Speaker Mesnard signed House Resolution 2001 in open session.

BUSINESS ON THE SPEAKER'S DESK

Speaker Mesnard announced that, without objection, Chuck Fitzgerald was appointed House Sergeant at Arms.

Speaker Mesnard offered the following remarks:

Good afternoon!

Welcome to the House of Representatives for the Opening Day of the Second Regular Session of the Fifty-third Legislature.

We've got a tight schedule today so I won't take too much time, but I did want to take a few minutes to share some thoughts with my colleagues, and with the public.

The first day of session is a perfect time to keep in mind that we're all here because we want to make this state a better place for our constituents. As different political parties, and even within our parties, we often have very divergent ideas about what a better Arizona looks like and how to best achieve that vision. Disagreements are going to happen. It is inevitable.

But as Barry Goldwater used to say, "To disagree, one doesn't have to be disagreeable."

First Day

Challenging the impact and effect of each other's bills and ideas is part of the process because it ultimately refines legislation. But questioning each other's motives can do great damage to this institution. We must assume the very best in one another unless we have specific reason to do otherwise.

As some like to point out, our society seems to be more and more polarized. If such is the case it's not at all surprising that such polarization manifests here in the body that represents the people.

That does not mean, however, that in the midst of our own polarization and passionate disagreements that we can't be respectful and civil to one another. Certainly when differing world views and value systems converge – and maybe collide – in one place (right here!), things are going to get messy. But as we pass laws and rules for society, may I suggest that we remember the Golden Rule, which a very wise man once said sums up all the law: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you. Treat people how you'd like to be treated.

Simple, not always easy when emotions run high. But I propose we make it the motto of this chamber, not just for this session and this year, but moving forward. Doing this one thing will solve a host of issues, namely our treatment of one another.

You know, the issue of treatment has gotten a lot of attention in recent weeks. This place—the environment and how it operates, the culture—has been criticized. Specifically, how women are treated, whether they be legislators, lobbyists or members of the general public. As a person who cares deeply about this institution (as I know you do), it has been disheartening and disturbing to hear about accounts of maltreatment and disrespect. To hear people suggest that this doesn't feel like a safe place for some.

While I am certain this is an issue not unique to the Arizona Legislature, I want to say today that I know we can do better. We must do better. And I use that pronoun, "we," deliberately. Whether or not you believe everything that's been said or written about, we've been called out as an institution. And we must not ignore it. Rather we must use it as a motivator to improve.

The prestige and reputation of this place is not going to be defined by one noble person, nor should it be defined by any one miscreant. But it will be defined by us collectively. That's why we must hold each other accountable. We are the representatives of the people and we should be held to the highest of standards in how we act and interact with others.

As leaders of this state, we must strive not to merely pass laws, but to exemplify them. Surely in the midst of our different ideals this is one we can all agree on! If we are hearing a growing chorus of folks suggesting that there is definitely room for improvement, in particular as to how women are treated here, we can't dismiss it. It's our responsibility to take a hard long look.

So, let me address my fellow male colleagues for a moment: I suggest that we must be better men. All of us. I am not aiming this admonishment at any one person. But each of us. At myself! While we can only be responsible for our own actions, we can still help to hold each other to the highest standard of conduct, insisting that we be true gentlemen. Let's treat all women—regardless of their background, their age, their looks, their political affiliation, their role in the process—as ladies, as we would like anybody to treat our wives, our daughters, mothers, sisters.

The people are watching us. As these discussions about harassment and conduct, and the treatment of women especially, are taking place across the country in all aspects of society, they're wondering if things will improve. Let's show them that it can and it will, beginning right here at the capitol, in the great state of Arizona.

After all, we're a state that in many aspects has led the way as it relates to women in leadership, going all the way back to our founding. That's something we can and should be proud of, and what we should remember as we confront this issue.

Why am I bringing up this kind of sensitive, perhaps uncomfortable, topic on Opening Day? Quite simply, to show that we're taking what we've heard very seriously. Rather than dismiss the issue, we're tackling it head on.

It is not partisan. It is not political. It is a matter of right and wrong. It's a matter of respect.

Fortunately, new years have a way of offering the opportunity for a new beginning. A fresh start. I am not suggesting that we wipe the slate clean and act as if the past hasn't happened. We can't do that. We won't do that. But, in the midst of confronting what has been, let's use today to mark the beginning of a renewed attitude of respect. A new era, if you will: the Golden rule era, perhaps.

First Day

Is this idealistic? Sure. But I refuse to believe it is unrealistic. In fact, I have every confidence that if we stand together in this, if each day we take a moment to remind ourselves and each other of this goal, we can succeed. We can make this place the example.

I would be remiss if I didn't add that do I believe (with all my heart) that most who have served here, who are serving here, have been noble and honorable men and women. We should sing their praises just as loudly as we condemn those who at times haven't been.

It is truly a privilege to serve alongside all of you and I look forward to working with you as we try to make Arizona a better place, beginning right here in the halls of the Legislature!

Thank you, happy New Year and now let's get started.

Speaker Mesnard introduced his family, special guests, dignitaries and friends.

Mr. Friese requested a respectful moment of silence in memory of the victims of the Tucson shooting which occurred January 8, 2011.

BUSINESS ON THE SPEAKER'S DESK

Motion by Mr. Allen that a committee be appointed to notify the Senate that the House is organized and ready for the transaction of business, and to act with a like committee from the Senate to wait upon the Governor giving notification that the Legislature is organized and ready to receive his message. Carried and Speaker Mesnard appointed Members Barton, Alston, Campbell, Lawrence and Saldate as such a committee.

Special Guest Chandler Jones, outside linebacker for the Arizona Cardinals, addressed the House as follows:

Thank you very much.

And thank all of you for allowing me to join you on the opening day of your 2018 session.

As you just heard, I'm from upstate New York near Rochester, played in college at Syracuse and then in New England for four years. So if you've looked at a weather map in the last week you understand at least one of the reasons why I'm so excited to be with you here in Phoenix today.

When I came to Arizona a couple years ago it was quite a change and I had no idea what to expect. But the welcome from the fans and this community has been incredible and I have learned what all of you learned long ago - Arizona is an incredible place to work and to live.

I've played six seasons in the NFL and I've had only two head coaches: Bill Belichick and Bruce Arians. I don't think you could find two more different personalities or styles. But it goes to show you there's no one proven type of leadership because both are incredibly successful and accomplished by doing it their way.

I was trying to think of one thing I could pass along from each of them that may apply to what you all do:

Belichick: Do your job...do YOUR job. What we do as a team and what you do as a legislature is about working together rather than individually. There are eleven people on the football field; ten of the eleven could do their job perfectly but if one doesn't execute, the whole play fails. Everyone knows their assignment – just do yours. If all eleven do, you succeed. If you try to do more than that or worry about someone else's responsibility you probably fail. That's Coach Belichick's mantra: Do your job. Do it well. And we will all succeed.

Arians: Work in the moment. Worry about today's work today – A football season is all about routine and rhythm and preparation. If it's Wednesday, don't worry about what you have to do on Sunday. Focus on your Wednesday conditioning and practice and studying and attack it with full effort and enthusiasm. Game days are awesome but success on Sunday only comes when you've done what you needed to on the other six days. And while those other days may not have the excitement and cheering crowds, it's absolutely necessary.

The other thing I think we have in common is that so many people are counting on us. There's nothing like running out on the field at University of Phoenix Stadium in front of 65,000 fans who are so invested in what you are doing. People ask me if that's a lot of pressure. I always say that "pressure is a privilege." I've dreamed and worked my whole life for this opportunity and it is absolutely a privilege to be in this position.

I would imagine that's the case for many of you as well.

First Day

Once again, it's a pleasure to be here today and on behalf of all of us at the Cardinals, thank you for the work that you all do.

Here's to a great 2018 for all of us!

The Sergeant at Arms announced the Senate Organization Committee consisting of Senators Burges, Dalessandro, Kerr, Mendez and Smith who informed the House that the Senate was organized and ready for the transaction of business.

Speaker Mesnard thanked the Senate Organization Committee.

JOINT SESSION OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF
REPRESENTATIVES OF THE FIFTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE
SECOND REGULAR SESSION OF THE STATE OF ARIZONA

The Joint Session of the Second Regular Session of the Fifty-third Legislature was called to order by Representative Javan D. Mesnard, Speaker of the House of Representatives, at 2:14 p.m.

The Joint Organization Committee, consisting of Senators Burges, Dalessandro, Kerr, Mendez and Smith and Representatives Barton, Alston, Campbell, Lawrence and Saldate, returned escorting His Excellency Doug Ducey, Governor of the State of Arizona.

Governor Doug Ducey, who was introduced by Speaker Mesnard, delivered the following message:

STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS
GOVERNOR DOUG DUCEY
SECOND REGULAR SESSION
FIFTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE
JANUARY 8, 2018

Speaker Mesnard, President Yarbrough, Chief Justice Bales, Members of the Legislature and Judiciary, all of my fellow Arizonans, I'm again grateful to be here. We gather here to continue our work moving Arizona forward.

Sometimes that work is accomplished through legislation and policy, debated and voted on here in these halls. Other times, it's through the actions of every day citizens, stepping up and making a difference for others. But more often than not, change and progress happens through the capacity of our state, and its people, to always be ahead of the curve – knocking down barriers and breaking with conformity.

This April marks 30 years since one of our state's most beloved and cherished leaders took to this podium – beehive and all – and in doing so shattered the glass ceiling, through all nine floors of the Executive Tower, right up to the Governor's Office.

What better way to honor and further Governor Rose Mofford's legacy than with a new historic achievement reached this past August: The highest percentage of female legislators of any state in the nation.

First Day

Senators, representatives – will all the women who have achieved this awesome accomplishment on behalf of our great state please stand, so that we can recognize your service to Arizona.

Think about it. Here are three additional milestones that only Arizona can claim:

One: More women governors to date than any state in American history

Two: The home of the first female United States Supreme Court justice and

Three: The state that two decades ago voted women into every single statewide elected executive position.

