CHAPTER I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1. Object of the Law

This law regulates the legal relations related to the procedure of assessing the integrity of candidates to the position of members of the Superior Council of Magistracy, the Superior Council of Prosecutors and members to their specialized bodies, as a mandatory stage of the process of selecting candidates and electing or appointing them to the respective positions.

Article 2. Subjects of the law

- (1) The provisions of this Law shall apply to candidates for the position of member of:
 - a) Superior Council of Magistracy,
 - b) The Board for the selection and career of judges;
 - c) The Board for the evaluation of the performance of judges;
 - d) The disciplinary Board of Judges;
 - e) Superior Council of Prosecutors;
 - f) The Board for the selection and career of prosecutors;
 - g) The Board for the evaluation of the performance of prosecutors;
 - h) The Disciplinary and Ethics Board subordinated to the Superior Council of Prosecutors.
- (2) The evaluation of the candidates referred to in paragraph (1) herein includes a verification of the assets of persons close to candidates, as defined in Law no 133/2016 on Declaration of Assets and Personal Interests, as well as of the persons referred to in Article 33(4) and (5) of Law no 132/2016 on the National Integrity Authority.
- (3) Candidates for the positions of members in the bodies referred to in Article 2(1)(a) and (e) shall be assessed as a priority over the other candidates.

CHAPTER II

EVALUATION OF CANDIDATES

Article 3. Independent Commission for assessing the integrity of candidates for the positions of members in the self-administration bodies of judges and prosecutors

- (1) The Independent Commission for assessing the integrity of candidates for the positions of members in the self-administration bodies of judges and prosecutors (hereinafter – the Evaluation Commission) shall assess the integrity of the candidates referred to in Article 2(1).
- (2) The Evaluation Commission shall be set up for the period of evaluating candidates for the positions of members in the bodies referred to in Article 2(1), vacant at the date of entry into force of this Law or which will become vacant within 7 months from the date of entry into force of this law. The Evaluation Commission shall be chaired by a chairperson elected by secret ballot of commission members, with the majority vote of commission members. In the absence of the Evaluation Commission chairperson, his/her duties shall be exercised by a Commission member appointed by him/her.
- (3) The Evaluation Commission chairperson has the following duties:

- a) coordinate the work of the Evaluation Commission;
- b) convene meetings of the Evaluation Commission;
- c) conduct the meetings of the Evaluation Commission;
- d) represent the Evaluation Commission in relations with other individuals and legal entities of public or private law;
- e) carry out other duties provided by this Law and the Regulation on the Organization and Modus Operandi of the Evaluation Commission.

(4) The members of the Evaluation Commission referred to in Article 5(1)(a) shall receive a monthly allowance equivalent to twice the basic salary of a judge of the Supreme Court of Justice with the length of service in the position of judge of more than 16 years.

(5) The Evaluation Commission shall have a secretariat, which is a non-legal structure, established ad-hoc, independent of any public authority and functions exclusively to assist the Evaluation Commission in exercising its tasks. The modus operandi and staffing of the Evaluation Commission's Secretariat shall be approved by the Commission. The staff of the Evaluation Commission's Secretariat shall be contracted by development partners. The activity of the Evaluation Commission's Secretariat shall be coordinated by the Head of the Secretariat. In their work, neither the Head nor the staff of the Secretariat are subordinated to development partners, being independent in decision-making and reporting exclusively to the Evaluation Commission and its chairperson.

(6) The activity of the Evaluation Commission and of its Secretariat shall be financed from and within the limits of the funds approved in the annual budget law, and from other sources not prohibited by law.

(7) At the request of the Evaluation Commission chairperson and/or Head of Secretariat, public authorities and institutions shall second/delegate temporarily the persons requested by the Commission to assist in its work, including by derogation from the provisions of the special laws on the functioning of the respective public authorities and institutions, as well as from the laws governing the status of certain categories of civil servants.

(8) The Evaluation Commission shall cease its work once completing the evaluation of the last candidate.

Article 4. Independence of the Evaluation Commission

(1) The Evaluation Commission shall have functional independence and decision-making autonomy from any individual or legal entity, irrespective of their legal form, as well as from political factions and development partners that participated in appointing its members.

(2) In its activity, the Evaluation Commission shall comply with the Constitution of the Republic of Moldova, this Law and other legal acts regulating related areas. The Evaluation Commission operates on the basis of its Regulation on Organisation and Modus Operandi, approved by it.

