

On December 14, 2023, the Department of Planning & Zoning hosted a Walking Tour for our City Colleagues of architecture within the Old and Historic Alexandria District (Old Town), newer architecture on development sites that are redeveloped or are under the implementation phase of the Old Town North Small Area Plan updated in 2018, and recently redeveloped areas of the Waterfront pursuant to the Waterfront Overlay Plan adopted in 2012.

The Walking Tour begins at Market Square and continues past the following sites:

- Tavern Square
- Series of 100+ year old houses
- Burke and Herbert Bank: 100 S Fairfax St
- 105-107 S Fairfax St: Stabler-Leadbeater Apothecary Museum
- 200 block of Prince St: Gentry Row, Athenaeum
- 100 block of Prince St: Captains Row
- 125 S Union St: Norman Fitzhugh warehouse
- Waterfront/projects along Union St
- Ramsey Alley/House
- 121 N Fairfax St: Carlyle House
- 133 N Fairfax St: Bank of Alexandria
- 201 N Fairfax St: Wise's Tavern
- 301 King St: City Hall
- 138 N Royal St: Gadsby's Tavern
- N. Pitt St: series of historic houses
- Corner of Pendelton and N Pitt St: The Alexan
- Corner of Pendelton and N Fairfax St: The Oronoco
- N Fairfax and Princess St: Founder's Park history
- 225 N Fairfax St
- 209 N Fairfax St: Thompson House

End at City Hall