There are no lack of powerful and impressive women role models for the young people of our state, inside and outside of government – Moms and grandmothers. Judges and mayors. Congresswomen and CEOs. The first female NFL coach. A university president. The chancellor of the largest community college in the country. The police and fire chiefs of the fifth largest city in America.

We applaud your leadership, including that of Secretary Michele Reagan, Superintendent Diane Douglas, Justice Ann Timmer, and Leaders Rebecca Rios and Katie Hobbs. This trail was blazed long ago. Icons like Rose Mofford and Sandra Day O'Connor fought with grit and determination for fair treatment, and achieved greatness. And they didn't do it for women in the year 2018 to face discrimination, misogyny or harassment. The reason, they did it, was so the women who followed them, would not only have their voices heard in our country – but so they would help lead and shape our great country.

It should go without saying, but it bears repeating: Every individual deserves to be treated with dignity and respect. Always. No exceptions. Private sector. Public sector. In my office. In state agencies. In this chamber. And everywhere else.

In Arizona, we are blessed to stand on the shoulders of giants. Rose Mofford and Sandra Day O'Connor are two in a long list.

Whether it's Bruce Babbitt's work ushering in the historic water policy that's allowed us to grow and thrive in the desert; John McCain's selfless service to country; Gabby Giffords' resilience against all odds; Mo Udall and Barry Goldwater showing us what bipartisanship really looks like; or Lori Piestewa giving the ultimate sacrifice to protect her fellow Americans – we have no lack of heroes.

As we begin our work, these leaders should serve as a reminder of why we all went into public service. Ladies and gentlemen – we enter 2018 with confidence and conviction, promise and possibility. The state of our state is strong, and our future is without limits. By working together, with a spirit of service; with integrity, humility – by forgetting about who should get the credit – we can move Arizona forward, and in a way that will make our fellow citizens proud. So let's get to work.

We have a good foundation to build on. While Washington can't seem to get much done, we have a solid track record of getting down to business and working across this aisle on solutions. True, we don't always agree. But that's the exception, not the rule. Last year, more than 90 percent of the legislation we passed together was bipartisan. In fact, much of it is best described as "nonpartisan."

It's a good thing, because there's an ongoing crisis we face that calls for this no nonsense approach, and it's one that must unite us if we are to take action with care and urgency.

Since I last stood at this podium, we've lost more than 800 Arizonans to opioids. These are real lives and real people. Gone. Someone's mom, their dad. Daughters and sons. All ages. All incomes. Families, marriages and lives torn apart, tragically and unexpectedly because of a potent drug mis-prescribed, overprescribed – and then, before you know it, it's too late. There's no turning back.

We've taken some important steps to date. Cracking down on doc shopping. Making Naloxone readily available to stop an overdose. Limits on first fills. But this much is clear: This epidemic requires a more aggressive approach.

When we have four doctors, in one small, rural county of 200,000 people, prescribing 6 million opioid pills in just one year – 6 million – something has gone terribly, terribly wrong. And we know that 75 percent of heroin addicts started on opioids. So last June, I declared a public health emergency to bring awareness and solutions to this crisis. Out of that, Arizona's top medical, addiction and public safety officials have presented thoughtful and serious policy proposals to stop the deaths. I'm grateful for their work.

First Day

Of the proposals, some are aggressive, some may be controversial, and some frankly don't go far enough.

For those of you who think this is not the role of government, you must have misread your Russell Kirk. Rules and regulations are there to protect public health and public safety. And I intend to do both.

In the coming days and in partnership with Legislative leadership, I will call for a special session, so we can focus on this, as one of our first orders of business, with the priority it deserves.

Our package will attack this issue from all angles, hear this, while protecting individuals who suffer from chronic pain, and maintaining compassion for those struggling with addiction.

This much I commit: All bad actors will be held accountable – whether they are doctors, manufacturers or just plain drug dealers.

When it comes to protecting public safety, we know who's on the front lines: Our cops, firefighters, first responders and members of our Armed Forces. Talk about the ultimate demonstration of public service.

Their families, too. When mom or dad walks out the door, they are walking straight into danger. As the son of a cop, I know this first-hand.

Last year – we faced an especially aggressive fire season. And because of the dedication and commitment of the fire professionals at the state and local level, combined with National Guard and first responders, these fires were contained, and homes, lives and pets were saved.

But their work did not stop there. More than 150 Arizona firefighters stepped-up to assist our neighbors in California during the tragic fires that blazed through LA.

With the sacrifice of the Yarnell 19 still fresh in our minds, we thank all of you for your courage and bravery.

Our police officers are also facing new challenges, and are rising to the occasion with valor.

Two years in, our Border Strike Force continues to stop the flow of illegal drugs, weapons and cash into our state. We made a decision: If Washington D.C. wasn't going to secure our border; Arizona would.

So far, the stats are staggering. 238 guns. Seized. 167,745 rounds of ammunition. Seized. 47,842 pounds of marijuana. Seized. And 11 million – 11 million – hits of heroin. Seized. All by our brave and smart Troopers working alongside local, federal and Mexican authorities. This is without a doubt making Arizona – and America – a safer place, and it's worthy of our continued investment.

Contributing to this effort: Cindy McCain's tireless work to shine a light on human trafficking, and to end it. She's here today. Cindy, you and Senator McCain have all Arizona's love, prayers and support.

On the topic of public safety, we wake up too frequently these days to the report of another death on our highways. A wrong-way driver – and in many cases, it comes back to drugs or alcohol. You'd think it was obvious by now, but to anyone out there who hasn't gotten the memo: Booze, drugs and driving don't mix. Your actions are beyond foolish – they are lethal. And we will not tolerate it.

Let's pass a bill: Those reckless enough to put lives on the line by driving the wrong-way on our highways, under the influence of drugs or alcohol, should face a felony conviction and prison time. No exceptions.

And if you break the law, our troopers will have their sights set on you, because we're targeting even more efforts here: An enhanced "Wrong-Way Driver Night Watch," with resources to match. We're going to zero-in on these criminals, with the goal of stopping these accidents and saving lives.

Whether you're wearing a uniform, or you're a good Samaritan -- everyone plays a part when it comes to public safety. We've all heard the mantra: see something; say something. Or, do something.

On January 12, 2017, Ed Andersson started his day as he did most others – he put on his work uniform, kissed his wife goodbye and began his shift in one of the most dangerous professions: as a law enforcement officer. Ed had experienced a lot during his 27 years of service as a state trooper – but nothing would prepare him for the day ahead.

First Day

While en route to a scene, Trooper Andersson spotted a rollover car wreck. He stopped to assist a woman ejected from the crash and was immediately ambushed by the meth-infused driver of the car: first he was shot and then physically assaulted.

Enter Thomas Yoxall. Thomas was on his way out of town on the I-10 when he encountered the terrifying scene: a wounded Trooper Andersson under assault by a man Thomas described as having the look of “evil” in his eyes. Thomas acted fast; on gut instinct. Pulling over, grabbing his gun, and after the aggressor refused to stop – Thomas took action.

Thomas Yoxall says the good Lord put him there that day – and we are blessed that he did. And that fact, combined with the Second Amendment, and a citizens’ God-given right to keep and bear arms, ended up saving Trooper Andersson’s life

The men have formed a bond that will last a lifetime. They are here today. Thank you both for your heroic service to the state of Arizona and God Bless you.

Two decades ago, Thomas Yoxall says it wouldn’t have ended this way. He was on probation, after a series of mistakes he made in his youth. Today, his life is back on track, his rights have been restored, and he represents the ultimate second chance story and a reminder that every life matters – and no one should fall through the cracks in our society.

If someone has paid their debt to society, the last thing we want is for them to find themselves back in trouble with the law, and our policy can play a role.

At second chance centers we launched last year at prisons outside of Tucson and Phoenix, we’re teaching life and career skills to inmates who are scheduled to leave prison soon. Dozens of employers are participating, and hundreds of inmates who have graduated through these programs to date. Many are leaving prison with multiple job prospects. So let’s expand these programs, with capacity for 975 more inmates to participate each year.

I’ve learned a lot from these people. From their letters, and from meeting with them. One said: “For future inmates, a word of encouragement – God placed you here for a reason. You must want to help yourself in order to be successful.”

One example of that is Donald Stevenson. Donald spent 10 years behind bars. Nearly his entire 20s. At age 29 he was released, and found stability in the form of an entry-level job at Austin Electric. Three years later, Donald has his life turned around, he’s risen through the ranks, owns a home and is now focused on helping others: Training inmates to become skilled electricians, like him.

I want to salute Donald, as well as Toby Thomas – president of Austin Electric – and Connie Wilhelm, with the Homebuilders who are private sector partners in giving people a fresh start and a real second chance.

These efforts and others are paying off. We’ve seen a 10 percent drop in released inmates going back to prison on a technical violation, and Arizona is experiencing the largest drop in the number of inmates in our prisons since 1974.

So let’s keep going. One of the biggest impediments for released inmates to get back on their feet is the lack of a legal form of identification. I’ve instructed the Department of Transportation to work with the Department of Corrections, to do everything they can to start getting soon-to-be released inmates IDs before they walk out the doors.

Let’s get people off the streets; and in a job – with the goal of shutting down prisons, not building new ones.

For too many years, Arizona saw spending on prison facilities go up, and spending on K-12 education go down. Not any more. For the second year in a row, my budget will add no new prison beds. All of this while fighting crime and improving public safety. In addition, my cabinet continues to identify millions in wasteful spending, opportunities for consolidation and streamlined services.

Let’s spend these dollars – tens of millions of dollars combined – where they can go to better use: In our public schools and for our teachers.

But before we talk dollars and cents – let’s address something. Some folks think the best argument for a greater investment in our public schools is to claim that our schools are failing. Well, they’re wrong.

The most compelling argument for investing in our public schools is that they are improving and getting better. And that argument has the added benefit of actually being true.

First Day

You wouldn't always know it from picking up the newspaper or turning on the TV, but Arizona public schools are showing real, measurable signs of progress, and they are leading the nation in some important areas:

Four of the top five public high schools in America are right here in Arizona.

