Speaker Bowers addressed the House as follows:

I am a fourth generation Arizonian. Many of our Tribal friends and Indigenous People have dozens of generations of family prior to me in Arizona, and I recognize that. In my lobby I have a picture of my two Grandfathers. My Grandfather Parley in 1925 was a guide that took people down in to the Grand Canyon from the north rim and my Grandfather Leo built the fireplaces in the lodges along the south rim of the Grand Canyon. For my family, this means a lot. I have consistently tried to show a level of responsibility to the heritage that I have as many who have come after me and so many before me have marked their heritage across this state. It's been my pleasure to have served in and around the legislature since first elected in 1992. I've known some wonderful legislators who showed diplomacy and tact, whose deportment and actions were a credit to this room. I hope to continue that, and that it would be said of me that I honored the position that has been so kindly given to me by my caucus and the members of this legislative session. That means a level of responsibility that I carry to guard the institution as a conservative. That is one of the charges of conserving for me.

When I think of my wife and family, our 7 children, our 19 grandchildren, Emeline being among them, my parents. My father and mother had a little sheep ranch in Chino Valley. My mother gave up a singing career. She sang later with the Phoenix Symphony and was a school teacher along with my father, who at the time was teaching at Prescott High School trying to run his little farm, but mostly it was mom, Nathele King Bowers. My grandpa Parley was a veteran of World War I, gassed in the San Michelle Salient during the Argon Offensive then stricken with the Spanish Influenza and nearly dying from that. Wounded in high explosive bombardments, he came back during a snowstorm to Flagstaff to the old train depot downtown where grandma met him. They lived in Williams where he had work as a catskiner making a road up to the Grand Canyon. The lingering effects of the gas and other charges changed our family greatly, and when I think back on all they went through and some of those things maybe Dan will be mentioning much better than I. It imbues in me a sense of my duty to my family, to my children, to my grandchildren and to government in general. Other than what is necessary, I would plead with you to leave my family alone. Let us raise our families, let us be responsible for them. Guard us, protect us help us have infrastructure and meet our duties, but let us raise our families.

Again, I thank you all for being here. Every legislative session the 26th, I know Governor Brewer is like 32 or 36 you have been in this room. There is a lot that is going to happen in the next hopefully two and a half months, but whatever happens, I charge all of my colleagues: let's move ahead with a good heart to make good policy for our state. And I thank you again for being here.

I would like to introduce if I could our guest speaker, my older brother Dan. I have been intimately acquainted with Dan all of my life. There are 5 brothers in our family and 2 sisters, Charlotte being the surviving sister. We lost our oldest sister a couple of years ago. Dan was immediately senior and I've looked up to him physically, I have had to and his wonderful wife and family. He is a gifted speaker and writer, a football coach. He has coached some of the greatest receivers some all pro candidates and I'm very grateful to introduce him. You will get a sense of another side of our family by bringing Mr. Daniel Grant Bowers to the stand and let him talk to us for a moment. Dan if you would come up.

Keynote Speaker Daniel Grant Bowers:

That's quite an introduction, though I should clarify a little bit: I do dabble in a little bit of writing, but I have been a high school teacher and high school football coach and assistant football coach for 40 years. I just retired four short years ago. Upon retirement I figured I had better go back home, and here I am. I tried to figure out why Rusty - I don't care what he says. Who do you think looks younger? I am the older brother, and I have the miles to prove it. And my younger brother, whom you just heard from, was tortured, teased and tied up. I put peanut butter in his bed sometimes at night, and I'm sorry I had done that. I did pull the spark plugs on that car when you guys were out on a date. That was me. Truth is I love my brother dearly; that's how I show it, by making their lives miserable. My sister, my other brothers, my older sister who left us a little while ago.

I am just an old football coach, and I had a great time coaching young men. The voice is not usually this gravelly. I fell in amongst the Philistines, and they cut my throat. I had a neck operation a month ago, and I thought this would get me out of it but it didn't. I couldn't figure out why he wanted me to come here, and now I realize it was to get even. He's good at this: he sets you up and then he gets you. In football, especially in football coaching, 30 years is a career and 40 years is a sentence. You're out there standing in the sun with all these young men around you, which is the most fun part, and you ache, and after a while you start replacing body parts. I got to that stage where I was coaching the grandson of an earlier player of mine and that did it. I told my head coach, You are not talking me into this again; I am done.

My wife, Rebecca, the queen of my life for 49 years; she's put up with me for that long. We decided we were coming home, and we were multigenerational, as Russell explained, residents of Mesa. We decided that we would come home. But we were not going to come back to the heat, so we settled in Snowflake, Arizona. I am telling you right now Snowflake is a wonder. It is straight out of the pure West where people still stop and help you out on the road, repair your tire, tow you to town, get your groceries; they do all kinds of things. It's a great place to be and to raise kids and they have a pretty good football team. Just throwing that out there.

I wondered as you can tell and if you have ever been in Russell's office - it was my first time today - he got all the talent. He inherited all of the talent and I inherited all of the temper. And it's done us both good in some instances, which should remain untold. After pondering what could I possibly say that would put us on common ground, and I thought about this for awhile, it hit me. We did have common ground. As a football coach we suffered with parents, especially with parents that were more than vocal in their appreciation with coaches. You have suffered with kind of the same thing where they keep an eye on you and everything like the voters. Believe it or not there is a connection there because the connection is that absolutely, positively, without a shadow of a doubt from that moment they vote you in, or the moment I get hired as the football coach according to them you don't know what the heck you're doing. You have no idea: why did you run that play? why isn't my kid playing? what is the matter with you? And your kids are ugly. I have had the tires on my truck slashed. That comes when you are winning so it's kind of tough. After awhile those political action committees to me would be much like the Parent Booster Club. They start sounding like the howling of wolves descending on mortally wounded game. They are after you. My dad, who has been deceased for about 30 years, always said they start at a Booster Club and they wind up being a vigilante posse. Before you know it they are throwing stuff at you, slashing your tires and burning your lawns. I should have listened. He would finish his homily with the message: don't let them get too close because they will bite you, and then you will die of rabies too.

I made it to retirement; we moved to Snowflake. It's a great place with great people. You have never seen a Pioneer's Day Parade until you have been to Snowflake. You have never seen the type of people we have there and they are wonderful people. Somewhere in the process of coaching and teaching I suddenly had all of these younger teachers and coaches look at me and ask me, what do I do here? what do I do there? I suddenly realized I'm old. They always had the questions and they wanted that nugget of wisdom. And I had it every time. Don't hang around with the Booster Club. Just don't. Don't go near them.

First Day

The calendar it seems just turns day by day. Each day of work is irrevocably gone. You face that inexorable march into an uncertain future especially when you are an old guy. When you're young it seems like you have all of the time in the world; the time is plenty. Take your time; it will be ok. During the middling years we have all labored to provide for our families that surely they absorb every ounce of whatever little treasure they are seeing and every minute of your day. Now in our golden years, not of wealth but hopefully a wealth of experience, when we feel that we are approaching that door and you seem nearly bursting for that one more hug, that one pat on the head, that one wrestle in the grass to see through the lens of our grandchildren. If you have ever read William Strauss and Neil Howe The Fourth Turning, this is the time when children listen to their grandchildren more than they do their parents. It is this time when we reach that age, and there are a lot of young people in here; we need to teach them a lesson in geography, the geography of life.

In Snowflake there is only one high school, so when football is in town you can get three games. You can go to the Freshman game. You can go to the Junior Varsity game on Thursday night. And on Friday night you can go to the Varsity game. You get three for one now that's a deal. It's always good for my soul to go to these games because the lights are up, the bats are whirling on the inside, it's cool chilly, and you know because you have been there, that you can run forever and there is a dance after every home game. I don't have to make adjustments at halftime. I can go hang out with the other old guys on the short fence by the inner part of the field and talk about our future prospects. And we have another audience that is off of Third Street that are back there in their pick-up trucks completely off of the curb and across the sidewalk, and they sit in back and watch the game. It's a great experience. There is always the little boys playing in the grass by the vine covered fence. This is what I want to talk to you about. It's the difference between my county and my nation. A lifetime ago Rebecca and I were coming back driving across country from a national guard deployment. She had come to join me for the final three months that we had to spend at Fort Monmouth in New Jersey. It was 1971. We had been married in 1970 and I had not been around because of this. We had a yellow white-topped Camaro, and in Steubenville, Ohio a yellow white-topped Volkswagen van passed us, put on the breaks and slowed down so they could yell and I thought, oh no. They were overjoyed; they all hung out the windows. I could see the military cut. They were going home also. They waved to us to pull aside, so we stopped and we talked to them. We sat on the tables by the river and they talked of home and what each was determined to do and how good it would be to finally walk in the front door. We caravanned the rest of that day and stopped at a motel for the rest of the night and continued the trip the next day, passing each other back and forth. And in the middle of New Mexico we stopped and we parted because they were heading north. Las Vegas, New Mexico, Albuquerque, Santa Fe, and I remember one boy was going to Ramos. Later, much later that afternoon, Rebecca and I stopped off on a rise just west of Red Hill, New Mexico which didn't exist at that time; it was just a post office. We got out leaned against the car hood overlooking the Arizona line I had my arms around her; I took a deep shuttering breath held it and then let it go. That caused her to turn around and look at me as she has done so many times since. She said, What's the matter? I said, Oh nothing; I'm home. I'm home.

The country in which we each find our home is an idea that each of us may treasure in our heart of hearts. We treasure that so deeply: it's in our blood, our bones and our molecules that which we so wish to be our future. Country is an acceptance of things past, and things in the past have been both good and evil. Yet we use those as an azimuth, a pole star toward that shining city that each of us will someday emerge. Nation in the ancillary politicalization that we acquire to protect country. Our country, the thing that means the most to us. It is necessary; it calls people to war. Taxes for needed infrastructure. It preserves the peace and provides an even field for commerce and at times must be restrained. It is country that our uniformed boys and girls die for and for whom we pray. It was certainly the purpose for my little brother Steve who addressed you last year, who went to Afghanistan and Iraq. My new son-in-law who is a Major in the Army has already been on two tours to Afghanistan. It certainly was the guiding azimuth of my father and uncles who joined the Marine Corp in World War II. Uncle Syd, their younger brother, lied to get in. He was 15 and luckily he was shaving already. So he lied to get in at 15 years old. At 16 years old on his birthday he waded ashore at Tarawa, a little coral atoll in the South Pacific. I have talked with many medics who say that when the member of the country, their mother is the last person with which a soldier, when death is imminent, whom they call for. Country is what my grandmother saw when sitting aboard my father's wagon swaying across the Colorado at Halls Crossing. Later she described to us how a cavalry soldier came galloping out of a heat wave covered with dust. She thought he was the most handsome person she had ever seen. He said, Get going. Run for the fort. The Apache Kid is on the warpath. My wife's great grandparents were on the same wagon train and her great grandmother Sarah, a young mother chose to take off many months to attend medical school that would make her a qualified midwife. In Mesa for generations she delivered over 1500 children without losing a child or a mother. They cleared fields; they built adobe homes; they suffered flood and heat and death; they cleared hundreds of miles of Hohokam canals that were overgrown. And they realized that the very reason of our lives is to try our choices. We are free to make choices. But are we ready to try them and to use those choices we have for meaningful and worthy purposes? We are here literally to live and die and grow, hopefully, in our country. At no time in the history of our nation have two definitions been more at odds. We indeed live in strange times. We are in panic mode; the nation is in panic mode. They look at me like, What? And they walk off. But one of those times you are at a football game, and your boys are in in it. And they are teetering on panic; they need something, and I have always worked for really good head coaches, and the last time out

I walk out on the field, gather them around me, kneel down in the dirt and I tell them calm down, just calm down. Everything is going to be all right. Go back to fundamentals; that's where your life is, fundamentals. Control your gap. Control what you can control. Pay attention to your steps. We always call it, the high school I worked at for years and years, our step doctrine. There are six basic steps you can take for any situation that would come up. Pay attention to that and get your hands up. Punch, punch, punch and then attack. After that now go out and do some damage. I would like to say that it always worked, but sometimes it didn't. But we never got beat because we panicked.

About two years ago all of the kids were up; the grandkids were playing down at Pioneer Park right there on the main street highway that goes right through the middle of Snowflake. Representative Blackman knows where that is. We had gone down after the parade was all over; the kids were having that last burst of energy running and playing in the light. We had these new lights that were yellow that made the kids running look gold on a field of gold and out beyond. What was eventide was easing into night, and at that moment, not feeling particularly well, having a little angina there, I thought, you know what? If this is all I could remember, I'm good to go. I'm ok. Calm down, everything will be all right. Your responsibility is vast and complex, but more so than building an offensive line year by year, building up those young men to play, and with that I will leave you to it. God bless each of you and your work. God bless the great state of Arizona and God bless the United States of America. Thank you.

STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS
GOVERNOR DOUG DUCEY
SECOND REGULAR SESSION
FIFTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE
JANUARY 13, 2020

Speaker Bowers, President Fann, House Leaders Petersen and Fernandez, Senate Leaders Gray and Bradley, Chief Justice Brutinel, Members of the Legislature and Judiciary, my fellow Arizonans — thank you so much for the warm welcome. It's great to be back.

Allow me to start with a question. Show of hands: who here today in this chamber, was born somewhere other than the state of Arizona?

As you can see — there's a lot of us. I'll always be a kid from Toledo. And we have folks here today from all over the country, and all over the world.

It's uniquely Arizona. We choose to move here, live here, make this home — and we're not alone. As we stand here today, more than 70 percent of our adult citizens were born somewhere else. So were some of our greatest state icons. Leaders, like Secretary of the Air Force Barbara Barrett. Trailblazers, like Raul Castro. Legends, like Jerry Colangelo. Quiet Saints like Bill Bidwill. Giants, like Sandra Day O' Connor. And heroes, like John McCain and Pat Tillman.

The newcomers keep coming. Last year we punched through 7 million people, and left Massachusetts in the dust. 120,000 people are moving here a year. That's more than 300 a day. By the time I finish this speech, 14 new Arizona residents will have arrived.

I think it's fair to say that I speak for all of us — the native Arizonans and the newcomers — when I say: We love it here.

It's for good reason. Ladies and gentlemen, I'm proud to report: the state of our state is strong. And the best part is, it's only getting better.

Look at all that's happening around us. Our crime rate is dropping, and school test scores are rising. Our credit rating is up, and our debt is way down. Household incomes have hit a record high, and our poverty rate has dropped faster than any other state in the nation.

As we enter a new decade, things look a lot different than when we entered the last one.

Today, Arizona's economy is more diverse. We have more manufacturing jobs than construction jobs — and we're top 10 in transportation, science, technology, and health care.

Our national reputation has never been better, our relationship with Mexico has never been stronger, and with the new USMCA, we've paved the way for an even stronger trade relationship with our valued neighbors to the south.

We got here by doing things our way, The Arizona Way. And I'm here to tell you: You ain't seen nothing yet.

Here, common sense still rules the day. Other states, and D.C. politicians, might be focused on growing government -- Arizona grows opportunity. Our population is surging, but the size of our government is actually shrinking — all while providing faster, more efficient customer service to taxpayers and citizens.

In Arizona, we believe in maximizing freedom and limiting government. We believe government should do fewer things, but do the things it does well. Let's continue hacking away at the permanent bureaucracy and the "mother may I" state.

The people don't need the government's permission -- the government needs the people's permission.

We believe in the freedom to work. On Arizona's 50th birthday, someone wisely predicted: "Arizona will continue to be the haven for people who seek an outlet for initiative and a reward for work." That was Barry Goldwater in 1962.

In that spirit, we passed Universal Recognition of Occupational Licensing, allowing anyone in America to bring their skills to Arizona and get to work.

Up in the governor's office, our phones have been ringing off the hook. Red states, blue states — all wanting to replicate what Arizona has done. Representative Petersen — How's that for "model legislation?"

Fact is, if imitation really is the sincerest form of flattery — then Arizona should be blushing. We were the first state in the nation to pass the American Civics Act. 34 others have followed suit. Only 15 more to go.

Our unanimous work on opioids was the most aggressive and comprehensive policy in the nation, and prompted other states and the federal government, to take notice and take action.

And way back in 2016, we protected Free Speech on our college campuses. When it takes Texas three years to catch up, you know we're doing something right.

Here you can brew beer, churn ice cream, and make an honest living. Now, all we need is Uber and Lyft back at Sky Harbor.

We launched the "Happy Babies" program to let new parents bring their infants to work. And how do we know it's a great idea? Because in California, it got vetoed.

We fired the lobbyists, freed the blow-dryers, and along the way, we even managed to legalize potlucks.

Cutting red tape? We were doing it before it was cool.

But the most surprising news: not everyone is mimicking us. Places like California, Illinois, Washington State, Connecticut, and New York — they're taking the opposite approach. Higher taxes. More regulations. Wasteful spending. Mountains of debt. That's the wrong way. We'll stick to the Arizona Way.

While those states are crushing people and businesses with burdensome regulations and unnecessary laws, their residents are flocking to Arizona.

First Day

Here, we're not just open for business — we're open for opportunity — for everyone. As a result, we're now the number one inbound state in America.

Our economy is roaring: 350,000 new jobs since 2015. It's reflected in our bursting general fund and growing revenues.

But for those of you who don't know me that well yet -- spoiler alert: We're not going on a spending spree.

But old habits die hard for the spending lobby. There's a chorus of special interests and lobbyists scheming, plotting and clamoring for new and higher taxes. They don't seem to understand the reasons our new residents are coming here. It isn't to import those bad out-of-state policies — it's to escape them. So let me reiterate what I've said in five prior state of the state speeches, and two inaugural addresses — because apparently it bears repeating -- no new taxes; not this session, not next session; not here in this chamber, not at the ballot box, not on my watch.

We're running a billion-dollar surplus, and somehow that still isn't enough? Give us a break. Even better — give the hard-working taxpayers a break. And let's start with the ones who we can all agree have sacrificed the most.

We are blessed to have more than 600,000 veterans in our state. One of the largest populations of veterans in the country. From World War II to Post-9/11. Our Greatest Generation to our newest generation. These brave men and women are heroes, to whom we as citizens owe a debt of gratitude for all the freedoms we enjoy each and every day.

I'd like to ask all the veterans in the chamber today to please rise, so we can recognize and honor your service.

Yours is a public service in a league of its own. As President Lincoln said of our veterans "The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here."

To say these individuals are Great Americans is an understatement.

Once retired, our vets continue to give back.

We can never repay them, but we can at least do our part to demonstrate our appreciation.

Our vets have already earned their benefits. Put their lives on the line. The government shouldn't be taxing their service to country, it should be honoring their service to country. Our budget does this, by eliminating all state income taxes on our veterans' military pensions once and for all.

We have a goal: To make Arizona home base for veterans everywhere in the country. These women and men make our state stronger. To all our veterans, everywhere, from California to New York State, Arizona wants you. All of you. You've put our country first; now with this budget, Arizona will put you first. Eliminating taxes for our veterans is one way, but not the only way, we can honor our heroes. We're connecting veterans to jobs. And we're working toward the opening of two new veterans' homes.

The battlefield isn't the only place where our service members' lives are at risk. Once they come home, they face new challenges, with suicide rates three times higher among Arizona veterans.

Our Department of Veterans Services, under the direction of Colonel Wanda Wright, is a national leader in addressing veteran suicide.

Through the BeConnected program, veterans are connecting with one another for support and behavioral health services. But more needs to be done, for all Arizonans struggling with this growing crisis.

It's now the 8th leading cause of death in our state. This is a national problem. One needing Arizona solutions. Last year, Dr. Cara Christ -- leader of the Department of Health Services -- convened a group of stakeholders and mental health experts to develop a plan to combat suicide and save lives.

When it comes to our kids: in the iPhone era, they face a world dramatically different than the one we grew up in. Modern technology. Social Media. Loneliness. Vaping. We need solutions that focus on the whole child, promoting personal resilience, leveraging our community and a supportive environment.

Let's start by increasing access to mental health care. We're working with Senator Kate Brophy McGee and Representative Jeff Weninger on a long overdue reform. Insurance companies should be covering mental health, just like they cover an annual physical. And we're going to make sure they do.

I've called on you to get rid of old laws. Today I'm leading by example. Moments ago, I rescinded 23 old executive orders, resulting in the elimination of 18 boards and commissions we just don't need. Don't worry, I'm not going to go through the list—you won't miss them.

We've been on a blitz to wipe out needless regulations. 2,289. Gone. That's the equivalent of a $134 million tax cut without impacting the general fund one penny. But we're not done yet.

I've issued a new Executive Order, with a new reform: If the government ever deems a new regulation absolutely necessary, it must first identify three others to eliminate. The result: New regulations will naturally mean less regulations.

Overall, we're doing more with less. Our hardworking state employees are rooting out waste. They've consolidated, and even eliminated, entire state agencies. And they've reduced the state fleet by 767 vehicles, saving taxpayers $31 million.

Other areas of government could follow their lead.

There are hundreds of unelected boards and commissions that exist in a dark corner of state government — often escaping accountability and scrutiny.

We've sought to chip away at the deep-rooted cronyism. But there's still too many insiders and industry good ol' boys. It's time to clean this up. Senator Michelle Ugenti-Rita has a bill that puts real people -- unbiased people -- on these boards. Let's pass it.

Last year, during budget discussions, Senate Democratic Leader David Bradley alerted us to something new: boards stock-piling cash and sitting on bank accounts of millions in reserves — all while continuing to burden real people with fees. It's time for that to end. Let's freeze the fees and free the people.

Plumbers, barbers, nurses, and engineers — no one should ever have to buy their freedom back from government, least of all, the women and men who served our country.

You heard me say I want Arizona to be the national leader for veterans. Well, Representative Joanne Osborne's got the bill. For our heroes and military spouses — polish your resumes. We're getting rid of your fees.

We're also going to target more resources toward our trade programs with an eye toward Achieve60AZ. At our community colleges: a full restoration of STEM and workforce development funding. In our public schools: more dollars to CTE trade programs that train students in the high-demand careers of the future. These are worthy and responsible investments, so with money in the bank, let's make them.

We prioritize fiscal responsibility. We've learned from the mistakes of the past. This building? We now own the deed. We're sitting on our highest credit rating -- ever. Treasurer Yee, how about that Permanent Land Endowment Trust Fund? $6.2 billion, the largest in history. And last year, instead of going on a sugar high and spending through our surplus, we brought our Rainy Day Fund to a record-breaking $1 billion.

That allows us to return dollars back to the hard-working taxpayers, and make smart, targeted investments.

Like new roads and bridges. We've fully and permanently restored transportation dollars for our rural communities. The widening of I-17. State Route 189 in Nogales. U.S. 95 in Yuma. Last week, I called on the federal government to fund the Tonto Basin Bridge. And we cut the ribbon on the newly completed Loop 202 into the West Valley.

It's progress, and next on the list: I-10. The Phoenix-Tucson corridor is an economic artery for our state and it needs expanding. It's time to accelerate completion of I-10's widening, in both directions, between our two largest cities. Our budget puts the pedal to the metal, with the construction of a new six-lane bridge over the Gila River. This replaces a 56-year-old bridge. 62,000 people drive over it every day. That's 23 million a year. So let's break ground ASAP.

