SECTION 1. TERMINATION OF TAX-EXEMPT STATUS OF TERRORIST SUPPORTING ORGANIZATIONS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 501(p) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 is amended by adding at the end the following new paragraph:

“(8) APPLICATION TO TERRORIST SUPPORTING ORGANIZATIONS.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of this subsection, in the case of any terrorist supporting organization—

“(i) such organization (and the designation of such organization under subparagraph (B)) shall be treated as described in paragraph (2), and

“(ii) the period of suspension described in paragraph (3) with respect to such organization shall be treated as beginning on the date that the Secretary designates such organization under subparagraph (B) and ending on the date that the Secretary rescinds such designation under subparagraph (D).

“(B) TERRORIST SUPPORTING ORGANIZATION.—For purposes of this paragraph, the term ‘terrorist supporting organization’ means any organization which is designated by the Secretary as having provided, during the 3-year period ending on the date of such designation, material support or resources (within the meaning of section 2339B of title 18, United States Code) to an organization described in paragraph (2) (determined after the application of this paragraph to such organization) in excess of a de minimis amount.

“(C) DESIGNATION PROCEDURE.—

“(i) NOTICE REQUIREMENT.—Prior to designating any organization as a terrorist supporting organization under subparagraph (B), the Secretary shall mail to the most recent mailing address provided by such organization on the organization’s annual return or notice under section 6033 (or subsequent form indicating a change of address) a written notice which includes—

“(I) a statement that the Secretary will designate such organization as a terrorist supporting organization unless the organization satisfies the requirements of subclause (I) or (II) of clause (ii),

“(II) the name of the organization or organizations with respect to which the Secretary has determined such organization provided material support or sources as described in subparagraph (B), and “(III) a description of such material support or resources to the extent consistent with national security and law enforcement interests.

“(ii) OPPORTUNITY TO CURE.—In the case of any notice provided to an organization under clause (i), the Secretary shall, at the close of the 90-day period beginning on the date that such notice was sent, designate such organization as a terrorist supporting organization under subparagraph (B) if (and only if) such organization has not (during such period)—

“(I) demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Secretary that such organization did not provide the material support or resources referred to in subparagraph (B), or

“(II) made reasonable efforts to have such support or resources returned to such organization and certified in writing to the Secretary that such organization will not provide any further support or resources to organizations described in paragraph (2).

A certification under subclause (II) shall not be treated as valid if the organization making such certification has provided any other such certification during the preceding 5 years.

“(D) RESCISSION.—The Secretary shall rescind a designation under subparagraph (B) if (and only if)—

“(i) the Secretary determines that such designation was erroneous,

“(ii) after the Secretary receives a written certification from an organization that such organization did not receive the notice described in subparagraph (C)(i)—

“(I) the Secretary determines that it is reasonable to believe that such organization did not receive such notice, and

“(II) such organization satisfies the requirements of subclause (I) or (II) of subparagraph (C)(ii) (determined after taking into account the last sentence thereof), or “(iii) the Secretary determines, with respect to all organizations to which the material support or resources referred to in subparagraph (B) were provided, the periods of suspension under paragraph (3) have ended.

A certification described in the matter preceding subclause (I) of clause (II) shall not be treated as valid if the organization making such certification has provided any other such certification during the preceding 5 years.

“(E) ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW BY INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE INDEPENDENT OFFICE OF APPEALS.—In the case of the designation of an organization by the Secretary as a terrorist supporting organization under subparagraph (B), a dispute regarding such designation shall be subject to resolution by the Internal Revenue Service Independent Office of Appeals under section 7803(e) in the same manner as if such designation were made by the Internal Revenue Service and paragraph (5) of this subsection did not apply.

“(F) JURISDICTION OF UNITED STATES COURTS.—Notwithstanding paragraph (5), the United States district courts shall have exclusive jurisdiction to review a final determination with respect to an organization’s designation as a terrorist supporting organization under subparagraph (B). In the case of any such determination which was based on classified information (as defined in section 1(a) of the Classified Information Procedures Act), such information may be submitted to the reviewing court ex parte and in camera. For purposes of this subparagraph, a determination with respect to an organization’s designation as a terrorist supporting organization shall not fail to be treated as a final determination merely because such organization fails to utilize the dispute resolution process of the Internal Revenue Service Independent Office of Appeals provided under subparagraph (E).”.

