2022

IMPACT REPORT

As the price of food and other necessities increased, the Los Angeles Regional Food Bank and its partner agencies reached an average of 800,000 people monthly during 2022.

MORE THAN
320 MILLION

meals have been provided since the onset of the pandemic.

THE FOOD BANK IS A HIGHLY EFFICIENT ORGANIZATION AND MORE THAN

96% OF ALL

revenue went to programs in 2022.

In 2022

110 million pounds of food and product with a value of $200 million were acquired and distributed.

“ Despite a lower unemployment rate in LA County, the impact of inflation put significant pressure on the people and families we served in 2022 pushing many into a situation of needing food assistance. ”
