

The Texas Department of State Health Services (DSHS) is hosting the biannual Texas Immunization Conference (TIC) in the greater Austin area in June 2024. The TIC conference occurs biennially and educates immunization partners with the latest vaccine-related information. The TIC conference is open to health care professionals from both the private and public health sectors across Texas.

DSHS is currently accepting conference proposals. If you or someone you know would like to present at the TIC conference, please visit the Texas Immunization Conference for details on how to submit a proposal. The deadline for submitting a conference proposal is November 15, 2023. Please note that not all submissions can be accepted due to limited conference availability.

Please be on the lookout for more information on registering for the event, including the date, location, and time. If you have any questions, please contact:
