

CLEVELAND BALLET

2024 - 2025 SEASON

A LITTLE SINISTER
SOMETHING MAGICAL
AND A TOUCH OF ROMANCE

Dracula and The Masque of the Red Death

Just in time for the spookiest time of year, Dracula is a captivating adaptation of Bram Stoker's classic Gothic novel, brought to life through Lynne Taylor-Corbett's mesmerizing choreography and haunting music. Paired with Edgar Allan Poe's The Masque of the Red Death, you don't want to miss this perfectly sinister show.

Dracula tells the story of the enigmatic count who preys upon the living to sustain his immortal existence. As Dracula sets his sights on the innocent Mina Murray, her fiancé and a group of determined vampire hunters embark on a perilous quest to stop him. The Masque of the Red Death follows Prince Prospero's attempts to avoid the Red Death plague by hiding in his abbey where he hosts a masquerade ball in seven rooms.

The Nutcracker

The beloved holiday tradition, The Nutcracker, returns to Playhouse Square's Connor Palace! Per patron request, Cleveland Ballet is presenting an all new adaptation of the traditional ballet, promising to enchant and inspire audiences of all ages with this magical production.

The Nutcracker in two acts is based on the original story by E.T.A. Hoffman with music composed by the renowned Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky. The story unfolds as Clara receives a magical nutcracker doll which sparks a whimsical adventure through the Land of Sweets. Clara awakes and wonders...was it all real, or just a dream?

Romeo and Juliet

Romeo and Juliet, an adaptation of William Shakespeare's timeless play, tells the tragic story of two young lovers from feuding families.

The story opens with a grand ball where Romeo, of the Montague family, and Juliet, of the Capulet family, meet and fall deeply in love at first sight. Despite their families' ongoing conflict, they secretly marry. However, their happiness is short-lived as a series of misunderstandings lead to their final acts of love culminating in a tragic story.
