Although Dr. Bates originally gave me pain medicine for my back and shoulder it had to be stopped, because it worsened my liver problem.
So I have little relief of my back and shoulder pain. I can't bend over because of fluid in my abdomen and back pain. Lifting over 10 lbs. hurts my back and shoulder, and I can't reach overhead with my right arm any more. I feel weak all the time, and cannot do much even around the house: mostly, I sit in a chair and read or watch TV. I try to help with some of the housework, but get tired in a few minutes. My wife now takes care of the car and all of the shopping. Sometimes, my daughter comes over and helps.

All of our savings are about gone. I lost my health insurance when I could no longer work, so my wife lost hers too. I can't afford to get treatment for my cataracts, and my vision is getting worse.

My psychiatrist, Dr. Hill, says that my nervousness will improve if my financial situation gets better. I'd like to learn some other type of work, if I can get help for my medical problems. But I just can't do the heavy work I did before.