Article 5. Membership of the Evaluation Commission

(1) The Evaluation Commission consists of 6 members, appointed as follows:

- a) 3 members, citizens of the Republic of Moldova – at the proposal of parliamentary factions with respect to the proportional representation of the majority and the opposition, approved with the vote of 3/5 of the elected MPs;
- b) 3 members – at the proposal of development partners, approved with the vote of 3/5 of the elected MPs.

(2) To appoint the members stated in para (1)(a), the parliamentary factions shall submit information on the proposed candidates to the Legal Commission for Appointments and Immunities. The Legal Commission for Appointments and Immunities shall examine the proposed candidates and, depending on the findings made, shall approve reports on each separate candidate with the majority vote of the Commission members. Draft Parliament decisions shall be developed for each candidate by the Legal Commission for Appointments and Immunities and shall be presented in the plenary meeting of the Parliament to be debated and adopted with the majority provided in para (1)(a).

(3) If a parliamentary faction does not nominate a candidate within the prescribed period, the Legal Commission for Appointments and Immunities shall forward the draft Parliament decision and the reports for the candidates nominated in accordance with para (2) for debate in the Parliament plenary meeting.

(4) If no candidate has been nominated by a parliamentary faction, and if a candidate nominated by the faction has not been approved with the required number of votes, the Evaluation Commission shall be established and shall operate with the number of members confirmed by the Parliament decision according to para (6).

(5) To nominate the members set forth in para (1)(b), the development partners shall submit to the Parliament a list with a maximum of 6 eligible persons by means of a jointly signed letter. The Legal Commission on Appointments and Immunities shall review the proposed candidates and shall select 3 persons who obtained the highest number of votes at the Parliamentary Commission's meeting, who shall be proposed to the Parliament's plenary for appointment as members of the Evaluation Commission. For that the Parliamentary Commission shall develop a draft Parliament decision, accompanied by a report, which shall be debated in the Parliament's plenary meeting and passed with the majority vote provided in para (1)(b).

(6) The nominal composition of the Commission shall be confirmed by a Parliament decision.

(7) For the purposes of this Law, development partners shall mean international donors (international organizations, diplomatic missions and their representative offices in the Republic of Moldova) active in the field of justice reform and fight against corruption in the last 2 years. Their list shall be approved by Government decision.

(8) A member of the Evaluation Commission shall meet the following requirements:

- a) have higher education;
- b) have an irreproachable reputation;
- c) have at least 10 years of experience in one or more of the following fields: legal, economic, fiscal, investigation of corruption and corruption-related crimes, integrity checking;

- d) have not held the position of Member of Parliament, or Member of Government in the past 3 years;
- e) have not been part of a political party in the past 3 years;
- f) has not held the position of judge or prosecutor in the Republic of Moldova in the past 3 years;
- g) have not been a member of the bodies referred to in Article 2(1) in the past 3 years;
- h) have a sufficient knowledge of English.

(9) Membership of the Evaluation Commission is incompatible with any public office position. The incompatibility of Evaluation Commission members shall be resolved within 10 days of the date of their occurrence.

(10) Membership of the Evaluation Commission shall cease in the event of:

- a) cessation of the work of the Evaluation Commission;
- b) resignation;
- c) withdrawal of membership as a result of:
 - i. occurrence of circumstances of incompatibility or failure to meet the requirements set forth in para (8);
 - ii. deliberate violation of this Law and of the Regulation on the Organization and Modus Operandi of the Evaluation Commission;
 - iii. committing a flagrant offence;
 - iv. not attend at least 3 meetings of the Evaluation Commission without good reasons;
 - v. impossibility to exercise the function of Evaluation Commission member, including for health reasons, for a duration of more than 30 days;
 - vi. death.

(11) Membership of the Evaluation Commission shall be withdrawn by reasoned decision of the Commission, taken by secret ballot of a majority of its members and shall be forwarded for information to the body that appointed the member concerned. The person whose membership is in question may not vote.

(12) In the event of termination of the membership of the Evaluation Commission, on the basis of the grounds set out in paragraph (10) points 2\)-4\), so that the necessary quorum provided in Article 11(2) is not met, the Evaluation Commission chairperson or, when appropriate, the head of the Commission's Secretariat shall notify immediately the Parliament, as the authority responsible for selecting Commission members, in order to take the necessary actions to select a new member, in accordance with the procedure laid down for the commission member whose term of office has expired.

