Step 1 - Add PHV Case Information

NOTE: ALL OUT-OF-STATE LAWYERS MUST BE REGISTERED BEFORE YOU CAN COMPLETE THE INFORMATION BELOW. Click here to register an out-of-state lawyer.

Rule 8.0 of the West Virginia's Rules for Admission to the Practice of Law requires a fee of three-hundred fifty dollars ($350) to be paid to The West Virginia State Bar for each individual applicant in each individual pro hac vice admission. The fee shall accompany a verified statement of application for pro hac vice admission which is sent to The West Virginia State Bar. The applicant's motion for pro hac vice admission shall include a verified statement that the fee has been paid to The West Virginia State Bar. Pro hac vice admission is required in every case in which the applicant seeks to act as counsel. For purposes of this rule, each civil action with a case number shall constitute a single case.

(To view a complete copy of Rule 8.0, which sets out the requirements referenced above, click here.)

In lieu of the format required by Rule 8.0, The West Virginia State Bar accepts the Pro Hac Vice forms required to be filed by the United States District Courts for the Northern and Southern Districts of West Virginia.

In order to proceed with your application, fill out the required information below and attach a copy of the Pro Hac Vice motion and verified statement you are filing with the court.

NOTE: Effective January 1, 2015 an annual fee will be assessed to any attorney who has 1 or more open Pro Hac Vice cases.
