CSR Policy

CSR Policy

CSR Policy: Datametica as a responsible company, has since its inception, participated in business activities which help in improving the quality of life for the communities where it operates. This also includes contributing to social welfare programs run by the Indian Government and local organizations for the alleviation of poverty in the society.