PURPOSE OF THE BILL

The purpose of H.R. 2250 is to provide for restoration, economic development, recreation, and conservation on Federal lands in Northern California, and for other purposes.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

Northwest California is home to some of the most scenic and biodiverse landscapes in the world.¹ These public lands make the region an attractive place to live and visit by providing access to clean water; abundant opportunities for outdoor recreation, including hiking, mountain biking, fishing, hunting, and camping; critical habitat for rare and endangered wildlife and plant species; and sustainable economic opportunities for local communities.

California boasts the largest outdoor recreation economy in the nation,² estimated to contribute $92 billion in annual consumer spending, 691,000 direct jobs, $30.4 billion in wages and salaries, and $6.2 billion in state and local tax revenue each year.³ These economic benefits are directly supported by the state's cherished public lands and rely on the preservation of untouched landscapes, access to recreational opportunities, and the abundance of critical wildlife habitat. H.R. 2250 supports California's robust recreation economy through a combination of conservation and restoration-focused designations as well as numerous initiatives designed to enhance visitor and recreational experiences in the area.

Title I of H.R. 2250 focuses on enhancing forest restoration and promoting economic development in Northwest California. This title designates the single largest area in the bill with the establishment of the South Fork Trinity-Mad River Restoration Area across approximately 730,000 acres of mostly U.S. Forest Service (USFS) managed federal lands within the Shasta-Trinity and Six Rivers National Forests. A history of fire exclusion, commercial logging, and plantation-style reforestation have contributed to the area's current condition.⁴ Much of the restoration area is covered by provisions included in the Healthy Forests Restoration Act of 2003;⁵ however, the establishment of the restoration area is intended to further facilitate efforts to enhance the sustainability, resilience, and health of terrestrial and aquatic ecosystems. To achieve the goals of the restoration area, the bill encourages partnerships and collaborative approaches, the use of stewardship contracting, the deployment of a network of shaded fuel breaks near communities, riparian restoration, the utilization of prescribed burns and managed wildland fire, limited grazing to control weeds, and reliance on the best available science.

Beyond the establishment of the South Fork Trinity-Mad River Restoration Area, Title I encourages partnerships between non-governmental organizations and federal, state, and local governments for the purpose of restoring ancient redwood forest ecosystems within Redwoods National and State Parks. Another provision establishes the California Public Lands Remediation Partnership to address trespass marijuana grows on priority public lands throughout the state.

Regarding recreation and tourism based economic development, Title I allows for the establishment of the Trinity Lake Visitor Center in Weaverville, CA, and the Del Norte County Visitor Center in Del Norte County, CA, while requiring a study to evaluate the feasibility and suitability of establishing overnight accommodations capable of hosting visitors near the northern and southern boundaries of Redwood National and State parks.

Title II of H.R. 2250 focuses on providing additional multiple-use recreation opportunities throughout Northwest California. This title establishes the 7,399-acre Horse Mountain Special Management Area to enhance scenic and recreational values. Title II also requires a feasibility study regarding the establishment of a non-motorized, contiguous route extending from the Ides Cove Trailhead in the Mendocino National Forest to Crescent City, CA, to be known as the Bigfoot National Recreation Trail, as a component of the National Trails System.

To facilitate motorized and mechanized recreation, including mountain biking, Title II requires public comment to help inform the establishment of the Elk Camp Ridge Recreation Trail along existing trail systems within lands managed by the USFS. Additional feasibility studies included in Title II consider the construction of non-motorized trails around Trinity Lake in Trinity County, CA; study potential trail improvements to enhance motorized and non-motorized recreation on lands not designated as wilderness within the Six Rivers, Shasta-Trinity and Mendocino National Forests; and assess the feasibility, including public interest, of constructing recreational trails for mountain biking and other non-motorized uses in the Smith River National Recreation Area.

Title III of H.R. 2250 focuses on conservation primarily through the designation of lands and waters as components of the National Wilderness Preservation System (NWPS) and the National Wild and Scenic Rivers System (NWSRS). H.R. 2250 designates eight new wilderness areas and expands nine existing wilderness areas across approximately 262,000 acres of federal land. Another approximately 51,000 acres are managed as potential wilderness areas. Several special provisions in this Title address wilderness management considerations such as access for certain recreational activities; fish, wildlife, and tribal uses; grazing; military overflights; and management activities necessary to address fire, insects, and diseases.