We need to connect all parts of our growing state. Rural areas still lack high-speed Internet. Let's triple our investment in Rural Broadband Grants, and also invest $50 million in Smart Highway Corridors to install broadband along our rural interstates. This will make our highways safer and smarter than ever before and pave the way to get all of rural Arizona logged on.

All throughout our priorities you'll see a focus on rural Arizona.

Because there are 15 counties and news flash: there are needs outside the "great state of Maricopa."

Nearly 20 years ago, Arizona voters passed the Tribal-State Gaming Compact. It's been a net positive for all Arizonans. These compacts begin expiring within the next few years. For months, we've been working to develop a modern, updated agreement. One that is regulated, safe and limited. And that preserves the culture of our state.

I'd like to thank all tribal leaders who have been hard at work on these negotiations. It's been a give and take; and a worthwhile agreement is THIS close. We owe it to our tribes and our citizens to get it done.

Last year we came together and passed the Drought Contingency Plan. It was the most significant water policy in 40 years. We will continue to protect Lake Mead, the Colorado River, groundwater, and our ag jobs.

But we shouldn't be dealing with this issue one generation at a time. We need a strategic ongoing effort to turn Arizona into the international capital for water innovation. Look at all that Israel has accomplished. Why not Arizona? We've been a leader on water, and with this approach, we will be an even stronger leader far into the future.

There's no shortage of new jobs in Arizona — but many vital jobs remain unfilled in our rural communities. So we've got a plan -- a Rural Jobs Initiative.

First, tourism and state parks. There's no place more beautiful to vacation than scenic Arizona. And with an infusion of new dollars, we're going to work with Tourism Director Debbie Johnson to ensure the whole world knows it.

Next, workforce. Small business is the backbone of our economy. So we're launching a partnership with Local First Arizona to strengthen small businesses, get rural Arizonans back to work, and bolster our local economies.

Our community colleges are creating a pipeline of talent. So we're expanding these efforts, with a $4 million investment in our rural colleges. There are currently over 2,000 manufacturing jobs available outside of Maricopa and Pima Counties -- let's get these jobs filled and attract even more.

ASU, UofA and NAU have also stepped up to fuel our economy, and we're about to pour on the gas. Regents Chair, Dr. Larry Penley, has proposed what he calls "The New Economy Initiative." It's an innovative approach that enhances our capacity to graduate more students for the critical jobs of today and tomorrow.

It's just the latest effort by our universities to solve problems, and do it The Arizona Way. Like working to address the national teacher shortage.

Through the Arizona Teachers Academy we made a commitment to our aspiring teachers -- you stay and teach in Arizona, and we'll cover your college tuition.

The effort is paying off. Enrollment in the Teachers Academy has skyrocketed, with 2,170 students now participating. We're proud to have some of the students and graduates of our Teachers Academy here today. Ladies and gentlemen, will you join me in welcoming these new Arizona teachers.

This year, we intend to build on our momentum with reforms sponsored by Senator Paul Boyer, allowing even more students to go through the Academy. Students seeking degrees in math and science. Teachers specializing in educating blind children. Arizona's future depends on these educators. Let's provide them with access so they can get to the front of the classroom -- debt free.

There's still work to do to address the teacher shortage, but a recent study by the Center for American Progress is encouraging. Arizona has experienced the second-highest growth in new teachers enrolling in teacher preparation programs. We're actually one of only five states out of 50 seeing an increase in enrollment. And this is news we can all celebrate, because the state of our state can only be strong with strong public schools.

Here are the facts:

- Over the past five years, we've increased per-student spending more quickly and consistently than at any time in the past 20 years.
- Today Arizona is one of only a few states in the nation demonstrating academic improvements over the last decade.
- We provided funding to get schools built faster and on-time to meet the growing demand.
- And most importantly — by the start of the new school year, teacher pay will be up 20 percent.

In total, we've pumped $4.5 billion in new investments into Arizona schools. With our latest budget, that figure will rise to $6.6 billion. And we've done all of this, without raising taxes.

In addition, an even larger investment in school counselors, cops on campus, and school safety. A stronger focus on CTE and the trades. More money for the Arizona Teachers Academy, and Teach for America. And a full, complete and accelerated restoration of flexible funding-- two years ahead of schedule.

Speaker Bowers, President Fann — when you're ready to vote, I'm ready to sign.

There's still more we can do to help children in our state who are facing the biggest challenges.

The late, great John McCain called education, "the civil rights issue of the 21st century." And he was right.

As he put it: "What is the advantage in a low-income area of sending a child to a failing school and that being their only choice?"

In that spirit, we've worked hard to create more choice and opportunities for kids and their parents. Open enrollment. Public charter schools. Education savings accounts. And in Arizona, much of this work has been bipartisan.

We're celebrating 25 years of public charter schools in our state. Another Arizona idea, that's been a model for the country. And today, we are honored to have the two trailblazers who led this bipartisan innovation — one Republican, one Democrat. They're back in the chamber today. Former Superintendent Lisa Graham Keegan, and former State Senator Armando Ruiz.

This is truly something that makes Arizona unique -- it's the Arizona Way. Here, kids are not trapped in failing schools. And despite what you hear from some folks on the national campaign trail, school choice isn't about charter schools versus private schools versus district schools. It's about kids and families.

When we debate these issues at the capitol, it's easy to forget the fact that real people, and real kids, are impacted by these policies. Kids like Adonis Watt.

At age 5, Adonis was diagnosed with a rare form of congenital glaucoma and, as a result, went blind. And while he may have lost his sight, he did not lose his drive.

Today, at age 15, Adonis is a hero of many. A superhero to be exact. His passion is an inspiration to fellow students at Brophy Prep, and to everyone who sees him score a touchdown at a Friday night game. And now, his story is being shared across the world, through Marvel Comics' first braille comic book: The Unstoppable Adonis.

First Day

He's here today with his mom, Veronica, as guests of Angela and I, and he is unstoppable... please welcome Arizona's own superhero, Adonis Watt.

Faced with the expense of braille textbooks and specialized education needs, Veronica chose to pursue Adonis's education using an ESA.

He's just one example of how school choice has helped so many families, and empowered so many Arizona children. Children of women and men in uniform. Children with special needs. And our Native American population.

Like every other Arizona parent Savannah James is dedicated to ensuring her child, Bethany, receives a quality education. She selected a school near their home on the Navajo Nation.

For years, Hilltop school served Bethany well. Imagine their surprise when they received a letter from the heavy hand of government declaring the school was out of bounds, and demanding repayment of funds from their education savings account.

This is an example of government losing sight of the people it's supposed to serve. Savannah and Bethany are here today, and we have a message for them: We won't stand for it. Help is on the way.

When it comes to what's next, we plan to focus our resources on the places it can make the most difference: Targeting the achievement gap in low-income schools.

We've reduced waitlists and expanded and replicated success. In Maryvale, a new Vista College Prep is evidence. More than 90 percent of their students qualify for free and reduced lunch. The school is a recipient of the prestigious National Blue Ribbon award for closing the achievement gap.

This is what equal opportunity in education looks like; this is what we need more of in the state of Arizona.

Results-based funding has been one way to reward and replicate success in our best public schools. It's working. Let's expand it and continue to recognize the achievements and needs of high-poverty schools, where educators are doing amazing things to beat the odds.

We're also going to fully fund the cost for low-income students to take advanced placement tests, so just like every other kid, they can earn college credits in high school.

And we have a proven model to scale success in our most struggling schools.

Avondale Elementary School District serves more than 5,000 west valley students. Nearly 70 percent of them residing in low-income areas.

In 2015, Superintendent Betsy Hargrove didn't like what she saw on the report card.

So she rolled up her sleeves to turn things around.

And did she deliver. By 2018, through a targeted strategy, the district had double-digit growth in math and English -- triple the average growth rate of other Arizona schools. Same deal in Deer Valley and Wickenburg.

Superintendents Betsy Hargrove, Curtis Finch, and Howard Carlson are here today. Please join me in congratulating these school leaders.

With these proven results and outcomes, we intend to invest more, and transform more Arizona schools.

The idea is straightforward. Help struggling schools with tools, resources and expertise to produce better results for students. We call it "Project Rocket." We're working with Representative Michelle Udall to make it a reality. We owe it to the kids in these schools. They're waiting. Let's not let them down.

We will continue to lead as the state that prioritizes our nation's founders and their founding principles. We are called to participate as citizens, not spectators, and that responsibility demands knowledge and action.

First Day

Today, only one in four Americans can name all three branches of government. Seventy percent don't know that the Constitution is the supreme law of the land. In Arizona, we've taken steps to ensure the next generation is equipped to inherit our Republic.

Already, our high school students must pass the citizenship test before graduation. I'm proposing we expect more, start them even earlier, and give our middle schoolers the chance to complete this exam. Because there is more to learn.

As Margaret Thatcher said, "European nations were made by history. The United States was made by philosophy. Unique among all nations, the United States knows precisely when and exactly why it was founded."

We are blessed to have one Arizonan who's the ideal of this aspirational creed. Her life is a living civics lesson-- and Arizona is fortunate to be home to the Institute that bears her name. I'm talking about Justice Sandra Day O'Connor. Who better to hold as a model for the next generation? That's why I'm calling for a day when classroom instruction can be dedicated entirely to civics: Sandra Day O'Connor Civics Celebration Day.

It's not enough to just teach the values of our founding principles; we must demonstrate them in our daily lives. Around the country, free speech and other constitutional rights guaranteed to the people are being assaulted or abandoned for safe spaces and trigger warnings. Some people would rather silence speech than hear an opposing view. Have they read our constitution? Do they know why America was founded?

Thankfully, we have three university presidents, Presidents Crow, Robbins and Cheng, who ensure Arizona's campuses are models for the rest of the country. Where the marketplace of ideas is alive and well — and where diversity of thought and discourse are given room to grow — the Arizona Way.

The safety of our citizens. It's what keeps me up at night.

As you'll see in our balanced budget, we'll continue to put a focus on our Border Strike Force to combat the influx of dangerous drugs and crime at our border. New surveillance cameras along highways in Southern Arizona, and upgraded, state-of-the-art radio systems for law enforcement.

In Arizona, we are fortunate to have so many brave women and men protecting us 24/7 -- our National Guard and Active Duty military personnel, our first responders, firefighters, and our cops.

They brave challenges on-duty and off, with courage and dignity.

In December, Phoenix Fire Chief, Kara Kalkbrenner, shared the news she was diagnosed with breast cancer. With the same strength she confronts the most blazing of fires, she took the diagnosis head-on. We are so grateful to have her here with us today. Thank you Chief, we're with you!

These women and men run into danger, to protect us.

We saw it recently. One of our own state Troopers. Brutally attacked in Tempe; fighting for his life after what seemed like a routine stop. By the grace of God, Trooper Hugh Grant is with us today. He's a hero. Thank you, Trooper Grant.

Incidents like these are reminders of the dangers our law enforcement face every day. These are the good guys, and we should do everything in our power to protect them. That's why our budget includes funding to finally put body cameras on every state Trooper.

This is an idea backed by law enforcement and clear research. So let's make it happen.

There's no doubt about it, public safety is the most important thing we do. In correctional facilities across the state, we've led to provide second chances to those serving their time, setting up job training workshops and partnering with employers.

Since 2017, more than 3,900 of our fellow Arizonans have completed Second Chance programs, equipping them with the tools and skills to make a better life. More than 2,400 had a job upon release, with hundreds more in programs now. We know these programs work. This year, we are doubling down on this successful model, to give more individuals their opportunity at a better choice and a better life.

First Day

The new Director, David Shinn, is a former Marine turned public servant. He's dedicated his life to this noble cause, and he's building on these efforts to transform our corrections system. And change how we think and speak.

