the International Collegiate Programming Contest.

Serving Our Community

- UCF RESTORES utilizes technology – including virtual reality – to deliver PTSD treatment for veterans, active-duty military, first responders, mass shooting survivors, and other trauma victims.
- Limbitless Solutions is a non-profit organization at UCF that empowers individuals with accessibility limitations through technology, including 3-D printed prosthetic arms for kids and wheelchair controls that respond to facial muscles.

Pursuing Excellence

- UCF ranks among the nation's 20 most innovative universities and is one of the nation's top promoters of social mobility, according to U.S. News & World Report.
- U.S. News & World Report ranks UCF No. 16 in the nation for online undergraduate programs.
- The Rosen College of Hospitality Management is the No. 4 hospitality school in the world, according to CEOWORLD Magazine.
- The Florida Interactive Entertainment Academy, UCF's graduate video gaming school, is ranked No. 1 in North America by the Princeton Review and PC Gamer.

ALEXANDER N. CARTWRIGHT

UCF President
Alexander N. Cartwright

Alexander Cartwright was selected as UCF's sixth president by the UCF Board of Trustees on March 20, 2020 following a nationwide search. He was confirmed by the Florida Board of Governors the following week.

Under Dr. Cartwright's leadership, UCF is working toward becoming the world's leading public metropolitan university, a top 50 public research university, determined to foster success for students of all backgrounds and to produce research and creative works that positively impact lives across our community and across the world. To achieve this vision, the university has been focused on achieving greater operational, academic and inclusive excellence, including building a senior leadership team that will help take the university to new heights.

As a first-generation college student whose journey to higher education was not traditional, Dr. Cartwright understands and prioritizes the need to build successful outcomes for students from all backgrounds, and is dedicated to creating a culture of belonging at UCF.

An internationally recognized researcher and scholar in the area of optical sensors, he is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, SPIE and the National Academy of Inventors. Dr. Cartwright is a prior winner of both the National Science Foundation CAREER Award and the Office of Naval Research Young Investigator Award. In addition, he earned the 2002 SUNY Chancellor's award for excellence in teaching.

A native of the Bahamas, Dr. Cartwright holds a doctorate in electrical and computer engineering from the University of Iowa. He and his wife Melinda have two children, Alyssa and Andrew.

TERRY MOHAJIR

Terry Mohajir, UCF's vice president and director of athletics, has excelled at hiring coaches who win championships, raising money for first-class athletics facilities and support resources necessary to be nationally competitive—and fulfilling a unique promise to guarantee a job or graduate school admission for every student-athlete who graduates.

Now, he and the Knights parlay all those elements into the most significant step in program history as UCF begins competition in the Big 12 Conference in 2023-24. UCF accepted an invitation to join the Big 12 in September 2021 and officially entered the league July 1, 2023. Mohajir's two and a half years with the Knights began with the February 2021 hiring of Gus Malzahn as the new UCF head football coach and just seven months later featured the new conference announcement.

Mohajir (pronounced mo-HAH-zure) joined the UCF Athletics staff Feb. 9, 2021, following eight years as Arkansas State University's vice chancellor for intercollegiate athletics.

Mohajir wasted no time making an impact at UCF. Just five days after taking over the Knights' program he hired former Auburn coach Malzahn as the new UCF football coach. Malzahn was the head coach at Arkansas State in 2012 when Mohajir was hired there as director of athletics—with the Red Wolves winning the Sun Belt Conference title that year in Malzahn's single season with Arkansas State. Malzahn led Auburn to the Bowl Championship Series title game after the 2013 campaign, one Southeastern Conference Championship and two SEC West Division titles. Malzahn's first Knight team in 2021 sizzled down the stretch with six wins in its final seven games and a final 9-4 mark—capped by a Gasparilla Bowl triumph over Florida—and then UCF in 2022 produced another nine-win campaign, an appearance in the American Athletic Conference Championship Game and a seventh consecutive postseason invitation, this time to the Military Bowl.

Since Mohajir came on board at UCF, Knight teams have produced these on-field achievements:

- Fourteen American Athletic Conference titles in 2021-23, three in volleyball, two each in softball and women's indoor and outdoor track and field—plus one each in men's and women's soccer, men's and women's tennis and women's basketball—and those 14 titles equaled the number produced by UCF teams in the previous five years (beginning 2016-17)
- Fifteen NCAA Championship team appearances, three in volleyball, women's tennis and women's golf, two in softball and one each in men's soccer, men's tennis, women's basketball and men's golf—with multiple individuals qualifying in tennis, golf and track and field
- NCAA Sweet 16 qualifications in men's soccer and women's tennis in spring 2021, plus an NCAA regional runner-up slot in softball
- A 2022 NCAA super regional appearance in softball (after a #16 national seed and a title in the Orlando Regional) and NCAA first-round wins in women's basketball and women's tennis
- NCAA first-round wins in 2022-23 in volleyball and women's soccer and another regional runner-up finish in softball

