Federally Employed Women (FEW) joins the celebration with the FEW Foundation for Education and Training on the election of its new president

Effective October 1, 2016, Patricia (Pat) A. Wolfe will become the new President of the FEW Foundation for Education and Training (FEW Foundation). Pat retired from the Department of Homeland Security and now dedicates much of her spare time as a volunteer to the federal and local communities. She served as Federally Employed Women's National President from 2002-2006, as well as President of FEW's Foundation from 2006-2008.

FEW National President Killingsworth stated, "It gives me great pleasure to extend my warmest congratulations to Pat on her being elected as President of the FEW Foundation. I truly appreciate her level of commitment and unwavering dedication to FEW and to the FEW Foundation as well." President Killingsworth went on to say, "I know under Pat's leadership she will continue to move the FEW Foundation forward as she continues "Investing in our Future"."

The other elected officers of FEW Foundation for Education and Training Board are:

Vice President, Helen Robinson
Secretary, Joy Lazaroff
Treasurer, Cindy Higgins