So, going forward, the Department will take on a new moniker. One that more clearly reflects the agency's mission: "The Department of Corrections, Rehabilitation, and Reentry."

We've provided more opportunities and we've decreased the amount of people returning to prison and helped many find meaningful work.

There's another marker we are going to meet this year. We're shutting down a state prison. It will enhance safety at our remaining facilities and save taxpayers $274 million over the next three years.

And for the rest of our facilities, let's make sure they're staffed and secure for our correctional officers and inmates alike. That's why my budget will fix the locks and provide additional pay raises for our correctional officers — on top of last year's raises. All in the name of public safety.

If anyone needed a reminder, that here in Arizona, we respect the rule of law: last fall the voters of Tucson demonstrated that loud and clear.

There, in our state's second largest city, a troubling proposal to defy federal law was soundly and overwhelmingly rejected by Democrats and Republicans alike. It wasn't even close. And now it's time for all Arizonans to make their voices heard, and enshrine it in our Constitution. T.J. Shope has the ballot referral. This November, let's give all Arizona voters the opportunity to say YES to the rule of law and NO to sanctuary cities.

Over at the Department of Child Safety, our dedicated caseworkers have led an unrivaled turnaround. Safely reducing the number of children in out-of-home care by 4,565 kids. They've reduced the average time to place a child in a foster home from a work week to same-day. It's a national model for how to help our kids. For the second year in a row, our budget includes additional dollars to reward the selfless public servants responsible for the turnaround with a well-deserved raise.

And if you want to shut down more prisons and reduce the homelessness rate, there's no better place to start than putting our children in loving homes. Too many of our youth who age out of foster care without being adopted will experience homelessness. It's tragic, and government can't solve this problem alone.

We need the faith-based community, our churches, pastors, priests, non-profits, and families to play a part as well. And to get more of these children into permanent loving homes, I'm proposing a $19 million investment in funding new adoptions. Our goal: keep brothers and sisters together, and help children with disabilities. We will also be doubling the grandma stipend, to provide needed resources to keep families together.

If you need an example of someone to look to, someone who has fought for children her entire life, you don't have to look far. Arizona is blessed to be home to an international leader in the fight against human trafficking. Her efforts have shed a light around the world on this dark practice, and she does it with a humility and grace that is every bit as Arizona as she is. We have her with us today.

Ladies and gentleman, join me in recognizing, Cindy McCain.

For those of us who have called Arizona home for decades, we know what makes our state truly special.

We see it every day.

For those who got here just yesterday, welcome to the crackling energy of booming Arizona. We're glad to have you.

Here we do things a little differently.
Here we believe in opportunity for all.

We believe in solving the problems of today, so future generations won't have to.

We believe in the free market, the free exchange of ideas and the freedom to make your own way.

First Day

We believe in life and the potential of every child, along with the dignity of every individual.

We believe when we put others first—and work together—we can make a difference.

Just this past Friday, the four leaders of these chambers—Democrat and Republican—sat together on the same stage, for a civil, thoughtful and honest discussion about the session in front of us. I enjoyed listening, and I learned a lot.

And I couldn't help but think: Can you imagine this ever happening in Washington, DC?

It's called statesmanship.

Let's follow the example set by Karen Fann, David Bradley, Rusty Bowers and Charlene Fernandez. Let's demonstrate we can get things done. That the campaign can wait. That we can govern, and that we can do it together.

It's how we do things here. It's the Arizona Way.

Let's get to work.

Thank you and God Bless.

PROTEST

In accordance with Article IV, Part 2, Section 16, Constitution of Arizona, and House Rule 20, the following protest was entered:

"Currently, every voter has the right to have assistance of any person. This bill would limit that to persons who need assistance because of disability.

I do not want to offend anyone. I do not know how many of you have become U.S. citizens or how many of you speak multiple languages.

I still remember when I became a U.S. citizen. I remember taking the oath "to support and defend the constitution and laws of the United States of America, against all enemies, foreign and domestic."

My concerns regarding this bill are several, but the ones that hit deeply are the following: this bill does not motivate or encourage new citizens to participate in the U.S. democratic process.

If you speak a foreign language and you are adapting to the new voting process, you will not be allowed to have anyone to help you in your own language.

For the Latino culture, "family" is very important; we support one another.

I cannot imagine new citizens with no help or translator. It took me a while to understand a ballot. This bill is very discouraging and does not make our democracy stronger. Therefore, I ask you to vote no."

One Hundred Twenty-eighth Day

A communication from Governor Douglas A. Ducey on disapproval of the following bill was filed:

Re: Senate Bill 1692 general appropriations act; 2020-2021

Dear Secretary Hobbs:

Today, as we work together as a state to fight COVID-19, I signed a series of bills that comprise the Fiscal Year 2021 budget.

This is not the budget we envisioned in January. But our world has changed. We are facing realities of a public health emergency, and our priorities and our decisions have had to adjust accordingly.

I commend legislative leaders of both parties, and all the Republican and democratic members who shaped and passed this package, for coming together, putting politics aside, and showing a real leadership. It's reflective of what we are seeing all across our state – Arizonans uniting to slow the spread of COVID-19 and save lives.

Proactively addressing this disease remains our top focus, and this bipartisan budget reflects that. It adds critical new resources for Arizonans who have had their lives turned upside down due to this disease.

In addition to addressing this disease from a public health standpoint, our work on the economic front will be ongoing. Everyday Arizonans and small and medium-sized businesses across our state are struggling. People who have never asked for anything from the government have lost their jobs and lost their incomes, and they need our help. It's our responsibility as public servants to answer that call, and I know we will.

Our job isn't done with this package of budget bills. There will certainly be more work to do and many tough decisions ahead of us as we better understand the full impact of this crisis on our citizens and economy. But Arizona is once again showing what it means to come together and put the good of our citizens before partisanship or politics. I have every confidence that we will get through this challenge, and we will be even stronger once we do.

Sincerely,

Douglas A. Ducey
Governor
State of Arizona

PROTEST

In accordance with Article IV, Part 2, Section 16, Constitution of Arizona, and House Rule 20, the following protest was entered:

Mr. Speaker Pro Tempore, I rise for a point of protest under Rule 20.

During Tuesday's meeting of the Natural Resources, Energy and Water Committee, the Chairwoman opened our meeting referring to COVID19 as "the China virus." Mr. Speaker Pro Tempore, I rise for a point of protest under Rule 20.

During Tuesday's meeting of the Natural Resources, Energy and Water Committee, the Chairwoman opened our meeting referring to COVID19 as "the China virus."

Many of my constituents watching back home were appalled, and that's why I'm submitting this official protest.

In today's Washington Post it was reported that Asian Americans — healthcare workers in particular— have experienced a sharp increase in racist verbal abuse and physical attacks during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Rhetoric like we heard yesterday in committee— whether intentional or not --- is giving a license to target neighbors in our community, people we love, and it's painting them with a broad brush of hatred.

Colleagues, we are better than this.

I asked for a retraction of the words we heard in committee yesterday, not for me: but for the Asian Americans in our state and in our country who expect more of their lawmakers. They're still waiting for an apology.

Do better, Members. Every word you speak into a microphone has influence.

I would like these remarks entered into the record.

RULES OF THE
ARIZONA HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
54th LEGISLATURE
2019-2020

RULE 1

MEMBERS

A. The House may punish its members for disorderly behavior and may, with the concurrence of two-thirds of the members elected to the House, expel any member (Arizona Constitution, Article IV, Part 2, Section 11). A violation of any of the House Rules shall be deemed disorderly behavior. When a roll call vote is ordered on the floor of the House and subject to the provisions of Rules 6 and 14, members are required to vote after a reasonable time, as determined by the Chair, and may be punished for disorderly conduct if the member fails to vote after a reasonable time.

B. When any member shall be guilty of a breach of any of the Rules and Orders of the House, and the House has determined that he has so transgressed; he shall not be permitted to vote or speak, except by way of excuse for the same, until he has made satisfaction.

C. Any member having obtained leave of absence and having in his possession papers relative to business before the House shall leave same with the Chief Clerk.

ANNUAL SESSIONS

A. Except as provided herein, regular sessions shall be adjourned sine die no later than Saturday of the week in which the one hundredth day from the beginning of each regular session falls. The Speaker may by declaration authorize the extension of the session for a period not to exceed seven additional days. Thereafter the session can be extended only by a majority vote of the House.

B. If not considered in the regular session, the general appropriations bill, the general capital outlay bill and the university capital outlay bill may be considered each year in a special session which shall be called only for that purpose.

RULE 3

OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

A. The House shall elect as an officer of the House a Speaker, and shall elect a Chief Clerk and such other employees as the House directs.

B. All House employees shall be under the immediate direction of the Speaker of the House, who shall have the power to designate the person who shall be in immediate supervision of the different departments.

C. Employment, compensation and termination of personnel shall be determined by the Speaker.

D. Employees of the House are prohibited from lobbying during the term of their employment, and a violation of this Rule will be sufficient cause for the summary discharge of the offending employee.

E. No person shall be employed as a House employee who is an agent for the prosecution of any claim against the state or who is interested in such claim otherwise than as an original claimant and it shall be the duty of the Speaker to report to the House any violation of this Rule.

RULE 4

THE SPEAKER

A. The Speaker shall take the Chair at the hour to which the House shall have adjourned; immediately call the members to order; cause the roll to be called; and, if a quorum be present, cause the Journal of the proceedings of the last day's sitting to be read, if requested by a majority of the members elected to the House.

B. The Speaker shall preserve order and decorum; decide all points of order subject to an appeal to the House, on which appeal no member shall speak more than once, except by permission of the House; may speak to points of order in preference to other members; and may vote in all cases.

C. The Speaker shall sign all bills, resolutions, memorials, addresses, writs, warrants and subpoenas issued by order of the House.

D. At each session the Speaker shall announce the Order of Business in conformity with Rule 7.

E. The Speaker may appoint a member as Speaker Pro Tempore to perform the duties of the Speaker. In his omission to make such appointment, the House shall proceed to elect a Speaker Pro Tempore to act during the Speaker's absence.

F. The Speaker shall have the general control of the House Chamber and the corridors, passages and committee, hearing and staff rooms of the House of Representatives and all other matters which pertain to the House of Representatives' building and related parking lots. The Speaker shall promulgate a written code of conduct and a written harassment prevention policy applicable to staff.

G. All debts incurred by the House of Representatives, either during session or between sessions of the Legislature, shall be paid by claims drawn on the Finance Division; and all claims so issued shall be signed by the Speaker.

H. The Speaker is authorized to call meetings of standing and select committees of the House during periods when the House is not in session and to approve claims for travel and subsistence incurred by members of such committees in attendance thereon, as provided by law.

I. The Speaker shall be responsible for authorizing the accounts for the pay, mileage and subsistence of members and employees, and pay them as provided by law.

J. Every bill, resolution and memorial, except death resolutions and Senate bills to be substituted on third reading pursuant to Rule 7 C, shall automatically be assigned to the Rules Committee at the time of assignment to another standing committee without action upon the part of the Speaker.

RULE 5

THE CHIEF CLERK

A. The Chief Clerk shall keep the Journal of the House and enter therein the record of each day's proceedings, including every question of order which shall be decided on appeal, with the decision thereon, and the hour of adjournment.

B. The Chief Clerk shall prepare copies of the Committee of the Whole Calendar and deliver the same in paper form or electronically to the members, and prepare such other memoranda as the House or Speaker may direct.

C. The Chief Clerk shall transmit to the Senate every bill or other measure, immediately after its passage, to which concurrence is necessary.

D. The Chief Clerk shall transmit all messages from the House to the Senate and Governor, unless the House shall otherwise direct, and shall perform such additional duties as may be assigned by the House or Speaker.