Arizona students continue to lead the nation in improvements in reading and math.

Three Arizona school districts – Chandler, Peoria and Washington Elementary – placed in the top 20 nationwide for academic gain.

We know how to educate a child in the state of Arizona. We need to do it more often and in more locations across our state.

We have two leaders here who do this every day. My guests, the Superintendents of the Chandler and Mesa School Districts, Camile Castille, and Mike Cowan.

Thank you for your leadership.

So let's get some facts straight:

Overall per student spending is up 10 percent since 2015 – that's adjusted for inflation.

Over the last three years, we've committed 1.7 billion new state dollars to K-12 education.

Since fiscal year 2015, school districts have increased their investment in teacher salaries by nine percent. It is clear: principals, superintendents and school board members are directing these dollars where they should go, to our dedicated teachers.

I've pledged to increase spending on K-12 education, above and beyond inflation, every year I'm in office. I've also said, we'll never check the box on public education. We can always do more for our kids and teachers.

This week, I will release my budget. It will include a full commitment to accelerate the state's K-12 investment, and restore long-standing cuts from the recession made before many of us were here.

At the same time, we will maintain our investments in targeted programs that are working, and making a difference for Arizona families:

All-day kindergarten.

Career and technical education.

Computer science and coding.

Reducing waitlists.

Closing the achievement gap.

High-speed internet to rural schools.

And new school buses.

In fact, 80 percent of our new budget priorities you'll see Friday will be for public education.

We know what works and we know how to get big ideas done. We've done it before. Prop 123 was the result of a partnership between Democrats and Republicans. The Education and Business communities. The voters, for saying "yes." And of course, our teachers – the biggest difference-makers of them all.

If we are to succeed on future efforts around public education, we must work in the same way. Together.

And the excellence in our public education system doesn't end at 12th grade. Our three public universities continue to be national pillars in higher education. And our three university presidents are leaders among their peers. President Michael Crow, President Rita Cheng, and President Bobby Robbins – Arizona is lucky to have you.

First Day

In November, I attended President Robbins' installation at the U of A. He spoke about innovation; about the role of higher education in making this a better, safer and more noble world. And he spoke about diversity. Diversity of heritage; diversity of tradition – and diversity of thought.

We all see the headlines. From Berkeley to Harvard, from Missouri to Middlebury– protests and violence aimed at silencing speech that some just don't want to hear. One college student protesting a visiting speaker, was asked about the 1st amendment by a reporter. The student responded that the Constitution just isn't that relevant anymore. Unbelievable.

I want to salute our university presidents, our community college leaders, our professors, and our students. Here in Arizona, on our campuses, debate is encouraged; free speech is protected; and diversity of thought isn't just a platitude – it's alive and well in lecture halls, on debate stages and in the pages of college newspapers.

And as someone who has taken the oath of office to preserve and protect the United States Constitution – I am here to tell you, the Constitution is not only relevant – it's the law of the land, and in Arizona, it will be respected and the government will abide by it.

It's worth remembering: For centuries, American men and women have laid down their lives to protect this Constitution.

Every day we say goodbye to members of our Greatest Generation, including our Navajo Code Talkers. And it's important our kids – the next Greatest Generation – know their history, and know these stories.

There's also more we can do for those who have served so nobly and bravely.

Like letting our vets keep more of the benefits they have so courageously earned. It's been nearly 30 years since Arizona created the tax exemption for military retirement pay. But it's capped and not once, have we increased it.

Arizona has more than 600,000 veterans, and for the military retirees who qualify for the exemption, inflation alone has chopped it in half. Their service has earned them a lifetime benefit from our nation. So please, send me a bill that increases the exemption and demonstrates to our vets that we value this service.

There are so many issues we can find common ground on. Like protecting the lives of children in our state.

That's why we acted to prevent 24,530 low-income children from getting health insurance cancellation notices before Christmas, as Washington continues to dither on this issue. And while Members of Congress give meaningless floor speeches and drag their feet, we've got a plan to fund KidsCare through the spring. But in the meantime, I've got a message for congress. Do. Your. Job.

Meanwhile, just two years ago, the problems at the state's new Child Safety department seemed insurmountable. But because of the committed service of our state's child safety workers, non-profit organizations and the faith-based community, combined with legislative support – the Casey Family Programs just named Arizona the best in the country for its foster care reduction.

The average caseload has dropped from 145 cases to 16. The backlog that plagued the agency for so long, has been eliminated. And since a year ago, we've found safety and permanency for nearly 11,000 children. So I'm proud to announce that our budget investment this year will be in adoption services, because we are finding kids loving homes.

Again I want to thank our faith-based community for stepping up to the plate. This is where we need your energy and action. Please – don't let up.

It's not just churches, though. We can all make a difference. Sometimes we forget, and we need a reminder.

Well, a young Arizonan named Xavier recently provided us that reminder. At nine years old, Xavier has already worked magic for one special foster child – literally.

In anticipation of his family's visit to the Wizardly World of Harry Potter, Xavier decided other kids – less fortunate kids – deserved the same fun. So he started making Harry Potter wands, and selling them. His family held a bakesale at a local preschool. His sister, sold lemonade. Before he knew it, Xavier and his family had raised nearly $2,000 – and he used all of it, to send a foster child – all expenses paid – to see the Harry Potter world for themselves at Universal Studios.

Xavier is here today. Xavier – You and your family an inspiration. Thank you for reminding us what it means to treat others with respect.

First Day

When it comes to new parents, we can always offer more support.

Last year, we expanded our Happy Babies initiative – letting new moms and dads bring their newborns to work in the early months.

It's been a huge success. Just ask Lucas, Ryker and Milena – three graduates of the program from my office. They're here with us today. These are three successful graduates of the program.

Happy Babies is now deployed in nine state agencies, and more than 250 babies have graduated. We've got plans to continue expanding it. Even better? Private sector companies have reached out wanting to model their own programs after it, helping more Arizona parents avoid having to decide between work and family.

After all, it's these dedicated state employees who are driving results and efficiencies throughout our government. They are valued members of our team.

They are a model to other states, counties, cities, and even the federal government of how to provide quality customer service to the taxpayer.

For example, while bureaucrats in Washington DC target Arizona's Salt River horses, we're targeting needless state regulations.

Last year we wiped out 676. Eliminated them. And our estimates show that these reforms have saved real people more than $48 million. That's the equivalent of a $48 million tax cut, without costing the general fund one dollar. But we're not stopping there. For decade, after decade, after decade, red tape has been added – and for too long, no one in government ever stopped to ask “why?”

Well, Juan Carlos in Tucson did ask “why.” Juan Carlos wanted to give back, providing haircuts to homeless veterans. The way he saw it – it was a way to recognize their service, and give them a helpful hand, maybe to prepare for a job interview.

That was, until the bullies at the State Cosmetology Board sought to stop him and stall his career, because he hadn't yet kissed their ring.

This is the kind of service that should be celebrated – not sanctioned.

Juan Carlos is here today. Juan Carlos, you go ahead and keep cutting hair and keep doing the right thing.

These same special interest bullies are at it again. This time, going after people who simply want to make a living blow-drying hair. No scissors involved. It's the latest craze, and one where the government currently requires 1,000 hours of training. 25 weeks. More than an EMT, Certified Nursing Assistant, or a truck driver. Representative Ugenti-Rita has a bill to change that. Let's get more Arizonans to work and get it passed.

Over the past 3 years we've worked hard to transform the culture of this government. Shutting down unnecessary state agencies. Waiving licensing fees for those in poverty. We're cutting red tape, chipping away at regulations and opening up economic freedom.

A word of advice to those bureaucrats – and, yes, even some elected officials – who are resisting this effort: The train is leaving the station. Get on board, or you're going to get left behind.

The good news is, should you get left behind – you'll re-enter a workforce with lots of new private sector jobs waiting.

Because in Arizona -- we know the recipe for success. Lower taxes. Light regulation. Great public schools. Superior quality of life. And responsible water policies that will protect us from sharing in California's water crisis.

Earning Arizona's reputation as a national leader in water management was no easy feat and it didn't happen by accident. It was the proactive nature of our predecessors, and our state's willingness to take-on complex issues. This session, we must follow their lead and put forward responsible policies that will ensure Arizona speaks with one-voice to secure the state's future for generations to come.

Our economy is growing, so a plan is needed.

Look how far we've come. We went from a billion dollar budget shortfall three years ago, to discussion today over where to spend our additional dollars.

First Day

Since 2015, we've added more than 160,000 private sector jobs. The last time unemployment was this low, we were all renting movies from Blockbuster.

And today, Silicon Valley companies are flocking to Arizona. The New York Times recently featured our success, labeling it a "tech boom." When's the last time the New York Times had anything positive to say about Arizona? Keep it up and who knows – the Daily Show might even have something nice to say about us.

Meanwhile, we're used to attracting companies from California – that's easy. But now we are even taking them from Texas. We're doing something right. People vote with their feet, and today Arizona is at an all-time record-high 7 million plus residents.

Credit goes to our citizens, job creators, and their workers.

We want Arizona to be the entrepreneurial Capitol of the US – the place where new technologies come to flourish. And we are well on our way.

Helping our advantage? Our proximity to our largest trading partner – times four: Mexico. The cooperative relationship we've forged is improving things at every level—trade, growth in the economy, jobs, and increased border security. I want to acknowledge the leadership of the first female Governor in the history of our sister state of Sonora – here today as a guest of Angela and mine, Governor Claudia Pavlovich. Governor, Sergio, Muchas Gracias for your friendship and partnership in creating a safer and more prosperous place for all our people.

A lot of work will get done at this Capitol over the next several weeks – and I want to emphasize – weeks – but the real work in our state is happening outside these walls.

These last three years, I've been to every county in the state – and I like what I've seen. Public schools. Small businesses. Large companies. Farms. Churches. Tribal nations. Little leagues. Non-profits. Northern Arizona. Southern Arizona. Arizonans looking out for each other. Lifting each other up. There are no party labels out there. Just good, hard-working people looking to make this a better place to live – not only for them and their families, but for others.