(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendment made by this section shall apply to designations made after the date of the enactment of this Act in taxable years ending after such date.

I. SUMMARY AND BACKGROUND

A. PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

The bill, H.R. 6408, to amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to terminate the tax-exempt status of terrorist supporting organizations, as ordered reported by the Committee on Ways and Means on November 30, 2023.

Section 2 of the bill provides for suspension of the tax-exempt status of a terrorist supporting organization, prohibits such an organization from applying for tax-exempt status, and disallows a charitable deduction for a contribution to such an organization. For this purpose, a terrorist supporting organization is an organization that is designated by the Secretary of the Treasury as having provided material support or resources during the three-year period ending on the date of such designation to an organization designated as a terrorist organization or terrorist supporting organization under section 501(p) of the Internal Revenue Code. The bill describes the procedure for designating an organization as a terrorist supporting organization, including requirements for providing notice in advance of a designation and an opportunity to for an organization to take certain curative actions. The bill also describes opportunities for administrative and judicial review of a designation as a terrorist supporting organization.

B. BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

Following the October 7, 2023 terrorist attack on Israel by Hamas, a listed terrorist organization, and contemporaneous college student organization statements in support of Hamas, the Committee held a hearing to consider the possible role of U.S. tax-exempt organizations in supporting global terrorism. The Committee on Financial Services held a similar hearing to consider the federal government’s efforts to block fundraising by Hezbollah and Hamas. Both committees heard testimony from witnesses who testified about fundraising activities by foreign terrorist organizations and the recent activities of U.S. and foreign tax-exempt organizations.

The Committee learned that the Secretary has not suspended the tax-exempt status of any organization because it is a terrorist organization since 2009, and it has only suspended nine such organizations.¹ The Secretary has only suspended the tax-exempt status of organizations that themselves are designated as terrorist organizations under section 501(p)(2), and the Secretary has not suspended any other tax-exempt organization on the basis that it has provided material support or resources to a listed terrorist organization.

Under current law, generally, a tax-exempt organization must be designated as a terrorist organization itself before its tax-exempt status is suspended. The Committee heard testimony from one witness that numerous individuals who worked for one tax-exempt organization previously suspended by the Secretary now work for a new tax-exempt organization that appears to be providing various types of support to the same designated terrorist organization (Hamas).

The witness testified that non-tax considerations can influence the decision to designate an organization as a terrorist organization. As a result, under present law, some tax-exempt organizations that provide material support or resources to a terrorist organization—through recklessness, negligence, or even deliberately—can continue to benefit from tax-exempt status because it is the policy of the federal government not to list such organizations as terrorist organizations.

The Committee believes that any tax-exempt organization that provides more than a de minimis amount of material support or resources to a listed terrorist organization—within the meaning of section 2339B of Title 18 of the U.S. Code—is not acting in a manner consistent with the purposes of federal tax exemption under section 501 and the Secretary of the Treasury therefore should suspend its tax-exempt status. The Committee believes the Secretary must also be empowered to suspend the tax-exempt status of an organization providing such support on the basis of information available to the Secretary without considering the non-tax implications of designating an organization as a terrorist organization under authorities such as section 212 or 219 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, the International Emergency Economic Powers Act, or section 5 of the United Nations Participation Act of 1945.

Given the significance of a suspension for the organization, the Committee also believes that organizations found to have provided such support should have an opportunity to rebut adverse findings or mitigate the effects of such support by taking reasonable efforts to recover any support provided while certifying in writing that the organization will not provide any further support or resources to any listed terrorist organization. To further assure that the rationale for suspension is well founded, suspended organizations will have access to review by the independent IRS Office of Appeals and to federal district courts to adjudicate claims of erroneous suspensions.

¹A tenth organization, KindHearts for Charitable Humanitarian Development, Inc., was suspended in 2006, but the suspension was lifted in connection with a legal settlement in which KindHearts disbanded in 2012.

II. EXPLANATION OF THE BILL

A. TERMINATION OF TAX-EXEMPT STATUS OF TERRORIST SUPPORTING ORGANIZATIONS (SEC. 1 OF THE BILL AND SEC. 501(p) OF THE CODE)

PRESENT LAW

Revocation of tax-exempt status, in general

Under present law, the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) generally issues a letter revoking recognition of an organization’s tax-exempt status only after (1) conducting an examination of the organization, (2) issuing a letter to the organization proposing revocation, and (3) allowing the organization to exhaust the administrative appeal rights that follow the issuance of the proposed revocation letter. In the case of an organization described in section 501(c) or (d), the revocation letter immediately is subject to judicial review under the declaratory judgment procedures of section 7428. To sustain a revocation of tax-exempt status under section 7428, the IRS must demonstrate that the organization is no longer entitled to exemption.

