

U.S. Department of Labor

Office of Administrative Law Judges
Washington, DC

In the Matter of

JOSE RIESCO-FERNANDEZ, Plaintiff,

v.

CASE NO. 86-TAE-3

WESTERN RANGE ASSOCIATION, FINE SHEEP COMPANY, and
VAUGHN STRINGER, Respondents.

ORDER

Considering the fact that Western Range Association was the sole party to lodge an appeal and the complaint was thereafter dismissed against Western Range, no hearing herein is now required.

The United States Department of Labor's decision was binding as against Fine Sheep Company and Vaughn Stringer upon their subsequent decisions not to appeal said rulings.

The hearing in this matter heretofore set for July 17, 1987, in Ontario, Oregon, is hereby,

JAMES. J. BUTLER
Administrative Law Judge