Title III also protects the free-flowing condition and outstandingly remarkable values of the state's remaining wild rivers by designating 379 miles of new wild and scenic rivers while congressionally redesignating⁶ another 101 miles of state and federally managed rivers that were administratively added to the NWSRS in 1981 under section 2(a)(ii) of the Wild and Scenic Rivers Act of 1968.⁷ Section 2(a)(ii) of the Wild and Scenic Rivers Act authorizes the Secretary of the Interior to include rivers protected by a state river protection program in the NWSRS upon the request of that state's governor. The Congressional redesignations were recommended by the USFS in its forest management plans for the Shasta-Trinity and Six Rivers National Forests. Similar redesignations were included in the Smith River National Recreation Area Act⁸ and helped clarify federal responsibilities for river segments flowing through federal land, including the requirement to write a river management plan for designated segments.

Title III also establishes the Sanhedrin Special Conservation Management Area, where the USFS will focus on conserving, protecting, and enhancing late-successional forest structure, oak woodlands, and grasslands. The wilderness, wild and scenic, and special conservation designations in Title III preserve some of the largest unprotected intact old-growth areas in Northwest California, help protect critical habitat for endangered salmon and steelhead, and conserve a variety of important native ecosystems and rare plants. These areas also include some of the best fishing, swimming, and whitewater runs in the state, and the conservation designations in H.R. 2250 will ensure that future generations can enjoy the same experiences in these wild places that we do today.

Lastly, Title IV of H.R. 2250 includes miscellaneous provisions regarding maps, legal descriptions, and management plans. In consideration of the potential for utility infrastructure to ignite or be impacted by wildfire, this Title also includes an enumeration of known gas and electric utility infrastructure on federal lands designated by H.R. 2250 and requires the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Agriculture to provide plans for accessing existing infrastructure or rights-of-way. Relatedly, all wilderness and wild and scenic river designations have been drafted to avoid any known infrastructure that would be inconsistent with the preservation of the values for which these areas are being designated to protect.

H.R. 2250 is the product of more than five years of locally driven, collaborative efforts among a diverse array of stakeholders in Northwest California. H.R. 2250 also responds to wild and scenic river recommendations made by the U.S. Forest Service in the 1995 Shasta-Trinity Forest Plan and 1995 Mendocino Forest Plan, as well as by the Bureau of Land Management in the 2003 Headwaters Forest Reserve Plan and 2005 King Range National Conservation Area Plan.

The bill takes a landscape scale approach to conservation by establishing or expanding wilderness protections for approximately 262,000 acres of public land, designating another 51,000 acres as potential wilderness, adding or redesignating approximately 480 river miles as components of the NWSRS, and protecting another approximately 22,000 acres as new special or conservation management areas. The 730,000-acre forest restoration area further adnating an existing scenic river as a wild river), or it can simply restate the existing designation while expanding the covered river segment.

⁷A table outlining the outstanding remarkable values for river segments designated as wild and scenic by H.R. 2250 is included at the end of this section.

dresses local concerns related to wildfire risk, restoring fire-resilient forests, and enhancing aquatic habitats. As a result, H.R. 2250 enjoys broad support from local elected officials in the four counties impacted by the bill, dozens of local businesses, as well as leading conservation and outdoor recreation organizations.

COMMITTEE ACTION

H.R. 2250 was introduced on April 10, 2019, by Representative Jared Huffman (D–CA). The bill was referred solely to the Committee on Natural Resources, and within the Committee to the Subcommittee on National Parks, Forests, and Public Lands. On July 10, 2019, the Subcommittee held a hearing on the bill. On November 20, 2019, the Natural Resources Committee met to consider the bill. The Subcommittee was discharged by unanimous consent. Representative Huffman offered an amendment in the nature of a substitute. Representative Paul A. Gosar (R–AZ) offered an amendment designated Gosar #1 to the amendment in the nature of a substitute. The amendment was not agreed to by a roll call vote of 13 yeas and 18 nays, as follows:

The bill would

- Designate roughly 1 million acres of federal land in northwest California for restoration, wilderness, conservation, and other special management purposes, and generally withdraw some of that land from availability for timber production
 - Add 480 miles of river segments to the National Wild and Scenic Rivers System
 - Establish a partnership to coordinate efforts for the remediation of land affected by illegal marijuana cultivation
- Estimated budgetary effects would primarily stem from
- Implementing the designations
 - Managing the partnership

Bill summary: H.R. 2250 would designate roughly 1 million acres of federal land in northwest California for restoration, wilderness, conservation, and other special management purposes. Some of those areas would be withdrawn from availability for timber production. The bill also would add 480 miles of river segments in the state to the National Wild and Scenic Rivers System. Finally, H.R. 2250 would establish a partnership to coordinate efforts among federal agencies and other partners for the remediation of land affected by illegal marijuana cultivation.

