

Resources for Elderly Persons

Affordable Apartment Search

Search for an apartment with FloridaHousingSearch.org

In its on-going efforts to respond to housing needs, Florida Housing has developed an easy-to-use searchable website of available affordable rental units throughout the state. Currently, Florida Housing-funded developments may be found in most counties. There is no cost to search for housing, and no cost to the owners to list their rental units.

State Agency resource: Information on the range of programs offered by the Florida Department of Elder Affairs

Florida Department of Elder Affairs website

Federal Agency resource: Information on a wide variety of topics, programs and services related to aging can be found at the website for the U.S. Administration on Aging.

Florida Law Help

To find help on a variety of civil legal issues, visit the Florida Law Help website, administered by Florida Legal Services.