2021 Legislative Accountability Ratings by MCCL 2021 House Votes

House Vote 1
Abortion facility licensing

Floor: Procedural vote

In the 2021 session, MCCL supported a bill to require licensing of abortion facilities by the Minnesota Department of Health. Currently, such facilities do not have to be licensed, which potentially puts women at greater risk of injury, infection, lack of information about a facility, etc.

The House Health Committee, chaired by a pro-abortion legislator, chose to not allow a hearing or a vote on the bill, so MCCL worked with pro-life legislators to instead offer the measure as an amendment to another bill, H.F. 2128, the Health and Human Services Omnibus Finance Bill, when it was heard on the floor of the House on April 26, 2021. Rep. Peggy Scott (R-Maple Grove) offered the amendment

Rep. David Pinto (DFL-St. Paul) raised a point of order claiming that the amendment wasn't germane (related) to the subject of the Omnibus bill, which would mean the amendment couldn't be debated or voted on. The Speaker, Rep. Melissa Hortman (DFL-Brooklyn Park), ruled the amendment was not germane to the overall bill, even though Rep. Scott pointed out that the overall bill had more than 1,100 references to licensing of various businesses, including health industries.

The recourse when a legislator thinks his or her amendment has incorrectly been ruled not germane is to appeal the ruling of the chair, which Rep. Scott did. If the vote on her appeal succeeded, it would overrule the chair and allow the vote on the amendment to license abortion facilities to proceed. Thus, the vote on the procedural issue of whether the Speaker's ruling was correct was an important pro-life vote. Without such a vote, a Speaker could always kill pro-life amendments by simply ruling them not germane.

The vote was taken on Rep. Scott's motion to appeal the ruling of the Speaker. The vote to overturn the Speaker's ruling was defeated (a pro-life loss, because it meant the amendment to require licensing of abortion clinics would not get a vote) by a vote of 62-69.
