COUNTY SUPERVISORS AND ELECTED COUNTY OFFICIALSMAYORS AND CITY/TOWN COUNCIL MEMBERS*FORMER LEGISLATORS

Roberto Rodriguez Hernandez, Consul General of Mexico addressed the House as follows:

Good morning.

Thank you Mr. Speaker for the kind invitation to address the members of the Legislature on such an important day for the legislative body.

Mr. Speaker, Honorable special guests, Members of the Legislature,

When President of Mexico, Enrique Peña Nieto, took the office a year ago, he defined five national goals for his administration: to have a peaceful, inclusive, well-educated, prosperous and globally-responsible Mexico.

In 2013, these goals were translated into a number of bold structural and political reforms that had been pending for 15 years and that were approved by Mexico's Congress addressing education, labor markets, telecoms competition, financial regulations, taxes, elections rules and energy. The discussion and approval of this ambitious reform package was possible in the first year of the administration thanks to the "Pact for Mexico", an agreement between the main political parties to promote the constitutional reforms Mexico needed to move forward into the 21st century. Although Congress still needs to enact secondary legislation that creates a strong legal and regulatory framework, these reforms would allow Mexico to become more competitive and appealing in the global markets, achieve higher rates of economic growth and social development, be financially more resilient and create thousands of jobs. It would also position our country as a relevant player in world affairs and an engine for global growth in North America.

One of the most significant reforms is energy. For the first time since the 1930's, foreign investment will be allowed in Mexico's hydrocarbons sector, offering the possibility to raise production, strengthen reserves and create high quality jobs. This year also marks the 20th anniversary of NAFTA, an instrument that has been crucial in expanding trade and investments, creating wealth and jobs, and making the North American region one of the most competitive. Next February, Mexico will host the North American Leaders Summit, in which President Peña Nieto, President Obama and Prime Minister Harper will address the future of our region.

In a year, the administration of President Peña Nieto has also been able to reduce the overall levels of violence and improve the Rule of Law. Although there is much more to do in the area, the right steps have been taken to strengthen the judicial and law enforcement institutions and to develop social programs oriented at preventing criminal engagement. In May 2013, the presidents of Mexico and the United States created four different mechanisms to increase the levels of coordination and cooperation between our two governments under a strategic and shared vision. These important mechanisms are:

- a) The U.S.-Mexico High Level Economic Dialogue, created to advance strategic economic and commercial priorities central to promoting mutual economic growth, job creation and global competitiveness.
- b) The U.S.-Mexico Bilateral Forum on Higher Education, Innovation, and Research to bring together government, universities, colleges and research institutions from both countries to collaborate on educational and research programs.
- c) The Mexico-U.S. Entrepreneurship and Innovation Council to coordinate and collaborate on strategies that trigger the growth of micro, small and medium enterprises.
- d) They also committed on strengthening the work of the Bilateral Executive Steering Committee for 21st-Century Border Management, which takes a comprehensive view of the various border issues, including working to reduce the cost of doing business between our two countries, develop security strategies and facilitate the secure and efficient flow of goods and people.

I believe that the time has come for a new era in the relationship between Mexico and Arizona. Today more than ever, different actors in Arizona have agreed that in order to achieve sustained economic growth and prosperity for this region, we need to take advantage of being neighbors and trade partners. We need to think bold and with a long-term vision. We need to promote today the synergies that tomorrow will allow this region to be one of the most competitive in North

First Day

America. Clear proof of this new era are four trade missions led by Phoenix Mayor, Greg Stanton, to Mexico since he assumed office and the plans to open a Phoenix Trade Office in Mexico City next spring. Another strong proof is a visit led by the Speaker of the House, Mr. Andy Tobin, and a bipartisan legislative delegation to Mexico City last September. We have been informed that two additional legislative visits are being projected for February and May of this year. All these examples are strong evidence that, today, Arizona recognizes the potential for economic growth through a closer relationship and friendship with Mexico.

Mexico is Arizona's largest trading partner. In 2012, Arizona exported 6.3 billion to Mexico, representing 34% of Arizona's total exports. In 2012, more than 100 thousand jobs in Arizona relied on export activity to Mexico. On the other hand, in 2012, Mexico exported 6.2 billion to Arizona. With a value of $13 Billion, the overall economic relationship between Mexico and Arizona is larger than Mexico's economic relationship with Central America, Spain or the Pacific alliance of South American countries. However, other states such as Texas are obtaining larger gains. There is much more to do to increase the flow of goods between Mexico and Arizona and I am confident that we will align our work in order to achieve better results. One priority is modernizing our shared border. The dynamics of trade are outpacing infrastructure and staffing. We have 21st century trade with 20th century rhetoric and 19th century infrastructure. We would like to see the rhetoric and the infrastructure come in the 21st century.

Moreover, Mexico is one of the most competitive countries in the world for productive investments due to its macroeconomic and political stability, low inflation, size and strength of its domestic market, economic growth rate and capacity to produce advanced manufacturing and high-tech products.

- Mexico is the eighth vehicle producer worldwide, with a production of 3 million cars last year. One out of every 10 vehicles sold in the United States is made in Mexico.
- Mexico is the sixth aerospace supplier to the United States with 270 aerospace companies in 2012.
- Mexico is the third IT services supplier globally, after India and the Philippines. This sector has a market value of 14.4 billion dollars.
- Mexico is the leading producer for the electric industry in Latin America, with a total production of 28.8 billion in 2012. The U.S. is one of the main destinations for Mexican-made electric products.

Furthermore, 39 percent of Mexicans are part of a growing middle class. This is about 44 million people, which represent more than the total population of Canada. Manufacturing costs in Mexico dropped below those of China in 2012. The Boston Consulting Group predicts that by 2015, production costs in Mexico will be 6 percent lower than in China. Additionally, Mexico has a young and increasingly skilled workforce ready to fuel a manufacturing explosion south of the border, as well as a favorable business environment.

In terms of tourism, according to a study by the University of Arizona from July 2007 through June 2008, Mexicans legally crossed into Arizona 24 million times. These visitors spent 2.7 billion throughout the year or 7.3 million a day, supporting approximately 160 thousand jobs in Arizona. Mexico's emerging middle class is looking for travel, recreation and business opportunities that Arizona can provide thanks to our proximity, beautiful natural sites and good weather for the most part of the year.

Because of the great potential of our bilateral relationship, the Consulate General of Mexico in Phoenix has the commitment to contribute proactively in the creation of positive synergies to advance our economic agenda. We have defined our priorities oriented at strengthening our trade, investments and tourism; promoting more binational academic exchanges, as well as regional research and innovation to boost regional economic development; and using the arts and culture as a non-partisan vehicle to achieve higher levels of understanding and appreciation between our countries and our societies.

Mexico offers countless opportunities thanks to the commitment of President Peña Nieto's government to promote reforms that foster the country's economic outlook. Geography makes Arizona and Mexico neighbors. Trade makes us partners. With your leadership and the commitment to work together in a constructive and proactive fashion, we have the potential to trigger the development of this region as one of the most dynamic, competitive and prosperous in the coming decades.

