

Broadcast Message: DHS Announces Special Student Relief Employment Benefits to Ukrainian and Sudanese Students Experiencing Severe Economic Hardship

To: All SEVIS Users

Date: April 18, 2022

Number: 2204 - 03

General Information

On April 18, 2022, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) posted Federal Register Notices announcing the suspension of certain regulatory requirements for F-1 nonimmigrant students from Ukraine and Sudan who are experiencing severe economic hardship as a result of emergent circumstances in their country of citizenship.

These notices temporarily suspend applicable on-campus and off-campus employment regulations for eligible Ukrainian and Sudanese students. DHS will continue to monitor the situation in Ukraine and Sudan and will announce any additional modifications or extensions to these notices in the Federal Register.

These notices apply exclusively to F-1 nonimmigrant students who meet all of the following conditions:

- Are citizens of Ukraine or Sudan regardless of country of birth (or individuals having no nationality who last habitually resided in Ukraine or Sudan);
- Are lawfully present in the United States in an F-1 nonimmigrant status on April 19, 2022;
- Are enrolled in a Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP)-certified school;
- Are currently maintaining F-1 nonimmigrant status; and
- Are experiencing severe economic hardship as a direct result of the ongoing armed conflict in Ukraine and current crisis in Sudan.

The suspension of these requirements will remain in effect until Oct. 19, 2023, for Ukrainian and Sudanese students.

Please refer to the Ukraine Federal Register Notice and Sudan Federal Register Notice for more information regarding:

- The specific Special Student Relief (SSR) action effective with these notices;
- Who is covered by these SSR actions;
- Why DHS took these SSR actions; and
- How to apply for employment authorization under these SSR actions.

For more information about SSR and when eligible students may apply, please view the What is Special Student Relief? infographic in the Study in the States Resource Library. If you have case-specific questions, please contact the SEVP Response Center at 703-603-3400 or 800-892-4829, Monday through Friday, from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. ET, except federal holidays.