E. The Assistant Chief Clerk shall, in the absence of the Chief Clerk, perform the duties of the Chief Clerk.

RULE 6

ROLL CALL, QUORUM, CALL OF THE HOUSE

A. Every member shall be present within the Hall of the House during its sitting, unless excused by the Speaker prior to roll call or necessarily prevented; and shall vote on each question put, unless the member has a personal financial interest in the question, as set forth in Rule 35 or unless the member is excused from voting in accordance with Rule 14.

B. Upon every roll call the names of the members shall be called alphabetically by surnames. When members have the same or similar surnames, the designation of the district shall be added.

C. The majority of the members elected to the House shall constitute a quorum to do business; but a smaller number may meet, adjourn from day to day and compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as the House may prescribe. The House shall not adjourn for more than three days between the day of adjournment and the day of reconvening, nor to any place other than that in which it may be sitting, without the consent of the Senate (Arizona Constitution, Article IV, Part 2, Section 9).

D. The purpose of the Call of the House is to compel the attendance of absent members.

E. A motion or demand for a Call of the House is not debatable or amendable and may not be laid on the table, postponed, referred to committee or have other subsidiary motions applied to it.

F. When no quorum is present, a Call of the House takes precedence over all other motions. Any member may raise the question of no quorum; and if a quorum is not present, the House must either order a Call of the House, recess or adjourn. The motion for a Call of the House is agreed to by a majority of those voting, but may not be ordered by less than 10 members including the Speaker.

G. When a quorum is present, a Call of the House ranks as a "question of privilege". A Call of the House may be ordered by a majority of the members voting, provided the minimum number authorized to order a Call of the House is present.

H. When a Call of the House has been ordered, the doors are closed, the Chief Clerk calls the roll of members and notes the absentees. The Sergeant at Arms shall forthwith proceed to bring in absent members until two-thirds of the members elected to the House are present, and present them at the bar of the House, whereupon the members shall be noted as present, discharged from custody, be given an opportunity to vote; and their vote shall be recorded.

RULE 7

ORDER OF BUSINESS,

SUBSTITUTION OF SENATE BILLS FOR HOUSE BILLS

A. The House shall convene at the call of the Speaker each day during legislative session unless a different time or day is fixed by the Body. The daily Order of Business shall be as follows:

1. Roll Call
2. Prayer
3. Pledge of Allegiance
4. Approval of the Journal
5. Petitions, Memorials and Remonstrances

6. Reports of Standing Committees
7. Reports of Select Committees
8. Business on the Speaker's Desk
9. Bills and Other Business from the Senate
10. Motions to Discharge Committees
11. First Reading of Bills
12. Second Reading of Bills
13. Third Reading of Bills
14. Unfinished Business
15. Committee of the Whole
16. Disposition of Business from Committee of the Whole
17. Orders of the Day

B. At any time after the reading and approval of the Journal any member may authorize a motion to be made that the House go into Committee of the Whole for the consideration of bills, raising revenue or the general appropriations bill.

C. When Senate measures are received which are identical to House measures which have already been favorably reported by the Committee of the Whole, they may be substituted for such House measures on Third Reading.

D. Business shall be taken up and shall be considered only when the class to which it belongs shall be declared to be in order. Questions of privilege including introduction of guests shall be in order as provided in Rule 26 B.

E. All questions relating to the priority of business shall be decided by a majority of those voting without debate.

F. When multiple legislative sessions are held on one legislative day, the Prayer and the Pledge of Allegiance under the Order of Business in subsection A of this rule are required to be followed only for the first session of that day.

RULE 8

BILLS, RESOLUTIONS, MEMORIALS, ENGROSSED COPIES,

AMENDMENTS

A. Every bill, resolution and memorial shall be read by sections on three different days, unless in case of emergency, two-thirds of the House deem it expedient to dispense with this Rule. The vote on Third Reading and Final Passage of any bill, resolution or memorial shall be taken by ayes and nays on roll call. Final Passage shall be the final disposition of a bill by the House (refer to Arizona Constitution, Article IV, Part 2, Section 12).

B. Bills, resolutions and memorials may be introduced by a member by presenting copies of such bill, resolution or memorial to the office of the Chief Clerk. The Chief Clerk shall have 24 hours to process such bill, resolution or memorial preceding the day of actual introduction. The name of the sponsor or sponsors shall be on the attached signature page of the bill. Introductions "by request" shall be so designated. A bill introduced in the House may be cosponsored by Senate members. A measure shall only have one prime sponsor; all others shall be designated as cosponsors. A House member's cosponsorship may be withdrawn by that member from any House measure that is in possession of the house. Cosponsorship withdrawal is irrevocable. Following an effective withdrawal of cosponsorship of the measure, the member shall not be identified as a sponsor of the measure on any subsequent calendars, agendas, reports, orders or other publications of the House. Withdrawal of cosponsorship shall be effective if all of the following apply:

1. The member gives a written statement of withdrawal in the form prescribed by the Chief Clerk, delivering the statement to the office of the Chief Clerk and a copy to the Engrossing Clerk.

2. The measure has not been brought for a vote on Third Reading of Bills.

C. Bills, resolutions and memorials may be introduced during the first 29 days of a regular session and during the first 10 days of a special session. Thereafter, with the exception of death resolutions, introduction may be allowed only with the permission of the Rules Committee. Every bill, resolution or memorial shall have one prime sponsor. A member may not be the prime sponsor of more than seven bills introduced after 5:00 p.m. on the fourth day of each regular session. For purposes of this Rule the first name on a bill shall be considered the prime sponsor.

D. Bills, resolutions and memorials may be prefiled by any member-elect for introduction in the first regular session during the period following the filing of the certification of election until the first day of the regular session. Bills, resolutions and memorials may be prefiled for introduction in the second regular session during the period from November 15 next preceding the second regular session until the first day of the second regular session. Bills, resolutions and memorials may be prefiled for introduction in any special session during the period following the Governor's proclamation until the first day of the special session, such bills being germane to the call.

E. A bill, resolution or memorial shall be prefiled in the same manner prescribed for introduction. Bills, resolutions and memorials prefiled for introduction pursuant to this Rule shall be deemed to have been actually introduced on the first day of each regular or special session.

F. Bills, resolutions and memorials accepted for introduction shall be entered in the Journal by the Chief Clerk.

G. The original of a bill, resolution or memorial shall be designated by blue backing, marked "original" and shall remain in the possession of the Chief Clerk. Copies shall be distributed as the Speaker directs.

H. All bills prepared for introduction which propose to add to the statutes or amend existing statutes shall show the proposed new language in capital letters (upper case) and the deletions shall be shown in regular type (lower case) lined through.

I. On First Reading of bills, resolutions or memorials, the measure shall be referred to the Chief Clerk for printing. The Speaker shall determine the number of bills, resolutions or memorials to be duplicated.

J. On First Reading, all bills, resolutions or memorials shall be referred by the Speaker or the Speaker's designee to appropriate committees. Each committee shall report each measure it carefully considers back to the House with such recommendations as may be deemed proper. All amendments proposed by the committee shall be separately reported. If the Speaker designates his referral authority pursuant to this rule to any member of the House other than the Speaker Pro Tempore the designation shall be in writing, state the period of time for which it is effective, and be filed in advance with the Chief Clerk.

K. When the first committee reports the measure to the House, the Speaker places it on the House Calendar (Inactive Calendar). When the last committee to which the measure was referred reports to the House, it is the property of the Committee on Rules, which considers the measure. The Speaker sets the order of the measures on the Active Calendar for the consideration of the Committee of the Whole.

L. The Speaker may direct that any bill be second read at the time of its consideration by the Committee of the Whole or on any day prior thereto.

M. When the Committee of the Whole has completed its deliberations, it is dissolved and reports to the House. By motion, the report of the Committee of the Whole is adopted by the House (or amended) and the Speaker properly assigns the House measures (or amended Senate measures) to be engrossed for Third Reading.

N. The original and two copies of each engrossed measure shall be on paper of durable quality and shall be stamped on each page thereof with the blind embossed stamp of the House. All engrossed pages not having a full complement of typed lines shall be marked from the end of the typed page to within one inch of the end of such page. The original House engrossed House bill shall have a green backing. The original House engrossed Senate bill shall have an orange backing.

O. The engrossed measure shall not be subject to amendment on Third Reading or Final Passage of the measure.

P. The House shall provide the Senate and the Legislative Council with sufficient copies of each amended engrossed House measure on green paper with a cover page. For House amendments to Senate measures, the same number of copies shall be provided but shall consist only of those pages containing the adopted House amendments and cover page. For unamended House measures the same number of green cover pages shall be provided stating that the measure passed as introduced, which will be identical to the original and printed copies.

Q. All bills, resolutions, memorials and engrossed measures shall be line-numbered, and such numbering shall begin with the enacting clause. Uniform sized paper, 8-1/2" x 11", shall be used. All paper and ink used by the House for the purpose of permanent records shall be of durable quality.

R. Amendments shall have uniform headings and shall read "amendment to" and shall be in the same form as the original bill. The amendment shall refer to page and line number only and when referring to more than one line shall read "lines ... through ...". If everything after the enacting clause is stricken, the amendment shall read "strike everything after the enacting clause". All amendments shall contain the language which states "amend title to conform". Substantive floor amendments shall be printed and placed on each member's desk a reasonable time prior to Committee of the Whole unless previously distributed. Substantive proposed amendments shall be reviewed for constitutionality and approved as to proper form by House Rules Counsel or other qualified personnel designated by the Speaker prior to presentation in all committees, including Committee of the Whole and conference committees.

S. No amendment to strike everything after the enacting clause and insert new material shall be in order unless notice of intent to offer such an amendment has been given by at least 5:00 p.m. on the second previous working day, excluding Saturday, Sundays and holidays, in advance of the committee meeting at which the amendment is to be considered by delivering a draft of the proposed amendment to the office or the secretary of each member of the committee, posting such notice at the Information Desk and leaving a copy of the draft in the office of the Chief Clerk. Following the adoption of a strike-everything amendment to a House measure in possession of the House, a House member's co-sponsorship may be withdrawn upon submission of a written request from the cosponsor to the Chief Clerk prior to third reading.

RULE 9

A. All committees, except such as the House shall select, shall be appointed by the Speaker.

B. Standing Committees of the House shall consist of the following:

Health & Human Services

Judiciary

Land and Agriculture

Military & Veterans Affairs

Natural Resources, Energy & Water

Public Safety

Regulatory Affairs

Rules

State & International Affairs

Transportation

Ways and Means

C. Each Standing Committee shall adopt and file with the Chief Clerk's Office rules of procedure consistent with the Rules of the House and shall include the following:

1. With the exception of executive sessions ordered by a majority of the committee constituting a quorum, all committee meetings shall be open to the other members of the Legislature, the press and public so long as proper decorum is maintained.

2. All committees shall meet at regularly scheduled times and places unless cancelled with the permission of the Speaker. In the absence of the chairman, the vice chairman shall preside. In the absence of both the chairman and vice chairman, some other committee member designated by the Speaker shall preside.

3. The committee chairman (presiding officer) other than the chairman of the Committee on Rules shall prepare an agenda and distribute copies to committee members, the Information Desk and the Chief Clerk's Office by 5:00 p.m. at least five days before the committee meeting. Absence of a bill, memorial or resolution from the committee agenda will prohibit its consideration unless unanimous consent of all committee members is obtained. Unless a reconsideration motion has been offered and failed, a chairman may place a measure that failed in committee on any subsequent agenda.

4. A bill not on the committee agenda shall be scheduled for discussion at the next subsequent committee meeting by presentation of a petition containing the signatures of two-thirds or more of the committee members.