This is Mexico's moment, let's work together to achieve substantial things. Thank you.

JOINT SESSION OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE FIFTY-FIRST LEGISLATURE
SECOND REGULAR SESSION OF THE STATE OF ARIZONA

The Joint Session of the Second Regular Session of the Fifty-first Legislature was called to order by Speaker Tobin.

The Joint Organization Committee, consisting of Senators Melvin, Farnsworth and Pancrazi; and Representatives Coleman, McCune Davis and Petersen returned escorting Her Excellency, Janice K. Brewer, Governor of the State of Arizona.

Governor Janice K. Brewer, who was introduced by Speaker Tobin, delivered the following message:

STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS
FIFTY-FIRST ARIZONA LEGISLATURE
SECOND REGULAR SESSION
GOVERNOR JANICE K. BREWER
JANUARY 13, 2014

Speaker Tobin, President Biggs, Honorable Senators and Representatives of the Arizona Legislature, Chief Justice Berch and Justices of the Supreme Court, constitutional officers, tribal leaders, honored guests, and my fellow Arizonans:

It's my pleasure to welcome back Representative Doris Goodale, you've gone through a long struggle, and we're all gratified to see you here, ready to help us build a better Arizona. And while I am pleased by Doris' recovery, I was terribly saddened to lose Ben Miranda. Catherine, the state of Arizona extends our deepest sympathies for your loss, and the loss of a great public servant, your husband and my friend, Ben. His voice will be missed but let us pray that his spirit of public service lives on in all of us.

When I stood here for the first time as Governor, we faced the daunting task of navigating the state I love out of the bleakest recession in our history and back onto the path of prosperity and opportunity. I recognized that overcoming this challenge would be difficult and painful. It would require honest leadership and tough decision making. And then, of course, there are challenges we can never predict challenges that test our resolve.

This past year, Arizona experienced one of the worst tragedies in our history as we lost 19 heroic firefighters at Yarnell Hill. That June day will forever be etched into our hearts, the brave 19 and their families forever in our prayers. Please stand and join me in a moment of silence to honor these fallen firefighters.

Thank you.

Today, I am proud of the progress we've made in the past 5 years to bring about the Arizona Comeback. We steered Arizona out of a debilitating recession and implemented historic reforms and long term structural improvements that secure Arizona's prosperity for generations to come.

First Day

It's been a challenge, one I could not have fully managed without constant support and guidance from my family. I am so very grateful to them, for always being there for me. Thanks to my husband, John, and my son, Michael who once again join me in this chamber. I also appreciate the support from the people of Arizona, lawmakers, the business community, and countless others. Together, we have worked hard to guide Arizona out of the historic recession we inherited.

As my hero, Ronald Reagan, said during his 1967 inaugural as Governor of California – and I quote:

“We will put our fiscal house in order. And as we do, we will build those things we need to make our state a better place in which to live and we will enjoy them more, knowing we can afford them and they are paid for.”

I am proud to report to you today that Arizona's fiscal house is in order and, together, let's keep it that way. We've come a long way in a short time:

- In 2009, Arizona's budget was irresponsibly drained. After years of unsustainable spending, we had the worst budget deficit of any state.
- Today, we've reined in government spending by consolidating, eliminating and transforming our operations.
- In 2009, Arizona had a three billion dollar deficit.
- Today, Arizona boasts a healthy state surplus and a replenished Rainy Day Fund.
- Most impressively, we ended this past fiscal year with nearly 900 million dollars in the bank.
- There is no doubt: Arizona is back on track!
- We also remember that our state was swept up in some of the worst unemployment in our history, and Arizona businesses and families struggled to stay afloat.
- Today, we've turned things around. With help from the Arizona Commerce Authority and our historic tax reforms, our employers have created nearly 175,000 new jobs with an impressive 4.3 billion dollars in new capital investment.
- In 2009, Arizona was ranked among the worst states in antiquated, business stifling tax policies.
- Today, we're among the best for attracting and helping our businesses grow and thrive.

We lowered business property and equipment taxes, lowered corporate income taxes and lowered capital gains taxes. We even simplified sales taxes from a confusing, multi-city, multi-layered process to a single collection and audit. Don't let anyone fool you. The tax and regulatory environment in our state matters. Businesses across the nation and the world are watching. Our message to job creators has been heard: Arizona is open for business! We now have more jobs, more businesses and more opportunities for growth and prosperity. And I'm in good company believing that. Arizona is ranked in the Top 10 by CEOs nationwide and Forbes Magazine recognized us as the number one state for expected job growth. It's no surprise we have attracted and expanded major companies like Apple, GM, Intel, State Farm and many, many more. And I'm confident more are on the way.

Our focus on job creation continues to pay off. That's because we've listened to what businesses need and what attracts more of them to Arizona. We addressed the issues around uncompensated care and the hidden health care tax by again listening to the business community and honoring the will of the people. When the federal government shut down, we worked hard to reopen the Grand Canyon during a crucial time for our tourism industry. In doing so, we recovered more than one million dollars in revenue per day, benefiting our communities, businesses and the economy. We stood united in saying to Washington: Do your job! Keep the Grand Canyon open. Government should never close that which God has created.

Arizona's ability to deal with our own issues stands in sharp contrast to the federal government's inability to deal with their core responsibilities – like securing the border, fixing immigration and righting our national fiscal ship. On behalf of the people of Arizona, I say to the President and Congress: Quit fighting and get to work for the American people. Unfortunately, we can't fix Washington from here. But we can, and will continue, to show the nation how it's done. Our hard work makes it all the more rewarding to stand here today and confidently proclaim that the spirit of Arizona is strong and so is the state of our state

While some pundits and naysayers may try to brush aside such groundbreaking changes, we continue to lead with practical and principled initiatives that drive Arizona forward. We must keep Arizona competitive – in our tax structure, our education systems, and our limited government – all of which are essential to a thriving economy. Certainly, improving Arizona's business climate has been a hallmark of these past five years. And, as thrilled as I am with everything we've accomplished on behalf of Arizona businesses, I'm equally proud of the work we've done on behalf of Arizona families. From school choice policies that give parents the power to decide their children's education, to life - affirming legislation protecting the unborn, together, we have pursued and protected the values most important to Arizona's families and Arizona's future. The historic initiatives we have enacted these past few years have been transformational. We are not done and we will remain unrelenting. Let's continue to face our challenges head-on. Now is not the time to rest on our accomplishments.

Our immediate challenge is to transform our child protection system to ensure the safety and well-being of Arizona's abused and neglected children. I know this: All of us care and Arizona must do better. We created the Office of Child Welfare Investigations as an instrumental first step. Thanks to O.C.W.I., we discovered the horrifying truth that some at CPS failed to investigate, or even respond to, thousands of reports of child abuse. This is unconscionable! I created the independent C.A.R.E. Team to oversee the investigation of these cases and to identify areas of concern within CPS. I also ordered the Department of Public Safety to conduct an administrative review to determine why these cases were not investigated. I want to report that the C.A.R.E. Team is making tremendous strides. To date, nearly all of the cases have been assigned and more than 3,000 children have been seen by CPS staff or local law enforcement.

