

HAVE A VOICE IN

GOVERNMENT

YOUR VOICE: Committee Member Role

"Civic involvement is crucial. It allows us to know how local government works and the politics involved in decision-making. At the same time, it gives me an opportunity to give input."
- Fabiola Hamdan, Police and Fire Commission President

"I have a strong passion for civil rights and ensuring that ALL people have equal opportunities. I am honored to serve the city of Madison via the EOC."
- Percy Brown, Jr., Equal Opportunities Commission

"Citizens on city committees bring their perspectives to a decision-making process that makes meaningful changes in our community. It's gratifying to see good things happen in our city and know you had a part in making it possible."
- Nan Fey, Madison Food Policy Council

LET YOUR VOICE BE HEARD: Committee Influence

"Madison Commission to discuss Homeless Bill of Rights"
- WKOW

"Madison's Police and Fire Commission appointed Koval police chief on a 4-0 vote"
- WI State Journal

"City committees consider buying building for new community center near Elver Park"
-WKOW

"Madison Finance committee wants to shave public cost of Judge Doyle Square project"
- Milwaukee Business Journal

"A new committee gives employees continued input into workplace conditions and a process for grievances"
- WI State Journal

WE NEED YOUR VOICE: 3 Easy Steps to Apply*

STEP 1 View the list of committees (see link below).

Select committees on which you would like to serve. STEP 2

STEP 3 Complete the application and send to the Mayor's Office. Then, electronically submit a Statement of Interests form.

Please visit
<http://www.cityofmadison.com/CityHall/legislativeInformation/apply.cfm>
or scan the code below:

Mayor's Office
210 Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd. Room 403
Madison, Wisconsin 53703
Phone: (608) 266-4611
E-mail: mayorcommitteeapp@cityofmadison.com

You must be a City of Madison resident and at least 18 years old to apply. If you need accommodations in order to access this service, please contact our office.*