125
ANNIVERSARY

How It All Got Started

Soon after Congress enacted the National Bankruptcy Act of 1898, William Miller Collier (1867–1956), a referee in bankruptcy for the Northern District of New York, authored a one-volume exposition on the new legislation entitled The Law of Bankruptcy and the National Bankruptcy Act of 1898.

Collier on Bankruptcy reflects the work and view of more than 50 of the leading judges, lawyers and professors in the Bankruptcy Law field. On its 125th anniversary—thank you to the Editor-in-Chief, Board of Editors and contributing authors who have carried forward the industry standards, name recognition, content reputation and tradition of Collier on Bankruptcy to the entire Collier family of publications.