5. A roll call vote shall be taken in each standing committee when final action on any bill is voted.

6. Written committee reports shall be filed with the Chief Clerk's Office within a reasonable time but no later than two weeks from time of completion of meetings. A recording of the meeting shall be made available for public inspection three working days after the meeting. Attendance records of all committee meetings shall be filed with the Chief Clerk's Office within 24 hours from time of completion of meetings.

7. Special meetings may be called by the chairman but require permission of the Speaker and notice to members and the general public at the Information Desk by 5:00 p.m. on the previous day, except that the notice of a special meeting of the Committee on Rules may be given in open session prior to the meeting and does not require the Speaker's permission.

D. The Speaker is authorized to call meetings of standing and select committees of the House during periods when the House is not in session and to approve claims for travel and subsistence incurred by members of such committees in attendance thereon, as provided by law. Notwithstanding the statutory authority, the Speaker, after consultation with the committee chairman, may appoint members to the committee of reference.

E. No committee other than the Committee on Rules shall meet while the House is meeting in session without special permission of the Speaker.

F. Except as provided herein, all House bills shall be considered by committees prior to the Saturday of the week in which the sixtieth day from the beginning of each regular session falls and all Senate bills shall be considered by committees prior to the Saturday of the week in which the ninetieth day from the beginning of each regular session falls. No committee except the Rules Committee shall consider a bill in violation of this subsection without the written permission of the Speaker.

G. Notwithstanding Rule 8 S, no proposed amendment in the Committee on Rules to strike everything after the enacting clause and insert new material shall be in order.

RULE 10

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

A. Reports of Standing Committees shall be announced to the House upon receipt of reports from the committees. Reports from the following committees concerning matters herein named shall have precedence and may be received at any time except in Committee of the Whole:

1. The Committee on Rules on joint rules, order of business and rules relating to the order of consideration of bills;
2. The Committee on Judiciary on the right of a member to his seat;
3. The Committee on Ways and Means on bills for raising revenue;
4. The Committee on Appropriations on all matters referred to it.

B. When a report of a committee is printed, it shall include a minority report, if requested.

RULE 11

CALENDARS

A. There shall be the following calendars to which all business reported from committees shall be referred:

1. A House Calendar on which shall be entered all bills and other measures in the order reported from the committees, and such business as the House may directly place upon the calendar for consideration.

2. The Active Calendar of the Committee of the Whole House on which shall be entered all bills and other measures referred to the Committee of the Whole.

B. The Third Reading Consent Calendar shall be set by the Speaker and shall consist of select unamended measures reported out of all committees to which they were referred. It shall be dated, printed, placed on each member's desk or delivered electronically and posted at the Information Desk two working days prior to being accepted. Any member who wishes to protest any measure bypassing the Committee of the Whole may submit a protest in writing to the Chief Clerk's Office with a copy for the Speaker's Office during the two-day posting. This protest will automatically remove the measure from the Third Reading Consent Calendar. Subject to Rule 12(O), the measures remaining on the Third Reading Consent Calendar will then be placed on the Third Reading Calendar.

C. The COW Consent Calendar shall be set by the Speaker and shall consist of select amended measures reported out of all committees to which they were referred. It shall be dated, printed, placed on each member's desk or delivered electronically and posted at the information desk two working days prior to being accepted. Any member who wishes to protest any measure being subject to group motion and adoption of all committee amendments and instead who wishes to require that the amended measure be subject to debate in the Committee of the Whole may submit a protest in writing to the Chief Clerk's Office with a copy for the Speaker's Office during the two-day posting. This protest will automatically remove the measure from the COW Consent Calendar. Additionally, the filing of a floor amendment with the Chief Clerk will automatically remove the measure from the COW Consent Calendar. Subject to rule 12(O), the measures remaining on the COW Consent Calendar and passed will then be placed on the Third Reading Calendar.

RULE 12

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE; ADDITIONAL COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

A. When the House shall determine to go into Committee of the Whole, the Speaker shall leave the Chair after appointing a chairman to preside.

B. In Committee of the Whole, business shall be transacted in accordance with its priority on the Calendar, unless such priority be determined by the House before going into Committee of the Whole.

C. A majority of the members of the House shall constitute a quorum to do business in Committee of the Whole.

D. When a Committee of the Whole finds itself without a quorum, the Chairman shall direct the Sergeant at Arms to bring members to the chamber or cause the roll to be called, and thereupon the Committee shall rise and the Chairman shall report the names of the absentees to the House, and such names shall be entered in the Journal. If on such roll call a quorum shall appear, the Committee shall thereupon resume its sitting without further order of the House.

E. In Committee of the Whole the Rules of the House shall govern whenever applicable.

F. In Committee of the Whole all questions shall be decided by a majority of those voting.

G. No seconds are required to motions in Committee of the Whole.

H. In Committee of the Whole the bill shall first be read through by the Chief Clerk, unless the Committee shall otherwise order. This shall constitute second reading of the bill unless it has been previously second read. After the proper motion the bill is open to debate and amendment.

I. When a bill is under debate in Committee of the Whole, the following recommendations are in order:

1. Do pass
2. Be recommitted to a committee for further study
3. Do pass as amended
4. Do not pass
5. Be retained on the Calendar
6. Retain its place on the Calendar
7. Call for the previous question

J. The following motions are not in order in Committee of the Whole:

1. To adjourn
2. Appoint, authorize or discharge committees
3. Lay on the table
4. Reconsideration

K. A roll call vote shall be taken in Committee of the Whole when a motion to recommend "DO PASS" or "DO PASS AS AMENDED" is defeated. No other roll call votes shall be taken in Committee of the Whole.

L. When the Committee of the Whole has completed its deliberations, it is dissolved and reports to the House. By motion the report of the Committee of the Whole is adopted by the House (or amended) and the Speaker properly assigns the House measures (or amended Senate measures) to be engrossed for Third Reading.

M. With the exception of committee amendments, no proposed amendment in Committee of the Whole to strike everything after the enacting clause and insert new material shall be in order and the report of the Committee of the Whole shall not be amended to circumvent this Rule.

N. Without objection, a motion to recommend that a measure do pass or do pass amended may be made in Committee of the Whole grouping together unamended measures and amended measures on the COW Consent Calendar. Upon request by any member, a measure shall be excluded from the mass motion.

O. The House may by a majority vote of those voting bring a measure otherwise designated as available for Third Reading to Committee of the Whole for amendment or further amendment, except no proposed amendment to strike everything after the enacting clause and insert new material is in order.

RULE 13

SITTING AS IN COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

The House may by majority vote of those voting sit as in Committee of the Whole for consideration of technical changes to measures and any subject, except no proposed amendment to strike everything after the enacting clause and insert new material is in order.

RULE 14

VOTING

A. All motions may be determined by a voice vote, teller, or on request of two members by a roll call, and by declaration of the result by the Speaker or designated member; provided that the voice vote shall not apply to Third Reading and Final Passage of a bill, resolution or memorial.

B. No member shall be permitted to vote unless present in person to cast his vote.

C. No member shall vote for another, nor shall any person not a member cast a vote for a member. In addition to such penalties as may be prescribed by law, any member who shall vote or attempt to vote for another member may be punished in such manner as the House may determine. If a person not a member shall vote or attempt to vote for any member he shall be barred from the floor of the House for the remainder of the session and may be further punished in such manner as the House may deem proper, in addition to such punishment as may be prescribed by law.

D. When a roll call vote is ordered, every member who shall be within the Hall of the House shall vote, aye or nay, unless the member has filed a statement of personal financial interest in the question or is excused by the House pursuant to subsection E.

E. Subject to Rule 4(B), when a roll call vote is ordered, no member shall leave the chamber or the Speaker's conference room until the vote is declared. The roll will be taken once only. When a member declines to vote, the member shall be required to specify the reason. If a member declares a personal financial interest in the question and the member has failed to file a statement pursuant to rule 35 or if the reason given is other than a personal financial interest in the question, the presiding officer shall submit the question to the House, "Shall the member be excused from voting for the reason given?" The question shall be decided without debate before the roll call vote is taken and the result is announced.

F. A member may change his vote after the roll call has been completed and before announcement of the result, but not thereafter.

G. Every member shall have the privilege of explaining his vote with relevant comments (such explanation shall not exceed three minutes) and shall further be permitted to have his written explanation placed on file in the Office of the Chief Clerk and the Journal shall so show except that this provision shall not apply in committees of the House.

H. The Speaker or designated member shall declare all votes; but if any member doubts a voice vote prior to the declaration of the vote by the Speaker or designated member, a rising vote shall be ordered and the result declared.

RULE 15

ELECTRIC ROLL CALL SYSTEM

JOINT LEGISLATIVE BUDGET COMMITTEE REPORT

On March 11, Governor Ducey declared a public health state of emergency to prepare for, prevent, respond to, and mitigate the spread of the COVID-19 coronavirus. Throughout the rest of March, additional restrictions were imposed, including a statewide school closure, guidance regarding the canceling or postponing gatherings of 10 or more people, halting all elective surgeries and, in counties with confirmed COVID-19 cases, requiring restaurants to provide dine-out options only and all bars, gyms, and movie theaters to close. Finally, on March 30, the Governor issued an Executive Order requiring Arizonans to limit their time away from their place of residence or property. Some of these provisions began to be gradually rescinded starting May 4. In addition to these orders, the Governor ordered that the Arizona Department of Revenue delay the tax filing deadline from April to July 15. As of October, restaurants can offer indoor dining service but must limit occupancy while gyms, movie theaters, and water parks may reopen at limited capacity if certain benchmarks are met. The Governor in consultation with the Secretary of Public Instruction also produced suggested benchmarks for schools to follow in determining what level of in-person instruction they should provide.

As a result of the reduced economic activity in the wake of COVID-19 coronavirus as well as the delayed tax filing provisions, the 4-sector revenue forecast of the JLBC Staff in April 2020 estimated significant reductions in state General Fund revenues in both FY 2020 and FY 2021 compared to the budget that was passed by the Legislature on March 23. Due to stronger-than-expected revenue growth and lower-than expected spending associated with the use of COVID-relief federal funds to offset existing General Fund spending, the state's financial status is better than forecasted in April. On October 8, as part of its regularly-scheduled October Budget Update and reflecting input from the Finance Advisory Committee, the JLBC Staff estimated the FY 2020 ending balance to be $372 million and the FY 2021 ending balance to be $411 million.

JLBC Staff – October Budget Update

Summary of the General Fund Budget Outlook

- Since our June Budget Update, General Fund revenues have been higher than anticipated.
- In June, we projected that the COVID-19 recession would result in a $(190) million FY 2020 shortfall. In contrast, the preliminary FY 2020 ending balance is $372 million.
- The higher FY 2020 balance is a function of both revenue growth and the Executive using federal Coronavirus Relief Fund monies to supplant General Fund spending.
- The new October forecast estimates a FY 2021 ending balance of $411 million and a FY 2022 ending balance of $93 million.
- The revenue and spending projections will be affected by the length of the pandemic. The federal policy response could also impact state finances.

Caveats

- We continue to lack useful precedents to model the economic impacts of a once-in-a-century pandemic.
- The October estimates assume no future wide-scale business shutdowns.
- Federal COVID aid has propped up Arizona's economy in the last 6 months, but that assistance is quickly being depleted.
- A new federal aid package could significantly change our October projections. For example, extending the current enhanced Federal Medicaid match could save $500 million in FY 2022.
- After considering all factors, there is more likelihood that the ending balance projections grow rather than decline by the time of the January Baseline.

Reporting Requirements

The FY 2021 General Appropriation Act requires JLBC Staff to report by October 15, 2020 as to whether FY 2021's General Fund revenues and ending balance are projected to change by more than $50 million from the budgeted levels. The FY 2021 projected ending balance is now $411 million, or $(151) million lower than the originally-budgeted $562 million level as projected when the budget was passed in March 2020.