I also want to express my appreciation to Charles Flanagan, the entire C.A.R.E. Team, and the CPS staff working with them, for their dedicated efforts getting eyes on these children. But our job is far from over. It is evident that our child welfare system is broken, impeded by years of structural and operational failures. It breaks my heart and makes me angry! Enough with uninvestigated reports of abuse and neglect! Enough with the lack of transparency! And enough with the excuses! This morning, I signed an Executive Order that abolishes CPS as we know it and establishes a new Division of Child Safety and Family Services with its own Cabinet level Director who reports to me. And I've asked Charles Flanagan to serve as the director. However, we need to go even further. The time has come to statutorily establish a separate agency that focuses exclusively on the safety and well-being of children, and helping families in distress without jeopardizing child safety. I call on the Legislature to work with me to codify a new permanent agency. Child safety must be the priority and become embedded in the fabric of this new agency. It is our legal and moral duty.

Another challenge that has confronted us for far too long and has been a cornerstone of my career is behavioral health. For more than three decades, Arizona has been forced to live under court direction because we failed our Seriously Mentally ill population. As Governor, I insisted that we properly fund and fundamentally reform behavioral health into a holistic, community-based system. I'm pleased that over the past two years, with good faith negotiations in the Arnold v. Sam litigation, this goal was accomplished. This win-win solution allows the seriously mentally ill to participate in society in a more meaningful way, and to receive the services and care they require and deserve. We also introduced metrics to evaluate the system and hold it accountable. As a result of these historic reforms, I was proud to announce last week an agreement subject to final court approval that will end the Arnold v. Sam litigation, while reaffirming Arizona's commitment to a community-based behavioral health care system. Now, let me be clear: While this watershed agreement ends more than 30 years of litigation, it is structured so that if a future Governor or Legislature fails to live up to its terms, plaintiffs will be able to reopen the case. This should never happen. Arizona's system is working and is now a national model. This agreement is the result of the hard work and dedication of many devoted people. Let me recognize one instrumental leader who showed unmatched passion and commitment to improving the lives of people with mental illness. Charles Arnold, the original lead plaintiff in the lawsuit that bears his name, is with us today. Charles, would you please stand so we can thank you for your perseverance on behalf of those who often cannot speak for themselves?

We also are working to create a model for states dealing with another difficult challenge: Human trafficking traumatizes 27 million victims worldwide and targets women and children, turning many into sex slaves. It may shock you to know that it happens right here in Arizona. Let me tell you a story about one inspiring woman who triumphed over this modern-day slavery: At age 16, Savannah Sanders was forced into the commercial sex industry and battled childhood rape, homelessness and drug addiction. Thankfully, she is a survivor and a hopeful example – a loving wife and a proud mother pursuing her master's in social work at ASU. She advocates for victims, traveling the country to promote awareness and prevention and provide comfort and healing for fellow survivors. Savannah shows us that there is hope, that we can stop this abuse, and that we are stronger than this evil. This amazing woman is with us today. I'm proud of you, Savannah. Please stand and accept our gratitude for your inspirational human spirit. Last year, I established a Human Trafficking Task Force to address this problem. Co-chaired by Cindy McCain and Gil Orrantia, the task force recommended ways to better protect victims, to increase penalties for perpetrators and to end these horrible crimes. Today, I ask you to strengthen Arizona law to give prosecutors and law enforcement more tools to combat this evil and better protect victims. We also will launch an awareness campaign so Arizonans will know what to look for and how to report it and victims will know how to seek help. Further, I will create a Human Trafficking Council to coordinate efforts statewide to address this crime. To all the victims of human trafficking out there: We have not forgotten you, don't give up, help is on the way. To the criminal traffickers, I say: Your days are numbered!

I firmly believe in this great state of Arizona, in our ability to address our challenges and to be successful in pursuing tomorrow's potential. What we are doing today will set the tone for Arizona's economy and job creation for years. Our future quality of life depends on today's decisions. This year I am calling on the Legislature to approve a package to further boost Arizona's business competitiveness, particularly in technology and manufacturing sectors, which bring high-paying jobs. Arizona, for example, is one of the few states that impose a sales tax on manufacturers for the power used to create their products. That puts our current manufacturers and ones we hope to recruit at a disadvantage. I'm asking you to send me legislation to eliminate this tax and increase Arizona's competitive edge! We recognize that manufacturing is more than just an industry – it is a mighty engine of healthy job creation. Arizona can be even more competitive. Let me give you an example. Recently, I toured the Celgene plant in West Phoenix, which makes a drug that treats several forms of cancer. This breakthrough life-saving drug is produced only in Arizona and it was developed in Arizona thanks to a partnership with TGen, Scottsdale Healthcare and others. It is this type of innovative, research-driven and idea-to-market manufacturing system that ultimately produces good jobs and a healthy economy. To that end, it is imperative to have a stable, dedicated funding source for TGen to continue its valuable role as a catalyst in developing Arizona's bio-science industry. Let's help Arizona develop more pipelines of innovation—connecting quality research, a stellar workforce, and competitive manufacturing from beginning to end.

For Arizona to remain competitive on all fronts, we also cannot ignore transportation, water and other infrastructure demands. These are all paramount to creating jobs, attracting capital investment and ensuring a sustainable future. Together, we must be honest and have an open dialog about workable solutions to address these critical needs. Of course, none of our progress toward economic prosperity will ultimately work if we do not improve our K-12 schools. By 2018, three out of five jobs in Arizona will require post-secondary training. Our students must be better prepared for the challenging and competitive world they will soon enter. That means we stop funding the status quo and instead reward innovation and measured outcomes and fund the results we want. I am asking legislators to approve an ambitious and historic education proposal, which I call Student Success Funding. Under this plan, we will reward improved student performance and we will incentivize and replicate success. Also, reforms are needed in higher education. For example, Arizona families working hard to save enough for their kids to seek a university degree are flat-out tired of unpredictable tuition hikes. Arizona students and families need stability and affordability in their college education. To ensure that these twin goals are met, I am asking our Arizona Board of Regents to develop a plan and adopt a policy that guarantees stable in-state tuition levels for the four years it should take a student to graduate. Together, we should be able to make this happen. Students expect it. And Arizona's tax-paying parents deserve it!

Few things have a greater positive economic impact in Arizona communities than our military bases. Together they contribute more than nine billion to our economy annually while safeguarding our great country. We are more prepared to help the military accomplish its diverse missions than nearly any other state. I remain committed to protecting and enhancing Arizona's military bases. That is why I will direct the Military Affairs Commission to develop a strategic plan for sustaining their missions. We must be ready to protect Arizona military installations if the federal government moves to close or realign more bases. This year, I am calling on the Legislature to renew support for the Military Installation Fund. That money will be used specifically to mitigate property encroachment and preserve military land use projects without throwing that financial burden on private property owners. Protecting our military is good for Arizona and good for America.

