General Information

On Sept. 5, 2023, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) posted a Federal Register notice announcing the suspension of certain regulatory requirements for F-1 nonimmigrant students from South Sudan who are experiencing severe economic hardship as a result of the current armed conflict and humanitarian crisis. This notice extends Special Student Relief (SSR) for eligible South Sudanese students from Nov. 4, 2023, until May 3, 2025.

This notice temporarily suspends applicable on-campus and off-campus employment regulations for eligible South Sudanese students. DHS will continue to monitor the situation in South Sudan and will announce any additional modifications or extensions to this notice in the Federal Register.

This notice applies exclusively to F-1 nonimmigrant students who meet all of the following conditions:

- Are citizens of South Sudan regardless of country of birth (or individuals having no nationality who last habitually resided in South Sudan);
- Are lawfully present in the United States in an F-1 nonimmigrant status on the date of publication of this notice;
- Are enrolled in a Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP)-certified school;
- Are currently maintaining F-1 nonimmigrant status; and
- Are experiencing severe economic hardship as a direct result of the current armed conflict and humanitarian crisis.

The suspension of these requirements will remain in effect until May 3, 2025, for South Sudanese students.
