

Legal assistance
List of contacts
20/04/2022

The Council of Bars and Law Societies of Europe (CCBE) represents the bars and law societies of 45 countries, and through them more than 1 million European lawyers. In order to help people fleeing war in Ukraine, the CCBE undertook an initiative to collect from its members information on contact points providing legal assistance in their countries. Subsequently, the CCBE compiled a list of these contact points.

This list includes information on points indicated by bar associations in different countries, that can be contacted by people fleeing Ukraine and seeking legal assistance. Legal assistance and lawyers' response is organised differently per country and thus the document seeks to provide some explanations in addition to the contact details. In addition, the list might be of assistance to lawyers from different countries.