I've been returning to the Capitol now for more than 30 years, uniting with my fellow public servants in pursuit of a shared mission: to stand up for the people we are entrusted to serve, to keep our honor clean and to leave this place better and freer than we found it. For little more than a century, representatives of the people have come to this Capitol, to lift it toward its prosperous destiny; to bring great fruit from this beautiful desert land; to hold our citizens safe from harm, and to provide children the knowledge, industry and character that will make and keep them free. Great men and great women have walked these chambers, and graced these grounds with their honorable public service. We should aspire here to rank among the best of those. For this state was built by others before us, and eventually will be left to others who will follow. It is ours to love only for a time. May we love it wisely, and lead it well. Ten years from now, whether I run again or not, I will be working in my garden, and will look back with pride. And if I can borrow a sentiment from Ronald Reagan, I will be uplifted knowing we weren't just marking time. We made a difference. We made this great state stronger; we made it freer; and we left her in good hands. May God bless us in that work, and may God forever bless and protect the great State of Arizona and the United States of America.

Thank you.

BUSINESS ON THE SPEAKER'S DESK

A communication from Governor Janice K. Brewer on disapproval of the following bill was filed:

SB 1062, vetoed February 26, 2014

Dear President Biggs,

The free exercise of religion is a founding principle of the United States of America. It is a key ideal that distinguishes our country as a land of liberty. This concept is so vital to freedom that Arizona's founders expressed the following in the preamble to the Arizona Constitution: "We the people of the State of Arizona, grateful to Almighty God for our liberties, do ordain this Constitution."

Senate Bill 1062 would statutorily extend to all businesses the right to assert a free exercise of religion defense in a judicial proceeding. The bill also would allow the assertion of the defense regardless of whether the government is a party to the proceeding.

The concerns raised by the proponents of this bill are not unfounded. As a result of actions taken by the Obama Administration, as well as some federal and out-of-state courts, I am increasingly concerned about government's encroachment upon our religious freedoms.

As Governor, I have worked to ensure that the State of Arizona maintain religious freedoms when there is a specific and present concern that exists in our state. I have signed into law numerous pieces of legislation designed to protect the religious freedoms of individuals and businesses, including legislation that protects the rights of religious affiliated businesses to choose not to provide contraceptive coverage or abortion-inducing drugs in their insurance plans. I have safeguarded against the use of zoning that might otherwise infringe on religious liberties and protected licensed professionals from having their licenses threatened because of the exercise of their religious beliefs. I also have made certain that insurers on the federal insurance exchange in our state could not require plans that include coverage for elective abortions.

Senate Bill 1062, however, does not seek to address a specific and present concern related to Arizona businesses. The out-of-state examples cited by proponents of the bill, while concerning, are issues not currently existing in Arizona. Furthermore, the bill is broadly worded and could result in unintended and negative consequences. The legislation seeks to protect businesses, yet the business community overwhelmingly opposes the proposed law. Moreover, some legislators that voted for the bill have reconsidered their votes and now do not want this legislation to become law.

These concerns are among the primary reasons I have vetoed Senate Bill 1062.

As we approach the month of March, I urge the Legislature to focus on the priorities I presented in my State of the State address. It is essential that we come together for a principled, fiscally prudent budget to continue Arizona's economic recovery and foster Arizona's business friendly environment. It also is imperative that we remain steadfast in our shared pursuit to effectively reform Arizona's child safety agency, including its culture and mission.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

Minority Report:

The FY'15 budget does little to move Arizona forward or to address urgent priorities that were severely underfunded during the economic downturn. As our economy improves, we should be looking forward and addressing these critical needs:

- Full funding for Child Protective Services and Office of Child Welfare Investigations staff is needed immediately. There is no justifiable reason to wait until the Legislature convenes a special session (to address the formation of the new Department of Child Safety and Family Services) to fund these staffing positions. The Governor's Office provided sound recommendations for staffing and funding levels which are disregarded in this budget. Staffing shortages have, in part, contributed to a legacy of tragic mismanagement of our child welfare program and have put the safety of Arizona's children in jeopardy for far too long. The failure to provide full funding for child welfare staffing needs in this budget is harmful.

- Additional resources are needed to provide more low-income working families with a child care subsidy. Access to safe child care is essential for parents to work and be productive members of society. Without access to affordable child care, parents too often face the situation of putting children in risky care settings, either with older siblings or adults who may not guarantee the safety of the child. Prevention services such as the child care subsidy help reduce the neglect that can result from poverty in the home as well as unsafe child care environments. The child care subsidy is a critical way to support families that are at risk of having a child removed from the home. Unfortunately, there is no additional funding for this important prevention program in the budget.

- A significant down payment must be made on the restoration of the over $3 billion in cuts to our K-12 education system made since 2008. We must make the needed investments today to ensure that our kids can compete for the jobs of tomorrow, and that includes funding reforms that increase accountability. In Arizona, per pupil funding remains at or near the bottom in nationwide comparisons. We must give our teachers the support and professional development they need to properly implement the new statewide academic standards that will help our students succeed and drive our economy forward. This budget continues to deny that funding, requiring local school boards to make do with the status quo as we demand they meet higher expectations. The result of this lack of funding prioritization is impacting the instruction our students need and deserve. No substantial new funding beyond the baseline amount funded in the previous year's budget is provided to traditional public schools in this budget. This amounts to essentially a cut in funding as schools are continually being asked to do more with the same funding levels.

- To allow the higher education system to continue and grow its critical role in our state's economic recovery, resources are required. We must give our universities the opportunity to expand critical research infrastructure that will attract world class researchers and innovators and further enhance our state's economic competitiveness. Appropriate funding levels for the universities helps keep tuition rates from increasing further, permitting more access to higher education opportunities for our students. The funding provided to the universities in this budget is inadequate to meet this need.

Unfortunately, this budget neglects to adequately fund Arizona's priorities. We have other choices. We must invest in our children to move Arizona forward.

For the above stated reasons, we respectfully submit this Minority Report.

BUSINESS ON THE SPEAKER'S DESK

A communication from Governor Janice K. Brewer on approval of the following bills was filed:

HB 2377, 2705, 2706, 2707, 2708, 2709, 2711, SB's 1413, 1484, 1487, signed April 11, 2014

Communications from Governor Janice K. Brewer on approval of the following bills with the exception of selected lines were filed:

HB 2703, LIVS April 11, 2014

Dear Speaker Tobin,

Today I signed House Bill 2703, the General Appropriations Act for 2014-2015, while also exercising my line-item veto authority with respect to several specific appropriations.

Overall, the budget is principled and fiscally prudent and will continue to advance Arizona's economic recovery and further foster Arizona's business friendly environment. The budget also is a significant step in the right direction for the children in our state. It funds important policy initiatives that will put more students on the path to educational success and protects Arizona's most vulnerable children.

More on child safety, however, remains to be done. On January 13, 2014, I signed an Executive Order that established a cabinet-level child safety and family services division and called for a permanent, separate agency — autonomous from the Department of Economic Security. Accordingly, I directed my staff to work with stakeholders and the Legislature in the development of legislation to do just that. That group has been working diligently for the past several months and their work continues. I look forward to partnering with the Legislature to enact that significant and historic reform in the near future.

