Who is providing this notice?

Bank of Labor

What we do

How does Bank of Labor protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Bank of Labor collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or Deposit money
- Pay your bills or Apply for a loan
- Use your credit or debit card

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit this sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes - information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