Just take a visit to St. Mary's Food Bank, and you'll see it. They just celebrated their 50th anniversary. To date they've provided more than 1 billion meals to those who need it most.

Every day, dozens of volunteers show up at these food banks, and roll up their sleeves. And for no other reason than to help their fellow citizens.

It's that spirit of service that got us here.

And it's that same service that will lead Arizona, into the future.

Now, I don't want to sound naïve. I realize we are a country divided and in many ways a people divided, our state as well.

But as a country we've been here before—in more difficult circumstances.

So let's remember the words of that great original American nationalist, Abraham Lincoln at the close of his first inaugural address:

“We are not enemies, but friends. We must not be enemies. Though passion may have strained it must not break our bonds of affection. The mystic chords of memory, stretching from every battlefield and patriot grave to every living heart and hearthstone all over this broad land, will yet swell the chorus of the Union, when again touched, as surely they will be, by the better angels of our nature”

Thank you and God Bless.

I make this request in the spirit of prevention, to spare our colleagues from the certain unpleasantness of having to vote for further action, which will most certainly fracture and permanently stain this House. Should you decide to not resign, I will support and move forward tomorrow with the most severe action to be taken, as there should and will be zero tolerance for such undignified behavior here. Please give this House the dignity that it deserves and step down.

BUSINESS ON THE SPEAKER'S DESK

Motion by Mr. Allen that the Rules be amended by adopting the proposed rule changes as printed and distributed and, as amended, these Rules are the Rules for the Second Regular Session.

Proposed changes to House Rules

RULE 4

THE SPEAKER

F. The Speaker shall have the general control of the House Chamber and the corridors, passages and committee, hearing and staff rooms of the House of Representatives and all other matters which pertain to the House of Representatives' building and related parking lots. THE SPEAKER SHALL PROMULGATE A WRITTEN CODE OF CONDUCT AND A WRITTEN HARASSMENT PREVENTION POLICY APPLICABLE TO STAFF.

RULE 38

CODE OF CONDUCT

A. THE HOUSE SHALL HAVE A WRITTEN CODE OF CONDUCT APPLICABLE TO MEMBERS. THIS CODE OF CONDUCT SHALL BE ADOPTED, AND MAY BE AMENDED, UPON VOTE OF THE MAJORITY OF THE MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE.

B. THE HOUSE SHALL HAVE A WRITTEN HARASSMENT PREVENTION POLICY APPLICABLE TO MEMBER BEHAVIOR. THIS POLICY SHALL BE ADOPTED, AND MAY BE AMENDED, UPON VOTE OF THE MAJORITY OF THE MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE.

The motion carried.

Motion by Mr. Allen that the House adopt the harassment prevention policy as printed and distributed.

Proposed Harassment Prevention Policy

Arizona House of Representatives Policy on Workplace Harassment

What is the House Policy?

Within six months of being hired, elected, or appointed, all House members and employees are required by law to attend an ethics class. Statute refers to this class as the "Public Service Orientation Program."

The purpose of ethics training is to ensure that the work environment of the House is free of harassment. All employees and members should be pleased to come to work every day and should never be fearful or concerned about the work environment.

Any employee or member of the House who violates this policy is subject to corrective action. This policy has been developed to prevent harassment, and to ensure that complaints are investigated and resolved quickly and in a manner that is fair to all.

The House will not permit conduct that includes, but is not limited to, the following:

Discrimination: Unequal and unlawful treatment of an individual, or unwelcome, verbal, written physical conduct, or electronic communication that either degrades or shows hostility or aversion towards a person, arising because of that person's inclusion in one of the categories protected by state or federal civil rights laws.

Sexual Harassment: Sexual discrimination that violates Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and/or the protections in state statute, title 41, chapter 9, Arizona Revised Statutes. Sexual harassment can take different forms:

- 1) Unwelcome sexual advances or suggestions, demands, or requests for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical harassment that is inherently sexual in nature;
- 2) Offensive remarks about a person's gender;
- 3) Quid pro quo sexual harassment is the promise of advancement or some benefit in exchange for sexual favors.

Thirty-second Day

Hostile Work Environment: An environment that a reasonable person would consider hostile or abusive, and the person who is the object of the harassment perceives it to be hostile or abusive. A hostile work environment is determined by looking at all of the circumstances including, but not limited to:

- (1) The frequency of the alleged harassing conduct;
- (2) The severity of the alleged harassing conduct;
- (3) Whether the alleged harassing conduct was physically threatening or humiliating; and
- (4) Whether the alleged harassing conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an employee's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment.

Retaliation: Any act of reprisal, interference, restraint, penalty, discrimination, intimidation, or harassment against an individual or individuals exercising rights under this policy.

Quite simply, the House policy regarding any of the above conduct will always be one of zero tolerance. No harassment for any reason will be tolerated.

What do you do if you have been harassed?

The Arizona House of Representatives is committed to being a safe place to work. If any member or employee experiences any type of this unlawful conduct, he or she is strongly encouraged to report the conduct. We cannot remedy the problem if we are unaware of the problem. You can report harassment to any of the following individuals:

- Majority or Minority Chief of Staff
- General Counsel of Majority or Minority Staff
- The Rules Attorneys
- Chief Clerk
- Your staff director or supervisor

Reports of harassment should be made using the attached Formal Harassment Complaint Form. However, harassment may be reported by alternative means if one wishes.

For your review, the following are the House procedures that may be employed when seeking to end the unlawful behavior and to fully resolve the complainant's concerns.

In the event an employee or member of the Arizona House of Representatives has complained about conduct that could be characterized as illegal harassment, the House's reaction becomes critical. This policy is intended to provide summary guidance primarily to House leadership but also to House staff. It serves as the process for resolving harassment complaints in the Arizona House of Representatives, and it supersedes any other policies or practices within the House that may have been developed by the various departments. It is advisable to review and consider each of the provisions of this memo before taking any action on any harassment complaint. The House recognizes that the facts surrounding each complaint are unique and, as such, these procedures are designed to be malleable and may be tailored to meet the needs of each individual circumstance. The investigators are afforded discretion to adjust these recommended procedures, as they deem proper, to satisfy the needs and to fully remedy the concerns of the complainant and to preserve the integrity of the Arizona House of Representatives.

While House Rules do not specify any protocol or procedure for investigating a complaint of conduct that could be considered illegal harassment, the following steps should be considered:

- Appoint an investigation team.
- Meet with the complainant (Sample form #1).
- Evaluate the complaint.
- Interview the accused (Sample form #2).
- Investigate further (Sample form #3).
- Prepare an investigation report.
- Take remedial action and follow up.
- Respond to any appeal.

Thirty-second DayWhat occurs after a complaint has been made?*I. Investigation Team

Keep in mind, proper selection of an investigation team is important because those selected may ultimately be the primary witnesses for the House in the unfortunate event of formal proceedings or litigation. The Speaker or the Speaker's representative should appoint one chief investigator who will interview all witnesses. A second or third person should be selected to assist the chief investigator in taking notes, arranging interviews, to act as a witness to verify what was said during the interviews, and to testify on behalf of the House about the investigation. The investigation team should consist of individuals who are comfortable interviewing others and who can take thorough and accurate notes, including the Rules counsel and counsel for either caucus as may be appropriate under the circumstances. Also, the interviewers must be able to gain the trust of those they are interviewing. The investigators should be sensitive to gender, race or political party.

II. Meet With the Complainant

The goal of the initial meeting with the complainant (the person alleging a violation of this policy) is to obtain a thorough and detailed explanation of the complaint. The investigator should use the Notes/Checklist provided as Sample Form #1 herein. At that initial meeting, the investigator should stress that retaliation against the complainant is strictly prohibited and that the complainant should not discuss the meeting with anyone. The investigators should inform the complainant that anything he or she discusses will remain confidential to the greatest extent possible but that information may be shared among the investigators and that the accused will be given a chance to respond to the allegations of harassment.

III. Evaluate the Complaint

The preliminary evaluation is intended to determine whether the complaint involves unlawful harassment. The interview may reveal a situation that, if substantiated, warrants further investigation. Some situations may require precautionary remedial action before further investigation. In such a circumstance, and if the complainant agrees, the House may wish to permit the complainant to take a few days of paid leave or to work in another area pending the investigation. This evaluation should be reviewed with the Speaker or Speaker's representative and upon advice of counsel.

The initial interview may reveal that the allegations, even if substantiated, do not qualify as unlawful harassment, but rather the situation involves a personality conflict or a negative reaction to job performance criticism, or simply conduct that does not amount to unlawful harassment. If it is clear at the outset that a complaint should not be handled as an unlawful harassment matter, inform the complainant and close the matter.

IV. Interview the Accused

The next step in the investigation involves confronting the person accused of harassment. When scheduling the meeting, do not inform the accused of the reason for the meeting. It is important to get a spontaneous response. The meeting with the accused should happen as quickly after the meeting with the complainant as possible. The investigator should consider using the Notes/Checklist provided as Sample Form #2 herein and begin the interview by informing the accused that the investigators are acting under the authority of the House and with the express permission of the Speaker. Use the interview to carefully assess the accused's credibility based on eye contact, clarity of memory, responsiveness to questions, genuineness of reaction, etc. If the accused admits the material allegations, it is likely that no further investigation will be needed, and the investigator should move on to the remedial stage.

V. Investigate Further

If there are fact disputes that are material to the investigation and other persons have been identified as witnesses by either the complainant or the accused, interview those witnesses following essentially the same guidelines. The investigator should use the Notes/Checklist provided as Sample Form #3 herein. Remind each person to keep the conversation confidential.

Thirty-second Day

VI. Prepare an Investigation Report

Prepare a report to the Speaker containing both factual and legal conclusions from the investigation. The report format may vary, but it should list each allegation and the accused's response and the finding with respect to the allegation. Judgments of credibility are acceptable where there is reasonable basis for judgment.