The success of the new agency will not only require a strong administrative and operational structure, but also sufficient resources. It is imperative that we appropriate wisely and marshal available funds to accomplish this mission. I remain committed to ensuring this happens.

Specifically, I have line-item vetoed the following items of appropriation for the reasons outlined below:

- A. Attorney General — Department of Law — Northern Arizona Enforcement
- There is no specific detail provided in this bill that explains the intent of this line item or direction on how the appropriation shall be utilized.
- Section 11, page 8, line 25
- B. ADE — Alternative Teacher Development
- There are various alternative teacher development programs currently existing in Arizona. Consequently, this appropriation would be better directed towards funding child safety reforms and programs that will protect Arizona's most vulnerable children.
- Section 27, page 23, lines 32-42
- C. ADE — JTED Soft Capital and Equipment
- This Bill appropriates $1,000,000 from the state general fund exacerbating disparities between urban and rural JTEDs.
- Section 27, Page 24, lines 20-25
- D. LAN — Northern Arizona Landing Strip
- It is unclear what state purpose is advanced by this appropriation. Additionally, small landing strips create liability exposure and expense for the state, and this appropriation is likely insufficient to cover those ongoing expenses.
- Section 53, page 38, line 16
- E. Other — Ombudsman
- This bill appropriates $828,500 from the state general fund to the Ombudsman-citizens aide office, which is an increase of $200,00 from last fiscal year. While the additional $200,000 increase for FY 2015 is intended to fund caseload growth as a result of the new child safety and family services agency, it is premature to appropriate additional resources when the case load impact has not yet been determined and overall resources for the new agency are still being analyzed.
- I have tasked the child safety work group to design a new agency that emphasizes transparency and accountability. In the upcoming special session on child safety, we can revisit the scope of funding for the Ombudsman-citizens aide office.
- Section 54, page 39, line 7
- F. ADOA — Small Scale Computing Study
- ADOA-ASET has already been directed and is engaging state agencies to collect a detailed inventory of hardware and software assets. The effort to track remaining or outlying systems that have not already been identified would be very time consuming and resource intensive, with little additional information likely to be produced beyond what has already been obtained.
- Section 119, page 63, lines 3-14
- G. ADOA — TPT Electricity Exemption County Backfill

Ninety-second Day

The bill appropriates $1,300,000 from the state general fund to the counties to “backfill revenue loss” resulting from the enactment of Senate Bill 1413 – a bill that improves Arizona’s economic competitiveness statewide. The financial benefit of this unnecessary appropriation would be minimal as the likely distribution of funds represents a small fraction of a percent of each affected count budget. More importantly, this appropriation would have set a policy precedent that would undermine future efforts to improve the competitiveness of Arizona’s tax code.

Section 122, pages 63, lines 34-44

I know we are all committed to preserving Arizona’s economic recovery, as well as our shared pursuit to effectively reform Arizona’s child safety agency, including its culture and mission. I look forward to our continued collaboration toward these shared goals.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

SB 1488, LIVS April 11, 2014

Dear President Biggs,

Today I signed Senate Bill 1488, the K-12 Budget Reconciliation Bill for 2014-2015, while also exercising my line-item veto authority with respect to a specific appropriation.

I have line-item vetoed the following item of appropriation for the reasons outlined below:

ADE – Transfers — Accountability and Achievement Testing Program

Arizona’s families and teachers deserve a state assessment that accurately measures critical thinking and problem solving abilities rather than rote memorization. The budget adds funding for Arizona’s state assessment program and it would be inconsistent to redirect those same funds out of the program for an unrelated purpose.

Section 20 B., page 51, lines 19-23

I know we are all committed to preserving Arizona’s economic drivers, especially education. I look forward to our continued collaboration toward this shared goal.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

Communications from Governor Janice K. Brewer on disapproval of the following bills was filed:

HB 2281, vetoed April 22, 2014

Dear Speaker Tobin,

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2281, which would have provided a 95% reduction in the assessed valuation of "property, buildings and fixtures that are leased to a nonprofit religious assembly or institution and that are primarily used for religious worship." While I appreciate the desire to equalize the tax treatment between religious groups that lease property and those that own property, I have several concerns.

One Hundred First Day

First, since lease rates are based on market dynamics, there is no guarantee that property owners will pass this benefit on to their tenants, despite a provision in the bill that attempts to accomplish this. Second, we know from experience the administrative challenges assessors deal with to accurately classify residential rental properties. Similarly, this legislation would have significantly compounded these challenges by requiring the tracking of commercial property usage, as well as leasing categories for the anticipated religious purposes. Third, unlike the information available on the known quantity of charter schools, there is insufficient data to determine the size of the tax shift to homeowners and businesses that would have occurred as a result of this legislation.

Our property tax classification system is one of the most complicated in the nation and continues to be one of Arizona's thorniest tax policy problems. Our nine classes of property create, by design, huge disparities and shifts in property tax burdens. Granting piecemeal relief exacerbates inequities and results in additional constituencies seeking similar treatment.

Arizona should instead engage in a rational process to determine a fair and equitable way to minimize the adverse impacts of our classification system.

These concerns are among the primary reasons I vetoed House Bill 2281

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

HB 2339, vetoed April 22, 2014

Dear Speaker Tobin,

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2339, which would have required public entities to provide security personnel and screening devices at each entrance into public buildings in order to limit or prohibit weapons. As you know, I vetoed similar measures in 2011 and 2012 and the majority of my concerns were not addressed in House Bill 2339.

I am a strong proponent of the Second Amendment, and I have signed into law numerous pieces of legislation to advance and protect gun rights. However, I cannot support this measure in its proposed form.

I also am concerned about the fiscal impact of this legislation. This bill would establish an unfunded mandate on our state and local governments. It is an unnecessary diversion of limited resources.

These concerns are among the primary reasons I have vetoed House Bill 2339.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

HB 2367, vetoed April 22, 2014

Dear Speaker Tobin,

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2367. This bill would have required AHCCCS to submit an annual waiver request to the federal government to implement a lifetime enrollment limit after five years, work requirements on specific AHCCCS enrollees, and impose co-pay requirements on certain emergency room visits and related transportation.

As Governor, I have fought to obtain efficiencies and additional flexibility in the administration of our AHCCCS program. I am a firm believer in the importance of personal responsibility, particularly as it relates to health care. Under my leadership, we were successful in obtaining new flexibility in the provision of medical services, modernizing the AHCCCS reimbursement methodology, maximizing enrollee cost sharing, and strengthening AHCCCS program integrity. I have a record of promoting innovation in the provision of state services, including Medicaid coverage. The waiver mandated in House Bill 2367, however, would have had a negative impact on the citizens of our state and our health care delivery system.

Wednesday, April 23, 2014

One Hundred First Day

In addition to honoring the will of the voters as expressed under Proposition 204, one of the main reasons I advanced my Medicaid Restoration Plan was to address rising uncompensated care costs. The childless adult enrollment freeze resulted in more than 150,000 childless adults losing access to healthcare coverage. As we learned during the debate over Medicaid Restoration, their medical needs did not disappear – more than 18,000 of these individuals had cancer and more than 65,000 had suffered an injury or trauma. These individuals still required care, hospitals were still required to provide care, and Arizona families and business were paying for it. An AHCCCS analysis showed hospital uncompensated care increased 45 percent during the first year of the freeze. The impact on Arizona families, employers and all who access health care in our state was significant.

