PURPOSE OF THE BILL

The purpose of H.R. 3212 is to amend the Grand Ronde Reservation Act to make technical corrections.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

The Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde Community of Oregon were among several tribes in Western Oregon that entered into treaties with the United States in the 1850s. In 1857, President James Buchanan established the Grand Ronde Reservation.¹ The reservation was more than 60,000 acres and today the Grand Ronde are treated by the federal government as a single tribe for federal purposes, such as the delivery of services and benefits.

In 1954, federal supervision over Grand Ronde was terminated by Act of Congress (25 U.S.C. 691 et seq.). This occurred in the context of the "Termination Era" when Congress determined to end its policy of recognizing tribes, holding their lands in a federal trust, and supervising their affairs.

After a number of tribes in various parts of the United States were terminated by Congress, Indian people objected to the policy arguing that they were not fully consulted or informed as to its consequences. Over the years, Congress has restored a number of the terminated tribes to recognized tribal status. In 1983, Congress enacted the Grand Ronde Restoration Act² to extend recognition to the Grand Ronde Indians and establish a process for the tribal government to organize itself. The Act further required the Department of the Interior and the Tribe to develop a plan for creating a reservation, but required any reservation to be established through an Act of Congress.

² 25 U.S.C. § 713b, Public Law 98-165, 97 Stat. 1064. This Act is known as the "Grand Ronde Restoration Act" which authorized the re-establishment of a reservation for the Tribe after No-

In 1988, Congress enacted the Grand Ronde Reservation Act.³ This Act and subsequent Acts created a reservation for the Tribe mostly within the boundaries of the former 1857 Grand Ronde Reservation in Polk and Yamhill Counties in Oregon. Today, the Tribe has a total of 10,311 acres of trust land. According to the Tribe, all but 259 acres of these lands are forested, and the Tribe is actively engaged in timber management. The non-forested trust parcels host tribal buildings and housing, a casino, and other infrastructure.

To increase its trust land base within the boundaries of its former reservation boundary, the Grand Ronde Tribe has been acquiring new lands which it then applies to put in trust through the Department of the Interior's regulatory process. Section 5 of the Indian Reorganization Act of 1934⁴ (IRA) authorizes the Secretary of the Interior, "in his discretion," to acquire any interest in land or water "for the purpose of providing land for Indians." The implementing regulations for the Secretary's acquisition of land in trust for Indians are codified at 25 Code of Federal Regulations Part 151.

H.R. 3212 authorizes the Secretary of the Interior to process trust land applications submitted by Grand Ronde Tribe under on-reservation standards of the IRA implementing rules as long as such lands are within the boundaries of its former 1857 Reservation in Polk and Yamhill Counties. According to the Grand Ronde, this will shorten the length of time and reduce the regulatory burden for the Department of the Interior to consider the Tribe's trust land applications when the lands are within its 1857 reservation boundary. The bill would also consider certain other lands acquired by the Tribe to be a part of its reservation.

In the 113th Congress, a similar bill, H.R. 841, was favorably reported by the Natural Resources Committee and passed by the House under suspension of the rules on January 13, 2014, but no action was taken in the Senate.

COMMITTEE ACTION

H.R. 3212 was introduced on July 23, 2015, by Congressman Kurt Schrader (D-OR). The bill was referred to the Committee on Natural Resources, and within the Committee to the Subcommittee on Indian, Insular and Alaska Native Affairs. On June 14, 2016, the Natural Resources Committee met to consider the bill. The Subcommittee was discharged by unanimous consent. Congressman Rob Bishop (R-UT) offered an amendment in the nature of a substitute, which was adopted by unanimous consent. The bill, as amended, was ordered favorably reported to the House of Representatives by unanimous consent on June 15, 2016.

COMMITTEE OVERSIGHT FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Regarding clause 2(b)(1) of rule X and clause 3(c)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Natural Resources' oversight findings and recommendations are reflected in the body of this report.

COMPLIANCE WITH HOUSE RULE XIII

1. Cost of Legislation. Clause 3(d)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives requires an estimate and a comparison by the Committee of the costs which would be incurred in carrying out this bill. However, clause 3(d)(2)(B) of that rule provides that this requirement does not apply when the Committee has included in its report a timely submitted cost estimate of the bill prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office under section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974. Under clause 3(c)(3) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and section 403 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee has received the following cost estimate for this bill from the Director of the Congressional Budget Office:

U.S. CONGRESS,
CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE,
Washington, DC, July 20, 2016.

Hon. ROB BISHOP,
*Chairman, Committee on Natural Resources,
House of Representatives, Washington, DC.*

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: The Congressional Budget Office has prepared the enclosed cost estimate for H.R. 3212, a bill to amend the Grand Ronde Reservation Act to make technical corrections, and for other purposes.

If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contact is Robert Reese.

Sincerely,

KEITH HALL.

Enclosure.

H.R. 3212—A bill to amend the Grand Ronde Reservation Act to make technical corrections, and for other purposes

H.R. 3212 would authorize the Secretary of the Interior to take into trust certain real property located within the boundaries of the original reservation of the Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde Community of Oregon. The bill would modify the process that the Secretary uses to evaluate such property and would specify that any lands taken into trust on behalf of that tribe after September 9, 1988, would be considered part of its reservation.

Based on information from the Department of the Interior, CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 3212 would have no significant effect on the federal budget; any change in the department's administrative costs under the bill, which would be subject to the availability of appropriated funds, would not exceed $500,000 in any year.

Enacting H.R. 3212 would not affect direct spending or revenues; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply. CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 3212 would not increase net direct spending or on-budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2027.

H.R. 3212 contains no intergovernmental or private sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would not affect the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.

On December 22, 2015, CBO transmitted a cost estimate for S. 818, a bill to amend the Grand Ronde Reservation Act to make technical corrections, and for other purposes, as ordered reported by the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs on November 18, 2015. The two pieces of legislation are similar and CBO's estimates of the budgetary effects are the same.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Robert Reese. The estimate was approved by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

2. Section 308(a) of Congressional Budget Act. As required by clause 3(c)(2) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and section 308(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, this bill does not contain any new budget authority, spending authority, credit authority, or an increase or decrease in revenues or tax expenditures. The Congressional Budget Office concludes that enactment of this bill "would have no significant effect on the federal budget."

3. General Performance Goals and Objectives. As required by clause 3(c)(4) of rule XIII, the general performance goal or objective of this bill is to amend the Grand Ronde Reservation Act to make technical corrections.

EARMARK STATEMENT

This bill does not contain any Congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined under clause 9(e), 9(f), and 9(g) of rule XXI of the Rules of the House of Representatives.

COMPLIANCE WITH PUBLIC LAW 104-4

This bill contains no unfunded mandates.

COMPLIANCE WITH H. RES. 5

Directed Rule Making. The Chairman does not believe that this bill directs any executive branch official to conduct any specific rule-making proceedings.

Duplication of Existing Programs. This bill does not establish or reauthorize a program of the federal government known to be duplicative of another program. Such program was not included in any report from the Government Accountability Office to Congress pursuant to section 21 of Public Law 111-139 or identified in the most recent Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance published pursuant to the Federal Program Information Act (Public Law 95-220, as amended by Public Law 98-169) as relating to other programs.

PREEMPTION OF STATE, LOCAL OR TRIBAL LAW

This bill is not intended to preempt any State, local or tribal law.

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW MADE BY THE BILL, AS REPORTED

In compliance with clause 3(e) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, changes in existing law made by the bill, as reported, are shown as follows (existing law proposed to be omitted is enclosed in black brackets, new matter is printed in italic, and existing law in which no change is proposed is shown in roman):
