ORDER RETURNING FILE

On March 31, 2009, I issued a Preliminary Order in this matter, notifying the parties that this matter had been assigned to me for hearing and decision. Upon receipt of the Secretary's Findings from the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, the docket section, as is the practice, docketed the case, and it was then assigned to me. However, it appears that although the Secretary's Findings were forwarded to the Office of Administrative Law Judges, no appeal has been filed by any party, and the time has passed for filing any appeal. Thus, there is no need for a hearing, or for the parties to respond to my March 31, 2009 Preliminary Order.

Accordingly, I am returning this file to the Occupational Safety and Health Administration for whatever disposition they deem appropriate.

SO ORDERED.