While I share your concerns about long-term reliance on government assistance, this waiver would have brought our healthcare sector to a breaking point. Estimates show the five year lifetime enrollment limit could have meant disenrolling up to 212,664 adults, or almost half of the AHCCCS adult membership. An additional 253,571 children would lose coverage as soon as they reached their 18th birthday, as the bill makes no exception for enrollment during childhood when determining the five year limit. Although the bill includes some exceptions to the limit, it is not possible to determine precisely how many individuals fall into those exceptions. Regardless, it is clear hundreds of thousands of Arizonans would have been affected.

It is important to remember that individuals under 100 percent of the Federal Poverty Level are ineligible for tax credits on the Federal Marketplace. So, this bill effectively eliminates the ability of almost half a million Arizona citizens to obtain health care coverage. From a human perspective, the impact of so many people losing their health care right after restoring coverage for childless adults this year is troublesome, particularly because as we all know, their medical needs will still exist. From an economic perspective, we know from experience this would result in a tremendously high level of uncompensated care and destabilize Arizona's healthcare industry.

I have long said that exporting the AHCCCS model to other states and continuing our innovation and leadership on Medicaid quality and efficiency are critical to ensuring the program's long-term sustainability. To that end, I have instructed the Director of AHCCCS to continue to work toward Medicaid reform at a national level.

These concerns are the primary reasons that I have vetoed House Bill 2367.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

HB 2517, vetoed April 22, 2014

Dear Speaker Tobin,

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2517, which would have required a court to declare invalid any act or ordinance that violates state laws concerning the regulation of firearms. It also would subject an elected or other government official to personal liability while in the performance of their official duties.

A person or an organization, who perceives that an ordinance is illegal, already may seek remedies through the legal system. The bill also broadly mandates that a court make findings and take prescribed action without regard to consideration of facts. Furthermore, I am troubled by the vague and punitive provision that a person in violation of the statute is "subject to termination from employment."

These concerns are among the primary reasons I have vetoed House Bill 2517.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

SB 1211, vetoed April 22, 2014

Dear President Biggs,

Today, I vetoed Senate Bill 1211. This bill was designed to deal with the reintroduction of the Mexican wolf in Arizona. The reintroduction is being implemented under the construct of the Endangered Species Act (ESA). It is well known that I am a strong supporter of states' rights; however, I believe Senate Bill 1211 is unnecessary and conflicts with federal law.

One Hundred First Day

The bill would have directed the Arizona Department of Agriculture to engage in an issue that is being properly managed by the Arizona Game and Fish Department (AZGFD). The legislation also attempted to manage the Mexican wolf like other “protected” predators such as mountain lions and bears. A state simply does not have the power to allow a take on federal lands. Lastly, the bill requires the AZGFD to request information from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, something the department can already do.

These concerns are among the primary reasons I have vetoed Senate Bill 1211.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

One Hundred First Day

Communications from Governor Janice K. Brewer on disapproval of the following bills were filed:

HB 2338, vetoed April 23, 2014

Dear Speaker Tobin,

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2338, which would have established a new crime of knowingly taking control or attempting to take control of a person's lawfully possessed firearm, with the intent to use that firearm to cause harm. Current Law already provides appropriate penalties for the conduct described in this legislation.

These concerns are among the primary reasons I have vetoed House Bill 2338.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

HB 2459, vetoed April 23, 2014

Dear Speaker Tobin,

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2459. This legislation would have prohibited state agencies from adopting new rules that would increase regulations on the free exercise of property rights, and limit a state agency to only adopting new or amended rules that are strictly ministerial.

When I became Governor, my first official action was to institute a rulemaking moratorium that would prevent additional burdens on Arizona's job creators. Since then, my administration has diligently and consistently sought new ways to eliminate burdensome regulatory mandates and streamline existing rules which bolster Arizona's economy.

In addition to the rules moratorium, my administration has implemented historic regulatory reform measures that have streamlined the rulemaking process, increased efficiency and service quality. Through these reforms we have unchained Arizona job creators from overburdening government regulations. Thanks to these reforms, Arizona now has more jobs, more businesses and is better positioned for sustained growth and prosperity.

While I commend the sponsor for the effort to reduce regulations, I believe this legislation would have unintended consequences negatively impacting state agencies ability to implement state law.

These concerns are among the primary reasons I have vetoed House Bill 2459.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

HB 2699, vetoed April 23, 2014

Dear Speaker Tobin,

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2699. This legislation was designed to reimburse individuals that sustained losses from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Mexican Wolf Recovery Program (Program).

I am concerned that this legislation directs the Arizona State Land Department (Department) to negotiate and execute land use agreements with private landowners and with the federal government for the use and diminution in value of their lands under this Program. The Department has thousands of grazing lessees, many of which are impacted by the Program. This legislation did not have an appropriation and the budget had no additional monies for the Department to cover the costs of implementing this legislation. Furthermore, there is no direct benefit for the Arizona State Land Trust beneficiaries as this is a non-Trust related function and Trust resources cannot be used.

Lastly, a state cannot compel the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Services (USFWS) to compensate the state or private landowners for losses or compel the USFWS to enter into land use agreements with private land owners. The USFWS has authority under the Endangered Species Act (ESA) to develop agreements with states and private landowners under the terms of the Act. The converse, however, is not recognized wherein the USFWS has to adhere to the dictates of a state regarding the administration of the ESA.

One Hundred First Day

These concerns are among the primary reasons I have vetoed House Bill 2699.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

SB 1048, vetoed April 23, 2014

Dear President Biggs,

Today, I vetoed Senate Bill 1048, which would have allowed owners of an "S" corporation to claim an individual income tax credit for a corporate contribution to a school tuition organization (STO). While the spirit of this legislation is consistent with my record as a strong and long-time advocate for both private and public school choice, I have several concerns.

First, the aggregate cap on the credit continues to grow by 20 percent per year. When this tax credit was enacted in 2006, the cap was $10 million. As a result of the automatic inflator, the cap is currently $36 million and will exceed $100 million in FY 2020. The cap will continue to increase each year in perpetuity. Such rapid growth in the capacity of a tax credit should occur after careful consideration by the Legislature and in relation to other tax and expenditure decisions, not by formula. Second, the bill would have allowed an owner of an "S" corporation to circumvent the caps that exist for individual contributions to STOs. Third, I am concerned that this legislation would be unnecessarily burdensome for the Department of Revenue to administer.

During my time as Governor, Arizona has made great progress in both expanding school choice and improving its tax system. I am concerned that the continued use of tax credits to achieve other policy objectives will undermine future efforts to enact broad based tax reforms.

