

Issue Date: 14 November 2007

CASE NO: 2007-SOX-00059

In the Matter of:

JANA D. CRAIG, Complainant,

v.

CLAYTON WILLIAMS ENERGY, INC.,
Respondent.

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

On November 13, 2007, I received from Complainant's Counsel a pleading captioned "Complainant's Withdrawal of Objection to Findings of the Secretary and Request for Hearing." Respondent's counsel has confirmed that he has no objection to the request. Applicable regulations permit a party's withdrawal of its objections to the Secretary's findings at any time before the findings become final. 29 C.F.R. § 1980.111(c). Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Complainant's request for withdrawal is GRANTED, and the case is DISMISSED with prejudice, each party to bear their own costs.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the formal hearing of this matter scheduled for November 26, 2007 in Houston, Texas is CANCELLED.

A

STEPHEN L. PURCELL
Associate Chief Judge

Washington, D.C.