As the chief law enforcement officer for the Commonwealth, I know how important it is for our staff to reflect the communities we serve. I am committed to making the Office of Attorney General a diverse and inclusive workplace. I am proud to support the work of the interoffice to Diversity, Leadership, and Belonging Council, which is instrumental to ensuring that all of our employees feel welcomed and have a full voice in our professional community.

Mission Statement

The Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General enforces the law and defends the interests of the Commonwealth and its diverse citizens by:

- Ensuring fair and impartial administration of justice for all Pennsylvanians;
- Advocating for fair and equitable treatment of all consumers;
- Providing leadership in preventing and controlling crime committed against Pennsylvanians;
- Pursuing just punishment without fear or favor for those guilty of unlawful behavior.

The Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General recognizes that preserving diversity, communication, and relationships must be at the foundation of everything we do for our employees. It is this recognition that drives the DEIB Office's commitment to working with employees to ensure a sense of belonging and an appreciation for the differences that will ultimately enrich the Commonwealth. We are dedicated to being a positive force that will provide guidance, training, and employment opportunities aimed at advancing our mission of equitable treatment and justice for all. When employees feel a sense of belonging and an invitation to be their authentic selves, the result is a stronger, richer, more effective workforce ready to serve all Pennsylvanians.
