

Insolvency

A practical legal 'how to' guide

Looking for guidance on the steps for the sequestration and liquidation process? Need assistance on drafting the various applications?

Practical Guidance Insolvency provides users with updated, step-by-step guidance and practical aids that are needed to effectively deal with a collection matter.

Why Lexis® Practical Guidance: Insolvency?

Users are supported from the preliminary steps including the types of sequestration and liquidation, drafting the applications, and offences which a party may encounter.

Additional guidance is provided on the business rescue procedure and the drafting of a business rescue application and plan, as well as assisting in answering all business rescue related questions. Easily downloadable forms and customisable precedents are supplied with respective guidance notes, so that users know what to do, when to do it and how to do it.
