A 36-year veteran of the Minnesota Legislature, Arne Wanvick, 82, died Wednesday in a Duluth hospital.

Wanvick, a DFLer, was a state representative from Duluth for 30 years beginning in 1933. He gave up his House seat in 1964 to seek a seat in the Senate, which he held for six years.

Wanvick, a painting contractor, did not seek reelection in 1970.
