11TH LPU CONVOCATION

The 11th LPU Convocation was a momentous occasion held on February 25, 2024, bringing together distinguished guests, faculty, proud parents, and graduating students. It witnessed the participation of over 15,000 students, including more than 5,000 distance and online learners. Online learners who were unable to physically attend the event, seamlessly joined the ceremony virtually, demonstrating resilience and adaptability as they united with other participants across distances in celebrating their academic achievements. At the event, Hon Tony Abbott AC, Former Prime Minister of Australia, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest, delivering an impactful speech that emphasized the importance of education in shaping the future. During the ceremony, each graduate received their degree amidst a traditional procession, symbolising years of hard work and dedication. The event underscored LPU's commitment to academic excellence and the holistic development of its students, leaving a lasting impression on all who attended. Students and parents from various Indian states and countries like Canada, Australia, Bhutan, Nepal, and Sri Lanka also graced the occasion, making it a truly global celebration of academic excellence.

Honorary Doctorate Conferred: A Tribute to the Accomplishments and Vision of Former Australian Prime Minister Tony Abbott

Hon'ble Tony Abbott, a distinguished statesman, scholar, and leader, served as the 28th Prime Minister of Australia from 2013 to 2015. He recognized the enormous potential of India, consistently valuing the country and its cause, advocating for India's liberal democratic leadership on a global scale.

Currently, Abbott holds directorial roles at institutions like the Ramsay Centre for Western Civilisation and serves on the council of the Australian War Memorial. His expertise extends to international advisory positions, including the UK Board of Trade and various think tanks. Abbott's philanthropic spirit continues to shine through as a patron of charities like Soldier On, embodying his dedication to public service and community welfare.

LPU conferred its Honorary Doctorate Degree upon Mr. Abbott at the Convocation. In his address, Hon'ble Tony Abbott expressed his admiration for India as a remarkable country and urged the graduating students to take pride in their nation's potential to bring peace, prosperity, freedom, and development to the world. He encouraged the students to utilize the confidence and belief instilled within them through their degrees and medals to make a positive impact on society.

Their virtual presence added a vibrant touch to the ceremony, underscoring the reach of education at LPU.

Our Learners' Transformative Experiences with LPU Online shared during Convocation

Pooja Chauhan: Hello, my name is Pooja Chauhan. I have successfully completed my MCA through LPU Online. Back in 2014, I was an alumna of LPU, but after getting married in 2014, I had to pause my education. However, in 2020, I got to know about LPU Online and seized the opportunity to continue my studies. The experience has been truly remarkable and I am immensely grateful for it. From the depths of my heart, I extend my heartfelt thanks to LPU Online for making this possible.

Rachana Bajaj: Hello, I'm Rachna Bajaj, an MBA graduate from LPU Online, and I'm thrilled to be part of the very first batch of LPU Online. I've been wanting to further my education for a while, and when I found out about LPU Online, I knew it was the right choice for me. Managing my job and studies was a breeze because of the weekend classes and the flexibility to pick exam dates that suited me. Even if I missed classes, I could catch up with recorded lectures whenever I had time. I extend my sincere gratitude to my teachers, mentors, and classmates who backed me throughout these two years. My heartfelt appreciation goes out to LPU Online for providing me with this exceptional opportunity.

Harsha Gupta: Hello, my name is Harsha Gupta, and I'm a working mother. Teaching mathematics for the past 10 years has been my passion, but pursuing my post-graduation was quite challenging. I had previously dropped out from two universities. However, discovering LPU Online felt like a dream come true. The flexibility in date sheets and assignment deadlines provided me with a significant opportunity. I am deeply grateful to LPU Online for offering classes on weekends and recorded lectures. The support from the teachers was exceptional. They conducted extra classes and offered assistance through WhatsApp and live chat. I want to express my heartfelt thanks to LPU Online for this incredible opportunity and for bringing me to this momentous day of convocation.

Pranjal Pandey: Hi, my name is Pranjal Pandey, and I'm a proud graduate of LPU's Online MCA program. Upon my senior manager's recommendation, I explored LPU's online programs and found them to be just what I needed. My experience with LPU Online has been nothing short of excellent. The faculty and mentors were consistently supportive. The program also provided exposure to various industry-related Master classes led by CFOs and CXOs of leading companies. The post-admission call center was always available for any issues, enhancing the overall experience. On a personal note, I made good connections with fellow students during my time at LPU Online. Looking back, I can confidently say that choosing LPU was the right decision for me. Thank you, LPU, for this enriching experience.

Vishal: Hi, I'm Vishal, an engineer by profession and a working professional. After completing my graduation, I was on the lookout for options to pursue my master's degree while still continuing my job. That's when I discovered LPU and its online courses. Opting for LPU Online turned out to be a very decent experience for me. I highly recommend it to anyone who wants to pursue higher education without leaving their job.