The investigators should show the report, but not provide a copy, to the complainant and accused after the Speaker has determined the remedial action. Any party may submit a response to the report, but the Speaker and the investigation team are not required to reply to the response or to any supplemental materials.

VII. Take Remedial Action and Follow Up

When the report is completed, the investigator may discuss remedial action with the Speaker. The recommended action may be conveyed orally, and the action shall be documented only after there is agreement on what action to take. The goal of this process is to ensure that there will be no further harassment and that the complainant is made whole.

If a complaint cannot be substantiated or refuted, both parties should be so informed, and the accused should be clearly informed or reminded of the restrictions against unlawful harassment. The complainant should be told that any future incidents should be reported immediately, as they are occurring, including any incidents of suspected retaliation.

If the conclusion is that there was unlawful harassment, the House should take appropriate remedial action regarding the accused. This may include one or a combination of the following:

1. A written reprimand.
2. Suspension without pay.
3. Mandatory training or counseling on sexual harassment.
4. Reassignment of the accused.
5. Demotion.
6. Withholding of a promotion.
7. Discharge.
8. Where applicable, any action available under House Rule 1.
 - a. Remedies for the complainant may include:
 9. Reimbursement of any monetary loss.
 10. Reimbursement of expenses for counseling.
 11. Restoration of a job.
 12. Paid leave.

Remedial action should be unconditional but limited to what is necessary to make the victim whole. The complainant may want a cash payment for pain and suffering but this is not typically warranted at this stage, unless the House failed to act in the face of previous complaints and there is clear evidence of psychological injury to the victim.

Misconduct during an investigation, such as violating the confidentiality of the investigation, publicizing unfounded accusations, and making demonstrably false statements, may be grounds for disciplinary action.

Thirty-second Day

VIII. General Considerations When Interviewing Anyone
(Including the complainant and the accused)

1. Take detailed notes, as close to verbatim as possible, during each interview. Notes should be taken at all stages of the interview, either during meetings or immediately after, so that there is a record of the investigation to support the conclusions and remedial action taken. The documentation should not become part of the personnel record to which others will have access, but should be maintained separately and securely.
2. Sign and date the notes.
3. Identify the individual being interviewed at the top of a new page for each individual. Place the names of those present at the interview, along with the date, time, and location of the interview.
4. Make appropriate disclosures at the commencement of the interview including:
 - (a) State what is being investigated, for example, “we are investigating an employee complaint of improper conduct.”
 - (b) Tell how the information received may be used, for example: “We will review your information, along with the information we obtain from other witnesses and try to determine whether improper conduct occurred.”
 - (c) Explain that information obtained during the interview will be reported only to those within and possibly outside the House who have a need to know of it.
 - (d) Explain the seriousness of the investigation.
 - (e) Explain the importance of accurate information and the individual’s obligation to provide truthful, thorough information.
 - (f) Caution the individual against discussing the interview or any information the individual obtains during the interview with any other persons.
5. In investigations regarding specific events, cover all events that occurred during the relevant time frame in chronological blocks of time. Do not leave the time block until all details necessary to recreate the scene have been established.
6. Pin each witness down to facts: specifically, what the witness saw, heard, did, smelled, or felt. Distinguish matters for which the individual has personal knowledge from hearsay.
7. Follow up on answers with appropriate additional questions by developing questions to corroborate or refute information provided by other witnesses or evidence, typically without disclosing the source. Let the individual tell you in his or her own words what he or she saw.
8. Use appropriate question formats. Typically, start with open-ended questions. Move to more narrow, focused, and even leading questions after the individual has sketched the limits of the events as he/she recalls them. Avoid using compound questions; ask one question at a time. Typically, ask questions that force the individual to relate events chronologically to ensure thorough coverage. Try to save unfriendly or embarrassing questions until the end of the interview; beginning with hostile or tough questions usually causes the interviewee to become defensive. However, do not conclude the interview without asking the tough questions, even if the interviewee is uncomfortable.
9. Never give the impression of being judgmental or that you disbelieve any individual, and do not express an opinion as to whether something inappropriate occurred during this fact-gathering process. Especially with regard to the complainant, the goal is not to make the individual feel like the target of the investigation.
10. Do not include in your interview notes your own interpretations, beliefs, assumptions, or conclusions about the information given to you by the interviewee. (“Just the facts, and nothing but the facts.”)

Thursday, February 8, 2018

Thirty-second Day

11. Generally, recording interviews is not advisable. Recorders often frighten interviewees and make them hesitant to share the facts they have.
12. Stress the importance of not disclosing the questions asked, information given, or other information about the interview to others to facilitate a thorough, impartial investigation.
13. Avoid discussing theories, strategy, assessment, or other evidence with the individual.
14. Do not repeat to anyone who does not have a need to know the accusations made by the complainant, since these could be potential liability for defamation or other claims.

Confidentiality of the parties involved must be respected to the greatest extent possible without compromising the investigation. Information concerning a complaint will not be released to anyone not directly involved in an investigation, a lawsuit, the implementation of corrective action, or as otherwise required by law.

BUSINESS ON THE SPEAKER'S DESK

Communications from Governor Douglas A. Ducey on disapproval of the following bills were filed:

HB 2092, vetoed March 29, 2018

Dear Speaker Mesnard:

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2092. I am concerned that the issues law enforcement raised were not addressed in this bill.

Eighty-fifth Day

Sincerely,

/s/ DOUGLAS A. DUCEY
Governor
State of Arizona

SB 1510, vetoed March 29, 2018

Dear President Yarbrough,

Today, I vetoed SB1510. The citizens of the State of Arizona expect legislative and executive leaders to meet the challenges of water management in a serious, comprehensive and consequential way. Standing alone, this bill does nothing to meet those expectations and fails to address our most pressing needs for the management of the state's Colorado River resources and groundwater resources.

My administration has publicly stated that this legislative session should include a package of significant water management policies that move Arizona forward on those important topics. Delivering this bill to my desk, by itself, does nothing to address the consumer protections, legal protections or water conservation that are needed to secure the future of Arizona's most precious resource.

Sincerely,

/s/ DOUGLAS A. DUCEY
Governor
State of Arizona

BUSINESS ON THE SPEAKER'S DESK

A communication from Governor Douglas A. Ducey on disapproval of the following bill was filed:

HB 2114, vetoed Apr 2, 2018

Dear Speaker Mesnard,

Today, I vetoed HB2114. The procurement code applies to every expenditure of public monies, including federal assistance monies except as specified in statute (A.R.S. 41-2501). The procurement laws of this state exist to give structure and certainty for the use of state authority and resources, while also helping to save taxpayer money entrusted to the state through the collective purchasing power of multiple agencies.

Eighty-sixth Day

While numerous exemptions exist in the procurement code, it is rare, if ever, to find a blanket exemption for the entirety of an agency's procurement activity. In many instances, exemptions to the procurement code are narrowly tailored to the business needs of the agency or their customers, and have been recognized by the legislative body as necessary for those purposes. This bill does not specifically tailor the need for the exemption and would set a negative precedent in its current form.

Sincerely,

/s/DOUGLAS A. DUCEY
Governor
State of Arizona

Monday, April 9, 2018

Ninety-second Day

A communication from Governor Douglas A. Ducey on disapproval of the following bill was filed:

SB 1118, vetoed April 5, 2018

Dear President Yarbrough,

I have issued a veto on SB 1118.

The bill's stated purpose to clarify expenditure reporting for hosted events may have merit. However, a separate provision, exempting attendance at educational events from the definition of "gift" under Arizona's lobbyist gift ban statute, troubles me. This regulation exists for the important public purpose of prohibiting the exercise of undue influence of lobbyists over elected officials. The change proposed by SB 1118 makes it more difficult to achieve this objective.

Sincerely,
/s/DOUGLAS A. DUCEY
Governor

HOUSE CONFEREES:

John M. Allen
Thomas "T.J." Shope

SENATE CONFEREES:

Sine Kerr
Sonny Borrelli

Minority Report:

I oppose HB2604, consolidated elections; voter turnout, as amended in conference committee, because the amended bill infringes on the constitutional rights of charter cities and removes local control over decisions that are fundamental to the functioning of political subdivisions, namely the timeline in which they choose to hold local elections and elect their leaders.

The Arizona courts have ruled time and again that the legislature does not have any authority over the elections of charter cities, but despite those admonitions, HB2604 again tries to force all cities, specifically calling out charter cities, to hold their local elections on the dates that the state legislature has chosen for them.

Furthermore, it was clear during study and debate that there is no demonstrable correlation between turnout and whether an election is consolidated or not; certainly not enough to justify a wide-sweeping law such as this.

The amended bill demonstrates the haste in which it was drafted, the lack of stakeholder input, and a fundamental mistrust in the ability of local government to determine what is best for its residents.

For these reasons, I oppose HB2604 as amended by the conference committee.

A communication from Governor Douglas A. Ducey on disapproval of the following bill was filed:

HB 2205, vetoed April 17, 2018

Dear Speaker Mesnard,

Today I vetoed House Bill 2205. I am concerned that this bill creates a conflict between eligibility standards for appointed and elected members of Joint Technical Education District (JTED) boards. Local school district governing boards preclude all employees, including teachers, from serving as elected of appointed members of the board. This bill would also create a discrepancy between how we treat membership on school district governing boards and those of JTEDs.

Sincerely,

/s/DOUGLAS A. DUCEY
Governor
State of Arizona

One Hundred Eighth Day

Minority Report:

We oppose SB 1140, now: certificates of authority; video service, as amended in conference committee because it does not address important issues such as the termination of contracts.

The bill would prohibit local governments (cities, towns, and counties) from charging a fee for the cable companies to file or process applications, affidavits, notices or other documents with the local government. The filing or processing stage takes time from city employees' other duties and local governments should be able to charge a fee if necessary.

Local governments should not be used as a rubber stamp for cable companies and instead should look out for the best interests of their constituents. The amended bill would only allow local governments to review the uniform video service license, which includes the names of individuals in the business, telephone number, description of the service area, customer service rules of the Federal Communication Commission, and other specific criteria. The bill also clearly states that the local government is prohibited from adding other provisions that are not written in state statutes. Citizens expect that local laws are enacted to meet their needs not just a standard that makes it easy for business.

