KENTUCKY DERBY[®]
150

Churchill Downs Magazine has a national footprint, reaching Derby fans and bucket-list enthusiasts from all across the country, but a heart that is purely Louisville, KY. Whether targeting for tourism or building a loyal local customer, our publication can connect you with your target audience.

While the content is timely and relevant, each issue is evergreen and considered part of a collection that remains on display and in guest rooms, gift baskets and premier lounges far beyond a traditional magazine shelf life, creating lasting impressions for your business.

Let's explore collaborative and customizable opportunities to tell your story in the most iconic and unforgettable way.

INVEST IN SUCCESS

Breed and Race in Kentucky

LUCRATIVE OPPORTUNITIES
$165,429,337
 Combined purse money (Association and KTDF) paid out hit an all-time high at Kentucky's five racetracks in 2022, following a previous benchmark of $134,988,846 set in 2021.
$113,806*
 Average purse per race in Kentucky outpaces all other leading racing jurisdictions, including Arkansas, New York, California, and Florida, and grew by 27% year-over-year.
8.81*
 Average field size in Kentucky, higher than Florida, New York, and California.

REAP THE REWARDS
 Over $200 million has been distributed to Kentucky breeders since 2000, and with purse money soaring, the KBIF contributing nearly $16 million to eligible breeders, the fabled fields in the country, and quality racing year-round, there is clearly no better time to race in the Bluegrass.