Suspension of tax-exempt status of terrorist organizations (section 501(p))

To combat terrorism, the Federal government has designated a number of organizations as terrorist organizations or supporters of terrorism under the Immigration and Nationality Act, the International Emergency Economic Powers Act, and the United Nations Participation Act of 1945.

The tax-exempt status of an organization that is exempt from tax under section 501(a) is suspended for any period during which the organization is designated or identified by Federal authorities as a terrorist organization or supporter of terrorism. An organization so designated or identified is also ineligible to apply for tax-exemption under section 501(a). The period of suspension runs from the date the organization is first designated or identified (or from November 11, 2003 (the date of enactment of section 501(p)), if later) to the date when all designations or identifications with respect to the organization have been rescinded pursuant to the law or Executive Order under which the designation or identification was made.

For this purpose, a terrorist organization is an organization that has been designated or otherwise individually identified (1) as a terrorist organization or foreign terrorist organization under the authority of section 212(a)(3)(B)(vi)(II) or section 219 of the Immigration and Nationality Act; (2) in or pursuant to an Executive Order that is related to terrorism and issued under the authority of the International Emergency Economic Powers Act or section 5 of the United Nations Participation Act for the purpose of imposing on such organization an economic or other sanction; or (3) in or pursuant to an Executive Order that refers to the provision and is issued under the authority of any Federal law if the organization is designated or otherwise individually identified in or pursuant to such Executive Order as supporting or engaging in terrorist activity (as defined in section 212(a)(3)(B) of the Immigration and Nationality Act) or supporting terrorism (as defined in section 140(d)(2) of the Foreign Relations Authorization Act, Fiscal Years 1988 and 1989). During the period of suspension, no deduction for any contribution to a terrorist organization is allowed under the Code, including under sections 170, 545(b)(2), 556(b)(2), 642(c), 2055, 2106(a)(2), or 2522.

No organization or other person may challenge, under section 7428 or any other provision of law, in any administrative or judicial proceeding relating to the Federal tax liability of such organization or other person, the following: the suspension of tax exemption, the ineligibility to apply for tax-exemption, a designation or identification described above, the timing of the period of suspension, or a denial of deduction described above. The suspended organization may maintain other suits or administrative actions against the agency or agencies that designated or identified the organization, for the purpose of challenging such designation or identification (but not the suspension of tax-exempt status under this provision).

If the tax exemption of an organization is suspended and each designation and identification that has been made with respect to the organization is determined to be erroneous pursuant to the law or Executive Order making the designation or identification, and such erroneous designation results in an overpayment of income tax for any taxable year with respect to such organization, a credit or refund (with interest) with respect to such overpayment shall be made. If the operation of any law or rule of law (including res judicata) prevents the credit or refund at any time, the credit or refund may nevertheless be allowed or made if the claim for such credit or refund is filed before the close of the one-year period beginning on the date that the last remaining designation or identification with respect to the organization is determined to be erroneous.

The IRS is directed to update the listings of tax-exempt organizations to take account of organizations that have had their exemption suspended and to publish notice to taxpayers of the suspension of an organization's tax-exemption and the fact that contributions to such organization are not deductible during the period of suspension.

As of this writing, there are nine organizations on the IRS's list of organizations suspended under section 501(p).²

REASONS FOR CHANGE

The Committee recently has received testimony about links between domestic organizations with tax-exempt status and international terrorist organizations and believes the Internal Revenue Code should not be used to subsidize or finance violent terrorism around the world. The provision addresses this concern by providing for the suspension of the tax-exempt status of certain organizations that provide material support or resources to terrorist organizations, prohibiting such organizations from applying for tax-exempt status, and disallowing charitable deductions for contributions to such organizations.

The provision is carefully crafted to protect organizations from erroneous designation as a terrorist supporting organization through various due-process mechanisms, including a requirement that the Secretary provide written notice 90 days before such a designation, during which time the organization has an opportunity to demonstrate that it did not provide the material support or resources or to undertake other specified curative actions. The provision allows an organization to challenge a designation as a terrorist supporting organization before the IRS Independent Office of Appeals and also to seek review of a final determination with respect to such a designation in a U.S. district court.

