Dear Racers:

Welcome to the 2024 season at The Bullring at Las Vegas Motor Speedway. We are very excited to be back racing and ready for a new season.

Please fill out all of these forms ahead of time so we can get you processed as quick as possible. Please note: if you are not a member of the 2024 Bullring points season you will not receive end of the year Championship Series trophies or contingency programs throughout the year.

We encourage everyone to be diligent when filling out your forms and be complete making sure there are no blanks. Timing will be critical as we will have to process many drivers in a short period of time, please be patient.

This packet contains all of the information needed to start the season for each racer. Please complete the paperwork as instructed, and bring it with you on Saturday, February 10, to The Bullring Open Test and Sign-Up Day.

For more information regarding the upcoming 2024 Bullring season, racer forms, event updates and more, please join our Bullring Racers' private Facebook group. You will be asked to answer a series of membership questions prior to joining. The Facebook group can be found here: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/bullringracers>.

Bullring information can also be found at the LVMS website at: <https://lvms.com/tracks/bullring/>.

If you have any questions please contact TJ Clark at tclark@lvms.com.

Thank you!

TJ

Do not check LLC if the LLC is classified as a single-member LLC that is disregarded from the owner unless the owner of the LLC is another LLC that is not disregarded from the owner for U.S. federal tax purposes. Otherwise, a single-member LLC that is disregarded from the owner should check the appropriate box for the tax classification of its owner.
	5 Address (number, street, and apt. or suite no.) See instructions.		Requester's name and address (optional)
	6 City, state, and ZIP code		Las Vegas Motor Speedway 7000 Las Vegas Blvd, N Las Vegas, NV 89115
7 List account number(s) here (optional)		Phone Number: _____

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Social security number or
Employer identification number

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
