The President brought up the "Golden Showers" and said it really bothered him if his wife had any doubt about it. He then explains that he did not have dinner, that he hadn't stayed overnight in Russia during the Miss Universe trip. Twice during the conversation Reince had to intervene with a comment like "why was he even in there." but the President ignored him. The President said "the hookers thing" is nonsense but that Putin had told him "there are some awful hookers in the world." He did not say when Putin had told him this and I don't recall

The men pivoted to the Russians wanting an apology (from Bill O'Reilly's interview with Hannity and O'Reilly's reply, which was as "call him" in 2023." The President had said that O'Reilly's question about whether he respected Putin had been a hard one. He said he does respect the leader of a major country and though he had a hard answer. He then said "You think my interview was good, right?" His answer was "yes, except the part about the hookers: we aren't kind of people that Putin is." When he said this, the President paused noticeably but I don't know what he made of it. He clearly noticed I had directly criticized him.