(13) The Evaluation Commission shall meet within up to 10 days from the date of confirming the candidates provided in para (1). The Commission may convene in meeting upon the appointment of at least 4 members. The date, time and venue of the first working meeting shall be established by the Ministry of Justice, which shall also ensure the official convening of Commission members to this meeting.

(14) The first working meeting of the Evaluation Commission shall elect the Commission chairperson and resolve other matters related to the operation of the Evaluation Commission.

Article 6. Powers of the Evaluation Commission

In order to carry out its function, the Evaluation Commission shall have the following powers:

- a) draw up and approve its own Regulation on the Organisation and Modus Operandi, and the Regulation of the Commission Secretariat;
- b) assess the candidates and pass decisions on the outcome of candidate integrity evaluation;
- c) collect and verify any data relevant to the evaluation of candidates;
- d) have access to any information systems that contain data relevant to the fulfilment of its mandate, namely the evaluation of the ethical and financial integrity of candidates, including via the interoperability platform (MConnect);
- e) hear the candidate and other persons holding relevant information about the candidate's integrity;
- f) request information from individuals or legal entities of public or private law, and gather any information relevant to the fulfilment of its mandate;
- g) other powers provided for by this Law.

Article 7. Obligations of the Evaluation Commission members

The members of the Evaluation Commission shall have the following obligations: participate, in person or by video conference, in the meetings of the Evaluation Commission;

- a) ensure confidentiality and security of personal data that have become known to them while performing their mandate as member of the Evaluation Commission;
- b) refrain from using, except for purposes of evaluation, handing over or disclosing confidential information about candidates and their close persons, which became known to them while performing their mandate as member of the Evaluation Commission;
- c) refrain from any activity in case of conflict of interests, from any activity that could result in a conflict of interest, or from any actions incompatible with membership of the Evaluation Commission, in the manner established by the Regulation on the Organisation and Modus Operandi of the Evaluation Commission;
- d) refrain from actions that could discredit the Evaluation Commission or cast doubt on the objectivity of its decisions.

Article 8. Assessment of candidates' integrity

(1) For the purposes of this Law, the evaluation of candidates' integrity shall consist in verifying their ethical integrity and financial integrity.

(2) The candidate shall be deemed to meet the criterion of ethical integrity if:

- a) he/she has not seriously violated the rules of ethics and professional conduct of judges, prosecutors or, where applicable, other professions, and has not committed, in his/her activity, any wrongful actions or inactions, which would be inexplicable from the point of view of a legal professional and an impartial observer;
- b) there are no reasonable suspicions that the candidate has committed corruption acts, acts related to corruption or corruptible acts, within the meaning of the Law on Integrity no 82/2017;
- c) has not violated the legal regime of declaring personal assets and interests, conflicts of interest, incompatibilities, restrictions and/or limitations.

(3) In the absence of rules of ethics and conduct approved for the field in which the candidate works or has worked, it shall be verified whether or not the past conduct of the candidate casts reasonable doubts on his/her compliance with the ethical and conduct standards established for judges and prosecutors.

- (4) A candidate shall be deemed to meet the criterion of financial integrity if:
- a) the candidate's assets have been declared in the manner established by law;
 - b) the Evaluation Commission finds that his/her wealth acquired in the past 15 years corresponds to the declared revenues.
- (5) To assess the candidate's financial integrity, the Evaluation Commission shall verify:
- a) compliance by the candidate with the tax regime in the part related to the payment of taxes on using funds and income derived from the owned property, as well as taxable income and the payment of import duty and export duty;
 - b) compliance by the candidate with the legal regime of declaring assets and personal interests;
 - c) the method of acquiring the assets owned or possessed by the candidate or persons referred to in Article 2(2), as well as the expenses for the maintenance of such assets;
 - d) the sources of income of the candidate and, where appropriate, of the persons referred to in Article 2(2);
 - e) existence of loan, credit, leasing, insurance or other agreements that can generate financial benefits, where the candidate, the person referred to in Article 2(2) thereof, or the legal entity that they are beneficial owners of, is a contracting party;
 - f) existence of donations, where the candidate or the person referred to in Article 2(2) has the status of donee or donor;
 - g) other relevant aspects to clarify the origin and justification of the candidate's wealth.
- (6) In assessing the criteria referred to in paras (2)-(5) and in deciding on them, the Evaluation Commission shall not depend on the findings of other bodies competent in the field concerned.

