Dixie May Forrester went missing on June 11, 1971, when she was 31 years old. Initial reports cannot be located; however, family members who are still alive report that Dixie had dropped her six-year-old daughter with family members that day before driving to meet her ex-husband. Dixie's car was later found abandoned at the intersection of Missouri Ave. and Atlantic St. in Springfield near her ex-husband's home. The ex-husband was arrested in connection to her disappearance, but later released. He is now deceased.