Estimated Federal cost: The estimated budgetary effect of H.R. 2250 is shown in Table 1. The costs of the legislation fall within budget function 300 (natural resources and environment).

Components may not sum to totals because of rounding; * = between zero and $500,000.
 CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 2250 would increase direct spending by an insignificant amount over the 2020–2030 period.

Basis of estimate: For this estimate, CBO assumes that the legislation will be enacted in 2020 and that the necessary amounts will be available from appropriated funds each year. Estimated outlays are based on historical spending patterns for similar activities.

CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 2250 would cost $17 million over the 2020–2025 period.

Wilderness and Wild and Scenic River Designations: Title III would designate roughly 310,000 acres of federal land in California as wilderness and would add 480 miles of river segments to the National Wild and Scenic Rivers System. Using information from the Forest Service and Bureau of Land Management, CBO estimates that the agencies would incur upfront costs of $7 million to implement those designations. That amount includes costs to develop management plans, conduct boundary surveys, and update maps and signage. We estimate that the agencies would spend less than $500,000 annually after 2021 for additional staff and rangers. In total, implementing title III would cost $8 million over the 2020–2025 period.

Remediation Partnership: Section 103 would establish the California Public Lands Remediation Partnership—with representation from federal agencies, state and local governments, and tribes—to coordinate efforts to remediate land affected by illegal marijuana cultivation. Using information from Forest Service, and based on the costs of similar tasks, CBO estimates that the federal government would incur costs of $1 million annually, and $5 million over the 2020–2025 period, to manage the partnership and provide technical and financial assistance.

Special Management Areas: Section 201 would establish the Horse Mountain Special Management Area on roughly 7,400 acres of federal land, and section 305 would establish the Sanhedrin Special Conservation Management Area on 14,000 acres of federal land. Using information from the Forest Service, and based on the costs of similar tasks, CBO estimates that the agency would incur upfront costs of about $2 million to conduct environmental reviews, develop management plans, and update maps and signage. We estimate that the Forest Service would spend $100,000 annually after 2021 for additional staff. In total, implementing those sections would cost $2 million over the 2020–2025 period.

Other Activities: CBO estimates that implementing other provisions of H.R. 2250 would cost $2 million over the 2020–2025 period.

Section 107 would require the National Park Service (NPS) to study the feasibility of establishing overnight accommodations within the Redwood National and State Parks. H.R. 2250 also would direct the Forest Service to complete several trail feasibility studies. Based on the costs of similar tasks, CBO estimates that conducting the required studies would cost $1 million.

Section 105 would authorize the Forest Service and the NPS to establish a visitor center in Del Norte County, California. Based on timeframes for similar projects, CBO expects that any property acquisition and construction costs would not be incurred until after 2025. We estimate that related planning efforts would cost about $500,000 over the 2020–2025 period.

Using information from the agencies, CBO estimates that implementing the following provisions would have no significant effect on the federal budget.

- Establish the South Fork Trinity-Mad River Restoration Area on roughly 730,000 acres of federal land,
- Authorize the NPS to carry out restoration activities in the Redwood National and State Parks,
- Authorize the Forest Service to establish a visitor center in Weaverville, California, and
- Direct the Forest Service to publish plans for access to utility rights-of-way.

Pay-As-You-Go considerations: Income from timber production is classified in the budget as offsetting receipts, or reductions in direct spending. Under H.R. 2250, the federal government would forgo receipts because land would be withdrawn from the commercial timber base. However, CBO estimates that any increases in direct spending would be insignificant over the 2020–2030 period.

Increase in long-term deficits: CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 2250 would not increase on-budget deficits by more than $5 billion in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2031. Mandates: None.

Estimate prepared by: Federal costs: Janani Shankaran; Mandates: Lilia Ledezma.

