FIBA PRESIDENT AND SECRETARY GENERAL GREETINGS

Dear Basketball Friends,

It is our pleasure to welcome you to Sydney for the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022 Australia.

We will be celebrating the power and excitement of women's basketball over the next ten days as we see the world's best players take to the court in 38 action packed games, attracting thousands of spectators to Australia while millions more viewers will watch from across the globe.

This will be the 19th edition of the competition since 1953 and will add new memories to an already long history of thrilling moments such as Hortencia Marcari scoring 46 points for Brazil in 1983; Cheryl Miller leading the United States to a 108-88 win in the 1986 Final; or Penny Taylor's outstanding performance in Australia's win in the 2006 title game.

In addition to being our flagship women's event, the Women's World Cup also represents a major part of FIBA's effort within its strategic priority of 'Women in Basketball'. FIBA is committed to raising the profile of women's basketball across the globe, including the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup, and making an impact on women's competitions.

The 12 teams playing in Sydney took a new path to this global stage with the introduction of the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022 Qualifying Tournaments. The four qualifying events are part of the women's competition system that came into effect in 2019 with the goal of increasing the exposure of the Women's World Cup while also providing and maximizing the impact of the event.

All 12 nations will be aiming at October 1 to hoist the new trophy, which was unveiled last year and has been beautifully crafted to represent the prestige of the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup and highlight the greatness of the many teams that have joined basketball's elite since the very first edition.

We are confident that the 2022 edition will be the most followed Women's World Cup to date as the world becomes more and more connected online. The numbers for digital interaction are expected to greatly outperform engagement from the 2018 event, which set new records in its own right.

With the world watching, Australia is thrilled to welcome global basketball fans back to its shores after last hosting the Women's World Cup 27 years ago. The Sydney Superdome and Sydney Olympic Park Sports Centre are both in the city's Olympic Park, which has its own legacy already, having hosted the Summer Olympic Games in 2000.

A concerted effort has been made with various programs and initiatives to ensure the 2022 Women's World Cup will also have the biggest impact to date. The Playmakers Program has been put in place to help build momentum and increase fan engagement for the World Cup - in addition to generating more interest in women's basketball Down Under. The Local Organizing Committee meanwhile successfully launched the Schools Program to deepen the engagement with children and strengthen the legacy of the event, with resources for teachers covering a wide range of topics including health and well-being, diversity and inclusion, women in sport, media and technology.

Our sincere thanks go out to Basketball Australia and the Local Organizing Committee for our strong partnership, to the NSW Government for their pivotal support through its major events and to the tourism agency Destination NSW and the Office of Sport, as well as the Australian Government.

In closing, the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022 promises to be an unforgettable tournament for those following both in the stadiums and online, and to help fans get even more excited, we encourage all to follow the 'Nothing Beats Like It' campaign, which will give the basketball showcase its own exhilarating soundtrack.

Enjoy the action!

Sincerely,

Hamane Niang
FIBA President

WELCOMING MESSAGE FROM AUSTRALIA'S MINISTER FOR SPORT, ANIKA WELLS

Hello, I'm Anika Wells, Minister for Sport.

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022.

Australia is a sporting nation. We have a long and rich history of hosting and participating in world-class sporting events.

Sport brings us together and inspires wellbeing, community connection, inclusion and diversity.

Getting more women and girls playing sport is a priority of mine, and events like the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup contribute to that goal.

Basketball is played by almost 800,000 Australians, however girls make up just over a third of young players. From 15, the percentage of women playing basketball drops to just 29 per cent.

As elite players, each and every one of you has the opportunity to inspire a young girl to play basketball, or a young woman to stick with the sport she loves.

Over the next 10 years, Australia will host a series of women's world-class sporting events, which will culminate in the Brisbane 2032 Olympics and Paralympic Games.

We're calling it the Green and Gold decade – and it starts with you.

I wish you the very best as you compete in the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022. Be sure to enjoy yourselves and make the most of the beautiful city of Sydney.

And of course, good luck!

Hon Anika Wells MP

WELCOMING MESSAGE FROM NSW'S MINISTER FOR TOURISM, BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

On behalf of the NSW Government, a warm welcome to the much-awaited FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022 – the premier international women's basketball competition in the world.

Sydney has a long and celebrated history of hosting major international sporting events, and we are proud to support this event in 2022 through our tourism and major events agency, Destination NSW.

There are so many benefits to embracing sport in all its forms and hosting an event of this calibre will inspire the next generation of basketballers in Australia and indeed the world.

The FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022 forms part of our 10 World Cups in 10 Years program which is a NSW Government initiative to attract the world's most prestigious sporting events to NSW, boost our visitor economy, grow sports participation and create unforgettable experiences for sports fans across the globe.

We are committed to delivering international sporting events like the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022, which will help us achieve our goal of making NSW the premier sporting destination of the Asia Pacific.

I wish competitors and fans an enjoyable stay in our Harbour City, taking in our vast cultural offerings and vibrant hospitality and nightlife in one of the world's great sporting cities.

We hope you enjoy this world-class event; it is the first time Australia has hosted a FIBA World Cup event since 1994 we are delighted to welcome you to Sydney.

GROUP PHASE

FINAL PHASE

 Just do it.

FIBA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL WORLD CUP HISTORY

The FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022 in Sydney is the 19th edition of this famous and prestigious competition.

An array of legends, including multiple FIBA Hall of Fame members have showcased the best of female hoops on the biggest stage for almost 70 years in the tournament.

Inaugurated during 1953 in Chile, it was USA who led the early trailblazers, winning the first two titles on offer. Fast forward 69 years and they arrive in Australia looking to secure their fourth in a row.

Meanwhile four years ago in Tenerife at the last edition of the tournament, they became the first nation to reach the impressive milestone of double-digits as they collected a staggering 10th crown. Led by MVP Breanna Stewart, the victory also secured direct qualification to the 2020 Women's Olympic Basketball Tournament in Tokyo.

However, USA have not always had it all their own way, with the Soviet Union enjoying a dominant era of more than two decades. They amassed five consecutive titles between 1959 and 1975, also adding their last during 1983.

There have been only two other winners outside of USA and Soviet Union, with a brilliant Brazil team finishing top of the podium in 1994. As a golden generation including FIBA Hall of Fame trio Hortencia Marcari, Janeth Dos Santos Arcain and Maria 'Magic Paula' Goncalves Da Silva.

The Opals also had their historic moment in 2006 when led by the devastating one-two punch of Lauren Jackson and Penny Taylor they ensured that Australia conquered the world for the first time.

As usual, the latest edition will be crammed full of the biggest global stars, ready to entertain in what remains the flagship FIBA women's competition. It will also provide an opportunity for the winners to experience a double joy, since they will not only lift the title, but also secure a direct spot for the 2024 Women's Olympic Basketball Tournament in Paris.

Karla

When players and fans show up in the Sydney for the flagship women's basketball summit, they will be greeted by a kangaroo wearing a blue uniform with the No. 22 and answering to the name of Karla.

Fans will be interested to know that Karla is in fact a teenage kangaroo that hails from Alice Springs, the third-largest town in the Northern Territory. The Red Centre is also the birthplace of the event's logo, which was inspired by fourteen year old Aboriginal basketball Armerlie 'Marlii' Biscoe.