- First-team All-America honors for Rayniah Jones in the 2021 NCAA 100-meter hurdles outdoors, the 2022 NCAA 60-meter hurdles indoors and the 4x100 relay outdoors (joining Ciara Holback, Beyonce DeFreitas and l'Asia Wilson). She won three events at the 2022 AAC Indoor Track and Field Championships and was named the meet's outstanding performer.
- First-team 2022 All-America recognition for Jada Cody in softball and McKenna Melville in volleyball.
- Eight teams in 2022-23 in the top 25 at some point during those seasons

Mohajir's 2021 presentation to the UCF Board of Trustees of a vision and action plan for the future of the Knights' football campus proved to be a noteworthy precursor to the Big 12 announcement. That vision—now known as Mission XII—includes significant proposed new elements that will enhance the Knights' ability to compete for football championships and benefit student-athletes and coaches in areas including injury care and prevention, hydrotherapy, recreation and premium seating. The campus will include creation of Nicholson Plaza, a football "town square" outside the southwest corner of the football stadium, with the highlight of that location to be McNamara Cove with a recovery river. That will be accomplished by movement of one existing football practice field (west field) to the other side of the second (east field), creating additional space for Nicholson Plaza.

All those improvements will further refine a state-of-the-art plan for football facilities and support services within a concentrated locale on the northeast side of the UCF campus. The intent is to create a dedicated football campus that will consolidate the Knights' facilities in the areas of housing, nutrition, sports medicine, sports performance, academics and career services.

Those proposed additions combine with several new elements added in the months after Mohajir and Malzahn came on board: replacement of existing synthetic grass in Nicholson Fieldhouse, outside painting of Nicholson Fieldhouse, all-new theming in the UCF football office areas and hallways and new seating and graphics in the Knights' team meeting room. Additional improvements for other sports included a new video board and audio system for baseball, artificial turf upgrades at John Euliano Park, new player lockers and a new stadium audio system for softball—and renovated locker rooms for the volleyball and men's and women's basketball programs. An additional series of planned facility upgrades and improvements will affect every other UCF sports program.

UCF helped solidify its financial future in a major way with the 2022 announcement that Mohajir had agreed to a 13-year deal with Playfly Sports to leverage the company's multimedia rights expertise and tap into its expansive suite of marketing and media solutions to further grow the UCF brand regionally, nationally and globally.

That followed the announcement that the UCF Athletic Association and FBC Mortgage, LLC, combined on a naming rights agreement for the Knights' home football stadium that took effect beginning with the 2022 season and branded the UCF football venue as FBC Mortgage Stadium.

Mohajir's years at Arkansas State featured delivering on a guarantee that every student-athlete who graduated earned a job opportunity or admission to graduate school. The Red Wolves achieved the 100% guarantee every year for Mohajir's last six years there. He instituted the same program at UCF under the banner of the Knights Leadership Academy, with every graduate since 2021 taking advantage.

Other achievements during Mohajir’s tenure in Orlando include:

- 2023 hirings of new UCF head coaches in baseball, rowing and volleyball
- an initial facilities audit that resulted in early improvements to baseball, softball and women’s basketball venues, $12 million in summer 2023 updates to Addition Financial Arena, the Venue and Knights Plaza, as well as state-of-the-art lighting and connectivity updates at FBC Mortgage Stadium entering the 2023 season
- creation of a plan to combine multiple UCF collectives into the Kingdom to support NIL (name, image, likeness) efforts for Knight student-athletes
- supporting UCF student-athletes as they achieved a 31st consecutive semester with a combined grade-point average of at least 3.0 in the spring 2023 semester, including 13 straight with a 3.2 or higher
- sellouts of football season tickets in 2022 and 2023
- 2023 NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) numbers that included four teams with 1,000 multi-year scores, seven with 1,000 single-year scores and 12 that either equaled or improved their multi-year scores from the previous year (with football ranking 20th among Power 5 schools at 984)
- rebranding of the Knights’ ongoing athletics fundraising and giving platform as the ChargeOn Fund
- helping raise more than $11 million in commitments in his first year in Orlando, translating to year after year record fundraising and donor participation since Mohajir came on board
- establishing excellence funds for all UCF sports programs
- attaching his imprint to the Knights’ future football schedules with creation of a series with Florida

Mohajir was a member of the prestigious College Football Playoff (CFP) Selection Committee from 2019-21, and he has served on the NCAA Division I Championships Cabinet and the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee. He was appointed to the NCAA Division I Football Ad Hoc Recruiting Working Group which was formed to conduct a comprehensive review of Division I football recruiting legislation. In 2020 he was named one of the top five non-Power 5 athletic directors by Stadium, based on the success of head coaching hires in football and men’s basketball.

While at Arkansas State for eight-plus years, Mohajir’s accomplishments included:

- Producing record-breaking fundraising totals, overseeing significant facility upgrades, almost tripling the athletics budget--as Arkansas State enjoyed unprecedented overall success academically, competitively and financially
- The school’s football team winning four Sun Belt championships and playing in a bowl game every year in his eight seasons. Overall, the Red Wolves won 25 conference titles in all sports during Mohajir’s tenure.
- More than $90 million in facility enhancements, including a new premium football seating area, new tennis courts, a new outdoor track and a state-of-the-art operations center for all student-athletes that houses locker rooms, a weight room, training area, lounge plus offices for coaches
- Consistent school-record grade-point averages, culminating with a Sun Belt-leading 3.211 GPA in 2019-20
- A series of standout football coaching hires, including Bryan Harsin (he left to become head coach at Boise State and later at Auburn), current Utah State coach Blake Anderson, as well as Butch Jones who became Arkansas State head coach in December 2020

Arkansas State placed among the top 12 programs in the nation in five consecutive Excellence in Management Cup standings—in regard to maximizing fiscal resources while providing results in the form of championship victories. Mohajir previously was senior associate athletic director for external relations at the University of Kansas in 2011-12 and senior associate director of athletics for external relations at Florida Atlantic University in 2004-11. He served as assistant director of athletics for external relations at the University of Missouri-Kansas City in 1997-2004 and was a defensive quality control analyst, assistant offensive line and game-day special teams coach with Kansas football in 1993-97.

Mohajir earned a bachelor’s degree in sports management with a minor in business marketing from Arkansas State in 1993 and a master’s degree in sports management/psychology from Kansas in 1997. He was a starting safety on Arkansas State’s football team from 1990-92—including the Red Wolves’ first season competing at the Division I/Football Bowl Subdivision level in 1992.

The Overland Park, Kansas, product is married to the former Julie Hammond, and they are parents of three children—Maria, Molly and Marco.

THE BIG 12

The Big 12 enters its 28th year as one of the nation’s premier athletic conferences under the direction of Commissioner Brett Yormark. In his brief time at the helm, Yormark has elevated the conference to new heights, placing an emphasis on marketing, brand building and storytelling that has resonated across the college athletics landscape.

The Big 12 is comprised of 14 institutions after welcoming BYU, UCF, Cincinnati and Houston on July 1, 2023. TCU and West Virginia were the first new additions since inception when they joined the league on July 1, 2012. Baylor, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas and Texas Tech are legacy members.

In the first year of his tenure, Yormark executed a media rights deal with ESPN and Fox that will run through 2030-31 while leading a revamp of the Big 12 Football and Basketball Championships that resulted in revenue and digital engagement highs. He has taken an innovative approach to ensure the conference resides in places it has never been before including creating the first Big 12 Business Advisory Board. Other highlights are executing a partnership with the National Football League to operate a conference-wide Pro Day, teaming up with New York City Parks Department for a summer activation at historic Rucker Park, and bringing celebrity talent such as Fat Joe, Ashanti, Shaq and DJ Khaled into the Big 12 marketing fold. “Big 12 Homecoming” debuted during the 2023 football season at the four new members’ campuses with additional conference members featured in future seasons.

The 2022-23 academic year saw the conference reach new frontiers with TCU becoming the first league school to reach the College Football Playoff National Championship game. Texas captured the NCAA women’s volleyball title as well as the women’s outdoor track & field national championship. Oklahoma earned its second straight NCAA women’s gymnastics trophy and was crowned Women’s College World Series champions for the third consecutive season. NCAA Championship runner-up finishes were notched by Oklahoma State men’s cross country, Texas women’s swimming & diving and UT women’s indoor track & field. NCAA individual titles were collected by 23 student-athletes. The Big 12 tied its own record as the only league to place 70 percent of men’s basketball teams in the NCAA Championship and 80 percent of football squads in bowl games in the same academic year, also accomplishing the feat in 2017-18. The Big 12 office is located in Irving, Texas.

Key Highlights

- The Big 12 is home of 81 NCAA team titles and 742 individual national championships (as of July 1, 2023).
- Big 12 institutions create a league that encompasses eight states, three time zones and a combined population of over 79.3 million.
- The league sponsors 23 sports. Men’s squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women’s teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis and volleyball.
- The conference currently conducts postseason championships for 22 of its 23 sports.

- Entering the 2023-24 academic year, the Big 12 has over 800 Academic All-America recipients.
- National academic accolades have always been strong in the Big 12. Charlie Kolar (Iowa State) was the recipient of the 2021 William V. Campbell Trophy, known as the Academic Heisman. He is the Big 12’s fifth honoree since 2000. Since 1996, the Big 12 has 14 recipients of the NCAA Today’s Top 10 award. This prestigious honor recognizes former student-athletes for their success on the fields and courts, in the classroom and in the community. In the last 13 seasons, 27 student-athletes were recipients of the NCAA Elite 90 award.
- Big 12 Commissioner Brett Yormark announced the formation of a Business Advisory Board to collaborate and help co-author the Conference’s business strategy. The Board is comprised of some of the most successful leaders from a variety of fields – entertainment, finance, consumer brands, technology, media and more – that bring a wealth of knowledge and expertise in building global brands and dynamic businesses.