We have heard some cities just negotiated contracts with Cox that were implemented January 1, 2018. Once this bill takes effect on December 31, 2019, Cox and any other cable operator has the choice to terminate the contract that was negotiated and instead apply for a uniform video service license, which is an unconstitutional impairment of contracts.

We also fully acknowledging that there will be discussions during the interim, but now there are serious concerns that have not been addressed. Rushed legislation is not good public policy. If the cable operators wanted to fix an issue they were experiencing, they should have taken the last interim to hold meetings and discussions instead of rushing this bill through the legislative process. For these reasons, we oppose SB 1140 as amended by the conference committee.

Motion by Mr. Allen that the House adopt the Conference Committee report on Senate Bill 1140. Carried.

PROTEST

In accordance with Article IV, Part 2, Section 16, Constitution of Arizona, and House Rule 20, the following protest was entered by Member Reginald Bolding, Jr.:

Mr. Speaker I rise for a point of protest.

In this Chamber, we often talk a lot about impugning members but I want to spend some time on the floor today talking about how a member of this chamber clearly impugned a private citizen and educator because they choose to stand up for teachers and students.

I read an op-ed titled #RedForEd leaders are not as partisan as they claim written by Representative Maria Syms and was very disappointed and deeply offended by the language used in this article. The article attempts to discredit this teacher because he may have introduced lyrics in the classroom written by a black entertainer. This article attempts to discredit this teacher because he "takes inspiration" from a black civil rights activist. This article attempts to discredit this teacher because he "admires" a professor that taught at a historically black college for women.

One Hundred Eighth Day

The more I read the more I was disappointed that it appears to be okay to use racial slurs about black people in this article. Let me be crystal clear. It's not acceptable to us a racial slur even if that slur is used as a quote. No one in this chamber would think it's okay to use a racial slur in print or aloud about Jewish, Latino, Asian, Native, LGBTQ, Anglo or any other group of people. I want to make it crystal clear today, that it is not acceptable to use these words in print or aloud about African Americans especially not by elected officials.

As representatives of this great state of Arizona we, are held to a higher standard. A standard so high and a standard so strong that we have removed individuals for how they conduct themselves. A standard that we promise to uphold and that we ask the public to invest in.

We can not and must not use our platform as elected officials to attack teachers because we disagree with them. This failed attempt to distract the public away from the fact that funds have been swept from our educational system for the past ten years is sad and disappointing.

(Point of Order called) This won't prevent teachers from walking out for restored school funding. (Gavel) It won't prevent the public from standing up for our children. (Gavel) And it doesn't advance the cause...

FIRST POINT OF ORDER

A point of order was raised by Representative Mark Finchem regarding impermissible debate, under House Rule 19.

Speaker Pro Tempore Shope ruled that Representative Reginald Bolding had violated House Rule 19 and asked him to discontinue speaking, per House Rule 19C. Mr. Bolding appealed the ruling of the Chair and requested a roll call vote. Ms. Peten also requested a roll call vote. The appeal failed to overturn the ruling of the Chair by the following vote:

NOT VOTING 4: Benally, Descheenie, Gonzales, Lawrence

SECOND POINT OF ORDER

During explanation of vote by Representative Gerae Peten, a point of order was raised by Representative John Allen regarding impermissible debate, under House Rule 19.

Ms. Peten appealed the ruling of the Chair and requested a roll call vote. Mr. Espinoza also requested a roll call vote. The appeal failed to overturn the ruling of the Chair by the following vote:

Minority Report:

I oppose HB 2422 personal delivery devices as amended in conference committee because it does not address the safety of the citizens of the State of Arizona.

Personal delivery devices can operate in Arizona with a minimum weight requirement of 200 pounds and a speed of 7 MPH that can both be waived by a local authority. The devices with this legislation can operate on sidewalks and roadways. Although there is a requirement that a person who owns and operates a personal delivery device must maintain an insurance policy, it can be waived by a local authority.

Monday, April 30, 2018 Day

The conference committee amendment fails to make sure that legislators and state agencies have data on personal delivery devices. I understand the need for innovation and technology, but as a legislature we should be collecting information in a report from the businesses testing in Arizona to make sure that the devices are working as intended. This information will assist legislators when the bill as written is discussed.

Another concern regarding personal delivery device testing is that the definition of personal delivery device operator was removed. The bill as introduced had the definition of a personal delivery device operator as an eligible entity or its agent that has direct physical control or monitoring of the navigation and operation of the device and clarified that an operator did not include a person that requests delivery or service that is completed by the device or a person that only arranges for and dispatches a device. This was a safeguard that made sure someone was overseeing the device, especially if it was in autonomous mode. The statute as passed the conference committee is silent on that matter. This bill should have some written protections on how personal delivery devices are operated if it is already a business practice.

In committee, someone stated that Arizona is a testing ground for businesses, but we should not forget that Arizona is a state where our citizens live and our priority should be their safety.

For these reasons, I oppose HB2422 as amended by the conference committee.

BUSINESS ON THE SPEAKER'S DESK

A communication from Governor Douglas A. Ducey on approval of the following bills was filed:

HB 2575, SB's 1211, 1263, signed April 30, 2018

A communication from Governor Douglas A. Ducey on approval of the following bill, with expression of executive intent, was filed:

Dear Secretary Reagan,

Today I signed, SB1211. In 1993, the Arizona Legislature, in order to provide greater accountability for those convicted of dangerous crimes, enacted several laws that were collectively termed "Truth-in-Sentencing" legislation. One of those laws, removed the option of parole for those sentenced to life after its enactment. However, for reasons unknown, prosecutors continued to offer parole in plea agreements and judges continued to accept such plea offers as well as impose sentences of life with the chance of parole.

Almost 25 years later, those sentenced incorrectly are now coming up on the time that they would be entitled to parole hearings. However, no parole board exists to plead their case to. Without further legislative action, these cases could be overturned.

However, this bill is not signed lightly. I am concerned about the discretion of the Board of Executive Clemency in these cases and their ability to allow for someone to be released from a sentence that both victims and society as a whole have determined should result in a life sentence. Furthermore, the bill does not provide for any oversight of the Board in these cases.

Therefore, in signing this bill, I implore both the Board of Executive Clemency and the prosecutors of this state to be vigilant as these cases move through parole proceedings and ensure that criminals who should remain behind bars, do not get released unless there is a clear demonstration that they have reformed themselves and will contribute to society.

Tuesday, May 1, 2018

One Hundred Fourteenth Day

I am an advocate for second chances, but I am first and foremost an advocate for public safety. Every single case reviewed by the Board of Executive Clemency should be subjected to strict scrutiny prior to any determination that the person will not violate the law and that the release is in the best interests of the state.

Sincerely,
/s/DOUGLAS A. DUCEY
Governor
State of Arizona

On May 16, 2018, the Governor disapproved the following:

HB 2002, automobile theft authority; appropriations

Dear Secretary Reagan:

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2002. This legislation should be considered as a part of general appropriations agreed to by the Legislature and Executive, and should include a larger discussion to ensure administrative efficiencies are realized. My priority is in making sure that more of these dollars go to law enforcement and not to administrative overhead.

Sincerely,
 /s/DOUGLAS A. DUCEY
 Governor
 State of Arizona

HB 2004, Arizona State Retirement System; waiting period; repeal

Dear Secretary Reagan:

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2004. I am concerned about the fiscal impact the legislation will have on the State General Fund.

Sincerely,
 /s/DOUGLAS A. DUCEY
 Governor
 State of Arizona

HB 2062, permits; licenses; denials; agency hearings

Dear Secretary Reagan:

Today, I vetoed HB 2062. Reducing regulatory burdens and ensuring clarity and certainty for Arizona businesses and individuals is one of my top priorities. However, I have concerns about the unintended consequences of this legislation, which would remove agencies' ability to resolve issues through informal processes. These processes are often faster, more efficient and more customer friendly.

Parties to a dispute should be able to come to a resolution as simply and efficiently as possible, while being fully informed of their rights and options. Components of this bill would create significant barriers for citizens to access the administrative hearing process and likely require them to seek legal representation.

Sincerely,
/s/DOUGLAS A. DUCEY
Governor
State of Arizona

HB 2254, minimum limits; vehicle liability insurance

Dear Secretary Reagan:

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2254.

I am open to the idea of revising our minimum liability limits. However, I'm concerned about the potential unintended consequences including increased premium costs for individuals who rely on affordable plans.

Sincerely,
/s/DOUGLAS A. DUCEY
Governor
State of Arizona

HB 2478, sports authority districts; extension

Dear Secretary Reagan:

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2478. This bill is unnecessary and could undermine some of the original protections in statute.

For our state's economy to succeed, it's important Pima County's economy succeeds. That's why I've placed such a focus on the region — whether it's working with local partners to recruit jobs in metropolitan Tucson or signing the extension of Rio Nuevo.

In 2010, Pima County was given the ability to attract and retain youth and professional sports teams using sports authority districts. Maricopa County used a similar tool in 2000, with safeguards established by the Legislature both then and in 2010. Under the current law, Pima County has the ability to ask voters to create a sports authority district with these important protections.

I'm confident Pima County already has the necessary tools in its tool box for continued economic development.

Sincerely,
/s/DOUGLAS A. DUCEY
Governor
State of Arizona

HB 2498, historic preservation; rangeland improvements; requirements

Dear Secretary Reagan:

Today, I vetoed House Bill 2498.

The men and women who work across Arizona's rangeland are among the most capable and responsible business people that we have in this state. Their stewardship of the land, and our state's history, is well recognized and goes back many generations.

I strongly agree with the goal of reducing regulatory burdens and correcting wasteful activities — especially if it will bolster our state economy. My administration took significant steps to improve the processes referenced in this bill in October 2017.

This administration will continue to be open to addressing the needs and concerns of all the stakeholders who abide by historic preservation laws, and we will eagerly pursue well-defined improvements to those processes.