Estimate reviewed by: Kim P. Cawley; Chief, Natural and Physical Resources Cost Estimates Unit; H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Director of Budget Analysis.

2. General Performance Goals and Objectives. As required by clause 3(c)(4) of rule XIII, the general performance goals and objectives of this bill are to provide for restoration, economic development, recreation, and conservation on Federal lands in Northern California.

EARMARK STATEMENT

This bill does not contain any Congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined under clause 9(e), 9(f), and 9(g) of rule XXI of the Rules of the House of Representatives.

UNFUNDED MANDATES REFORM ACT STATEMENT

This bill contains no unfunded mandates.

FEDERAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE ACT STATEMENT

Section 103 of the bill, as reported, establishes a California Public Lands Remediation Partnership to more effectively accomplish certain land remediation and related purposes. In reporting the bill favorably to the House of Representatives, the Committee on Natural Resources finds that the functions of the Partnership, as authorized in this bill, are not currently being performed by one or more agencies or an advisory group already in existence. The Committee finds that these functions would be better performed by the Partnership as authorized than by one or more agencies or another existing advisory committee.

EXISTING PROGRAMS

This bill does not establish or reauthorize a program of the federal government known to be duplicative of another program. Such program was not included in any report from the Government Accountability Office to Congress pursuant to section 21 of Public Law 111-139. The financial assistance authorized at Section 103(j) of the bill, as reported—for the purpose of assisting the California Public Lands Remediation Partnership with carrying out the bill—is related and complementary to, but not duplicative of, the following program identified in the most recent Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance published pursuant to 31 U.S.C. § 6104: the Drug-Free Communities (DFC) Support Program (CFDA No. 95.009).

APPLICABILITY TO LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

The Committee finds that the legislation does not relate to the terms and conditions of employment or access to public services or accommodations within the meaning of section 102(b)(3) of the Congressional Accountability Act.

PREEMPTION OF STATE, LOCAL, OR TRIBAL LAW

Any preemptive effect of this bill over state, local, or tribal law is intended to be consistent with the bill's purposes and text and the Supremacy Clause of Article VI of the U.S. Constitution.

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW MADE BY THE BILL, AS REPORTED

In compliance with clause 3(e) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, changes in existing law made by the bill, as reported, are shown as follows (existing law proposed to be omitted is enclosed in black brackets, new matter is printed in italic, and existing law in which no change is proposed is shown in roman):

DISSENTING VIEWS

H.R. 2250 would create over 262,000 acres of new wilderness, effectively restricting forest management across wide swaths of federal lands. This proposal is a bad idea at a time when California is facing extreme wildfire hazards and California Governor Gavin Newsom is streamlining State environmental regulations to reduce the risks.¹

This part of California is also no stranger to the dangers of wildfires. In 2017 the Helena Fire burned over 21,000 acres and destroyed 72 homes.² Dozens of other fires have afflicted this area in the last decade as well.³

H.R. 2250 is a lopsided bill that fails to achieve the type of balance and local consensus necessary for a bill of this size and scope. At the July 10, 2019, Subcommittee hearing on this bill, we heard testimony from Trinity County Supervisor, Keith Groves, who testified that the County had several concerns with Mr. Huffman's bill. The concerns ranged from questions about grazing implications, to road decommissioning, forest management, and stewardship contracts. Those concerns have not been addressed, and Trinity County has not endorsed this bill. To put this in perspective, 76% of the land in Trinity County is controlled by the federal government, and an enormous 95% of the lands impacted by this bill are located in Trinity County.

At that same hearing, the Forest Service also expressed its concerns with the legislation. Among the many issues raised by the Forest Service, arguably the most troubling is that many of the Wild and Scenic River designations and all of the Wilderness additions contained in this bill have not been recommended for designation through the agency's land management planning process. Wild and Scenic River and Wilderness designations must be carefully applied due to their highly restrictive nature so as to take into account existing uses of the land that could be limited, including wildfire risks, public access challenges, and economic concerns raised by local stakeholders.

It is clear that H.R. 2250 falls far short of that level of careful application and it certainly falls short of the level of consensus that should be achieved for a public lands bill that impacts numerous people and interests. Public lands decisions should be made with local collaboration and input. They have real consequences for communities on the ground who live with the consequences of these significant federal land management decisions.
