Performance and/or Design Requirements: Florida Housing has a need to procure a software system that will assist developers with electronic submission of Davis-Bacon payrolls and processing; and will allow our contracted servicers the ability to ensure Davis-Bacon compliance and internal staff the ability to conduct quality assessment reviews in a more expedient manner.

Specifically, Florida Housing and its partners are looking for a system that can:

- Extract payroll data from the developers' system rather than via manual data entry;
- Immediately identify any underpayments;
- Run database checks so that developers are informed about any issues prior to certification and submission to the servicers; and
- Transmit all MBE/WBE and Section 3 reporting directly to the U.S. Dept. of Housing and Urban Development.

Intended Source: Elation Systems, Inc.

Estimated Dollar Amount: $60,000 for one year; $500/month for each applicable development under construction.

Justification for Single Source Acquisition: The solution from Elation Systems, Inc., is the only known solution on the market that can provide all of the performance and design requirements listed above.