EXPLANATION OF PROVISION

In general

The provision extends section 501(p) such that it applies not only to terrorist organizations (as under present law) but also to terrorist supporting organizations. The provision treats a terrorist supporting organization as a terrorist organization described in section 501(p)(2). The effect of this treatment is that the tax-exempt status of a terrorist supporting organization, and the eligibility of such organization to apply for tax-exempt status, are suspended. The period of suspension of a terrorist supporting organization is treated as beginning on the date the Secretary designates the organization as a terrorist supporting organization and ending on the date the Secretary rescinds the designation, as described below.

A terrorist supporting organization is any organization that is designated by the Secretary as having provided, during the three-year period ending on the date of such designation, material support or resources to a terrorist organization or terrorist supporting organization described in section 501(p) in excess of a de minimis amount. For this purpose, the term “material support or resources” is defined by reference to section 2339B of Title 18 of the U.S. Code.³

Notice requirement

Before designating an organization as a terrorist supporting organization, the Secretary is required to mail to the most recent mailing address provided to the IRS on its most recent annual information return or notice filed with the IRS (or subsequently submitted form indicating a change of address) a written notice. The notice must include: (1) a statement that the Secretary will designate the organization as a terrorist supporting organization unless the organization satisfies the requirements outlined in the following paragraph (relating to opportunity to cure), (2) the name of the organization or organizations with respect to which the Secretary has determined such organization provided material support or resources, and (3) a description of such material support or resources, to the extent consistent with national security and law enforcement interests.

Opportunity to cure

In the case of such a notice, the Secretary shall, at the end of the 90-day period beginning on the date the notice was sent, designate the organization as a terrorist supporting organization if, and only if, the organization has not during such period: (1) demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Secretary that the organization did not provide the material support or resources, or (2) made reasonable efforts to have such support or resources returned to such organization and certified in writing to the Secretary that such organization will not provide any further support or resources to a terrorist organization or terrorist supporting organization described in section 501(p)(2). Such a certification is not valid if the organization making the certification has provided any other such certification during the preceding five years.

Rescission of designation

The Secretary shall rescind a designation if and only if: (1) the Secretary determines that the designation was erroneous; (2) after the Secretary receives a certification from an organization that it did not receive the notice described above, (a) the Secretary determines that it is reasonable to believe that the organization did not receive the notice, and (b) the organization satisfies the above requirements relating to curing a deficiency (that is, the organization demonstrates that it did not provide material support or resources or made reasonable efforts to have such support or resources returned and makes the required certification); or (3) the Secretary

³Section 2339B defines “material support or resources” by reference to section 2339A of Title 18 of the U.S. Code. Section 2339A, in turn, provides that material support or resources means “any property, tangible or intangible, or service, including currency or monetary instruments or financial securities, financial services, lodging, training, expert advice or assistance, safehouses, false documentation or identification, communications equipment, facilities, weapons, lethal substances, explosives, personnel (1 or more individuals who may be or include oneself), and transportation, except medicine or religious materials.” The term “training” is defined as “instruction or teaching designed to impart a specific skill, as opposed to general knowledge.” The term “expert advice or assistance” is defined as “advice or assistance derived from scientific, technical or other specialized knowledge.”

determines that the periods of suspension for all organizations to which the material support or resources were provided have ended. The certification described in (2) above is not treated as valid if the organization making the certification has provided any other such certification during the preceding five years.

Administration and judicial review of designation

Notwithstanding the present-law rule that disallows a challenge to a designation as a terrorist organization in certain administrative or judicial proceedings (section 501(p)(5)), in the case of the designation of an organization as a terrorist supporting organization, a dispute regarding such designation is subject to resolution by the IRS Independent Office of Appeals (“IRS Appeals”) under section 7803(e) (which describes IRS Appeals). The dispute is subject to IRS Appeals resolution in the same manner as if the designation were made by the IRS. In addition, notwithstanding section 501(p)(5), the United States district courts shall have exclusive jurisdiction to review a final determination with respect to an organization’s designation as a terrorist supporting organization. In the case of a determination that was based on classified information (as defined in section 1(a) of the Classified Information Procedures Act), such information may be submitted to the reviewing court ex parte and in camera. For purposes of such judicial review, a determination shall not fail to be treated as a final determination merely because the organization fails to utilize the dispute resolution process of IRS Appeals described above.