Sincerely,
/s/DOUGLAS A. DUCEY
Governor
State of Arizona

SB 1091, income tax payments; bitcoin

Dear Secretary Reagan:

Today, I vetoed Senate Bill 1091. I am concerned about the unintended consequences this bill could have on private industry.

Sincerely,
/s/DOUGLAS A. DUCEY
Governor
State of Arizona

On May 16, 2018, the Governor approved the following, with expression of executive intent:

HB 2324, community health workers; voluntary certification

Today, I signed House Bill 2324.

My administration has prioritized occupational licensing reform with the goal of reducing barriers that make it more difficult, time-consuming, or expensive for someone to earn a living in a career of his or her choice.

While there are certainly instances where licensing is necessary to protect public health and safety, the pendulum has swung too far in favor of licensing. Nationally, in the 1950's, approximately 5% of jobs require a license. Today, that number has increased five-fold to 25% of all jobs. It is time to reverse that trend.

I appreciate that this legislation forgoes mandatory licensing, and instead implements a voluntary certification. This legislation recognizes the valuable service that our health workers provide across the state, without introducing overly burdensome licensing requirements.

Sincerely,
/s/DOUGLAS A. DUCEY
Governor
State of Arizona

A Free Conference Committee shall not take final action on a Free Conference Committee report to a House measure unless the measure has been heard in a public hearing of the Free Conference Committee.

D. A copy of each Conference Committee report shall be placed on each member's desk or delivered electronically a reasonable time before consideration of the report. Any member may request, and the Speaker shall grant, a one-time delay per measure of up to 24 hours prior to adoption of the Conference Committee report. Adopted conference reports and the House bills to which they pertain shall be referred for engrossing, and the bill after being engrossed shall be placed on Final Passage.

E. Except as provided herein, Conference Committees shall consider all bills prior to the Saturday of the week in which the ninety-seventh day from the beginning of each regular session falls. No Conference Committee shall meet to consider a bill after such time without the written permission of the Speaker.

RULE 18

DECORUM AND DEBATE

A. When a member desires to speak in debate or deliver any matter to the House, or make a motion, he shall rise and address himself to the Chair, and on being recognized may address the House. He shall confine himself to the question and avoid personalities. No member shall impeach or impugn motives of any other member's argument or vote.

B. When a measure is presented for consideration to the House or in Committee of the Whole, the sponsor of such measure shall be entitled to recognition to open and close the debate. In his absence another member shall be designated to open and close debate on the measure.

C. When two or more members rise, the Chair shall name the member who is to speak; but in all cases the member who shall first rise and address the Chair shall speak first.

D. No member shall interrupt another while speaking except to call to order, to correct a mistake or to move the previous question.

E. The sponsor of a measure or the designee shall have 10 minutes to open and 10 minutes to close debate on an original motion or question except as further provided in this Rule. No other member shall speak more than 5 minutes in favor of or in opposition to any motion, question or each amendment to the motion or question except as further provided in this Rule.

F. A member shall have 5 minutes to open and 5 minutes to close debate on any amendment proposed by the member to the original motion or question except as further provided in this Rule.

G. No member other than the member who opens and closes the debate shall speak more than once on any motion, question or each amendment to the motion or question, nor more than the time limits for speaking as provided in this Rule, unless a member desiring to speak more than once, or more than the time limits for speaking is accorded the privilege without objection or upon a motion supported by two-thirds of the members elected to the House.

IMPERMISSIBLE DEBATE

A. No member shall be permitted to indulge in personalities, use language personally offensive, arraign motives of members, charge deliberate misrepresentation or use language tending to hold a member of the House or Senate up to contempt.

B. If any member be called to order for words spoken in debate, the member calling him to order shall repeat the words excepted to; and they shall be taken down in writing at the Chief Clerk's desk and read aloud to the House, but he shall not be held to answer or be subject to the censure of the House therefor if further debate or other business has intervened.

C. If any member, in speaking or otherwise, transgresses the Rules of the House, the Speaker shall, or any member may call him to order, in which case he shall immediately sit down unless permitted to explain; and the House shall, if appealed to, decide the case without debate. If the decision is in favor of the member called to order, he shall be at liberty to proceed, but not otherwise; and, if the case requires it, he shall be liable to censure or such punishment as the House may deem proper.

D. There shall be no debate at the Third Reading or Final Passage of a bill except by a two-thirds vote of the members elected to the House.

PROTEST

A. Any member shall have the right to protest and have the reasons of his protest entered in the Journal (Arizona Constitution, Article IV, Part 2, Section 16) subject to provisions of paragraph B of this Rule. Any member rising to speak on protest shall be allowed to speak for a period not to exceed 10 minutes.

B. The protest of any member, not exceeding 200 words, may be entered in the Journal; but the language thereof shall impute no unworthy motive to any other House or Senate member nor transgress the Rules of the House relating to language used in debate.

RULE 21MOTIONS

A. When a motion has been made, the Speaker shall state it or if it be in writing cause it to be read aloud by the Chief Clerk before being debated. It shall then be in possession of the House, but may be withdrawn at any time before debate begins or amendment is offered. No motion shall be recognized without the member rising and addressing the Chair.

B. All motions shall be reduced to writing, if requested by the presiding officer or by a member, and shall be entered in the Journal with the name of the member making it, and shall be read before the same shall be debated.

C. No dilatory motion shall be entertained by the Speaker or Chairman.

D. "Privileged Questions" are a class of motions which have the highest precedence.

E. When the question is under debate, no motion shall be received but:

	Debatable	Amendable	Majority Vote
1. To adjourn	NO	NO	YES
2. To take a recess	NO	YES	YES
3. To lay on the table	NO	NO	YES
4. For the previous question	NO	NO	YES
5. To postpone to a time certain	YES	YES	YES
6. To commit, refer or	YES	YES	YES

recommit

7. To amend	YES	YES	YES
8. To amend an amendment.	YES	NO	YES
9. To offer a substitute amendment	YES	YES	YES
10. To amend a substitute amendment	YES	YES	YES
11. To postpone indefinitely	YES	NO	YES

These several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order, and no motion to postpone to a time certain, to refer, or to postpone indefinitely, being the same day at the same stage of the question decided, shall again be allowed on the motion.

RULE 22

PREVIOUS QUESTION

A. The previous question shall be put in the following form: "Those in favor of ordering the previous question will vote aye; those opposed will vote nay".

B. The motion for the previous question, when agreed to, has the effect of cutting off all debate and bringing the House to a direct vote upon pending amendments, if any, in their order, and then upon the main question, except that after the previous question has been ordered, each side shall be allowed five minutes, the affirmative closing the debate.

C. When the member entitled to speak under this Rule is absent, the member first in order upon the committee reporting the measure, who is present and joined in the report, shall have the right to occupy such time.

D. After the previous question has been ordered on the passage of a measure, one motion to recommit shall be in order. The previous question is not debatable or amendable and requires a majority of those voting.

RULE 23

POSTPONEMENT

A. The motions to postpone are two in number and distinct: (1) to a day certain and (2) indefinitely.

1. The motion to postpone to a day certain is in order immediately after the approval of the Journal unless displaced by more highly privileged business. The motion is subject to amendment, debatable within narrow limits only (the merits of the bill to which it is applied not being within those limits) and requires a majority of those voting.

2. The motion to postpone indefinitely opens to debate all merits of the proposition to which it is applied. It is not applied to motions to refer, suspend the rules or resolve into a Committee of the Whole. The motion cannot be amended and requires a majority of those voting.

B. The motion to postpone indefinitely is not in order in committee of the whole until after the measure has been thoroughly discussed and is not made in direct form. The motion to postpone to a day certain is not in order in committee of the whole.

RULE 24

RECONSIDERATION

A. When a motion has been made and carried or lost, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side, on the same day or the next day of actual session thereafter, to move for the reconsideration thereof at a time not to exceed fourteen days; and such motion shall not be amended and shall be immediately disposed of. Such motion shall take precedence of all other questions except a motion to adjourn or the consideration of a conference report.

B. The motion to reconsider is adopted by an affirmative vote of a majority of those voting, even when the vote reconsidered is on a matter that requires two-thirds or more of those voting for affirmative action. On motion to reconsider, the ayes and nays having been acted on, another motion to reconsider is not in order.

C. No bill, resolution, memorial or petition referred to a committee shall be brought back into the House on a motion to reconsider.

D. When a bill, resolution, report, amendment, order or measure, upon which a vote has been taken, shall have gone out of the possession of the House and has been committed to the Senate, the motion to reconsider shall be accompanied by a motion to request the Senate to return the same, which last motion shall be acted upon immediately, and if determined in the negative shall be a final disposition of the motion to reconsider.

RULE 25

DIVISION OF QUESTION

On demand of a member before the question is put, a question shall be divided if it includes propositions so distinct in substance that one being taken away, a substantive proposition shall remain.

RULE 26

PRIVILEGE OF THE HOUSE, PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

A. "Questions of Privilege" are those questions which relate to the rights and privileges of the Body or of its members in their official capacity, and should be distinguished from "privileged questions" which are a class of motions having the highest precedence pursuant to Rule 21.

B. "Questions of Privilege" shall be:

1. "Privilege of the House" which affects the rights of the House collectively, its safety, dignity and integrity of its proceedings and has the highest precedence.

2. "Personal Privilege" which relates to the rights, reputation and conduct of members individually, in their respective capacity only; and shall have precedence of all other questions except motion to adjourn and except as provided in Rule 7. Any member rising to a point of personal privilege upon being recognized shall first state the point and shall be allowed to speak for a period not to exceed 5 minutes.

RULE 27PETITIONS, MEMORIALS AND OTHER COMMUNICATIONS

A. Petitions, memorials or other papers addressed to the House may be presented by the Speaker or by a member and shall be read and considered in the order presented unless the House shall direct otherwise. The subject matter and the name of the person presenting the petition or other paper shall be endorsed thereon.

