State Representative Quang Nguyen Named Among Nation's Emerging Leaders

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX – Arizona State Representative Quang Nguyen is among a select group of Republican legislators nationwide chosen for GOPAC's 2024 Class of Emerging Leaders, an honor which recognizes a member's strong sense of service, purpose, and effective leadership in the State Legislature.

The GOPAC Emerging Leaders Program is an annual initiative designed to develop the next generation of Republican leadership. Candidates are nominated by their state's legislative leaders and chosen by GOPAC for their potential to effect positive changes in their states and rise within Republicans ranks. Since his election to the Legislature four years ago, Representative Nguyen has compiled an impressive record of impactful legislative achievements and currently serves as Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee.

"In my time as a legislator, I've dedicated myself to addressing the challenges that our state and communities face," said Representative Nguyen. "I very much look forward this unique opportunity presented with the Emerging Leaders program and will seek to apply what I learn to my legislative efforts and serve the people of Arizona."

Quang Nguyen is a Republican member of the Arizona House of Representatives serving Legislative District 1 in Yavapai County and is Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee. Follow him on X/Twitter at @QuangNguyenAZ.
