The normal duration for the M.Phil. Degree is one Academic year. Under special circumstances, the PGP Chair may approve deviations from the normal period of completion based upon a written justification provided by the Thesis Advisor and approved by the M.Phil. Research Committee.

A student who successfully completes all the prescribed requirements shall receive an M.Phil degree under the respective Faculty.

2. UNIVERSITY-WIDE POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

2.1 Admission Procedure:

Applications for the M.Phil. Degree Programme will be solicited through the college website and other means of advertisement, and admissions shall take place only once in a year (May-June) that are announced well in advance.

The PGP Chair/ Campus Head shall authorize a Department/ Centre or a group of Departments/ Centres to form a Selection Committee taking into account the number of available openings, the number of applications received and the research interests of the applicants. The Selection Committee will conduct the common Entrance Test for all applicants in the specific domains, followed by an Interview.

The Entrance Test will examine fundamental concepts and the syllabus of the Test will be made known to the applicants in advance. The Interview examines the applicant's interests, aptitude, and background. The Selection Committee may request additional evidence, such as copies of claimed publications, at the Interview.

Based upon the Entrance Test and Interview performance, and prior academic record, the Committee shall give its recommendation to the PGP Chair and Campus Head, who will finalize the admission and the campus Head will notify the selected applicants of the date of joining.

All prospective M.Phil. Thesis Advisors are invited to participate in the selection process and their consent obtained before being appointed as Thesis Advisor for any applicant.

2.2 Thesis Advisor and M.Phil. Research Committee

Soon upon admission to the M.Phil. Degree Programme, every student shall be assigned a Thesis Advisor and an M.Phil. Research Committee. The M.Phil. Committee shall be constituted at the Department level. The committee shall comprise of a total of minimum three members including the Thesis Advisor, Head of the Department and an expert faculty member. Each member of the M.Phil. Committee may have a Ph.D. or M.Phil.

The Thesis Advisor must be a regular or emeritus faculty member of the University campus with a Ph.D./ M.Phil. degree and an established research record. The Thesis Advisor is primarily responsible for guiding the M.Phil. student's research and ensuring that the student makes satisfactory and timely progress towards the M.Phil. Degree.

The Thesis Advisor may not advise more than six M.Phil. students at a time. Junior faculty of the university, especially first-time advisors, may serve as Thesis Advisor provided a senior faculty member is associated as a Co-Advisor. Adjunct faculty members of the University may serve only as Co-Advisors.

The Committee is responsible for all academic matters connected with the M.Phil. student, including prescribing the course-work, monitoring research progress, and conducting appropriate examinations.

Changes in Thesis Advisor and/ or M.Phil. Committee are permitted after the M.Phil. student passes the Examinations pertaining to the course work. Under special circumstances, such changes may be permitted at any stage. If the request is due to a change in research topic, the (new) M.Phil. Committee shall ensure that the student acquires adequate knowledge to proceed with the research programme. It is also proposed that the changes in the M.Phil. committee, Thesis Advisor etc. are to be approved by the Head of the Institution.

2.3 M.Phil. Degree Requirements

2.3.1 Thesis Work

In addition to course-work, the M.Phil. student is expected to carry out creative and scholarly research leading upto the completion of a written M.Phil. Thesis. The said research must result in original and substantial contributions to the chosen specialized field of study. This requires mastery of the literature in the specialized field, and critical thinking and judgment. The student should also relate the field of study to the broader discipline within which the research falls.

2.3.2 Publications

Every M.Phil. student is to publish one refereed paper a year. These papers should be in a Scopus-indexed journal or conference proceedings. Prior to the submission of a paper to any conference or journal, a written consent should be obtained from the Chair of the Department in which the student is registered.

All publications based upon the thesis research should list the name of the Thesis Advisor and Co-Advisor, with their consent, in addition to the M.Phil. student's name. The format for writing one's affiliation in conference/ journal papers is as follows:

Names of Authors
Name of Department/ Centre/ School
Name of Campus
Amrita Vishwa Vidyapeetham University.

Conference publications should appear in the proceedings produced by reputed international professional bodies. The Thesis Adviser, in consultation with the experts in the area will decide whether the publications are of the required quality.

Before submission of the M.Phil. Thesis Synopsis, every student is also expected to have at least one paper published/ accepted for publication in a Scopus-indexed journal on the topic of the thesis research.

2.3.3 Pre-Submission Seminar

After completing the course work and dissertation requirements, all M.Phil. candidates are required to present a final research seminar. The seminar should be attended by the Thesis Advisor and M.Phil. Committee. Feedback and comments on the research obtained from the seminar may be suitably incorporated in the thesis.

2.3.4 Thesis Synopsis

Once the Thesis Advisor and M.Phil. Committee are satisfied that the M.Phil. candidate has completed the required research for the award of the M.Phil. degree and the candidate has published (or has an acceptance of) a referred Scopus-indexed journal the candidate is required to submit a written Synopsis to the M.Phil. Committee for approval. Thesis synopsis may be of four pages briefly elaborating the significance and scope of the study, problem identified, major objectives, hypothesis, chapter scheme and research methodology.

Thesis synopsis along with the copy of the published paper should be submitted to the thesis adviser who will finalize and forward the same to the M.Phil. Committee for their approval".

2.3.5 Thesis Submission and Evaluation

After the thesis synopsis is approved, the M.Phil. scholar can submit thesis within two weeks from the date of Synopsis submission.

The thesis adviser shall nominate four experts to evaluate the thesis. The Head of the institution can choose anyone from the given list. The Thesis Advisor and Co-Advisor are also invited to provide a formal evaluation of the thesis. All examiners will be given three weeks to provide their evaluation. Each examiner can give one of three recommendations: (i) Accept, (ii) Accept with Modifications, or (iii) Reject. If neither of the external examiners recommends a Reject, the candidate is permitted to proceed to the Viva Voce. If both external examiners recommend a Reject, the thesis is rejected and the candidate is required to leave the M.Phil. Programme. If only one of the examiners recommends a Reject, the thesis is sent to a third external examiner whose evaluation decides whether or not the candidate is permitted to proceed with the Viva Voce. Prior to the Viva Voce, the candidate must submit a revised Thesis taking into account the comments and suggestions made by all examiners.

2.3.6 Viva Voce

The M.Phil. Thesis Committee consists of the M.Phil. Committee and atleast one of the external experts who evaluated the thesis. The Convener of the M.Phil. Committee serves as the Convener of this Committee. If none of the external examiners can be present, the Head of the Institution can nominate a substitute examiner

The Convener forwards the consolidated recommendation to the PGP Chair who forwards the same to the PGP Dean. The PGP Dean forwards the final recommendation to the Vice-Chancellor for his approval. After the Vice-Chancellor's approval, the PGP Dean issues the Provisional Certificate.

- 2.3.7 A consolidated Grade sheet shall be issued at the end of the programme, indicating the Courses undergone and the Grades secured.

There shall be no Classification and Ranking of the successful candidates.

2.3.8 Award of the M.Phil. Degree

Upon approval by the Vice-Chancellor and subsequent ratification by the Academic Council and the Board of Management of the University, the M.Phil. student will be presented to the Chancellor (or Chancellor's nominee) for award of the M.Phil. Degree at the next Convocation of the University.