B. Messages from the Governor, reports and communications from heads of departments, or other communications to the House, and messages from the Senate, may be referred directly to appropriate committees.

RULE 28ORDER ON THE FLOOR, PRIVILEGE OF THE FLOOR, MAIN GALLERY, PRESS GALLERY

A. No member shall be permitted to pass unnecessarily between the Chair and the person speaking, or other persons be permitted to stand in the aisles during the session of the House.

B. Except by unanimous consent, or unless otherwise ordered by a two-thirds vote of the members elected to the House, no person except members, officers and employees of the House shall have the privilege of, or be admitted to, the floor of the House Chambers at any time; provided that the Speaker may grant the privilege of the floor, subject to revocation in any instance by order of the House, to former members of the House and to members of the Senate.

C. The main gallery shall at all times, except when the House is in Executive Session or the House or Speaker shall order the galleries cleared, be open to the public, subject to the full observance of the Rules of the House.

D. A press gallery shall be maintained, to which shall be admitted only duly accredited representatives of the press holding nontransferable cards issued by the Speaker and revocable at his discretion. The press gallery may be located on the floor of the House at the discretion of the Speaker. Any press representative desiring admission to the press gallery shall make application to the Speaker for a pass and shall accompany such application with a statement of the facts of his press connections, and with a request by the newspaper or newsgathering organization with which he is connected for such pass. Passes shall not be issued to more than four representatives of one newspaper or newsgathering organization, and not more than one such representative at a time shall occupy a seat in the press gallery if such seat is desired by the representative of any other newspaper or newsgathering organization.

RULE 29

THE JOURNAL

A. The House shall keep a Journal of its proceedings, and at the request of two members the ayes and nays on roll call on any question shall be entered (Arizona Constitution, Article IV, Part 2, Section 10).

B. Every motion made to the House and entertained by the Speaker shall be entered in the Journal with the name of the member making it, unless it be withdrawn the same day.

RULE 30

PARLIAMENTARY PRACTICE AND PRECEDENCE

The rules from the different sources take precedence in the order listed:

1. Constitutional Rules or Stipulations
2. Adopted House Rules
 3. Statutory Rules or Provisions
 4. Customs and Usages
 5. Adopted Parliamentary Authority (Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure, Rules of United States House of Representatives, and Jefferson's Manual)
6. General Parliamentary Law

RULE 31EXECUTIVE SESSION

Upon a motion, carried by a majority vote of all members elected to the House, the House may resolve itself into Executive Session for the discussion of any business which may, in the opinion of the House membership, require secrecy. The Speaker may direct the chambers and galleries to be cleared, except such personnel as the Speaker may deem necessary; and during the discussion the doors shall remain closed. While in Executive Session the Rules of the House shall apply.

RULE 32SUSPENSION OR AMENDMENT OF THE RULES

A. The House Rules may be amended upon vote of the majority of the members of the House.

B. The House Rules may be suspended by a vote of a majority of the members present.

RULE 33AGENDAS, CALENDARS AND NOTICE OF MEETINGS

A. Agendas and calendars shall contain the number and short titles of all legislative measures to be considered.

B. A standing, interim or joint committee or a subcommittee, except the Committee on Rules, shall not take action on a legislative measure unless the measure has been on a committee agenda which was available at the Information Desk by 4:00 p.m. on the previous day. Standing Committees are also subject to Rule 9 C. Interim committees shall prepare and distribute agendas no later than 4:00 p.m. on the second previous working day, excluding Saturday, Sundays and holidays, in advance of the committee meeting.

C. A measure not considered by the Committee of the Whole on the same legislative day as it was reported out of the last standing committee to which it is assigned, other than the Committee on Rules, shall not be considered by the Committee of the Whole unless it appeared on an active calendar of the Committee of the Whole which was available at the Information Desk on the previous day.

D. A measure not disposed of on Third Reading on the same legislative day as it was reported by the Committee of the Whole shall not be brought to a vote on Third Reading unless it appeared on a calendar available at the Information Desk on the previous day.

E. The names of the House conferees appointed to a Conference Committee shall be available at the Information Desk before the conference report is signed. The report of a Conference Committee shall not be adopted unless the report was available at the Information Desk prior to the adoption.

F. In case of an emergency, a vote may be taken upon such notice as is appropriate to the circumstances. A report of the action taken in an emergency shall be available at the Information Desk within twenty-four hours.

G. A current report of the House action on all measures shall be available to public inspection at the Information Desk.

H. Pursuant to Article IV, Part 2, Section 8, Constitution of Arizona, the meeting notice and agenda requirements for the House, Committee of the Whole and all standing, select and joint committees and subcommittees shall be governed exclusively by these rules.

RULE 34

CODE OF ETHICS

A. No member shall:

1. Intentionally solicit, accept or agree to accept from any source, whether directly or indirectly and whether by himself or through any other person, any personal financial benefit, including any gift for himself or another, upon an agreement or understanding that his vote, opinion, judgment, exercise of discretion or other action as a public official will thereby be influenced.

2. Disclose or use information designated by law as confidential in any manner prohibited by law.

3. Knowingly disclose or use, other than in the performance of his official duties, information gained as a result of his official position and which is not available to the general public, for his personal financial benefit or the financial benefit of any other person, including compensation from any employment, transaction or investment entered into that utilizes or is based upon such information.

4. Enter into any contract with a public agency or have an interest in the profits or benefits of a contract entered into with a public agency by any other person or entity, unless:

(a) The total gross annual income value of the contract is less than one thousand dollars, or

b) The contract is entered into by a business of which the member, his spouse or any minor child of whom the member has custody, owns or controls, individually or combined, less than ten percent thereof, or

(c) The contract has been awarded through public and competitive bidding pursuant to law, or

d) The subject of the contract between a member and a public agency is an appointment or employment for which an exception exists pursuant to Article IV, Part 2, Section 4 or 5 of the Constitution of Arizona.

5. Appear for a fee on behalf of another person or entity before any public agency for the purpose of influencing such agency by use of threat to initiate or take an action in the discharge of his official duties that would be adverse to such agency.

B. For the purposes of this Rule:

1. A member shall be deemed to "have an interest in the profits of a contract" if the contract is entered into by the member or the member's spouse or any minor child of whom the member has legal custody.

2. "Public agency" means all courts and any department, agency, board, commission, institution or instrumentality of this state but does not include counties, cities and towns or any other political subdivision.

3. "Business" includes any corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, business trust, enterprise, organization, trade, occupation or profession.

4. "Gift" includes any gratuity, special discount, favor, service, economic opportunity, loan or other benefit received without lawful consideration and not provided to members of the public at large but does not include political campaign contributions if such contributions are publicly reported as required by law.

5. "Fee" includes any compensation but does not include benefits received pursuant to law as a result of being a legislator.

RULE 35PERSONAL FINANCIAL INTEREST

A. A member who anticipates taking an action in the discharge of his official duties in which he may have a personal financial interest shall:

1. Prepare a written statement describing the matter to be acted upon and the nature of the potential interest; and

2. Deliver a copy of the statement to the Speaker, the chairman of the Ethics Committee and the Chief Clerk. Such statement shall be retained by the Chief Clerk as a public record.

B. A member shall report a potential personal financial interest pursuant to subsection A as soon as the member is aware of such potential interest. If, however, such awareness occurs when the House is convened on the floor or during a meeting of a committee, subcommittee or caucus, a member shall report a potential personal financial interest as soon after the adjournment of that body as is practicable.

C. A member may abstain from taking any action in which he has a personal financial interest. Upon declining to participate in any legislative action on the floor, in committee or in subcommittee, the member shall state his decision and such decision shall be recorded in the Journal or minutes of that body. Prior to declining to vote in any legislative action on the floor, a member must first prepare a written statement describing the nature of the personal financial interest or the reason why the member is declining to vote and deliver the statement to the Office of the Chief Clerk. If the member fails to file the statement prior to the member's declaration on the floor, the member shall be subject to Rule 14 E.

D. A member in doubt as to the propriety of any action proposed to be taken by him and involving a potential personal financial interest under this Rule may request the Ethics Committee to render an advisory opinion on the facts. The advisory opinion shall be issued not later than 5 days from the date of receipt of that request and be filed with the Speaker, the chairman of the Ethics Committee and the Chief Clerk. Such opinion shall be retained by the Chief Clerk as a public record.

E. For the purposes of this Rule:

1. "An action in the discharge of his official duties" means introduction, sponsorship, debate, amendment, passage, defeat, approval, consideration or any other official action on any bill, resolution, memorial, amendment, confirmation, nomination, appointment, report or any other matter pending or proposed in a committee, subcommittee, caucus or on the floor of the House.

2. A personal financial interest exists if it is reasonably foreseeable that an action in the discharge of his official duties will have a material financial benefit or detriment either directly or indirectly on the member, his spouse or any minor child of whom he has legal custody, except that no personal financial interest exists if the legislator or such member of his household is a member of a class of persons and it reasonably appears that a majority of the total membership of that class is to be affected by such action.

RULE 36

POLITICAL PARTY CAUCUSES

All meetings of majority or minority political party caucuses of members of the House shall be open to the public except organizational meetings to elect officers of the caucus and the House and meetings to discuss matters, including those permitted in executive session as set forth in A.R.S. section 38-431.03. Each caucus shall establish procedures for convening political party caucuses.

RULE 37

DISCHARGE OF COMMITTEES

Notwithstanding any other provision of these rules to the contrary:

1. Every bill, resolution and memorial shall be referred to one or more standing committees, except death resolutions and Senate bills to be substituted on Third Reading pursuant to Rule 7 C.

2. Except as provided in paragraph 3, if three-fifths or more of the members of the House sign a petition to discharge all committees from further consideration of a bill, resolution or memorial the measure shall be placed on an Active Calendar of the Committee of the Whole within one week unless the House adjourns sine die. If the measure is reported favorably by the Committee of the Whole it shall be brought for Third Reading.

B. The House shall have a written harassment prevention policy applicable to member behavior. This policy shall be adopted, and may be amended, upon vote of the majority of the members of the house.
