Mr. WESTERMAN, from the Committee on Natural Resources, submitted the following

R E P O R T

[To accompany H.R. 3250]

[Including cost estimate of the Congressional Budget Office]

The Committee on Natural Resources, to whom was referred the bill (H.R. 3250) to recognize the Margaret Woodbury Strong Museum in Rochester, New York, having considered the same, reports favorably thereon without amendment and recommends that the bill do pass.

PURPOSE OF THE LEGISLATION

The purpose of H.R. 3250 is to recognize the Margaret Woodbury Strong Museum in Rochester, New York.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

The Margaret Woodbury Strong Museum, located in Rochester, New York, is one of the largest toy museums in the world. Its collection houses hundreds of thousands of toys, items, and collectibles that span different eras and cultures. Born in 1897 in Rochester, New York, Margaret Woodbury Strong was an American collector most well-known for her large collection of dolls and toys. Ms. Strong traveled around the world and collected toys from a multitude of countries. Her museum, which first opened in 1968 under the name the “Margaret Woodbury Strong Museum of Fascination,” has continued to expand and grow over the past five decades. From vintage dolls and board games to interactive exhibits, visitors can immerse themselves in the rich history of play and marvel at the diverse array of toys on display. Today, the museum is over 100,000 square feet and receives over half a million visitors annually.

H.R. 3250 recognizes the Margaret Woodbury Strong Museum as the ‘National Museum of Play,’ and as the “only museum of its kind that exists for the exclusive purpose of exploring the ways in which play encourages learning, creativity, and discovery, and how it illuminates cultural history.” The recognition as a national museum does not create a unit of the federal government and it does not obligate any taxpayer funding.

COMMITTEE ACTION

H.R. 3250 was introduced on May 11, 2023, by Rep. Joseph Morelle (D-NY). The bill was referred to the Committee on Natural Resources, and within the Committee to the Subcommittee on Federal Lands. On June 22, 2023, the Subcommittee on Federal Lands held a hearing on the bill. On December 6, 2023, the Committee on Natural Resources met to consider the bill. The Subcommittee on Federal Lands was discharged from further consideration of H.R. 3250 by unanimous consent. The bill was ordered favorably reported to the House of Representatives by unanimous consent.

HEARINGS

For the purposes of clause 3(c)(6) of House rule XIII, the following hearing was used to develop or consider this measure: hearing by the Subcommittee on Subcommittee on Federal Lands held on June 22, 2023.

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS

Section 1. Short title

Section 2. Designation of National Museum of Play Recognition Act

- Congressionally recognizes the Margaret Woodbury Strong Museum in Rochester, New York as the “National Museum of Play.”
- Specifies that the Museum is not a unit of the National Park System and not eligible for federal funding.

COMMITTEE OVERSIGHT FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Regarding clause 2(b)(1) of rule X and clause 3(c)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Natural Resources’ oversight findings and recommendations are reflected in the body of this report.

COMPLIANCE WITH HOUSE RULE XIII AND CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET ACT

1. Cost of Legislation and the Congressional Budget Act. With respect to the requirements of clause 3(c)(2) and (3) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and sections 308(a) and 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee has received the following estimate for the bill from the Director of the Congressional Budget Office:

H.R. 3250, National Museum of Play Recognition Act
As ordered reported by the House Committee on Natural Resources on December 6, 2023
By Fiscal Year, Millions of Dollars	2024	2024-2028	2024-2033
Direct Spending (Outlays)	0	0	0
Revenues	0	0	0
Increase or Decrease (-) in the Deficit	0	0	0
Spending Subject to Appropriation (Outlays)	0	0	0
Increases net direct spending in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2034?	No	Statutory pay-as-you-go procedures apply?	No
Increases on-budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2034?	No	Mandate Effects
		Contains intergovernmental mandate?	No
		Contains private-sector mandate?	No

H.R. 3250 would designate the Margaret Woodbury Strong Museum in Rochester, New York, as the National Museum of Play. Under the bill the facility would not be a unit of the National Park System and federal funds could not be expended for the museum because of that designation. On that basis, CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 3250 would have no effect on the federal budget.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Alaina Rhee. The estimate was reviewed by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Director of Budget Analysis.

PHILLIP L. SWAGEL,
Director, Congressional Budget Office.
