EXPERIENCE

North Carolina State University, NCSU Libraries. July 2002 - present
Senior Vice Provost & Director of Libraries. October 2017 – present.
Responsible for the leadership and administration of the NCSU Libraries, comprising two main libraries and three branches. Lead the Libraries in achieving its mission to enhance the research, teaching, and learning of NC State's faculty, staff, and students. Lead the continued growth of the NCSU Libraries as an exceptional environment for experiential learning, discovery, research, innovation, and entrepreneurship.

Selected Accomplishments:
- Lead the Libraries in a $15 million+ renovation of the D.H. Hill Library, including collaborative partnerships to provide space for multiple student success services, as well as data and visualization services for the entire campus community.
- Collaborate on a successful digital scholarship and visualization grant from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation and a data commons and technology grant from the Fidelity Foundation.
- Develop partnerships with the Office of Information Technology, Office of Research, and Colleges to provide services, workshops, and technologies that enhance the research enterprise and research productivity.
- Created a new department, Data & Visualization Services, to leverage emerging opportunities to enhance teaching, learning, and research.
- With the development team, lead the Libraries fundraising efforts, resulting in a second consecutive year with over $3 million raised, well above the Libraries' five-year average.
- Represent the Libraries on collaborative regional and national efforts including the HathiTrust, Triangle Research Libraries Network, and Association of Research Libraries.
- Through creative budget management and consistent strategic focus, collaborated with Associate Directors to enhance several of the Libraries learning, research, and technology spaces in the D.H. Hill Library and Hunt Library.

Associate Director for Collections & Scholarly Communication. November 2004 – October 2017. Provided leadership and comprehensive management for all aspects of the Libraries' collection management, special collections, and scholarly communication operations. Managed a division including 18 librarians and 15 technical and support staff with collections expenditures of over ten million dollars. Led programs to support and partner with faculty across the research enterprise. Administered the Friends of the Library annual giving programs, oversaw program planning and events, and participated in library fundraising strategy and activities. Served on the Libraries' senior administrative team.

Selected Accomplishments:

- Provided leadership for broad collection management and scholarly communication initiatives, including a $11 million+ collections budget.
- Led services for and collaborations with faculty across the research enterprise including emerging areas such as visualization, data curation, collaboration networks, and computational analysis.
- Led a comprehensive data analytics program to facilitate management of the collection, gain efficiency, and optimally align collections with user needs.
- Led the Libraries' participation in consortial collection building, particularly through the Triangle Research Libraries Network (TRLN), HathiTrust, and Center for Research Libraries.
- Oversaw the expansion of the Special Collections Research Center, including renovated staff and public spaces, improved processing and description efficiency, and growing digital collections and grant initiatives.
- Co-developed an alternative textbook program that has engaged faculty across the curriculum and saved students several hundred thousand dollars.
- Served on the leadership team to envision, plan, and implement the new James B. Hunt Jr. Library (www.lib.ncsu.edu/huntlibrary/) – a building that is helping to redefine research library spaces and partnerships in this century. Led major donor events in support of a $10 million fundraising campaign to build and endow new learning spaces.

Associate Head of Collection Management. July 2002 - October 2004. Helped oversee an eight million dollar collections budget and directly supervised budgetary expenditures in all areas of science, engineering, and technology. Provided leadership for a department of 9 librarians and 2 staff while directly supervising 3 librarians and 1 staff member. Maintained active relations with faculty and graduate students and shared responsibility for articulating the collection development vision of the Libraries through written and oral presentations.

Selected Accomplishments:
- Led development of the Libraries collections analytics program.
- Led a complete revision of the NCSU Libraries' approval plan.
- Negotiated electronic resource licenses for the NCSU Libraries and the Triangle Research Libraries Network consortium.
- Served as a lead representative in negotiating and analyzing bundled journal offerings from major commercial publishers, coordinating communication and outreach efforts to faculty, administrators, and students.

University of Kansas. Head of the Spahr Engineering Library. January 2001 – June 2002. Managed all operations of the Engineering Library and supervised 2 FTE support staff and 15 student assistants.

Georgia Institute of Technology. Head of Technical Resources & Information Consultant. 1998 – 2001. Provided leadership for a department of 2 librarians and 4 library assistants responsible for specialized information delivery in a large academic research community. Served as Information Consultant for computer science, electrical engineering, and industrial engineering.

University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Graduate Assistant, Grainger Engineering Library Information Center. 1996 – 1998.
