

In the Matter of:

BRENDA D. GUMM,

ARB CASE NO. 10-098

COMPLAINANT,

ALJ CASE NO. 2009-NTS-003

v.

DATE: July 7, 2010

PACE SUBURBAN BUS DIVISION of REGIONAL TRANSPORTATION
AUTHORITY, d/b/a/ PACE SOUTHWEST,

RESPONDENT.

BEFORE: THE ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW BOARD

FINAL ORDER OF CASE CLOSING

On April 26, 2010, a Department of Labor Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) issued a Decision and Order-Granting Dismissal of Complaint (D. & O.) in this case arising under the employee protection provisions of the National Transportation Systems Security Act (NTSSA).¹ The Department of Labor has not yet enacted regulations governing the procedures to be followed to obtain Administrative Review Board review of Decisions under the NTSSA.² Consequently, the ALJ referred the case to the Board for possible review.

² NTSSA section 1413(c) provides for the Secretary of Labor to issue final administrative decisions under this Act. The Secretary has in turn delegated her authority to make such final decisions to the Administrative Review Board. See Secretary's Order No. 1-2010 (Delegation of Authority and Assignment of Responsibility to the Administrative Review Board), 75 Fed. Reg. 3924 (Jan. 15, 2010).

In response, the Board issued an Order dated May 13, 2010, notifying the parties that if a party wished the Board to review the ALJ's D. & O., the party must file a petition for review with the Board no later than ten (10) business days from the date of the Order, requesting the Board to review the D. & O. The Order stated that the petition for review must specifically identify the findings, conclusions, or orders to which the party objected and that the Board will ordinarily consider any objection not specifically listed as waived by the party.

The Order cautioned the parties, "[i]f the Board does not receive any petitions for review within the ten (10) day period, the Board will issue an order closing the case, and the ALJ's D. & O. will become the Secretary of Labor's final order." The Board has not received any petitions for review in response to our May 13th Order. Accordingly, we CLOSE this case and the ALJ's April 26, 2010. D. & O. is the Secretary of Labor's final order.
