Mr. GRIJALVA, from the Committee on Natural Resources, submitted the following

R E P O R T

[To accompany H.R. 6720]

The Committee on Natural Resources, to whom was referred the bill (H.R. 6720) to authorize the Thomas Paine Memorial Association to establish a commemorative work in the District of Columbia and its environs, and for other purposes, having considered the same, reports favorably thereon without amendment and recommends that the bill do pass.

PURPOSE OF THE BILL

The purpose of H.R. 6720 is to authorize the Thomas Paine Memorial Association to establish a commemorative work in the District of Columbia and its environs.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

H.R. 6720 authorizes the Thomas Paine Memorial Association to establish a commemorative work on federal land in the District of Columbia in honor of the philosopher and patriot, Thomas Paine.

Thomas Paine was a luminary patriot of the Enlightenment and the American Revolution who inspired people in the colonies not only to overthrow the tyranny of faraway kings but to launch a nation founded on principles of democratic self-government, the rights of men and women, and reason and science. Despite his catalytic role in founding America and our constitutional republic, Paine remains largely neglected in historical narratives. This memorial to Paine has already been pre-funded with a flood of voluntary contributions and pledges from private citizens. Almost uniquely among the Founding Fathers, Paine opposed slavery and favored abolition, called for a progressive income tax to pay for universal education (including for both men and women), a welfare system for poor relief, pensions, women's rights, and more.

Thomas Paine was one of the greatest political writers and philosophers of his time; his best-selling works, Common Sense, The Crisis, Rights of Man, and The Age of Reason fundamentally altered the political and social landscape of the 18th and 19th centuries and helped forge the United States of America. He was an eloquent advocate for equality and representative government, writing, “The true and only true basis of representative government is equality of rights.” He added, “the danger arises from exclusions.”

On July 27, 2022, the National Capital Memorial Advisory Commission agreed that the legacy of Thomas Paine rises to “national historical significance” and unanimously voted to support H.R. 6720 without any changes.

H.R. 6720 was included in H.R. 2617, the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2023,¹ which Congress passed on December 23, 2022. As of the writing of this report, President Biden is expected to sign the bill into law.²

COMMITTEE ACTION

H.R. 6720 was introduced on February 11, 2022, by Representative Jamie Raskin (D-MD). The bill was referred solely to the Committee on Natural Resources, and within the Committee to the Subcommittee on National Parks, Forests, and Public Lands. On July 14, 2022, the Subcommittee held a hearing on the bill. On December 8, 2022, the Natural Resources Committee met to consider the bill. The Subcommittee was discharged by unanimous consent. The bill was adopted and ordered favorably reported to the House of Representatives by unanimous consent.
