

Mark Lezotte has been recently re-appointed to the National Board of Trustees of United Cerebral Palsy which he has previously served with distinction from 2010-2016, and he is a member of UCP's Public Policy Committee, helping lead UCP's efforts in national disability policy and advocacy.

Lezotte is currently a shareholder practicing in Butzel Long's Detroit office. He has substantial experience in corporate, healthcare, tax, and exempt organization matters, including corporate and nonprofit governance, business transactions, tax exempt issues, and regulatory investigations. Lezotte was also General Counsel for a nonprofit healthcare system in the Detroit area.

He currently serves at SourceAmerica Board of Directors and has served on several local boards including Michigan Protection and Advocacy Service, Metropolitan Affairs Coalition, Southwest Solutions, and YMCA of Metropolitan Detroit.

Lezotte was recognized with both the Best Lawyers in America Award and the United Cerebral Palsy Chairperson's Award, as well as the UCP Detroit Volunteer of the year award. He holds a J.D. from Michigan Law School and a bachelor's in Business Administration from the University of Michigan Ross Business School.

Lezotte is a performer with A (Habeas) Chorus Line, a musical parody and satire troupe composed of all lawyers. The troupe has been together for 25 years and has performed more than 150 shows at venues throughout Michigan and around the country.
