intent to file a complaint in this matter with the appropriate United States District Court in Washington State on or after May 16, 2018.

If the Board has not issued a final decision within one year of the date on which the complainant filed an ERA complaint with the Department of Labor, and there is no showing that the complainant has acted in bad faith to delay the proceedings, the complainant may bring an action at law or equity for de novo review in the appropriate United States district court, which will have jurisdiction over the action without regard to the amount in controversy.<sup>2</sup>

Accordingly, as Boettcher intends to proceed de novo in district court, we DISMISS his ERA complaint filed with the Department of Labor.