Article 9. Initiating the evaluation procedure

(1) The Evaluation Commission shall initiate the evaluation procedure on the basis of the information received from the institutions responsible for the organization of elections or, where appropriate contests for the selection of members in the bodies referred to in Article 2(1), which shall include:

- a) name, surname, IDNP of the candidate;
- b) position held at the time of the application;
- c) position for which s/he is applying;
- d) contact details (address, phone, email) of the candidate.

(2) ~~When starting the evaluation procedure,~~¹ The Evaluation Commission shall request the candidate to submit to the Commission a declaration of assets and personal interests with the updated data for the past 5 years, including the expenses of that period. The Evaluation Commission shall also request that the candidate submits to the Commission a statement on the list of persons close to him/her, within the meaning of Law no 133/2016 on Declaration of Assets and Personal Interests, who are working or have worked in the past 5 years in the judiciary, prosecution and public service. The aforementioned declarations shall be submitted within 7 days of the request. Failure to submit this information on time constitutes grounds for the Commission to find that the candidate failed the evaluation. The template of the declaration of assets and personal interests and of the statement on the list of close persons in the judiciary, prosecution and public service, provided for in this paragraph, shall be approved by the Evaluation Commission. (3) By submitting the declarations stated in para. (2), the candidate shall declare on his/her own responsibility that the information is accurate and complete.

Article 10. Information accumulation and appreciation

~~(1) The Evaluation Commission shall gather and verify the information held no later than 30 days from the receipt of the declarations referred to in Article 9(2).²~~

(2) The Evaluation Commission and its Secretariat shall have free and real-time access to information systems containing data necessary for the fulfilment of its mandate, in particular for the evaluation of ethical and financial integrity of candidates, in line with the law on data exchange and interoperability, except for the information covered by Law no 245/2008 on State Secret.

(3) When evaluating the candidates' integrity, the Evaluation Commission has the right to request from individuals and legal entities of public or private law, including financial institutions, the documents and information it needs to carry out the evaluation. The requested information shall be submitted for free to the Evaluation Commission, including in electronic format, within a maximum of 10 days from the date of request.

(4) Failure to submit on time the information requested in line with para. (3) shall be sanctioned according to the law.

(5) By derogation from the provisions of Law no 133/2011 on the Protection of Personal Data, processing the personal data of candidates and of persons referred to in Article 2(2) shall be allowed as long as the Evaluation Commission and its Secretariat operates. The candidate's right to access these data shall be ensured by the Secretariat of the Evaluation Commission. The candidate has the obligation to keep the confidentiality of personal data from the evaluation materials presented by the Commission.³

(6) Individuals and legal entities of public or private law, including financial institutions, may not refuse to submit the information set out in para. (3) on grounds of personal data protection, bank secrecy or other data with limited access, except for information that falls within the scope of Law no 245/2008 on State Secrecy.

(7) The Evaluation Commission may request additional data and information from the evaluated candidates at any stage of the evaluation procedure, in order to clarify any uncertainties found during the evaluation.

~~(8) The time limit provided for in para. (1) may be extended by another 15 days if:~~
a) ~~the information to be analysed is complex;~~
b) ~~the individuals and legal entities referred to in para. (3), as well as candidates referred to in para. (7) delay the submission of the requested information.⁴~~

² Art. 10 para. 1 abrogated by Law No. 354/2022.

³ Sentence "The candidate has the obligation to keep the confidentiality of personal data from the evaluation materials presented by the Commission" added to art. 10 para. (5) by Law No. 354/2022.

⁴ Art. 10 para. 8 abrogated by Law No. 354/2022.

(9) The Evaluation Commission shall assess the gathered materials using its own judgement, formed as a result of multi-faceted, comprehensive and objective review of the information. None of the submitted materials has a predetermined probative value without being assessed by the Evaluation Commission.

