

CHAIRMAN'S
COUNCIL

About the OAC

The Obesity Action Coalition (OAC) is an independent National non-profit education and advocacy organization, dedicated to giving a voice to those affected by obesity. The OAC was formed to build a national coalition of individuals affected to become active advocates and spread the message of the need for obesity advocacy and education.

The OAC offers a wide variety of FREE educational resources on obesity and childhood obesity, in addition to consequences and treatments of these conditions. In addition, the OAC conducts a variety of advocacy efforts throughout the U.S. and encourages individuals to become proactive advocates.

About the Chairman's Council

The OAC is a membership organization. The Chairman's Council is the highest and most prestigious membership level of the OAC. The Chairman's Council is a great way for individuals, companies and/or organizations to make a significant contribution to impacting the obesity epidemic. Your membership demonstrates to individuals, the public and fellow members of the obesity community that you have made a strong commitment toward improving the lives of those affected by obesity.

In addition, being a part of the OAC Chairman's Council offers a variety of valuable member benefits. Most importantly, your membership in the Council strengthens the voice in obesity.