These concerns are among the primary reasons I vetoed Senate Bill 1048.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

SB 1201, vetoed April 23, 2014

Dear President Biggs,

Today, I vetoed Senate Bill 1201. I do now oppose adding autocycles and motorized quadricycles to the definition section of the transportation statutes. However, the bill also allows motorized quadricycles to be licensed as limousines, which allows passengers to consume alcohol in these vehicles. This visible consumption of alcohol on public streets in these open air vehicles is inconsistent with our open container and public consumption laws. Furthermore, I am concerned that these vehicles could present a public safety risk and provide little protection to the passengers, particularly if these passengers are drinking alcohol. Law enforcement agencies also have expressed concerns regarding these issues.

These concerns are among the primary reasons I have vetoed Senate Bill 1201.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

SB 1483, passed on final passage, 17-11-2

The following letters of transmittal from Governor Janice K. Brewer were received on April 17, 2014:

HB 2024, aggressive solicitation; offenses

Dear Speaker Tobin,

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2024. The bill would have established the offense of aggressive solicitation and specified a violation as a class 1 misdemeanor. It is unclear what statewide concern this legislation intends to address. Accordingly, political subdivisions are in a better position to address this issue as it applies to their local community.

These concerns are among the primary reasons I have vetoed House Bill 2024.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

HB 2541, federal land; emergency access

Dear Speaker Tobin,

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2541. This bill purportedly would have granted state or local jurisdictions access to federal lands to respond to a declared emergency and to use equipment necessary to remedy the emergency.

There are constitutional issues with the state "granting" access to federal land. A memorandum of understanding with federal land managers would be a better approach for state and local jurisdictions to gain the needed access to federal lands in an emergency.

These concerns are among the primary reasons I vetoed House Bill 2541.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

HB 2611, rescue operation personnel; limited liability

Dear Speaker Tobin,

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2611. The bill would have exempted a member of an organized search and rescue team involved in a search and rescue operation from civil liability unless the person was grossly negligent. The bill is overly broad and does not define and organized search and rescue team. Although I appreciate the intent of this bill, the broad language in the bill presents unintended consequences that cannot be overlooked.

These concerns are among the primary reasons I have vetoed House Bill 2611.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

Letters of transmittal received after adjournment sine die from Governor Janice K. Brewer indicated the following:

On April 24, 2014, the Governor approved the following:

SB 1047, closing protection letters; escrow agents

SB 1051, ~~technical correction; military affairs~~

 SB 1401, United States submarine memorial
 HB 2415, ~~information technology; interoperable radio communications~~
 (now: waste facility; prime contracting deduction)
 HB 2437, public committees; repeal; sunset

On April 24, 2014, the Governor disapproved the following:

HB 2262, transportation network services

Dear Secretary Bennett,

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2262. The bill would have permitted transportation network companies (TNC) to operate in Arizona without the fundamental safeguards necessary to protect passengers, TNC drivers and the public.

Consumer safety must not be sacrificed for the sake of innovation. Under this legislation, TNCs are not required to have their drivers undergo pre-employment and random drug testing. Arizona employers have effectively used employee drug testing as a way to ensure a drug free workplace. This is a vital tool to ensure that passengers and other drivers on the road are protected from drivers operating under the influence. My Administration made it clear to all stakeholders that drug testing was an essential provision to be included in this legislation.

House Bill 2262 also created gaps in insurance coverage that resulted in a financial risk to the TNC's drivers, passengers and other motorists. The TNC drivers are using their personal vehicle for a commercial activity. Personal auto insurance policies typically exclude coverage when the vehicle is used for a commercial activity. The legislation does not require a TNC to provide commercial coverage for damage to the driver's car, coverage for injuries suffered by the driver or property damage as a result of an accident. This insurance gap leaves the TNC driver exposed to severe financial risk. In the larger context, this uncovered exposure likely would have led to significant increases in insurance rates for all Arizona consumers and unnecessary litigation.

Financial institutions that make car loans require that the borrower maintain comprehensive coverage on the vehicle at all times. These loans are secured by the car and the insurance gaps created by House Bill 2262 may cause the financial institutions to either force commercial coverage onto the borrower or immediately call the loan. Further, this legislation would have made Arizona the only state to allow commercial activity involving motor vehicles to be uninsured, and in the end, the cost of auto loans likely would have increased for all Arizonans.

Arizona welcomes the TNC industry and offers these companies a business friendly regulatory environment. This legislation, however, places Arizona citizens at risk of deficient insurance coverage, higher insurance premiums, and higher auto loan costs. It also would subject consumers to drivers who would not have been tested for drugs, unlike what is required for school bus, light rail, taxi and other public transportation drivers.

These concerns are among the primary reasons that I have vetoed House Bill 2262.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
 Governor

HB 2313, capital sentencing; aggravators; serious offenses

Dear Secretary Bennett,

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2313, which would have established in Arizona's death penalty statute an additional aggravating circumstance and expanded the list of serious offenses in determining whether to impose a sentence of death. The aggravating circumstance language is overly broad and vague. Additionally, the expansion of serious offenses contemplated in the bill does not appear necessary in light of the existing list of offenses.

The proposed additional language in the legislation broadens the scope of those eligible for the death penalty to the point where the constitutionality of Arizona's death penalty statute likely would be challenged and potentially declared to be unconstitutional. Arizona's death penalty statute has withstood constitutional challenges in both state and federal courts because it sufficiently narrows the class of individuals eligible for the death penalty.

These concerns are among the primary reasons I have vetoed House Bill 2313.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

HB 2316, schools; local control; student privacy

Dear Secretary Bennett,

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2316, which would have limited the authority of Arizona to set academic standards and placed important aspects of the state's education system at risk.

The language in the bill is redundant and unnecessary. Arizona's College and Career Ready Standards were not developed or mandated by the federal government. The State Board of Education, Arizona's constitutional entity charged with adopting state standards, is already required to use an open and transparent process. The Arizona Department of Education (ADE) does not mandate curricula or instructional approaches unless specifically required by law. Accordingly, it is unnecessary to pass a law that requires government agencies to follow the law.

The bill also prohibits ADE from requiring school districts and charter schools to use specific instructional approaches. Therefore, it could have likely preempted ADE from stipulating that schools teach early reading with a phonics-based emphasis, and from enforcing the requirements of Structured English Immersion Program.

These concerns are among the primary reasons I vetoed House Bill 2316.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

HB 2385, cost accounting study committee

Dear Secretary Bennett,

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2385, which would have created a state agency cost accounting study committee. The Legislature already has the authority to create a study committee. Accordingly, this legislation is not necessary.

While I appreciate the desire to increase the efficiency of state government operations, these concerns are among the primary reasons I vetoed House Bill 2385.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

SB 1366, firearm; definition

Dear Secretary Bennett,

Today, I vetoed Senate Bill 1366, which would have changed the existing firearm definition, thereby excluding certain weapons that could cause a serious injury or a fatality. Those weapons would then be permitted into public buildings, including courts, community corrections facilities and polling places. Law enforcement officers also would be prohibited from temporarily taking such a weapon away from someone during an interaction or an interview.

