David Potts II was last seen at 2:30 a.m. on 10/29/06. He was involved in pursuit with the St. Ann Police Department and the Missouri State Highway Patrol when he crashed his vehicle on the Blanchette Bridge on I-70 in Florissant, MO. He then exited the vehicle, ran away from the officers and jumped over the bridge rail. It is unknown if he landed on the catwalk or fell into the Missouri River.

David was wearing a dark blue Carhartt jacket, black & white Vans shoes and blue jeans. He has a scar on his nose from a dog bite and the following tattoos: a Confederate flag and the words "rise again" at the base of his neck, Chinese characters on his left forearm, and a skull and crossbones with green eyes on the small of his back.

David has caps on his front teeth and his four wisdom teeth have been removed. He previously had a broken left femur and fractured his collarbone.

If anyone has information about David's whereabouts, please contact the St. Louis County Police Department at 636-526-8210.
