Office of Administrative Law Judges
Washington, DC

In the Matter of

KLECKER RANCH, INC.
SID KLECKER and JAN KLECKER

CASE NO. 82-TAE-8

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

May 28, 1982 the Regional Administrator, Employment and Training Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, issued a probable cause finding which denied certification extension requests for alien shepherders employed by Klecker Ranch, Inc., which was found in violation of 20 C.F.R. § 655.210. The employer then requested a formal hearing before the Office of the Administrative Law Judges,

September 1, 1982 an Order issued advising Klecker Ranch, Inc., it had twenty working days in which to submit legal arguments and supporting documentation. September 27, 1982 a letter was received from Richard E. Conour, attorney for Klecker Ranch, Inc., who stated no appearance would be made.

September 30, 1982 Mr. Conour was advised that unless a response was received from him within fifteen days it would be concluded the appeal is withdrawn. No response has been received. It is concluded the appeal is withdrawn. Hence, it is hereby

ORDERED that the appeal of Klecker Ranch, Inc., is withdrawn, and that appeal is dismissed with prejudice. It is further

ORDERED that the May 28, 1982 finding of the Regional Administrator becomes and is a final order in this matter. Administrative Law Judge