(10) If the Evaluation Commission finds that the information provided by candidate or other individuals or legal entities, in accordance with para. (3), do not correspond to the reality, it notifies the competent bodies with a view to documenting the respective facts and, depending on the case, applying sanctions.⁵

(11) The information gathered by the Evaluation Commission about the candidates for the position of member in the bodies referred to in Article 2(1) and about the persons referred to in Article 2(2) shall be kept, archived, deleted, destroyed in the manner laid down in the Regulation on the Organisation and Modus Operandi of the Evaluation Commission.

Article 11. Meetings of the Evaluation Commission

(1) The Evaluation Commission shall carry out its activity in closed meetings, with the exceptions established by this Law.

(2) The meetings of the Evaluation Commission shall be held with the presence of at least 4 members.

(3) The members of the Evaluation Commission shall attend the meetings in person or by video conference. If a member of the Evaluation Commission is unable to attend the meeting, s/he shall notify the Commission's Secretariat of the given fact.

Article 12. Hearing of candidates

(1) After examining the information gathered, the Evaluation Commission shall invite the candidate for the hearing.

(2) The hearings shall take place in a public session, which shall be audio/video recorded. The Evaluation Commission may decide to conduct a part of the hearings in a closed meeting if the interests of public order, privacy or morality are undermined. If the Evaluation Commission rejects the candidate's request to hold the hearings or part of them in a closed meeting, s/he may immediately notify the Commission of his/her withdrawal from the competition.

(2¹) Video recordings of the hearings in public sessions are placed on the Commission's official website.⁶

(3) In case of candidate's refusal to attend the hearings, the meeting shall be held in his/her absence and the respective candidate shall be evaluated on the basis of information gathered by the Evaluation Commission.

⁵ Art. 10 para. (10) amended by Law No. 354/2022. The previous version of this para. was the following: "If the Evaluation Commission finds that the information stated in the declarations submitted by candidates, the accuracy and completeness of which were confirmed by the latter in the affidavits submitted in line with Article 9(3), as well as information provided by other individuals or legal entities in accordance with para. (3), do not constitute a true reflection of the reality, it shall notify the competent bodies with a view to establishing and penalising alleged wrongdoing."

⁶ Para. 2¹ in art. 12 added by Law No. 354/2022.

- (4) The candidate has the following rights:
- a) attend the meetings of the Evaluation Commission and give oral explanations;
 - b) be assisted by an attorney or a trainee attorney during the evaluation procedure;
 - c) consult the evaluation materials, at least 3 days before the hearing;
 - d) submit in writing additional data and information, which s/he deems necessary, in order to remove suspicions about his/her integrity, if s/he was in impossibility to present them previously;⁷
 - e) appeal the decision of the Evaluation Commission.

Article 13. Decision of the Evaluation Commission

(1) Once the evaluation procedure is completed, the Evaluation Commission shall issue a reasoned decision on passing or failing the evaluation. Withdrawal of a candidate from the competition after the institutions in charge of organizing the elections or the competition, as appropriate, submit the lists of candidates to the Evaluation Commission, shall be equivalent to failing the evaluation by the candidate concerned, irrespective of the reason given by the candidate.

(2) The Evaluation Commission decision shall list the relevant facts, reasons and conclusion of the Evaluation Commission for passing or failing the evaluation.

(3) The Evaluation Commission decision shall be adopted by a majority vote of participating members. Members of the Evaluation Commission do not have the right to abstain from voting.

(4) In the event of a parity of votes, the Evaluation Commission shall examine repeatedly the information about the candidate concerned and shall put it to the vote the following day. If parity of votes repeats, the evaluated candidate shall be deemed not to have passed the evaluation.

(5) A candidate shall be deemed not to meet the integrity criteria if serious doubts have been found as to the candidate's compliance with the requirements laid down in Article 8, which have not been mitigated by the evaluated person.

(6) The decision on failing the integrity evaluation constitutes a legal basis not to allow the candidate to the elections or competition. The decision shall be submitted to the legally competent bodies to investigate into the detected violations, however the decision findings do not have probative value for any subsequent procedures or proceedings.

(7) The Evaluation Commission decision, edited in Romanian, shall be sent to the candidate to his/her e-mail and to the institution responsible for organizing the elections or competition, as appropriate. On the same day, the Evaluation Commission publishes on its official website the information if the candidate has passed or not the evaluation. If within 48 hours of sending the decision, the candidate does not notify the Evaluation Commission of his/her refusal to publish the decision, the decision on his/her evaluation shall be published on the website of the institution responsible for organizing the elections or competition, as appropriate, in a de-personalised form, except for the candidate's name and surname that shall remain public.⁸

Article 14. Appealing the decision of the Evaluation Commission

(1) The decision of the Evaluation Commission may be appealed by the evaluated candidate within 5 days from the date of receiving the reasoned decision, without following the preliminary procedure.