EFFECTIVE DATE

The provision is effective for designations made after the date of enactment in taxable years ending after such date.

With respect to the requirement of clause 3(d) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, a cost estimate provided by the Congressional Budget Office pursuant to section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 was not made available to the Committee in time for the filing of this report.

B. COMMITTEE ESTIMATE OF BUDGETARY EFFECTS

The bill is estimated to have a negligible effect on Federal fiscal year budget receipts for the period 2024 through 2033.

C. STATEMENT REGARDING NEW BUDGET AUTHORITY AND TAX EXPENDITURES BUDGET AUTHORITY

In compliance with clause 3(c)(2) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee states that the bill involves no new or increased budget authority.

V. OTHER MATTERS TO BE DISCUSSED UNDER THE RULES OF THE HOUSE

A. COMMITTEE OVERSIGHT FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

With respect to clause 3(c)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee made findings and recommendations that are reflected in this report.

B. STATEMENT OF GENERAL PERFORMANCE GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

With respect to clause 3(c)(4) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee advises that the bill does not authorize funding, so no statement of general performance goals and objectives is required.

C. INFORMATION RELATING TO UNFUNDED MANDATES

This information is provided in accordance with section 423 of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (Pub. L. No. 104-4).

The Committee has determined that the bill does not contain Federal mandates on the private sector. The Committee has determined that the bill does not impose a Federal intergovernmental mandate on State, local, or tribal governments.

D. CONGRESSIONAL EARMARKS, LIMITED TAX BENEFITS, AND LIMITED TARIFF BENEFITS

With respect to clause 9 of rule XXI of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee has carefully reviewed the provisions of the bill, and states that the provisions of the bill do not contain any congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits within the meaning of the rule.

E. DUPLICATION OF FEDERAL PROGRAMS

In compliance with clause 3(c)(5) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee states that no provision of the bill establishes or reauthorizes: (1) a program of the Federal Government known to be duplicative of another Federal program; (2) a program included in any report from the Government Accountability Office to Congress pursuant to section 21 of Public Law 111–139; or (3) a program related to a program identified in the most recent Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance, published pursuant to the Federal Program Information Act (Pub. L. No. 95–220, as amended by Pub. L. No. 98–169).

F. TAX COMPLEXITY ANALYSIS

Section 4022(b) of the Internal Revenue Service Reform and Restructuring Act of 1998 (“IRS Reform Act”) requires the staff of the Joint Committee on Taxation (in consultation with the Internal Revenue Service and the Treasury Department) to provide a tax complexity analysis. The complexity analysis is required for all legislation reported by the Senate Committee on Finance, the House Committee on Ways and Means, or any committee of conference if the legislation includes a provision that directly or indirectly amends the Internal Revenue Code and has widespread applicability to individuals or small businesses. The staff of the Joint Committee on Taxation has determined that there are no provisions that are of widespread applicability to individuals or small businesses.

(ii) merely because the plan provides only for employees who are not eligible to receive sick, accident, or unemployment compensation benefits under State or Federal law the same benefits (or a portion of such benefits if determined in a nondiscriminatory manner) which such employees would receive under such laws if such employees were eligible for such benefits, or

(iii) merely because the plan provides only for employees who are not eligible under another plan (which meets the requirements of subparagraph (A)) of supplemental unemployment compensation benefits provided wholly by the employer the same benefits (or a portion of such benefits if determined in a nondiscriminatory manner) which such employees would receive under such other plan if such employees were eligible under such other plan, but only if the employees eligible under both plans would make a classification which would be nondiscriminatory within the meaning of subparagraph (A).

(D) The term "supplemental unemployment compensation benefits" means only—

(C) such benefits do not discriminate in favor of employees who are highly compensated employees (within the meaning of section 414(q)). A plan shall not be considered discriminatory within the meaning of this subparagraph merely because the benefits received under the plan bear a uniform relationship to the total compensation, or the basic or regular rate of compensation, of the employees covered by the plan, and

(D) in the case of a plan under which an employee may designate certain contributions as deductible—

(i) such contributions do not exceed the amount with respect to which a deduction is allowable under section 219(b)(3),
