The Market-Leading Digital Accessibility Solution

Platform + services for sustainable digital accessibility

With 25 years of experience in digital accessibility, Level Access provides a tailored solution to help every organization meet every user's needs. Backed by the market's deepest bench of accessibility expertise, our platform and services align with our customers' unique objectives, from achieving single-site compliance to maturing an enterprise-wide program. No matter where your organization is on its accessibility journey, we'll empower you to make lasting progress toward digital inclusion.

Level Access was named a Leader in The Forrester Wave™: Digital Accessibility Platforms, Q4 2023 report, with the highest score in the "current offering" category of any provider evaluated by Forrester.

"Level Access is the only vendor in this evaluation to earn all superior or on par scores for its current offering. Its platform is particularly strong in policy configuration, embedded learning, program analytics, and usability."

–The Forrester Wave™: Digital Accessibility Platforms, Q4 2023
By Gina Bhawalkar with contributors Ian Jacobs, Rachel Birrell, Faith Born, and Shayna Neuburg

Our customers' reviews have established us as a Leader in G2's Spring 2024 rankings of digital accessibility solution providers. G2 also acknowledges our exceptional customer ratings with the "Users Love Us" badge.

A unified platform built for efficiency

The Level Access Platform serves as a centralized system of record for accessibility across an organization. Designed for ease of use, the platform allows both technical and non-technical stakeholders to intuitively track, manage, and report on accessibility progress over time.

"As a single source of truth for accessibility, the Level Access Platform has dramatically improved our program's efficiency."