Given the rapidly changing economic environment in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, the JLBC Staff provided the Legislature with updated budget forecasts in both April and June 2020. While below the enacted March budget, these October estimates forecast positive balances in FY 2021 and FY 2020 rather than the shortfalls envisioned in the April and June updates.

In addition, A.R.S. § 35-125 requires the Legislature to provide 3-year estimates in each year’s budget bill. In fulfilling these requirements, the JLBC Staff has reviewed the preliminary FY 2020 ending balance estimates and updated its 4-sector revenue projections in conjunction with the October 8th FAC meeting. In addition, the JLBC Staff has revised its spending projections through FY 2024 based on current statutory funding formulas.

Updated FY 2020 Estimates

In the June Budget Update, the estimated FY 2020 shortfall was $(190) million. The Executive's preliminary FY 2020 ending balance projection is $372 million, or a net increase of $562 million above the June update. This increase is a result of both $248 million in higher-than-anticipated revenues as well as $314 million in lower-than-budgeted spending, primarily as a result of substituting federal Coronavirus Relief Fund monies for General Fund expenditures. The Arizona Department of Administration is required by law to publish a final FY 2020 ending balance figure by December 1.

Higher-than-Expected Revenues - In terms of the state's $248 million FY 2020 revenue gain compared to June, net General Fund revenues declined by (1.6)% rather than the June Budget Update forecast of (3.7)%, which resulted in an ongoing revenue gain of $248 million. Of the $248 million, Sales Tax and Individual Income Tax each accounted for $112 million of the increase. Both categories did surprisingly well in June itself. Sales Tax grew by 10% and Individual Income Tax was 6% above June 2019.

Table 1 displays the performance of the state's largest revenue categories as compared to the enacted forecast; for further details, please see the July 2020 Monthly Fiscal Highlights.

The FY 2020 results demonstrate the challenge of forecasting revenues in a pandemic. We had very few precedents to follow in estimating the magnitude of the revenue decline associated with the shutdown of many businesses. While certain sectors continue to struggle, the Arizona economy proved more resilient than expected. As discussed in further detail below, we believe that the magnitude of the federal COVID relief package helped limit the revenue losses.

Lower-than-Expected Spending - In addition to the higher-than-expected revenues, total spending for FY 2020 was $(314) million below the anticipated level. The decline was almost entirely attributable to the substitution of $300 million of federal Coronavirus Relief Fund (CRF) monies for General Fund expenditures in several agencies. The CRF was authorized by the federal Coronavirus Aid Relief and Economic Security (CARES) Act in March. CRF monies are to be expended on COVID-related activities. The federal government has provided guidance that any public health or public safety costs can be presumed to be COVID-related.

In Arizona, the Executive has the sole authority to allocate the state's CRF allocation of $1.86 billion. (See Attachment F for the allocation to date.) Most of the $300 million state agency spending allocation was in the Department of Corrections ($266 million); other agencies with significant shifts included the Department of Health Services ($15 million), the Department of Juvenile Corrections ($10 million), and the Department of Public Safety ($8 million). In addition to these shifts, approximately $90 million of spending from non-General Fund sources were offset by the federal CRF. These freed-up monies are presumed in this update to be transferred to the General Fund in FY 2021.

The state has not yet allocated all of its $1.86 billion in federal Coronavirus Relief Fund monies. Based on press releases from the Executive Branch, the JLBC Staff estimates that approximately $425 million of these monies are unallocated. The state has until December 30, 2020 to spend these monies.

Aside from shifts associated with the Coronavirus Relief Fund, we anticipated in April that the state would generate savings from an enhanced Federal Medicaid match rate during the pandemic. Due to bookkeeping reasons, not all these savings were recorded as part of the FY 2020 ending balance of $372 million. We think that potentially $70 million of the FY 2020 Medicaid match savings may be recorded in FY 2021. Given the uncertainty, however, we have not incorporated this potential gain in our October estimates.

The federal Families First Coronavirus Relief Act, passed in March 2020, provided states with an additional 6.2% Medicaid match rate, effective retroactively to January 1, 2020 and available through the entire quarter in which the federal emergency declaration ends. Last week, the federal government has extended the emergency declaration through at least January 2021. As a result, the state will receive the enhanced match rate through at least March 31, 2021.

Interpreting FY 2021 First Quarter Results

The June forecast assumed FY 2021 revenue growth of 4.4% prior to one-time fund transfers and urban revenue sharing. Based on preliminary September projections, the comparable first quarter FY 2021 growth rate is 23.6% over last year. Collections through September are $405 million above the updated June FY 2021 budget forecast. As displayed in Table 2, preliminary collections are as follows:

| Table 2 | |
|---|------------------------|
| FY 2021 First Quarter Revenue Growth Rates Excludes Fund Transfers/URS | |
| | % Change |
| Sales Tax | 10.6% |
| Individual Income | 40.6% |
| Corporate Income | 29.4% |
| Insurance Premium | (8.8)% |
| Other Revenues | 4.6% |
| Total | 23.7% |

Income Tax - The large 23.7% first quarter increase is artificially boosted by the impact of the 2020 tax-filing deferral. In late March, the Governor signed an Executive Order that moved the filing due for state Individual and Corporate Income Tax returns from April 15 to July 15. In July, the state received approximately $550 million more in net Individual Income Tax payments (estimated and final payments less refunds) than the year before.

Beyond IIT payments, IIT withholding is also up 1.0% fiscal year-to-date despite 100,000 fewer Arizonans being employed compared to a year ago. A significant portion of this (3.4)% job decline has been in the leisure and hospitality industry, which pays one of the lower average wages among all sectors in the economy.

Sales Tax - While the Income Tax deferral has boosted year-to-date collections, Sales Tax collections has fueled the growth as well. As more evidence of our inability to gauge the impact of the pandemic, Sales Tax grew by a surprising 10.6% in the first quarter. The pandemic has clearly not slowed down the construction industry as prime contracting's share of Sales Tax is up by 18.8%. General retail is also strong with 9.6% first quarter growth. The state started to collect Sales Tax on all interstate online purchases last October. As more businesses and consumers have shifted to online purchasing in the pandemic, the state may be seeing the benefit in its retail collections.

Sales Tax collections also provide evidence in terms of the economic sectors that continue to struggle. In the first quarter, restaurants and bars (-12.3%), lodging (-34.2%), and amusement (-67.3%) Sales Tax collections all remain substantially below their FY 2019 first quarter performance.

The Role of Federal COVID Aid - The federal COVID relief aid has likely been a key component of our better-than-expected economic performance since March. At the national level, various programs, such as increased unemployment benefits, stimulus checks to individuals and the payroll protection program for businesses, have injected close to $3 trillion into the U.S. economy. The JLBC Staff estimates that the amount of direct aid to individuals and businesses from federal COVID relief is at least $30 billion in Arizona alone.

To provide some perspective, Arizona personal income increased, year over year, by 11.6% in the second quarter of calendar 2020 compared to 2019. This is more than twice the pre-pandemic personal income growth rate of slightly less than 5%. However, once adjusted for the federal assistance, Arizona personal income decreased by (0.9)% in the second quarter of 2020, the first such decline since the Great Recession.

We believe that the federal stimulus has propped up Sales Tax and Withholding collections. Arizonans' purchasing power appears to have grown considerably which lead to the Sales Tax increases.

In addition, unemployment insurance payments are subject to Individual Income Tax withholding. With the $600 boost federal unemployment payments, some individuals may have had a higher income than their prior job. Independent contractors normally make estimated payments to fulfill their Individual Income Tax requirements, but now would have a portion of their unemployment check withheld for income tax purposes.

FY 2021 – FY 2024 Revenue Projections

The FY 2021 – FY 2024 forecast is based on input from the following 4 sectors (each equally weighted): members of the Finance Advisory Committee (FAC) panel, University of Arizona's "base" and "low" econometric revenue models, and JLBC Staff.

The 4-sector forecast includes the 4 largest General Fund revenue categories, which are Sales Tax, Individual and Corporate Income Tax, and Insurance Premium Tax. The JLBC Staff forecasts the remaining small revenue categories, which make up 5% of General Fund revenue.

The updated October 4-sector forecast was prepared on a net basis, which means that projected General Fund revenue includes the impact of previously enacted tax law changes. The net revenue estimates exclude urban revenue sharing and one-time financing sources (such as fund transfers and the beginning balance).

Under the October 4-sector forecast, net General Fund revenue is projected to grow by 7.8% in FY 2021. By way of comparison, the forecast under the June Budget Update assumed a net revenue growth rate of 4.4% in FY 2021.

As noted above, based on preliminary September revenue reports, the actual year-to-date growth rate is 23.6%. To drop to a projected growth rate of 7.8% under the updated October 4-Sector forecast, General Fund revenues would have to grow by no more than 2.1% over the remaining 9 months of FY 2021. This projection appears cautious. The upside potential and downside risks to the forecasts are discussed in the Potential Gains and Losses to the Forecast section on page 10.

In FY 2022, the projected 4-sector net revenue growth rate is 1.6%. The growth rate is forecast to be 4.6% in FY 2023 and 4.4% in FY 2024. FY 2022 appears low due to the higher FY 2021 base including a tax filing season in both July 2020 and April 2021. Without the impact of the Income Tax deferral, the FY 2022 growth rate would be 5.5%. Details of the October 2020 4-sector forecast are summarized in Attachments A and B.

Excluding the state’s beginning cash balance, total net General Fund revenue is expected to increase from $11.80 billion in FY 2021 to $12.01 billion in FY 2022. The projected FY 2023 and FY 2024 net revenue estimates are $12.45 billion and $13.05 billion, respectively.

Spending Projections

As part of the October FAC process, the JLBC Staff has updated its FY 2021 - FY 2024 projection of Baseline spending. (See Attachment C.) These amounts reflect spending changes associated with statutory and other active funding formulas. In addition, it reflects changes that were assumed in the FY 2021 enacted budget’s 3-year spending plan.

Overall state spending is projected to increase by $564 million in FY 2022, which represents an increase of 4.8% from the prior year. Total FY 2022 General Fund spending would be $12.33 billion.

The increase in FY 2022 Baseline spending is due to regular formula growth and ongoing spending requirements increasing by $727 million (see Table 4), with that partially offset by the elimination of $(163) million of one-time spending (see Table 5.) This results in the projected net increase of $564 million.

Under the Baseline projections, spending is projected to grow by $261 million in FY 2023 (2.1% growth) and $308 million in FY 2024 (2.5% growth). (See Table 3.)

| | $ in B | % Growth |
|---------|----------------|-----------------|
| FY 2021 | 11.76 | 1.8 |
| FY 2022 | 12.33 | 4.8 |
| FY 2023 | 12.59 | 2.1 |
| FY 2024 | 12.89 | 2.5 |

The current year (FY 2021) spending estimate has been adjusted to reflect a change in assumptions for savings from the increased federal match rate through the end of the federal health emergency. (See discussion in Updated FY 2020 Estimates section). Previously, the June Budget Update had assumed the state would realize $(189) million of net savings for the enhanced match rate in FY 2021. These net savings incorporate both savings from the higher federal Medicaid match as well as a partial offset to reflect higher-than-budgeted enrollment during a recession.

The October projections remove these net savings due to the possibility that higher-than-expected Medicaid capitation rate increases will significantly diminish any match rate savings. These capitation adjustments are scheduled to be presented to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee for review at its December 2020 meeting. With this new information, we will plan to update the net FY 2021 Medicaid match savings in our January Baseline.

The FY 2021 estimates exclude an adjustment for a potential savings in the Department of Education's Basic State Aid formula due to higher online enrollment or lower school attendance. Under the formula, online students are funded at 95% of the cost of an in-person student. Given the pandemic, we will likely see higher use of online learning. We do not yet have any estimates of the magnitude of online learning in this fall semester. We are uncertain whether reliable estimates will be available by the January Baseline.