Additionally, this bill removes the “readily convertible” definition of a firearm. As a result, that could permit an individual and an accomplice to carry two pieces of a weapon into a public building. Once inside, the weapon could then be easily reassembled as a firearm.

These concerns are among the primary reasons I have vetoed Senate Bill 1366.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

HB 2694, theme park districts; formation; bonds
HB 2701, TPT; health sciences institutions; exemption

On April 30, 2014, the Governor disapproved the following:

HB 2564, peace officer standards; training board

Dear Secretary Bennett,

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2564, which would have established new thresholds for cities' population used to appoint chiefs of police to the Arizona Peace Officer Standards and Training Board. The bill creates an unexplained gap in population thresholds in differentiating the categories of large cities and small cities. It also specified that the population thresholds be determined exclusively by the 2010 decennial census.

As a strong supporter of our law enforcement community, we need to ensure that all cities in Arizona are eligible to have representation on the Board.

These concerns are among the primary reasons I have vetoed House Bill 2564.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

HB 2661, domestic farm wineries; fruit pomace

Dear Secretary Bennett,

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2661. This legislation would have modified regulations pertaining to farm winery licenses and would have created a new craft distiller license. Earlier today, I signed Senate Bill 1397, which contains identical provisions found in House Bill 2661. Accordingly, signing House Bill 2661 would be redundant and unnecessary.

These concerns are among the primary reasons I have vetoed House Bill 2661.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

HB 2664, income tax revisions

Dear Secretary Bennett,

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2664, which would have permanently increased the maximum individual and corporate income tax deduction for the purchase of qualifying machinery and equipment from $25,000 to $500,000.

I have several concerns with this proposal. First, this legislation would have isolated one provision of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and enacted it permanently into Arizona law. This is inconsistent with the state's longstanding policy to consider each year whether to conform to the IRC in the context of other tax policy and budget considerations. Second, enacting this change would cost the state $25 million in fiscal year 2015. It is imperative that we marshal available resources to create and appropriately fund a new child safety agency. Accordingly, the money would be better utilized to fund critical child safety functions, services and reforms.

These concerns are among the primary reasons I vetoed House Bill 2664.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

SB 1386, supplemental appropriation; external CPS review

Dear Secretary Bennett,

Today, I vetoed Senate Bill 1386, which would have appropriated $250,000 to the Arizona Department of Administration to contract with a consultant to analyze Arizona's current child safety system. While I appreciate the premise of Senate Bill 1386, the substance of the bill should be a part of the broader child safety reform discussions and considered in the upcoming special session.

Over the past five months I have intentionally engaged external experts in the reform of our child safety system. Specifically, I established an independent child welfare examination team (CARE Team) to intervene in the investigation of previously “not investigated” cases – and to examine the prior child protective services system to identify areas of concern, including consideration of personnel, operations, processes, and policies. The CARE Team completed that review and submitted comprehensive recommendations in January that are currently being implemented.

I also tasked the Arizona Department of Public Safety (DPS) with conducting an administrative review of the process that led to the over 6,500 cases that were not investigated. DPS recently completed its work and the report has further informed administrative action and reforms. Additionally, in January, I signed an Executive Order that created a cabinet-level child safety and family services division. I also called for the establishment of a stand-alone child safety and family services agency.

It is well known that my administration has been working with members of the Legislature and stakeholders to develop legislation to create the new agency. Part of that work has been interweaving accountability and transparency mechanisms into the design of a new agency, including an annual performance review by an external entity and the creation of an inspections bureau. The inspections bureau will ensure that department policies and procedures are followed by all staff in accordance with federal and state law and will provide ongoing monitoring and evaluation of the agency’s programs and services in an effort to continuously improve the practices of the department.

Division of Child Safety and Family Services Director Charles Flanagan has been diligent in seeking input from community groups, stakeholders, families affected by the child welfare system, and local, state, and national subject-matter experts in the development of a new child safety and family services agency. As a result of that engagement, Director Flanagan has already begun instituting new reforms that reflect stakeholder feedback, best practices, and innovation.

Given the reality of limited resources and staff capacity, it is important to consider all the child welfare reforms comprehensively. These concerns are among the primary reasons I vetoed Senate Bill 1386.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

SB 1483, county supervisors; population threshold; membership

Dear Secretary Bennett,

Today, I vetoed Senate Bill 1483. This legislation would have modified the population threshold requirement for counties to change the number of members on the board of supervisors. Earlier today, I signed House Bill 2420, which contains identical provisions found in Senate Bill 1483, and also requires a cost estimate of each additional member to be added to the board of supervisors to be included in the election publicity pamphlet. Accordingly, signing Senate Bill 1483 would be redundant and unnecessary.

These concerns are among the primary reasons that I have vetoed Senate Bill 1483.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER

On May 05, 2014, the Governor approved the following:

HB 2328, STOs; grants; corporate tax credit

On May 5, 2014, the Governor approved the following with the exception of selected lines:

SB 1282, Racing Omnibus

Dear Secretary Bennett,

Today, I signed Senate Bill 1282, while also exercising my line-item veto authority with respect to a specific appropriation. This legislation will, among other things, create an alternate form of pari-mutuel wagering for horse and dog racing known as advanced deposit wagering.

Pari-mutuel wagering has been permitted in Arizona since early statehood. The bill is explicitly clear that Arizona is authorizing advanced deposit wagering and expressly prescribes that the wager must be placed over the telephone. Senate Bill 1282 does not authorize and cannot be construed as authorizing internet gaming. In fact, Section 10 of the bill specifically addresses the intent of this legislation that internet gaming is not authorized. The Department of Gaming, as well as my staff, have met and discussed this legislation with various tribal groups and associations and there is an unequivocal consensus that this bill does not impact nor cause any issue relating the Arizona Tribal-State Gaming Compact. It is the well-established position of the State that internet gaming is not authorized in Arizona and, if pursued, the State will steadfastly and aggressively litigate any attempt to commence internet gaming in Arizona.

Specifically, I have line-item vetoed the following appropriation which would have appropriated $1.2 million to the Arizona Breeders' Award Fund and the County Fair Racing Fund during a time when we are instead marshaling resources to fund child safety reform.

A. Arizona Breeders' Award Fund and County Fair Racing Fund

Section 6, page 15, line 24 strike "and", lines 25-28, and line 29 strike "by subsection I of this Section"

Section 7, page 18, lines 31-35

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor

On May 5, 2014, the Governor disapproved the following:

HB 2327, motor vehicle; definition; exclusion; insurance

Dear Secretary Bennett,

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2327. This bill would allow insurance companies to cancel or non-renew an auto insurance policy if the vehicle is principally garaged outside of Arizona. Many Arizona residents such as students and winter visitors split their time between Arizona and other states. The legislation, as drafted, does not define "principally garaged outside Arizona." As a result, the bill enables an insurance company to determine if a vehicle is principally garaged outside of Arizona. Furthermore, the legislation may have the unintended consequence of removing important consumer protections, such as receiving proper notice of the cancellation and the right to protest a cancellation, from customers.

These concerns are among the primary reasons I vetoed House Bill 2327.

Sincerely,

/s/JANICE K. BREWER
Governor