(2) The evaluated candidate may appeal the unfavourable decision of the Evaluation Commission before the Supreme Court of Justice, which shall form a special panel consisting of 3 judges and a substitute judge. Judges and substitute judge shall be appointed by the President of the Supreme Court of Justice ~~and confirmed by decree of the President of Republic of Moldova.~~⁹

~~(3) — The President of the Republic of Moldova may reasonably reject the candidate judges nominated by the President of the Supreme Court of Justice. In this case, the President of the Supreme Court of Justice shall nominate other judges from the Supreme Court of Justice to be included in the special judicial panel.~~¹⁰

(4) If a member of the special judicial panel abstains or if disqualified, the motion shall be reviewed by the other members of the special panel and the substitute member, who shall replace the member whose abstention or disqualification is discussed. If the motion for disqualification or abstaining is accepted, the case shall be examined by replacing the concerned judge with the substitute member.

(5) Early disqualification of judges who do not yet take part in the proceedings, as well as of a judge or the special judicial panel that reviews the motion for disqualification shall not be accepted. If the motion for disqualification is filed repeatedly in bad faith and abusively in order to delay the proceedings, to mislead the evaluation or with another malicious intent, the motion for disqualification shall not be accepted.

(6) An appeal against the decision of the Evaluation Commission shall be heard and determined in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Administrative Code, subject to the exceptions laid down in this Law, and shall not have a suspensive effect on the Evaluation Commission decisions, elections or competition in which the candidate concerned participates.

(7) By derogation from Article 195 of the Administrative Code no 116/2018, the appeal against a decision of the Evaluation Commission shall be examined within 10 days.

⁸ Art. 13 para. (7) amended by Law No. 354/2022. The previous version of this para. was the following: "The Evaluation Commission decision shall be sent to the candidate to his/her e-mail and to the institution responsible for organizing the elections or competition, as appropriate. If within 48 hours of sending the decision, the candidate does not notify the Evaluation Commission of his/her refusal to publish the decision, the decision on his/her evaluation shall be published on the website of the institution responsible for organizing the elections or competition, as appropriate, in a de-personalised form, except for the candidate's name and surname that shall remain public."

⁹ The phrase „and confirmed by decree of the President of Republic of Moldova” in art. 14 para. (2) declared unconstitutional by CC decision 9 of 7 April 2022.

¹⁰ Art. 14 para. (3) declared unconstitutional by CC decision 9 of 7 April 2022.

(8) When examining the appeal against a decision of the Evaluation Commission, the special judicial panel of the Supreme Court of Justice may adopt one of the following decisions:

- a) reject the appeal;
- b) accept the appeal, if it finds the existence of some circumstances that could have led to candidate's passing of evaluation,¹¹ and order that the Evaluation Commission resumes the evaluation of the candidate.

(9) The decision of the special judicial panel of the Supreme Court of Justice is irrevocable from the time it is issued. The decision shall be deemed issued from the moment it is placed on the official website of the Supreme Court of Justice and shall be notified to the participants within 5 days from the date of issue.

(10) If the Evaluation Commission resumes the evaluation of a candidate in accordance with para. (8)(b), the provisions of this Law on the integrity evaluation procedure shall apply accordingly.

Chapter III

FINAL AND TRANSITORY PROVISIONS

Article 15. Final Provisions

(1) This Law shall enter into force on the date of its publication in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Moldova and shall apply until 30 June 2023.¹² During the period of application of this Law, the provisions of other legal acts of equal or lesser legal power shall apply in so far as they do not conflict with the provisions of this Law.

(2) The Government shall take the necessary measures to ensure the functioning of this Law, including:

- a) ensure, through the Ministry of Justice, the payment of the monthly allowance for the Evaluation Commission members as provided for in Article 5(1)(a) from the funds approved in the Ministry of Justice budget for the external/extraordinary evaluation of judges and prosecutors;
- b) adopt, through the Ministry of Justice, within 5 working days of the date of entry into force of this Law, the order on the list of development partners referred to in Article 5(7);