While the structure of the K-12 formula may result in General Fund savings, these losses will be offset by federal CRF dollars. The Executive has created an Enrollment Stability Grant program which fills in the funding gap created by online learning or lower overall attendance. Districts and charters will receive a bonus equivalent to 5% of their student count with a minimum guarantee to fund 98% of their FY 2020 enrollment. If a district/charter's enrollment is the same or greater than their FY 2020 enrollment, they will still receive the 5% funding bonus.

Ongoing FY 2022 Statutory Formula Spending

During FY 2022, statutory formula/ongoing spending (excluding one-time spending) is projected to change as follows:

| | $ in M |
|-----------------------------------|----------------|
| AHCCCS - Medicaid Formula | 305 |
| ADE - K-12 Formula | 203 |
| DPS - Highway Safety Fee Backfill | 161 |
| DES - Medicaid Formula | 54 |
| Other | 4 |
| Total | 727 |

| | $ in M |
|---|----------------|
| Reduce K-12 Rollover (Enacted) | 30 |
| University 27 th Payroll (Enacted) | 20 |
| FY 21 State Agency 27 th Payroll | (43) |
| SFB Building Renewal Grants | (91) |
| SFB - Fewer New Buildings | (18) |
| State Employee Health Insurance | (22) |
| Other Agency Spending | (28) |
| ADC Capital Projects | (11) |
| Total | (163) |

- Arizona Department of Education (ADE) ongoing spending is projected to increase by $203 million in FY 2022. This estimate includes the following changes:
 - $162 million for 0.6% student enrollment growth and 1.04% inflation;
 - $(54) million in savings from additional property taxes from new construction;
 - $68 million for the last installment of the multi-year plan to restore full funding of additional assistance;
 - $24 million for an increase in Empowerment Scholarship Account usage.
 ADE ongoing spending is estimated to increase by $246 million in FY 2023 and $211 million in FY 2024.
- AHCCCS FY 2022 funding is projected to increase by $305 million over FY 2021. Of this amount, $43 million is for new FY 2022 capitation adjustments and $259 million would continue a FY 2021 base adjustment for higher-than-projected enrollment. In FY 2021, we anticipate that enrollment will increase by 12%, generating annualized enrollment costs of $281 million. As the economy begins to improve, we foresee enrollment declining from this higher base by (2)%, reducing enrollment costs by $(22) million in FY 2022. FY 2022 enrollment, however, is still projected to remain substantially above the enacted FY 2021 budget level, thereby resulting in the ongoing $259 million enrollment adjustment. AHCCCS spending is estimated to increase by just $46 million in FY 2023 and $55 million in FY 2024 as the population continues to decline gradually from pandemic-related levels.
- Department of Economic Security (DES) Medicaid spending for the Developmental Disabilities (DD) program is projected to increase by $54 million in FY 2022 above the originally-enacted FY 2021 budget. This increase is based on 5.0% enrollment growth and 3.0% capitation growth. DES spending is expected to increase by $59 million in FY 2023 and $64 million in FY 2024.
- The Department of Public Safety's General Fund budget is forecast to increase by $161 million associated with the elimination of the Highway Safety Fee in FY 2022 as authorized in the FY 2020 budget.

For a complete list of ongoing changes, please see Attachment D.

The October spending projections assume the continued annual suspension of any inactive formulas. Each year, the Legislature enacts certain provisions that only suspend, not repeal, certain statutory formulas. If those inactive formulas were counted, spending would increase by approximately $49 million. The primary component of this suspension is $33 million for the Arizona Financial Aid Trust in the Universities. In addition, the projections assume $900 million in K-12 spending will be "rolled over" to the following fiscal year; this amount is a decrease of $(30) million from prior years as a result of prior legislation to reduce the rollover.

One-Time Spending

As part of the FY 2021 budget 3-year spending plan, the Legislature designated certain spending items as one-time in each of FY 2021, FY 2022, and FY 2023. This one-time spending totals $167 million in FY 2022. (See Attachment E.)

The $(159) million of FY 2021 one-time spending that has been removed from the FY 2022 spending amounts includes:

- 1) $(91) million for School Facilities Board (SFB) building renewal.
- 2) $(20) million for a net reduction in the number of new K-12 schools scheduled to begin construction in FY 2022.
- 3) $(43) million for the extra 27th payroll for non-University state employees in FY 2021. Due to the timing of the calendar, the state incurs an extra 2-week payroll once every decade. The Universities will have their 27th payroll in FY 2022 at a cost of $20 million. As a result, the net FY 2022 savings statewide will only be $(23) million.
- 4) $(22) million for a subsidy of state employee health insurance costs.

SFB building renewal and the state employee health insurance subsidy items have been funded as one-time in the budget for multiple years. Their restoration again in FY 2022 would add over $100 million to our cost projections.

Ending Balance Projections

As reported by the Department of Administration, the state ended FY 2020 with a $372 million cash balance. Combining this $372 million reserve, $90 million of Coronavirus Relief Fund offset fund transfers pertaining to FY 2020 spending, $17 million of other one-time fund transfers, and projected FY 2021 ongoing revenues of $11.69 billion results in total available resources of $12.17 billion for FY 2021. Compared to the FY 2021 estimated spending level of $11.76 billion, the projected FY 2021 cash balance is $411 million.

For FY 2022, the $411 million estimated beginning balance, $20 million of a reimbursement for water infrastructure appropriations made in the FY 2020 budget, $17 million of fund transfers and $11.97 billion of ongoing revenue results in total resources of $12.42 billion. Given the estimated FY 2022 spending level of $12.33 billion, the FY 2022 cash balance is estimated to be $93 million. This balance is assumed to be allocated as part of the FY 2022 budget process. (See Attachment C.)

For FY 2023, the October Baseline anticipates $12.45 billion in total resources. Compared to an estimated FY 2023 spending level of $12.59 million, the FY 2023 budget is currently estimated to have a $(132) million shortfall. As noted above, this shortfall does not take into account an estimated FY 2022 cash balance of $93 million.

For FY 2024, the October Baseline anticipates $13.05 billion in total resources. These figures presume that the projected FY 2023 shortfall is resolved, leaving no carry-forward shortfall into FY 2024. Compared to an estimated FY 2024 spending level of $12.89 billion, the FY 2024 budget is currently estimated to have a $160 million ending cash balance.

As demonstrated by the change in the projected ending balance in the last 4 months, the budget estimates remain volatile. The revenue forecast will continue to be linked to the length of the pandemic. Small percent changes in growth assumptions can have a substantial revenue impact -- over 3 years, a 1% change in revenue growth could change available revenues by more than $750 million through FY 2024.

Federal action could also significantly affect our projections. For example, the extension of the enhanced Medicaid match into FY 2022 could generate $130 million in General Fund savings per quarter. In addition, Congress continues to discuss whether to include unrestricted federal aid in new legislation.

All the cash balance projections exclude the Budget Stabilization Fund (BSF). That account has approximately $970 million, which is equivalent to 8.4% of state revenues. Financial analysts suggest that these reserves be at least 5% and potentially higher than 10%. Standard and Poor's (S&P) threshold is 8% while Moody's recommended level is 10%.

Possible Gains and Losses to the Forecast

As we have outlined throughout this document, the October revenue and spending projections are built on numerous speculative estimates. After weighing both possible gains and losses, we think that the ending balance projections in our January estimates will likely be higher than these October figures.

In summary, the following factors present the most uncertainty:

Revenue - In terms of our General Fund revenue estimates, the forecast initially appears cautious in terms of 2.1% growth for the remainder of FY 2021 after a very strong first quarter. At the national level, however, economists do not envision a quick turnaround in the economy. The National Association for Business Economics (NABE), a professional organization of business economists, conducted a survey in August asking its members to predict when GDP will return to its pre-COVID level. Of the 235 survey respondents 7% expected the recovery to occur by the second quarter of 2021 (end of FY 2021); 23% in the third or fourth quarter of 2021 (first half of FY 2022); and 62% in the first or second quarter of 2022 or later (second half of FY 2022 or later).

As previously discussed, the record-large federal fiscal stimulus has benefitted our revenue collections since March. Several components of the federal aid package have ended or will shortly expire such as enhanced unemployment payments, the $1,200 stimulus checks and the paycheck protection program. A slow growth revenue forecast may be appropriate until we have greater clarity on future federal policy decisions to extend these programs.

The effects of waning support from the federal government can already be gleaned from national data. As an example, U.S. disposable personal income (personal income net of taxes paid) declined by more than 3% from August to September, which coincided with a more than 50% decrease in unemployment insurance compensation over the same time. Lack of future federal stimulus could stall economic recovery, or worse, result in a "double-dip recession" if consumers cut back on their spending and businesses stop hiring and investing, all of which would have a negative impact on economic output

The greatest uncertainty associated with the current October projections is the future rate of COVID infections and deaths along with the availability of a vaccine. As an example, a "second wave" of COVID infections could prevent many consumers from resuming previous spending habits and businesses from fully operating.

Due to the considerable number of unknowns associated with the current economic environment, we will need to continue to monitor actual collections through our January and April 2021 revenue updates to determine whether further forecast revisions are warranted.

Spending - Relative to the October projections, the state could generate more savings from:

- FY 2020 Federal Medicaid match rate savings of $(70) million that may be credited to the General Fund in FY 2021.
- FY 2021 Federal Medicaid match rate savings. While we projected this savings to be $(189) million in June, this estimate is likely to be reduced by above-budget capitation rate increases. In addition, these savings could be reduced with higher-than-projected caseloads.
- FY 2022 Federal Medicaid match rate savings. If the current level of the enhanced match is extended into FY 2022, the state would save approximately $(130) million per quarter.
- FY 2021 K-12 Basic State Aid savings through either online enrollment or a reduction in the number of overall students attending districts or charters. The JLBC Staff does not currently have data to project savings from these potential impacts.

In the opposite direction, the projected spending levels may be too low if the state continues funding certain "ongoing one-time" FY 2021 initiatives such as SFB building renewal and state employee health insurance.

The state also faces potential future costs from current litigation, including:

- School districts have sued the state to increase its level of K-12 capital funding. This lawsuit was filed in May 2017.
- The state is currently being sued in federal court over inadequate services to foster care children. A settlement agreement requiring ongoing monitoring is pending.
- The Arizona Department of Corrections (ADC) has been involved in multi-year litigation on the appropriate level of its health care spending.

In addition to the litigation listed above, ADC continues to report a high level of capital needs for its facilities. Its Capital Improvement Plan request to the Arizona Department of Administration included a total request of $529 million, including $496 million for building renewal.

^{1/} The increased federal Medicaid match rate lasts through the end of the declared federal health emergency. No net savings are displayed in FY 2021 as higher-than-budgeted Medicaid capitation rate increases may reduce the match rate savings.

^{2/} This calculation reflects the difference between total revenues and total expenditures. Excludes any Budget Stabilization Fund balance.

^{3/} This calculation reflects the difference between ongoing revenues and ongoing expenditures and excludes one-time adjustments. The Legislature makes the ongoing and one-time classifications as part of its 3-year spending plan. Excludes any Budget Stabilization Fund balance.

^{4/} The FY 2022 cash balance is presumed to be allocated as part of the FY 2022 budget process.

1/ Individual agency spending amounts listed above exclude "Operating One-Time Spending" amounts. These amounts are accounted for in the "Operating One-Time Spending" line and are summarized on the "Summary Of One-Time General Fund Spending" table (see page 18).

2/ The increased federal Medicaid match rate lasts through the end of the declared federal health emergency. No net savings are displayed in FY 2021 as higher-than-budgeted Medicaid capitation rate increases may reduce the match rate savings.
